

To the Shareholders of Huntington Bancshares Incorporated and TCF Financial Corporation

MERGER PROPOSED—YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

On behalf of the boards of directors of Huntington Bancshares Incorporated (“Huntington”) and TCF Financial Corporation (“TCF”), we are pleased to enclose this joint proxy statement/prospectus relating to the proposed merger between Huntington and TCF. We are requesting that you take certain actions as a holder of Huntington common stock or a holder of TCF common stock.

The boards of directors of Huntington and TCF (the “Huntington board of directors” and the “TCF board of directors,” respectively) have each unanimously approved an agreement to merge our two companies. Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 13, 2020, by and between Huntington and TCF (as amended from time to time, the “merger agreement”), TCF will merge with and into Huntington (the “merger”), with Huntington as the surviving corporation (the “surviving corporation,” the “combined company,” or “Huntington,” as the case may be).

The proposed merger will bring together two purpose-driven organizations with a deep commitment to the customers and communities they serve. With a history of caring for customers and colleagues, the new organization will have a top 5 rank in approximately 70% of its deposit markets in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, Wisconsin, West Virginia, Denver and Pittsburgh (excluding all deposits above $0.5 billion at any branch), and will leverage its scale to serve customer needs through a distinctive, “People-First, Digitally-Powered” customer experience. The combined company, as of September 30, 2020, would have had approximately $168 billion in assets, $117 billion in loans, and $134 billion in deposits. We believe that the merger will provide the opportunity for deeper investments in our communities and a better experience for our customers. We anticipate that the combined company will be a top regional bank, with the scale to compete and the passion to serve. We believe that the merger will be a great benefit to all of our stakeholders and will drive significant opportunities for our team members.

In the merger, holders of TCF common stock will receive 3,0028 shares (the “exchange ratio” and such shares, the “merger consideration”) of Huntington common stock for each share of TCF common stock they own. Holders of Huntington common stock will continue to own their existing shares of Huntington common stock. Based on the closing price of Huntington common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market (the “NASDAQ”) on December 11, 2020, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, the exchange ratio represented approximately $38.83 in value for each share of TCF common stock. Based on the closing price of Huntington common stock on the NASDAQ on February 11, 2021, the last practicable trading day before the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, of $14.31, the exchange ratio represented approximately $42.97 in value for each share of TCF common stock. The value of the Huntington common stock at the time of completion of the merger could be greater than, less than or the same as the value of Huntington common stock on the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to obtain current market quotations of Huntington common stock (trading symbol “HBAN”) and TCF common stock (trading symbol “TCF”).

In addition, each share of TCF series C preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive one (1) share of a newly issued series of Huntington preferred stock having the terms set forth in the merger agreement (“new Huntington preferred stock”). Likewise, following the completion of the merger, each outstanding TCF depositary share representing a 1/1000th interest in a share of TCF series C preferred stock will become a Huntington depositary share representing a 1/1000th interest in a share of new Huntington preferred stock. The TCF depositary shares representing a 1/1000th interest in a share of TCF series C preferred stock are currently listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol “TCFCP.” The new Huntington depositary shares representing a 1/1000th interest in a share of new Huntington preferred stock are expected to be listed on the NASDAQ upon completion of the merger.

The merger is intended to qualify as a “reorganization” for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, U.S. holders (as defined in “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger”) of TCF common stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of TCF common stock for Huntington common stock in the merger, except with respect to any cash received instead of fractional shares of common stock of the combined company. For more information regarding the tax consequences of the merger, see the section entitled “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.”

Based on the number of shares of TCF common stock outstanding as of February 11, 2021, Huntington expects to issue approximately 458 million shares of Huntington common stock to holders of TCF common stock in the aggregate in the merger. Based on the number of shares of TCF common stock outstanding as of February 11, 2021 and the number of shares of Huntington common stock outstanding as of February 11, 2021, we estimate that, following the completion of the merger, former holders of TCF common stock will own approximately thirty-one percent (31%) of the combined company and former holders of Huntington common stock will own approximately sixty-nine percent (69%) of the combined company.

The special meeting of holders of TCF common stock will be held virtually on March 25, 2021 at www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/TCF2021SGM, at 3:30 p.m., Eastern Time. The special meeting of holders of Huntington common stock will be held virtually on March 25, 2021 at www.meetingcenter.io/207906613, at 3:30 p.m., Eastern Time. At our respective special meetings, in addition to other business, we will each ask our holders of common stock to approve the merger. Information about these meetings and the merger is contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. In particular, see “Risk Factors” beginning on page 42. We urge you to read this joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in its entirety.

Holders of TCF series C preferred stock and holders of depositary shares representing TCF series C preferred stock are not entitled to, and are not requested to, vote at the TCF special meeting. Holders of Huntington preferred stock and holders of depositary shares representing Huntington preferred stock are not entitled to, and are not requested to, vote at the Huntington special meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend your company’s respective virtual special meeting, please vote as soon as possible to make sure that your shares are represented at the meeting. If your shares are held in the name of a broker, bank, trustee or other nominee, please follow the instructions provided to you by such record holder. If you do not vote, it will have the same effect as voting “AGAINST” the merger.

Each of our boards of directors unanimously recommends that holders of common stock vote “FOR” each of the proposals to be considered at the respective meetings. We strongly support this combination of our companies and join our boards in their recommendations.

Q: Why am I receiving this joint proxy statement/prospectus?

A: You are receiving this joint proxy statement/prospectus because Huntington and TCF have agreed to a merger of TCF with and into Huntington (the “merger”), with Huntington as the surviving corporation (the “surviving corporation,” the “combined company,” or “Huntington,” as the case may be). A copy of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 13, 2020, by and between Huntington and TCF (as amended from time to time, the “merger agreement”) is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein. Following the completion of the merger, TCF National Bank, a wholly owned bank subsidiary of TCF (“TCF National Bank”), will merge (the “bank merger”) with and into The Huntington National Bank, a wholly owned bank subsidiary of Huntington (“The Huntington National Bank”), with The Huntington National Bank as the surviving bank (the “combined bank”).

To complete the merger, among other things:

- holders of Huntington common stock must approve the merger (the “Huntington merger proposal”); and

- holders of TCF common stock must approve the merger agreement (the “TCF merger proposal”).

Huntington is holding a virtual special meeting of holders of Huntington common stock (the “Huntington special meeting”), to obtain approval of the Huntington merger proposal. Holders of Huntington common stock will also be asked (1) to approve an amendment to Huntington’s charter to increase the number of authorized shares of Huntington common stock from one billion five hundred million shares to two billion two hundred fifty million shares (such amendment, the “Huntington charter amendment” and such proposal, the “Huntington authorized share count proposal”) and (2) to approve the proposal to adjourn the Huntington special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if, immediately prior to such adjournment, there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Huntington special meeting to approve the Huntington merger proposal or the Huntington authorized share count proposal or to ensure that any supplement or amendment to this joint proxy statement/prospectus is timely provided to holders of Huntington common stock (the “Huntington adjournment proposal”). A copy of the Huntington charter amendment is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein.

Holders of Huntington common stock and holders of Huntington preferred stock are not entitled to appraisal or dissenters’ rights.

TCF is holding a virtual special meeting of holders of TCF common stock (the “TCF special meeting”) to obtain approval of the TCF merger proposal. Holders of TCF common stock will also be asked (1) to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the merger-related named executive officer compensation that will or may be paid to TCF’s named executive officers in connection with the merger (the “TCF compensation proposal”) and (2) to approve the proposal to adjourn the TCF special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if, immediately prior to such adjournment, there are not sufficient votes at the time of the TCF special meeting to approve the TCF merger proposal or to ensure that any supplement or amendment to this joint proxy statement/prospectus is timely provided to holders of TCF common stock (the “TCF adjournment proposal”).

Holders of TCF series C preferred stock are not entitled to, and are not requested to, vote at the TCF special meeting. Holders of TCF common stock and holders of TCF series C preferred stock are not entitled to appraisal or dissenters’ rights.

This document is also a prospectus that is being delivered to holders of TCF common stock because, in connection with the merger, Huntington is offering shares of Huntington common stock to holders of TCF common stock. Huntington is also issuing shares of new Huntington preferred stock to holders of TCF series C preferred stock. Each share of TCF series C preferred stock will be automatically converted into the right to receive one (1) share of new Huntington preferred stock at the effective time of the merger. Following the completion of the merger, each outstanding TCF depositary share will be automatically converted into a Huntington depositary share.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger and the other proposals being voted on at the Huntington and TCF special meetings. You should read it carefully and in its entirety. The enclosed materials allow you to have your shares of common stock voted by proxy without attending your meeting. Your vote is important and we encourage you to submit your proxy as soon as possible.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

- A: In the merger, TCF will merge with and into Huntington. Each share of TCF common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (the “effective time”) (other than certain shares held by Huntington or TCF) will be converted into the right to receive 3.0028 shares (the “exchange ratio” and such shares, the “merger consideration”) of Huntington common stock. After completion of the merger, TCF will cease to exist, will no longer be a public company, and TCF common stock and TCF depositary shares in respect of TCF series C preferred stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq Global Select Market (the “NASDAQ”), will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and will cease to be publicly traded. Even if you plan to attend your respective company’s virtual special meeting, Huntington and TCF recommend that you vote your shares in advance so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to or become unable to attend the applicable special meeting. See “How can I vote my shares without attending my respective virtual special meeting?” below. If you hold your shares of Huntington common stock in “street name” and want to attend the Huntington special meeting online by webcast (with the ability to ask a question and/or vote, if you choose to do so), you must first register by obtaining a signed legal proxy from your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee giving you the right to vote the shares and submitting proof of such legal proxy along with your name and email address to legalproxy@computershare.com or Computershare, Huntington Legal Proxy, P.O. Box 43001, Providence, RI 02940-3001, no later than March 22, 2021 at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time. If you hold your shares of TCF common stock in “street name” and want to attend the TCF special meeting virtually via the TCF special meeting website (with the ability to ask a question and/or vote, if you choose to do so), you must have your specific 16-digit control number, which is included on your proxy card or the voting instruction form from your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee. - Huntington Proposal 3: The Huntington adjournment proposal. Approval of the adjournment of the Huntington special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if, immediately prior to such adjournment, there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Huntington special meeting to approve the Huntington merger proposal or the Huntington authorized share count proposal or to ensure that any supplement or amendment to this joint proxy statement/prospectus is timely provided to holders of Huntington common stock.

Pursuant to the MGCL and Huntington's bylaws, only the matters set forth in the Notice of Virtual Special Meeting of Shareholders may be brought before the Huntington special meeting.

At the TCF special meeting, holders of TCF common stock will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

- TCF Proposal 1: The TCF merger proposal. Approval of the merger agreement;
- TCF Proposal 2: The TCF compensation proposal. Approval of, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the merger-related named executive officer compensation that will or may be paid to TCF’s named executive officers in connection with the merger; and
- TCF Proposal 3: The TCF adjournment proposal. Approval of the adjournment of the TCF special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if, immediately prior to such adjournment, there are not sufficient votes at the time of the TCF special meeting to approve the TCF merger proposal or to ensure that any supplement or amendment to this joint proxy statement/prospectus is timely provided to holders of TCF common stock.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In order to complete the merger, among other things, holders of Huntington common stock must approve the Huntington merger proposal and the Huntington authorized share count proposal, and holders of TCF common stock must approve the TCF merger proposal. None of the approvals of the Huntington adjournment proposal, the TCF compensation proposal or the TCF adjournment proposal are conditions to the obligations of Huntington or TCF to complete the merger.

Q: What will holders of TCF common stock receive in the merger?

A: In the merger, holders of TCF common stock will receive 3.0028 shares of Huntington common stock for each share of TCF common stock held immediately prior to the completion of the merger (other than certain shares held by Huntington or TCF). Huntington will not issue any fractional shares of Huntington common stock in the merger. Holders of TCF common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Huntington common stock in the merger will instead receive an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying the average of the closing sale prices per share of Huntington common stock on the NASDAQ as reported by The Wall Street Journal for the five (5) consecutive full trading days ending on the day preceding the day on which the merger is completed (the "Huntington share closing price") by the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Huntington common stock that such shareholder would otherwise be entitled to receive.

Q: What will holders of TCF depositary shares receive in the merger?

A: In the merger, each outstanding TCF depositary share representing a 1/1000th interest in a share of TCF series C preferred stock will become a Huntington depositary share representing a 1/1000th interest in a share of new Huntington preferred stock. Upon completion of the merger, Huntington will assume the obligations of TCF under the applicable deposit agreement. The TCF depositary shares representing TCF series C preferred stock are currently listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol "TCFCP." The new Huntington depositary shares representing the new Huntington preferred stock are expected to be listed on the NASDAQ upon completion of the merger. See the information provided in the section entitled "Description of New Huntington Preferred Stock" beginning on page 151 for more information.

Q: What will holders of Huntington common stock receive in the merger?

A: In the merger, holders of Huntington common stock will not receive any consideration, and their shares of Huntington common stock will remain outstanding and will constitute shares of the combined company. Following the merger, shares of Huntington common stock will continue to be listed on the NASDAQ.

Q: Will the value of the merger consideration change between the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the time the merger is completed?

A: Yes. Although the number of shares of Huntington common stock that holders of TCF common stock will receive is fixed, the value of the merger consideration will fluctuate between the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the completion of the merger based upon the market value for Huntington common stock. Any fluctuation in the market price of Huntington common stock after the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus will change the value of the shares of Huntington common stock that holders of TCF common stock will receive. Neither Huntington nor TCF is permitted to terminate the merger agreement as a result, in and of itself, of any increase or decrease in the market price of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock.

Q: How will the merger affect TCF equity awards?

A: At the effective time:

- each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase TCF common stock under TCF's stock plans (each, a "TCF stock option") will, automatically, be assumed and converted into an option (an "adjusted stock option") to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF stock option immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms), the number of shares of Huntington common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of Huntington common stock) equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of TCF common stock subject to such TCF stock option immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (b) the exchange ratio, which adjusted stock option will have an exercise price per share of Huntington common stock equal to the quotient (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) obtained by dividing (1) the exercise price per share of TCF common stock subject to such TCF stock option immediately prior to the effective time, by (2) the exchange ratio;

- each award in respect of a share of TCF common stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction granted under a TCF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (a “TCF restricted stock award”) will (a) if granted to a non-employee member of the TCF board of directors, fully vest and be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive (without interest) the merger consideration in respect of each share of TCF common stock subject to such TCF restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time, which will be delivered as soon as reasonably practicable following the closing date of the merger and in no event later than ten (10) business days following the closing date of the merger (or on such later date if required to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”)) and (b) if not granted to an individual described in clause (a), be assumed and converted into a restricted stock award of shares of Huntington common stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms), and relating to the number of shares of Huntington common stock equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of TCF common stock subject to such TCF restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (B) the exchange ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole share of Huntington common stock;
- each restricted stock unit award in respect of shares of TCF common stock granted under a TCF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a “TCF restricted stock unit award”) will be assumed and converted into a restricted stock unit award (with any performance goals deemed satisfied at the greater of the target and actual level of performance through the most recently completed calendar quarter prior to the closing of the merger as reasonably determined by the compensation committee of the TCF board of directors in the ordinary course consistent with past practice) in respect of Huntington common stock (an “adjusted restricted stock unit award”) with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms) and relating to the number of shares of Huntington common stock equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of TCF common stock subject to such TCF restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (b) the exchange ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole share of Huntington common stock; provided that each such adjusted restricted stock unit award will be subject to service-based vesting only and will no longer be subject to any performance conditions;
- each award in respect of a deferred share of TCF common stock granted under a TCF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (a “TCF deferred stock award”) will be assumed and converted automatically into a deferred stock award of shares of Huntington common stock subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF deferred stock award immediately prior to the effective time, and relating to the number of shares of Huntington common stock equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of TCF common stock subject to such TCF deferred stock award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (b) the exchange ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole share of Huntington common stock; and
- each TCF restricted stock award converted into the right to receive the merger consideration that would have otherwise been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Huntington common stock (after aggregating all shares to be delivered in respect of all TCF equity awards held by such holder) will receive, in lieu thereof and upon surrender thereof, a cash payment (rounded to the nearest cent) (without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Huntington common stock (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) multiplied by the Huntington share closing price.

In the merger, each share of TCF series C preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will automatically be converted at the effective time into the right to receive one (1) share of new Huntington preferred stock. In the merger, each outstanding TCF depositary share representing a 1/1000th interest in a share of TCF series C preferred stock will become a Huntington depositary share representing a 1/1000th interest in a share of new Huntington preferred stock, which will have the terms of the new Huntington preferred stock.

In considering the recommendations of the TCF board of directors, holders of TCF common stock should be aware that TCF directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of holders of TCF common stock generally. For a more complete description of these interests, see the information provided in the section entitled “The Merger—Interests of TCF’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” beginning on page 99.

Q: If my shares of common stock are held in “street name” by my bank, broker, trustee or other nominee, will my bank, broker, trustee or other nominee vote my shares for me?

A: If you hold your shares in a stock brokerage account or if your shares are held by a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee (that is, in “street name”), please follow the voting instructions provided by your broker, bank, trustee or other nominee. If your shares of Huntington common stock are held in street name, you must register by submitting proof of such legal proxy along with your name and email address to legalproxy@computershare.com or Computershare, Huntington Legal Proxy, P.O. Box 43001, Providence, RI 02940-3001, no later than March 22, 2021 at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, to vote at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting. If your shares of TCF common stock are held in street name, please instruct your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee on how to vote your shares using the voting instructions furnished by your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee as soon as possible. Further, brokers who hold shares of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock may not give a proxy to Huntington or TCF to vote those shares on any of the Huntington proposals or any of the TCF proposals without specific instructions from their customers.

Q: What vote is required for the approval of each proposal at the Huntington special meeting?

A: Huntington Proposal 1: Huntington merger proposal. Approval of the Huntington merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast on the merger by the holders of outstanding Huntington common stock. Shares of Huntington common stock not present virtually or by proxy, and shares present virtually or by proxy and not voted, whether by broker non-vote, abstention or otherwise, will have the same effect as votes cast “AGAINST” the Huntington merger proposal.

Huntington Proposal 2: Huntington authorized share count proposal. Approval of the Huntington charter amendment to increase the number of authorized shares of Huntington common stock requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast on the Huntington charter amendment by the holders of outstanding Huntington common stock (together with the vote required for the approval of the Huntington merger proposal, the “requisite Huntington vote”). Shares of Huntington common stock not present virtually or by proxy, and shares present virtually or by proxy and not voted, whether by broker non-vote, abstention or otherwise, will have the same effect as votes cast “AGAINST” the Huntington authorized share count proposal.

Huntington Proposal 3: Huntington adjournment proposal. Approval of the Huntington adjournment proposal requires the vote of a majority of the votes cast on the Huntington adjournment proposal by the holders of Huntington common stock entitled to vote. Accordingly, an abstention or a broker non-vote or other failure to vote or be present virtually or by proxy will have no effect on the outcome of the Huntington adjournment proposal.

Q: What vote is required for the approval of each proposal at the TCF special meeting?

A: TCF Proposal 1: TCF merger proposal. Approval of the TCF merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of TCF common stock entitled to vote on the merger agreement (the “requisite TCF vote”). Shares of TCF common stock not present virtually or by proxy, and shares present virtually or by proxy and not voted, whether by broker non-vote, abstention or otherwise, will have the same effect as votes cast “AGAINST” the TCF merger proposal.

TCF Proposal 2: TCF compensation proposal. Approval of the TCF compensation proposal requires the majority of the votes cast by the holders of TCF common stock entitled to vote. Accordingly, an abstention or a broker non-vote or other failure to vote or be present virtually or by proxy will have no effect on the outcome of the TCF compensation proposal.

TCF Proposal 3: TCF adjournment proposal. Approval of the TCF adjournment proposal requires the majority of the votes cast by the holders of TCF common stock entitled to vote. Accordingly, an abstention or a broker non-vote or other failure to vote or be present virtually or by proxy will have no effect on the outcome of the TCF adjournment proposal.

Q: Why am I being asked to consider and vote on the TCF compensation proposal?

A: Under Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) rules, TCF is required to seek a non-binding, advisory vote with respect to the compensation that may be paid or become payable to TCF’s named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger, or “golden parachute” compensation.

Q: What happens if holders of TCF common stock do not approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, the TCF compensation proposal?

A: The vote on the proposal to approve the merger-related compensation arrangements for each of TCF’s named executive officers is separate and apart from the votes to approve the other proposals being presented at the TCF special meeting. Because the vote on the proposal to approve the merger-related executive compensation is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding upon TCF, Huntington, or the combined company in the merger. Accordingly, the merger-related compensation will be paid to TCF’s named executive officers to the extent payable in accordance with the terms of their compensation agreements and arrangements, even if the holders of TCF common stock do not approve the proposal to approve the merger-related executive compensation.

Q: What if I hold shares in both Huntington and TCF?

A: If you hold shares of both Huntington common stock and TCF common stock, you will receive separate packages of proxy materials for each. A vote cast as a holder of Huntington common stock will not count as a vote cast as a holder of TCF common stock, and a vote cast as a holder of TCF common stock will not count as a vote cast as a holder of Huntington common stock. Therefore, please submit separate proxies for your shares of Huntington common stock and your shares of TCF common stock.

Q: How can I vote my shares while in attendance at my respective virtual special meeting?

A: Record Holders. Shares held directly in your name as the holder of record of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock may be voted at the Huntington special meeting or the TCF special meeting, as applicable. If you choose to vote your shares virtually at the respective special meeting via the applicable special meeting website, please follow the instructions on your proxy card.

Shares in “street name.” If your shares of Huntington common stock are held in street name, you must register by submitting proof of such legal proxy along with your name and email address to legalproxy@computershare.com or Computershare, Huntington Legal Proxy, P.O. Box 43001, Providence, RI 02940-3001, no later than March 22, 2021 at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, to vote at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website. If your shares of TCF common stock are held in street name and you wish to vote your shares at the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website, you must have your specific 16-digit control number, which is included on your proxy card or the voting instruction form from your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee. Please contact your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee to obtain further instructions.

Even if you plan to attend the Huntington special meeting or the TCF special meeting virtually, as applicable, Huntington and TCF recommend that you vote your shares in advance so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to or become unable to attend the applicable special meeting. See “How can I vote my share without attending my respective virtual special meeting?” below.

Q: How can I vote my shares without attending my respective virtual special meeting?

A: Whether you hold your shares directly as the holder of record of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock or beneficially in “street name,” you may direct your vote by proxy without virtually attending the Huntington special meeting or the TCF special meeting, as applicable.

If you are a record holder of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock, you can vote by proxy over the Internet, by telephone or by mail by following the instructions provided in the enclosed proxy card. Please note that if you hold shares beneficially in “street name,” you should follow the voting instructions provided by your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee.

If you intend to submit your proxy by telephone or via the Internet, you must do so by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the day before your respective company’s special meeting. If you intend to submit your proxy by mail, your completed proxy card must be received prior to your respective company’s special meeting.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, please vote as soon as possible. If you hold shares of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock, please respond by completing, signing and dating the accompanying proxy card and returning it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope, or by submitting your proxy by telephone or through the Internet, as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at your meeting. Please note that if you hold shares beneficially in “street name,” you should follow the voting instructions provided by your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: If you do not vote, it will be more difficult for Huntington or TCF to obtain the necessary quorum to hold its special meeting. In addition, your failure to submit a proxy or vote at the applicable virtual special meeting, or failure to instruct your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee how to vote, will have the same effect as a vote “AGAINST” the Huntington merger proposal, the TCF merger proposal and the Huntington authorized share count proposal, as applicable, and an abstention will have the same effect as a vote “AGAINST” the Huntington merger proposal, the TCF merger proposal and the Huntington authorized share count proposal, as applicable.

The merger must be approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast on the merger by the holders of outstanding Huntington common stock and the merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of TCF common stock entitled to vote on the merger agreement. The Huntington authorized share count proposal must be approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast on the Huntington charter amendment by the holders of outstanding Huntington common stock. The Huntington board of directors and the TCF board of directors unanimously recommend that you vote “FOR” the Huntington merger proposal and the TCF merger proposal, respectively, and “FOR” the other proposals to be considered at the Huntington special meeting and the TCF special meeting, respectively, including the Huntington authorized share count proposal.

Q: Can I revoke my proxy or change my vote?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at your meeting. You can do this by:

- submitting a written statement that you would like to revoke your proxy to the corporate secretary of Huntington or TCF, as applicable;
- signing and returning a proxy card with a later date;
- attending virtually and voting at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website or attending virtually and voting at the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website, as applicable; or

Q: Will Huntington be required to submit the Huntington merger proposal and the Huntington authorized share count proposal to its shareholders even if the Huntington board of directors has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation?

A: Yes. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the Huntington special meeting, Huntington is required to submit the Huntington merger proposal and the Huntington authorized share count proposal to its shareholders even if the Huntington board of directors has withdrawn or modified the Huntington board recommendation (as defined in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement—Shareholder Meetings and Recommendation of Huntington’s and TCF’s Boards of Directors”).

Q: Will TCF be required to submit the TCF merger proposal to its shareholders even if the TCF board of directors has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation?

A: Yes. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the TCF special meeting, TCF is required to submit the TCF merger proposal to its shareholders even if the TCF board of directors has withdrawn or modified the TCF board recommendation (as defined in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement—Shareholder Meetings and Recommendation of Huntington’s and TCF’s Boards of Directors”).

Q: Are holders of Huntington common stock entitled to appraisal or dissenters’ rights?

A: No. Holders of Huntington common stock are not entitled to appraisal or dissenters’ rights under the MGCL.

For more information, see the section entitled “The Merger—Appraisal or Dissenters’ Rights in the Merger” beginning on page 112.

Q: Are holders of TCF common stock entitled to appraisal or dissenters’ rights?

A: No. Holders of TCF common stock are not entitled to appraisal or dissenters’ rights under the Michigan Business Corporation Act (the “MBCA”).

For more information, see the section entitled “The Merger—Appraisal or Dissenters’ Rights in the Merger” beginning on page 112.

Q: Are there any risks that I should consider in deciding whether to vote for the approval of the Huntington merger proposal, the approval of the Huntington authorized share count proposal or the approval of the TCF merger proposal, or the other proposals to be considered at the Huntington special meeting and the TCF special meeting, respectively?

A: Yes. You should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth in the section entitled “Risk Factors” beginning on page 42. You also should read and carefully consider the risk factors of Huntington and TCF contained in the documents that are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of TCF common stock?

A: The merger is intended to qualify as a “reorganization” for federal income tax purposes, and it is a condition to our respective obligations to complete the merger that Huntington and TCF each receive a legal opinion to the effect that the merger will so qualify. Accordingly, holders of TCF common stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of their TCF common stock for Huntington common stock in the merger, except for any gain or loss that may result from the receipt of cash instead of a fractional share of Huntington common stock. You should be aware that the tax consequences to you of the merger may depend upon your own situation. In addition, you may be subject to state, local or foreign tax laws that are not discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You should therefore consult with your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the merger. For a more complete discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see the section entitled “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning on page 134.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed?

A: Huntington and TCF expect the merger to close in the second quarter of 2021. However, neither Huntington nor TCF can predict the actual date on which the merger will be completed, or if the merger will be completed at all, because completion is subject to conditions and factors outside the control of both companies. Huntington and TCF must first obtain the approval of holders of Huntington common stock and holders of TCF common stock for the merger, as well as obtain necessary regulatory approvals and satisfy certain other closing conditions.

Q: What are the conditions to completion of the merger?

A: The obligations of Huntington and TCF to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain closing conditions contained in the merger agreement, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and the expiration of statutory waiting periods without the imposition of any materially burdensome regulatory condition (as defined in “The Merger—Regulatory Approvals”), tax opinions, approval by holders of Huntington common stock of the Huntington merger proposal and the Huntington authorized share count proposal and approval by holders of TCF common stock of the TCF merger proposal. For more information, see the section entitled “The Merger Agreement—Conditions to Completion of the Merger” beginning on page 129.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger is not completed, holders of TCF common stock will not receive any consideration for their shares of TCF common stock in connection with the merger. Instead, TCF will remain an independent public company, TCF common stock and TCF depository shares will continue to be listed on the NASDAQ, and Huntington will not complete the issuance of shares of Huntington common stock and new Huntington preferred stock pursuant to the merger agreement. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, a termination fee of $238.8 million may be payable by either Huntington or TCF to the other party, as applicable. See the section entitled “The Merger Agreement—Termination Fee” beginning on page 131 for a more detailed discussion of the circumstances under which a termination fee will be required to be paid.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy. After the merger is completed, an exchange agent designated by Huntington and reasonably acceptable to TCF (the “exchange agent”) will send you instructions for exchanging TCF stock certificates for the consideration to be received in the merger. See the section entitled “The Merger Agreement—Conversion of Shares; Exchange of TCF Stock Certificates” beginning on page 117.

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials for the same special meeting?

A: If you hold shares of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock in “street name” and also directly in your name as a holder of record or otherwise or if you hold shares of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock in more than one (1) brokerage account, you may receive more than one (1) set of voting materials relating to the same special meeting.

Record Holders. For shares held directly, please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card (or cast your vote by telephone or Internet as provided on each proxy card) or otherwise follow the voting instructions provided in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in order to ensure that all of your shares of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock are voted.

Shares in “street name.” For shares held in “street name” through a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee, you should follow the procedures provided by your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee to vote your shares.

A: If you encounter any difficulties accessing the Huntington special meeting, please click on the “Additional Information” button on the Huntington special meeting website. The Merger and the Merger Agreement (pages 65 and 114)

The terms and conditions of the merger are contained in the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You are encouraged to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the primary legal document that governs the merger.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, at the completion of the merger, TCF will merge with and into Huntington, with Huntington as the surviving corporation. Following the completion of the merger, TCF National Bank, a wholly owned bank subsidiary of TCF, will merge with and into The Huntington National Bank, a wholly owned bank subsidiary of Huntington, with The Huntington National Bank as the surviving bank. Following the merger, TCF common stock and TCF depository shares representing a 1/1000th ownership interest in a share of the TCF series C preferred stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ and deregistered under the Exchange Act and will cease to be publicly traded.

Merger Consideration (page 115)

In the merger, holders of TCF common stock will receive 3.0028 shares of Huntington common stock for each share of TCF common stock they hold immediately prior to the effective time. Huntington will not issue any fractional shares of Huntington common stock in the merger. Holders of Huntington common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of a share of Huntington common stock in the merger will instead receive, for the fraction of a share, an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) based on the Huntington share closing price.

Huntington common stock is listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol “HBAN,” and TCF common stock is listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol “TCF.” The following table shows the closing sale prices of Huntington common stock and TCF common stock as reported on the NASDAQ on December 11, 2020, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the merger agreement, and on February 11, 2021, the last practicable trading day before the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This table also shows the implied value of the merger consideration to be issued in exchange for each share of TCF common stock, which was calculated by multiplying the closing price of Huntington common stock on those dates by the exchange ratio of 3.0028.

	Huntington Common Stock	TCF Common Stock	Implied Value of One Share of TCF Common Stock
December 11, 2020	$12.93	$34.78	$38.83
February 11, 2021	$14.31	$42.00	$42.97

For more information on the exchange ratio, see the section entitled “The Merger—Terms of the Merger” beginning on page 65 and the section entitled “The Merger Agreement—Merger Consideration” beginning on page 115.

Treatment of TCF Series C Preferred Stock and TCF Depository Shares (page 112)

In the merger, each share of TCF series C preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will automatically be converted into the right to receive one (1) share of new Huntington preferred stock. Each outstanding share of TCF series C preferred stock is presently represented by TCF depository shares that represent a 1/1000th interest in a share of the TCF series C preferred stock. Upon completion of the merger, Huntington will assume the obligations of TCF under the applicable deposit agreement. Each TCF depository share will then become a Huntington depository share. The TCF depository shares representing the TCF series C preferred stock are currently listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol “TCFCP.” The new Huntington depository shares representing the new Huntington preferred stock are expected to be listed on the NASDAQ upon completion of the merger.

For further information, see the section entitled “The Merger—Treatment of TCF Series C Preferred Stock and TCF Depository Shares” beginning on page 112 and the section entitled “Description of New Huntington Preferred Stock” beginning on page 151.

TCF Stock Options

At the effective time, each option granted by TCF to purchase shares of TCF common stock that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will be assumed and converted based on the exchange ratio into an option to purchase shares of Huntington common stock, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF stock option immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms).

TCF Restricted Stock Awards

At the effective time, each share of TCF common stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will (i) if granted to a non-employee member of the TCF board of directors, fully vest and be cancelled and converted into the right to receive (without interest) the merger consideration and (ii) if not granted to a non-employee member of the TCF board of directors, be assumed and converted based on the exchange ratio into a Huntington restricted stock award with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms).

TCF Restricted Stock Unit Awards

At the effective time, each TCF restricted stock unit award that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be assumed and converted based on the exchange ratio into a Huntington restricted stock unit award (with any performance goals deemed satisfied at the greater of the target and actual level of performance through the most recently completed calendar quarter prior to the closing as reasonably determined by the compensation committee of the TCF board of directors in the ordinary course consistent with past practice) with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms); provided that each such Huntington restricted stock unit award will be subject to service-based vesting only and will no longer be subject to any performance conditions.

TCF Deferred Stock Awards

At the effective time, each award in respect of a deferred share of TCF common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be assumed and converted based on the exchange ratio into a Huntington deferred stock award subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF deferred stock award immediately prior to the effective time.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 134)

The merger is intended to qualify as a “reorganization” for federal income tax purposes, and it is a condition to our respective obligations to complete the merger that Huntington and TCF each receive a legal opinion to the effect that the merger will so qualify. Accordingly, holders of TCF common stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of their TCF common stock for Huntington common stock in the merger, except for any gain or loss that may result from the receipt of cash instead of a fractional share of Huntington common stock.

You should be aware that the tax consequences to you of the merger may depend upon your own situation. In addition, you may be subject to state, local or foreign tax laws that are not discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You should therefore consult with your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the merger.

The Huntington board of directors has determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Huntington and its shareholders and has unanimously adopted and approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The Huntington board of directors unanimously recommends that holders of Huntington common stock vote “FOR” the approval of the merger and “FOR” the other proposals presented at the Huntington special meeting. For a more detailed discussion of the Huntington board of directors’ recommendation, see the section entitled “The Merger—Huntington’s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Huntington’s Board of Directors” beginning on page 83.

TCF common stock vote “FOR” the approval of the merger agreement and “FOR” the other proposals presented at the TCF special meeting. For a more detailed discussion of the TCF board of directors’ recommendation, see the section entitled “The Merger—TCF’s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of TCF’s Board of Directors” beginning on page 69.

Opinion of Huntington’s Financial Advisor (page 86)

At a meeting of the Huntington board of directors, Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC (“Goldman Sachs”) rendered to the Huntington board of directors its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in Goldman Sachs’ written opinion dated as of December 13, 2020, to the effect that, as of the date of Goldman Sachs’ written opinion, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in Goldman Sachs’ written opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to Huntington.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated December 13, 2020, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with Goldman Sachs’ opinion, is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C. The summary of Goldman Sachs’ opinion contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Goldman Sachs’ written opinion. Goldman Sachs’ advisory services and opinion were provided for the information and assistance of the Huntington board of directors in connection with its consideration of the proposed merger and the opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of Huntington common stock should vote with respect to the proposed merger or any other matter.

For more information, see “The Merger—Opinion of Huntington’s Financial Advisor,” beginning on page 86 and Annex C.

Opinion of TCF’s Financial Advisor (page 72)

In connection with the merger, TCF’s financial advisor, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (“KBW”), delivered a written opinion, dated December 13, 2020, to the TCF board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to holders of TCF common stock of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger.

The full text of the opinion, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in preparing the opinion, is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The summary of the KBW opinion set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the TCF board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the merger. The opinion did not address the underlying business decision of TCF to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement or constitute a recommendation to the TCF board of directors in connection with the merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of TCF common stock or any shareholder of any other entity as to how to vote in connection with the merger or any other matter.

For more information, see “The Merger—Opinion of TCF’s Financial Advisor,” beginning on page 72 and Annex D.

Appraisal or Dissenters’ Rights in the Merger (page 112)

Holders of Huntington common stock are not entitled to appraisal or dissenters’ rights under the MGCL and holders of TCF common stock are not entitled to appraisal or dissenters’ rights under the MBCA. For more information, see the section entitled “The Merger—Appraisal or Dissenters’ Rights in the Merger” beginning on page 112.

Interests of TCF’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page 99)

In considering the recommendation of the TCF board of directors with respect to the merger, TCF shareholders should be aware that certain of TCF’s directors and executive officers have interests in the merger, including financial interests, that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the other shareholders of TCF generally. The TCF board of directors was aware of and considered these interests during its deliberations on the merits of the merger and in determining to recommend to TCF shareholders that they vote for the TCF merger proposal and thereby approve the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

These interests include, among others:

- TCF equity awards (with the exception of TCF restricted stock awards held by non-employee directors, as described below) will be converted into equity awards of Huntington based on the exchange ratio (with any applicable performance goals satisfied at the greater of the target and actual level of performance through the most recently completed calendar quarter prior to the effective time of the merger). In accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to such awards prior to the effective time, such converted TCF equity awards will be subject to “double-trigger” vesting upon a qualifying termination within the two-year period following a change in control (including the merger);
- TCF restricted stock awards held by non-employee directors will vest and be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of TCF common stock subject to such TCF restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time of the merger;
- Each current TCF executive officer is party to an employment or change-in-control agreement with TCF that provides that if such executive officer’s employment is terminated without cause by TCF, or if the executive officer terminates his or her employment for good reason, in each case within two years following the merger (or in some instances, six months prior to the merger), such executive officer’s unvested TCF equity awards will fully vest (with performance-based TCF restricted stock unit awards vesting at the level determined as of the effective time), and each TCF stock option that vests in accordance with such termination will remain outstanding until the earlier of three years following such qualifying termination and the remaining term of such TCF stock option;
- The employment or change-in-control agreement with each current TCF executive officer provides for cash severance and certain other benefits if such executive officer is terminated within six months prior to or two years following a change in control, including the merger;
- Each of Messrs. Provost and Torgow has entered into a letter agreement with Huntington pursuant to which each has agreed to provide advisory services to Huntington and comply with restrictive covenants in exchange for certain compensation and benefits after the effective time;
- Mr. Klaeser is party to a consulting agreement with TCF, and he will, subject to certain conditions, be entitled to a success fee thereunder as compensation for his consulting services in connection with the merger at the effective time;
- At the effective time of the merger, five current directors of TCF, as designated by TCF and approved by the Huntington board of directors, will be appointed to the Huntington board of directors;
- Mr. Torgow will be appointed as Chairman of the board of directors of The Huntington National Bank at the effective time of the bank merger;
- Certain current TCF executive officers will continue as key leaders of Huntington after the effective time and have entered into new arrangements with Huntington to set forth the terms and compensation of their post-closing service; and
- TCF’s directors and officers are generally entitled to continued indemnification and insurance coverage under the merger agreement.

For a more complete description of these interests, see “The Merger—Interests of TCF’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” beginning on page 99.

Governance of the Combined Company After the Merger (page 109)

Charter Amendment

In connection with the merger, Huntington's charter will be amended to increase the number of authorized shares of Huntington common stock from one billion five hundred million shares to two billion two hundred fifty million shares. A copy of the Huntington charter amendment is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B.

At the effective time, the charter of Huntington, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time, as amended as described above, will be the charter of the combined company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law.

Bylaws

At the effective time, the bylaws of Huntington, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time, will be the bylaws of the combined company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law.

Board of Directors

As of the effective time, the number of directors constituting the board of directors of Huntington will be increased by five (5) for a total of eighteen (18) directors, and five (5) current directors of TCF (the "TCF directors") will be appointed to the board of directors of Huntington. Each of the TCF directors will be designated by TCF, subject to the approval of the Huntington board of directors (not to be unreasonably withheld). One TCF director will not stand for reelection to the Huntington board of directors at Huntington's 2022 annual meeting of shareholders. In addition, as of the effective time of the bank merger, Gary Torgow will be appointed as Chairman of the board of directors of The Huntington National Bank. Following the effective time, the meetings of the board of directors of Huntington and, following the effective time of the bank merger, the board of directors of The Huntington National Bank, will rotate between (i) Columbus and (ii) Detroit / Minneapolis.

Headquarters and Operations

The combined company and its subsidiaries will have dual headquarters for banking operations in Columbus, Ohio, and Detroit, Michigan, with the headquarters of the consumer banking operations of the combined company and its subsidiaries being located in Columbus, Ohio and the headquarters of the commercial banking operations of the combined company and its subsidiaries being located in Detroit, Michigan. The headquarters of the combined company and the main office of The Huntington National Bank will be located in Columbus, Ohio.

Foundation

At or prior to the closing, Huntington will contribute $50 million to establish a new Huntington Donor Advised Fund at the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan (the "foundation"), dedicated to supporting primarily any markets in which Huntington operates. TCF's Executive Chairman and TCF's Chief Executive Officer on the date of the merger agreement will recommend and allocate such funds in a manner generally consistent with Huntington's recommended charitable giving guidelines, and will periodically report to Huntington regarding the activities, contributions and grants made by the foundation. TCF's Executive Chairman and TCF's Chief Executive Officer on the date of the merger agreement may fully distribute the foundation's funds over a seven (7)-year period from the closing date (and may not fully distribute such funds prior to the end of such period).

Regulatory Approvals (page 110)

Subject to the terms of the merger agreement, Huntington and TCF have agreed to cooperate with each other and use reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all documentation to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including the merger and the bank merger), and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and governmental entities. These approvals include, among others, the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (“Federal Reserve Board”) and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (“OCC”). The initial filing of these regulatory applications occurred on January 11, 2021.

Although neither Huntington nor TCF knows of any reason why it cannot obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner, Huntington and TCF cannot be certain when or if they will be obtained, or that the granting of these regulatory approvals will not involve the imposition of conditions on the completion of the merger or the bank merger.

Expected Timing of the Merger

Huntington and TCF expect the merger to close in the second quarter of 2021. However, neither Huntington nor TCF can predict the actual date on which the merger will be completed, or if the merger will be completed at all, because completion is subject to conditions and factors outside the control of both companies. Huntington and TCF must first obtain the approval of holders of Huntington common stock and holders of TCF common stock for the merger, as well as obtain necessary regulatory approvals and satisfy certain other closing conditions.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 129)

As more fully described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, the completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. These conditions include:

- approval of the merger and the Huntington charter amendment by the shareholders of Huntington by the requisite Huntington vote and approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of TCF by the requisite TCF vote;
- the shares of Huntington common stock and new Huntington preferred stock (or depositary shares in respect thereof) issuable pursuant to the merger agreement having been authorized for listing on the NASDAQ, in each case subject to official notice of issuance;
- the effectiveness under the Securities Act of the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, and the absence of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement or proceedings for that purpose initiated or threatened by the SEC and not withdrawn;
- no order, injunction or decree issued by any court or governmental entity of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the merger, the bank merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement being in effect, and no law, statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree having been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any governmental entity which prohibits or makes illegal consummation of the merger, the bank merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- all requisite regulatory approvals having been obtained and remaining in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof having expired, and no such requisite regulatory approval having resulted in the imposition of any materially burdensome regulatory condition (as defined in “The Merger—Regulatory Approvals”);
- the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the merger agreement, generally as of the date on which the merger agreement was entered into and as of the closing date, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement, and the receipt by each party of a certificate signed on behalf of the other party by the chief executive officer or the chief financial officer to the foregoing effect;
- the performance by the other party in all material respects of the obligations, covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the merger agreement at or prior to the closing date, and the receipt by each party of a certificate signed on behalf of the other party by the chief executive officer or the chief financial officer to such effect; and
- receipt by such party of an opinion of legal counsel, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to such party, dated as of the closing date, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; in rendering such opinion, counsel may require and rely upon representations contained in certificates of officers of Huntington and TCF reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 130)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the merger, whether before or after the receipt of the requisite Huntington vote or the requisite TCF vote, in the following circumstances:

- by mutual consent of Huntington and TCF in a written instrument;
- by either Huntington or TCF if any governmental entity that must grant a requisite regulatory approval has denied approval of the merger or the bank merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction has issued a final nonappealable order, injunction or decree permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the merger or the bank merger, unless the failure to obtain a requisite regulatory approval is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe its obligations, covenants and agreements set forth in the merger agreement;
- by either Huntington or TCF if the merger has not been completed on or before December 13, 2021 (the “termination date”), unless the failure of the closing to occur by such date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe its obligations, covenants and agreements set forth in the merger agreement;
- by either Huntington or TCF (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, obligation, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement) if there is a breach of any of the obligations, covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties (or if any such representation or warranty ceases to be true) set forth in the merger agreement on the part of TCF, in the case of a termination by Huntington, or Huntington, in the case of a termination by TCF, which breach or failure to be true, either individually or in the aggregate with all other breaches by such party (or failures of such representations or warranties to be true), would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the closing date, the failure of an applicable closing condition of the terminating party and which is not cured by the earlier of the termination date and forty-five (45) days following written notice to the other party or by its nature or timing cannot be cured during such period;
- by Huntington, prior to such time as the requisite TCF vote is obtained, if TCF or the TCF board of directors (i) withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to Huntington the TCF board recommendation (as defined in “The Merger Agreement—Shareholder Meetings and Recommendation of Huntington’s and TCF’s Board of Directors”), (ii) fails to make the TCF board recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, (iii) adopts, approves, recommends or endorses a TCF acquisition proposal (as defined in “The Merger Agreement—Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers”) or publicly announces an intention to adopt, approve, recommend or endorse a TCF acquisition proposal, (iv) fails to publicly and without qualification (A) recommend against any TCF acquisition proposal or (B) reaffirm the TCF board recommendation, in each case within ten (10) business days (or such fewer number of days as remains prior to the TCF special meeting) after a TCF acquisition proposal is made public or any request by Huntington to do so, or (v) materially breaches its obligations related to TCF shareholder approval or TCF acquisition proposals; or
- by TCF, prior to such time as the requisite Huntington vote is obtained, if Huntington or the Huntington board of directors (i) withholds, withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to TCF the Huntington board recommendation (as defined in “The Merger Agreement—Shareholder Meetings and Recommendation of Huntington’s and TCF’s Board of Directors”), (ii) fails to make the Huntington board recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, (iii) adopts, approves, recommends or endorses a Huntington acquisition proposal (as defined in “The Merger Agreement—Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers”) or publicly announces an intention to adopt, approve, recommend, or endorse a Huntington acquisition proposal, (iv) fails to publicly and without qualification (A) recommend against any Huntington acquisition proposal or (B) reaffirm the Huntington board recommendation, in each case within ten (10) business days (or such fewer number of days as remains prior to the Huntington special meeting) after a Huntington acquisition proposal is made public or any request by TCF to do so, or (v) materially breaches its obligations related to Huntington shareholder approval.

Termination Fee (page 131)

If the merger agreement is terminated by either Huntington or TCF under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving alternative acquisition proposals and changes in the Huntington board recommendation or the TCF board recommendation, TCF or Huntington may be required to pay a termination fee to the other party equal to $238.8 million.

Accounting Treatment (page 110)

The merger will be accounted for as an acquisition of TCF by Huntington under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”).

The Rights of Holders of TCF Common Stock Will Change as a Result of the Merger (page 159)

The rights of holders of TCF common stock are governed by Michigan law and by the articles of incorporation and bylaws of TCF. In the merger, holders of TCF common stock will become holders of common stock of Huntington, and their rights will be governed by Maryland law and the charter of Huntington, as amended by the Huntington charter amendment, and the bylaws of Huntington. Holders of TCF common stock will have different rights once they become holders of common stock of the combined company due to differences between the TCF governing documents and Michigan law, on the one hand, and the Huntington governing documents and Maryland law, on the other hand. These differences are described in more detail under the section entitled “Comparison of Shareholders’ Rights” beginning on page 159.

Listing of Huntington Common Stock and New Huntington Depositary Shares; Delisting and Deregistration of TCF Common Stock and TCF Depositary Shares (page 112)

Following the merger, shares of Huntington common stock will continue to be listed on the NASDAQ. In addition, following the merger, TCF common stock and TCF depositary shares that represent a 1/1000th interest in a share of TCF series C preferred stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ and deregistered under the Exchange Act.

The selected consolidated historical financial data for TCF as of September 30, 2020 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2020 and 2019 has been derived from TCF's unaudited interim consolidated financial statements contained in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2020, which is incorporated into this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. The selected consolidated balance sheet data for TCF as of September 30, 2019 has been derived from TCF's unaudited interim consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2019, which is incorporated into this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference.

You should read the following financial information relating to TCF in conjunction with other information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the consolidated financial statements of TCF and related accompanying notes appearing in TCF's Annual Report on Form 10-K most recently filed with the SEC and in any Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of TCF filed with the SEC after that Annual Report on Form 10-K was filed, and the financial statements in any Current Report on Form 8-K of TCF that was filed with the SEC after such Annual Report on Form 10-K, which are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Financial results presented below were significantly impacted by the merger of Chemical Financial Corporation ("Chemical") and legacy TCF on August 1, 2019, and periods before the merger of legacy TCF and Chemical reflect financial data of legacy TCF, while periods after such merger reflect financial data for TCF after the merger of Chemical and legacy TCF. This merger was accounted for as a reverse merger whereby legacy TCF was deemed the acquirer for financial reporting purposes, while Chemical was the legal acquirer. Chemical was renamed to TCF Financial Corporation immediately following the merger of Chemical and legacy TCF. Certain reclassifications were made to prior period financial statements to conform to the current period presentation. In addition, the number of shares issued and outstanding, earnings per share, additional paid-in-capital, dividends paid and all references to share quantities of TCF were retrospectively restated to reflect the equivalent number of shares issued in the merger of Chemical and legacy TCF. TCF's historical results for any prior period are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected in any future period. The selected financial information in the table immediately below does not include, on any basis, the results or financial condition of Huntington for any period or as of any date. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information combines the historical consolidated financial position and results of operations of Huntington and TCF as an acquisition by Huntington of TCF. The merger was announced on December 13, 2020, and provides that each share of TCF common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than certain shares held by Huntington or TCF) will be automatically converted into the right to receive 3.0028 shares of Huntington common stock. In addition, at the effective time of the merger, each share of TCF series C preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be automatically converted into the right to receive one share of new Huntington preferred stock.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been prepared to give effect to the following:

- The acquisition of TCF by Huntington under the provision of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification, ASC 805, "Business Combinations" where the assets and liabilities of TCF will be recorded by Huntington at their respective fair values as of the date the merger is completed;
- The distribution of shares of Huntington common stock to TCF's shareholders in exchange for shares of TCF common stock (based upon a 3.0028 exchange ratio);
- Certain reclassifications to conform historical financial statement presentation of TCF to Huntington; and
- Transaction costs in connection with the merger.

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information and related notes are based on and should be read in conjunction with (i) the historical audited consolidated financial statements of Huntington and the related notes included in Huntington's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019, and the historical unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Huntington and the related notes included in Huntington's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2020, each of which is incorporated by reference herein, and (ii) the historical audited consolidated financial statements of TCF and the related notes included in TCF's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019, and the historical unaudited consolidated financial statements of TCF and the related notes included in TCF's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2020, each of which is incorporated by reference herein.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statements for the nine months ended September 30, 2020 and for the year ended December 31, 2019 combine the historical consolidated income statements of Huntington and TCF, giving effect to the merger as if it had been completed on January 1, 2019. The accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of September 30, 2020 combines the historical consolidated balance sheets of Huntington and TCF, giving effect to the merger as if it had been completed on September 30, 2020.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is provided for illustrative information purposes only. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is not necessarily, and should not be assumed to be, an indication of the actual results that would have been achieved had the merger been completed as of the dates indicated or that may be achieved in the future. The pro forma financial information has been prepared by Huntington in accordance with Regulation S-X Article 11, Pro Forma Financial Information, as amended by the final rule, Amendments to Financial Disclosures About Acquired and Disposed Businesses, as adopted by the SEC on May 21, 2020.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information also does not consider any potential effects of changes in market conditions on revenues, expense efficiencies, asset dispositions, and share repurchases, among other factors. In addition, as explained in more detail in the accompanying notes, the preliminary allocation of the pro forma purchase price reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is subject to adjustment and may vary significantly from the actual purchase price allocation that will be recorded upon completion of the merger.

As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Huntington has not completed the valuation analysis and calculations in sufficient detail necessary to arrive at the required estimates of the fair market value of the TCF assets to be acquired or liabilities to be assumed, other than a preliminary estimate for intangible assets and certain financial assets and financial liabilities. Accordingly, apart from the aforementioned, certain TCF assets and liabilities are presented at their respective carrying amounts and should be treated as preliminary values. A final determination of the fair value of TCF's assets and liabilities will be based on TCF's actual assets and liabilities as of the closing date and, therefore, cannot be made prior to the completion of the merger. In addition, the value of the merger consideration to be paid by Huntington in shares of Huntington common stock upon the completion of the merger will be determined based on the closing price of Huntington common stock on the closing date and the number of issued and outstanding shares of TCF common stock immediately prior to the closing. Actual adjustments may differ from the amounts reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, and the differences may be material.

Further, Huntington has not identified all adjustments necessary to conform TCF's accounting policies to Huntington's accounting policies. Upon completion of the merger, or as more information becomes available, Huntington will perform a more detailed review of TCF's accounting policies. As a result of that review, differences could be identified between the accounting policies of the two companies that, when conformed, could have a material impact on the combined company's financial information.

As a result of the foregoing, the pro forma adjustments are preliminary and are subject to change as additional information becomes available and as additional analysis is performed. The preliminary pro forma adjustments have been made solely for the purpose of providing the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information. Huntington estimated the fair value of certain TCF assets and liabilities based on a preliminary valuation analysis, due diligence information, information presented in TCF's SEC filings and other publicly available information. Until the merger is completed, both companies are limited in their ability to share certain information.

Upon completion of the merger, a final determination of the fair value of TCF's assets acquired and liabilities assumed will be performed. Any changes in the fair values of the net assets or total purchase consideration as compared with the information shown in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information may change the amount of the total purchase consideration allocated to goodwill and other assets and liabilities and may impact the combined company's statement of income. The final purchase consideration allocation may be materially different than the preliminary purchase consideration allocation presented in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Note 1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information and related notes were prepared in accordance with Article 11 of Regulation S-X. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statement for the nine months ended September 30, 2020 and for the year ended December 31, 2019 combine the historical consolidated income statement of Huntington and TCF, giving effect to the merger as if it had been completed on January 1, 2019. The accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of September 30, 2020 combines the historical consolidated balance sheets of Huntington and TCF, giving effect to the merger as if it had been completed on September 30, 2020.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information and explanatory notes have been prepared to illustrate the effects of the merger involving Huntington and TCF under the acquisition method of accounting with Huntington treated as the acquirer. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and does not necessarily indicate the financial results of the combined company had the companies actually been combined at the beginning of each period presented, nor does it necessarily indicate the results of operations in future periods or the future financial position of the combined company. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of TCF, as of the effective time of the merger, will be recorded by Huntington at their respective fair values, and the excess of the merger consideration over the fair value of TCF's net assets will be allocated to goodwill.

The merger provides for TCF common shareholders to receive 3.0028 shares of Huntington common stock for each share of TCF common stock they hold immediately prior to the merger. Based on the closing trading price of shares of Huntington common stock on the NASDAQ on January 22, 2021, the value of the merger consideration per share of TCF common stock was $41.56. In addition, each share of TCF's series C preferred stock will be converted into the right to receive a share of new Huntington preferred stock.

The pro forma allocation of the purchase price reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is subject to adjustment and may vary from the actual purchase price allocation that will be recorded at the time the merger is completed. Adjustments may include, but are not be limited to, changes in (i) TCF's balance sheet through the effective time of the merger; (ii) the aggregate value of merger consideration paid if the price of shares of Huntington common stock varies from the assumed $13.84 per share, which represents the closing share price of Huntington common stock on January 22, 2021; (iii) total merger related expenses if consummation and/or implementation costs vary from currently estimated amounts; and (iv) the underlying values of assets and liabilities if market conditions differ from current assumptions.

The accounting policies of both Huntington and TCF are in the process of being reviewed in detail. Upon completion of such review, additional conforming adjustments or financial statement reclassification may be necessary.

Note 2. Reclassification Adjustments

During the preparation of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, management performed a preliminary analysis of TCF's financial information to identify differences in accounting policies and differences in balance sheet and income statement presentation as compared to the presentation of Huntington. At the time of preparing the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, Huntington had not identified all adjustments necessary to conform TCF's accounting policies to Huntington's accounting policies. The adjustments represent Huntington's best estimates based upon the information currently available to Huntington and could be subject to change once more detailed information is available.

Note 6. Potential Divestitures in Connection with the Merger

As part of the initial filing of the application to the Federal Reserve Board on January 11, 2021, Huntington and TCF offered to divest TCF branches in four Michigan banking markets with deposits totaling approximately $375 million, based on Summary of Deposit levels reported as of June 30, 2020, to address potential competitive concerns. Because there can be no assurance that the divestiture proposal will be accepted or deemed sufficient by the Federal Reserve Board and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (the "DOJ"), these divestitures are excluded from the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information. See "The Merger—Regulatory Approvals."

Differences between these preliminary estimates and the final values in acquisition accounting will occur and these differences could have a material impact on the unaudited pro forma combined per share information set forth below.

The unaudited pro forma combined per share data does not purport to represent the actual results of operations that the combined company would have achieved had the merger been completed during these periods or to project the future results of operations that the combined company may achieve after the merger.

The unaudited pro forma combined per share equivalent data set forth below shows the effect of the merger from the perspective of an owner of TCF common stock. The information was calculated by multiplying the unaudited pro forma combined per share data by the exchange ratio of 3.0028.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains certain forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, certain plans, expectations, goals, projections, and statements about the benefits of the proposed merger, the plans, objectives, expectations and intentions of Huntington and TCF, the expected timing of completion of the merger, and other statements that are not historical facts. Such statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties. Statements that do not describe historical or current facts, including statements about beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements may be identified by words such as expect, anticipate, believe, intend, estimate, plan, target, goal, or similar expressions, or future or conditional verbs such as will, may, might, should, would, could, or similar variations. - changes in general economic, political, or industry conditions;
- the magnitude and duration of the COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on the global economy and financial market conditions and Huntington’s and TCF’s businesses, results of operations, and financial conditions;
- uncertainty in U.S. fiscal and monetary policy, including the interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve Board;
- volatility and disruptions in global capital and credit markets;
- movements in interest rates;
- reform of LIBOR;
- competitive pressures on product pricing and services;
- success, impact, and timing of Huntington’s and TCF’s business strategies, including market acceptance of any new products or services including those implementing Huntington’s “Fair Play” banking philosophy;
- the nature, extent, timing, and results of governmental actions, examinations, reviews, reforms, regulations, and interpretations, including those related to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (“Dodd-Frank Act”) and the Basel III regulatory reforms, as well as those involving the OCC, Federal Reserve Board, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and Consumer Financial Protection Bureau;
- changes in legislation, regulation, policies or administrative practices, whether by judicial, governmental or legislative action and other changes pertaining to banking, securities, taxation and financial accounting and reporting, environmental protection and insurance, and the ability to comply with such changes in a timely manner;
- the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the right of one or both of the parties to terminate the merger agreement;
- the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Huntington or TCF;
- delays in completing the merger;
- the failure to obtain necessary regulatory approvals (and the risk that such approvals may result in the imposition of conditions that could adversely affect the combined company or the expected benefits of the merger);
- the failure to obtain shareholder approvals or to satisfy any of the other conditions to the merger on a timely basis or at all;

- the possibility that the anticipated benefits of the merger are not realized when expected or at all, including as a result of the impact of, or problems arising from, the integration of the two companies or as a result of the strength of the economy and competitive factors in the areas where Huntington and TCF do business;
- the effect of divestitures that may be required by regulatory authorities in certain markets in which Huntington and TCF compete;
- the possibility that the merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events;
- diversion of management's attention from ongoing business operations and opportunities;
- potential adverse reactions or changes to business or employee relationships, including those resulting from the announcement or completion of the merger;
- the ability to complete the merger and integration of Huntington and TCF successfully;
- the dilution caused by Huntington's issuance of additional shares of its capital stock in connection with the merger; and
- other factors that may affect the future results of Huntington and TCF.

You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus or the dates of the documents incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. As for the forward-looking statements that relate to future financial results and other projections, actual results will be different due to the inherent uncertainties of estimates, forecasts and projections and may be better or worse than projected and such differences could be material. Given these uncertainties, we caution you not to place reliance on these forward-looking statements. Annualized, pro forma, projected and estimated numbers are used for illustrative purpose only, are not forecasts and may not reflect actual results. Except as required by applicable law, neither Huntington nor TCF undertakes to update these forward-looking statements to reflect facts, circumstances, assumptions or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

For additional information about factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements, please see the reports that Huntington and TCF have filed with the SEC as described under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 178.

Huntington and TCF expressly qualify in their entirety all forward-looking statements attributable to either of them or any person acting on their behalf by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

An investment by TCF's shareholders in Huntington common stock as a result of the exchange of shares of Huntington common stock for shares of TCF common stock in the merger involves certain risks. Similarly, a decision on the part of Huntington shareholders to approve the merger also involves risks for the Huntington shareholders, who will continue to hold their shares of Huntington common stock after the merger. Certain material risks and uncertainties connected with the merger agreement and transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and bank merger, and ownership of Huntington common stock are discussed below. In addition, Huntington and TCF discuss certain other material risks connected with the ownership of Huntington common stock and with Huntington's business, and with the ownership of TCF common stock and TCF's business, respectively, under the caption "Risk Factors" appearing in their Annual Reports on Form 10-K most recently filed with the SEC and may include additional or updated disclosures of such material risks in its subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K that each has filed with the SEC or may file with the SEC after the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, each of which reports is or will be incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Holders of TCF common stock and holders of Huntington common stock should carefully read and consider all of these risks and all other information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the discussions of risk factors included in the documents incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, in deciding whether to vote for approval of the various proposals for which they may be entitled to vote at the TCF special meeting or the Huntington special meeting described herein. The risks described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in those documents incorporated by reference may adversely affect the value of Huntington common stock that you, as an existing Huntington shareholder, currently hold or that you, as an existing holder of TCF common stock, will hold upon consummation of the merger, and could result in a significant decline in the value of Huntington common stock and cause the current holders of Huntington common stock and/or the holders of TCF common stock to lose all or part of the value of their respective investments in Huntington common stock.

Because the market price of Huntington common stock may fluctuate, holders of TCF common stock cannot be certain of the market value of the merger consideration they will receive.

In the merger, each share of TCF common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than certain shares held by Huntington or TCF) will be converted into 3.0028 shares of Huntington common stock. This exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of either Huntington common stock or TCF common stock. Changes in the price of Huntington common stock prior to the merger will affect the value that holders of TCF common stock will receive in the merger. Neither Huntington nor TCF is permitted to terminate the merger agreement as a result, in and of itself, of any increase or decrease in the market price of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock.

Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, impacts and disruptions resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic, changes in Huntington's or TCF's businesses, operations and prospects and regulatory considerations, many of which factors are beyond Huntington's or TCF's control. Therefore, at the time of the Huntington special meeting and the TCF special meeting, holders of Huntington common stock and holders of TCF common stock will not know the market value of the consideration to be received by holders of TCF common stock at the effective time. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Huntington common stock and for shares of TCF common stock.

The market price of Huntington common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of TCF common stock or Huntington common stock currently.

In the merger, holders of TCF common stock will become holders of Huntington common stock. Huntington's business differs from that of TCF. Accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of Huntington common stock after the completion of the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Huntington and TCF. For a discussion of the businesses of Huntington and TCF and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 178.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Huntington and TCF are expected to incur substantial costs related to the merger and integration.

Huntington and TCF have incurred and expect to incur a number of non-recurring costs associated with the merger. These costs include legal, financial advisory, accounting, consulting and other advisory fees, severance/employee benefit-related costs, public company filing fees and other regulatory fees and financial printing and other related costs. Some of these costs are payable by either Huntington or TCF regardless of whether or not the merger is completed.

The combined company is expected to incur substantial costs in connection with the related integration. There are a large number of processes, policies, procedures, operations, technologies and systems that may need to be integrated, including purchasing, accounting and finance, payroll, compliance, treasury management, branch operations, vendor management, risk management, lines of business, pricing and benefits. While TCF and Huntington have assumed that a certain level of costs will be incurred, there are many factors beyond their control that could affect the total amount or the timing of the integration costs. Moreover, many of the costs that will be incurred are, by their nature, difficult to estimate accurately. These integration costs may result in the combined company taking charges against earnings following the completion of the merger, and the amount and timing of such charges are uncertain at present.

Combining Huntington and TCF may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected and Huntington and TCF may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The success of the merger will depend, in part, on the ability to realize the anticipated cost savings from combining the businesses of Huntington and TCF. To realize the anticipated benefits and cost savings from the merger, Huntington and TCF must successfully integrate and combine their businesses in a manner that permits those cost savings to be realized. If Huntington and TCF are not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected. In addition, the actual cost savings and anticipated benefits of the merger could be less than anticipated, and integration may result in additional unforeseen expenses.

Huntington and TCF have operated and, until the completion of the merger, must continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the companies' ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the merger. Integration efforts between the two companies may also divert management attention and resources. In addition, the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic may make it more costly or more difficult to integrate the businesses of Huntington and TCF, which, in turn, may make it more difficult for the combined company to realize anticipated synergies or cost savings in the amounts estimated or in the timeframe contemplated, or at all. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of Huntington and TCF during this transition period and for an undetermined period after completion of the merger on the combined company.

The future results of the combined company following the merger may suffer if the combined company does not effectively manage its expanded operations.

Following the merger, the size of the business of the combined company will increase significantly beyond the current size of either Huntington's or TCF's business. The combined company's future success will depend, in part, upon its ability to manage this expanded business, which may pose challenges for management, including challenges related to the management and monitoring of new operations and associated increased costs and complexity. The combined company may also face increased scrutiny from governmental authorities as a result of the significant increase in the size of its business. There can be no assurances that the combined company will be successful or that it will realize the expected operating efficiencies, cost savings, revenue enhancements or other benefits currently anticipated from the merger.

The combined company may be unable to retain Huntington or TCF personnel successfully while the merger is pending or after the merger is completed.

The success of the merger will depend in part on the combined company's ability to retain key employees currently employed by Huntington and TCF. It is possible that these employees may decide not to remain with Huntington or TCF, as applicable, while the merger is pending or with the combined company after the merger is consummated. If Huntington and TCF are unable to retain key employees, including management, who are critical to the successful integration and future operations of the companies, Huntington and TCF could face disruptions in their operations, loss of existing customers, loss of key information, expertise or know-how and unanticipated additional recruitment costs. In addition, if key employees terminate their employment, the combined company's business activities may be adversely affected and management's attention may be diverted from successfully integrating Huntington and TCF to hiring suitable replacements, all of which may cause the combined company's business to suffer. In addition, Huntington and TCF may not be able to locate or retain suitable replacements for any key employees who leave either company. For more information, see the section entitled "The Merger—Governance of the Combined Company After the Merger" beginning on page 109.

The COVID-19 pandemic may delay and adversely affect the completion of the merger.

The COVID-19 pandemic has created economic and financial disruptions that have adversely affected, and are likely to continue to adversely affect, the business, financial condition, liquidity, capital and results of operations of Huntington and TCF. If the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic cause continued or extended decline in the economic environment and the financial results of Huntington or TCF, or the business operations of Huntington or TCF are further disrupted as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, efforts to complete the merger and integrate the businesses of Huntington and TCF may also be delayed and adversely affected. Additional time may be required to obtain the requisite regulatory approvals, and the Federal Reserve Board, the OCC and/or other regulators may impose additional requirements on Huntington or TCF that must be satisfied prior to completion of the merger, which could delay and adversely affect the completion of the merger.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or that could have an adverse effect on the combined company following the merger.

Before the merger and the bank merger may be completed, various approvals, consents and non-objections must be obtained from the Federal Reserve Board, the OCC and other regulatory authorities. In determining whether to grant these approvals, the regulators consider a variety of factors, including the regulatory standing of each party and the factors described under "The Merger—Regulatory Approvals" beginning on page 110. These approvals could be delayed or not obtained at all, including due to any or all of the following: an adverse development in either party's regulatory standing, or any other factors considered by regulators in granting such approvals; governmental, political or community group inquiries, investigations or opposition; changes in legislation or the political environment, including as a result of changes of the U.S. executive administration, Congressional leadership and regulatory agency leadership; or impacts and disruptions resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic.

The approvals that are granted may impose terms and conditions, limitations, obligations or costs, require branch divestitures, or place restrictions on the conduct of the combined company's business or require changes to the terms of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. There can be no assurance that regulators will not impose any such conditions, limitations, obligations or restrictions or that such conditions, limitations, obligations or restrictions will not have the effect of delaying the completion of any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, imposing additional material costs on or materially limiting the revenues of the combined company following the merger or will otherwise reduce the anticipated benefits of the merger. In addition, there can be no assurance that any such conditions, limitations, obligations or restrictions will not result in the delay or abandonment of the merger. Additionally, the completion of the merger is conditioned on the absence of certain orders, injunctions or decrees by any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction that would prohibit or make illegal the completion of any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Despite the parties' commitments to use their reasonable best efforts to respond to any request for information and resolve any objection that may be asserted by any governmental entity with respect to the merger agreement, neither Huntington, TCF nor their respective subsidiaries is required under the terms of the merger agreement to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction in connection with obtaining these approvals, that would reasonably be likely to have a material adverse effect on the combined company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the merger. See the section entitled "The Merger—Regulatory Approvals" beginning on page 110.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is preliminary and the actual financial condition and results of operations of the combined company after the merger may differ materially.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of what the combined company's actual financial condition or results of operations would have been had the merger been completed on the dates indicated. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information reflects adjustments, which are based upon preliminary estimates, to record the TCF identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed at fair value, and to record the resulting goodwill recognized. The fair value estimates reflected in this joint proxy statement/prospectus are preliminary, and final amounts will be based upon the actual consideration paid and the fair value of the assets and liabilities of TCF as of the date of the completion of the merger. Accordingly, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For more information, see the section entitled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" beginning on page 29.

Certain of TCF's directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that may differ from, or be in addition to, the interests of holders of TCF common stock generally.

Holders of TCF common stock should be aware that some of TCF's directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of holders of TCF common stock generally. These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. The TCF board of directors was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger and merger agreement, and in recommending that shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement. For a more complete description of these interests, please see the section entitled "The Merger—Interests of TCF's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 99.

Termination of the merger agreement could negatively affect Huntington or TCF.

If the merger is not completed for any reason, including as a result of Huntington shareholders failing to approve the Huntington merger proposal or TCF shareholders failing to approve the TCF merger proposal, there may be various adverse consequences and Huntington and/or TCF may experience negative reactions from the financial markets and from their respective customers and employees. For example, Huntington's or TCF's businesses may have been affected adversely by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger. Additionally, if the merger agreement is terminated, the market price of Huntington's or TCF's common stock could decline to the extent that the current market prices reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed. If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, either Huntington or TCF may be required to pay a termination fee of $238.8 million to the other party.

Additionally, each of Huntington and TCF has incurred and will incur substantial expenses in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including legal, accounting and financial advisory costs, as well as the costs and expenses of filing, printing and mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger. If the merger is not completed, Huntington and TCF would have to pay these expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the merger.

Huntington and TCF will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Huntington and TCF. These uncertainties may impair Huntington's or TCF's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Huntington or TCF to seek to change existing business relationships with Huntington or TCF. In addition, subject to certain exceptions, TCF has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing, and Huntington and TCF have agreed not to take certain actions, which could cause Huntington or TCF to be unable to pursue other beneficial opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Covenants and Agreements" beginning on page 120 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to Huntington and TCF.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The shares of Huntington common stock to be received by holders of TCF common stock as a result of the merger will have different rights from the shares of TCF common stock.

In the merger, holders of TCF common stock will become holders of Huntington common stock and their rights as shareholders will be governed by Maryland law and the governing documents of the combined company. The rights associated with Huntington common stock are different from the rights associated with TCF common stock. See the section entitled "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights" beginning on page 159 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Huntington common stock.

Holders of Huntington common stock and TCF common stock will have a reduced ownership and voting interest in the combined company after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Holders of Huntington common stock and TCF common stock currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors and on other matters affecting Huntington and TCF, respectively. When the merger is completed, each holder of TCF common stock who receives shares of Huntington common stock will become a holder of common stock of the combined company, with a percentage ownership of the combined company that is smaller than the holder's percentage ownership of TCF. Based on the number of shares of Huntington and TCF common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the respective record dates, and based on the number of shares of Huntington common stock expected to be issued in the merger, the former holders of TCF common stock, as a group, are estimated to own approximately thirty-one percent (31%) of the fully diluted shares of the combined company immediately after the merger and current holders of Huntington common stock as a group are estimated to own approximately sixty-nine percent (69%) of the fully diluted shares of the combined company immediately after the merger. Because of this, holders of TCF common stock may have less influence on the management and policies of the combined company than they now have on the management and policies of TCF, and holders of Huntington common stock may have less influence on the management and policies of the combined company than they now have on the management and policies of Huntington.

Issuance of shares of Huntington common stock in connection with the merger may adversely affect the market price of Huntington common stock.

In connection with the payment of the merger consideration, Huntington expects to issue approximately 458 million shares of Huntington common stock to TCF shareholders. The issuance of these new shares of Huntington common stock may result in fluctuations in the market price of Huntington common stock, including a stock price decrease.

Holders of Huntington common stock and holders of TCF common stock will not have appraisal rights or dissenters' rights in the merger.

Appraisal rights (also known as dissenters' rights) are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction.

Under Section 3-202 of the MGCL, the holders of Huntington common stock will not be entitled to appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger.

Under Section 450.1762 of the MBCA, the holders of TCF common stock will not be entitled to appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger if, on the record date for the TCF special meeting, TCF's shares are listed on a national securities exchange. TCF common stock is currently listed on the NASDAQ, a national securities exchange, and is expected to continue to be so listed on the record date for the TCF special meeting. Accordingly, the holders of TCF common stock are not entitled to any appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger.

Litigation related to the merger has been filed against TCF, Huntington, the TCF board of directors and the Huntington board of directors, and additional litigation may be filed against TCF and the TCF board of directors and/or Huntington and the Huntington board of directors in the future, which could prevent or delay the completion of the merger or result in the payment of damages.

Litigation related to the merger has been filed against TCF, Huntington, the TCF board of directors and the Huntington board of directors, and it is possible that additional litigation by shareholders of TCF and/or Huntington may be filed against TCF and the TCF board of directors and/or Huntington and the Huntington board of directors in the future. Among other remedies, litigation that has been filed seeks and additional litigation by shareholders of TCF and/or Huntington in the future could seek damages and/or to enjoin the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The outcome of any litigation is uncertain and any such lawsuits could prevent or delay the completion of the merger and result in substantial costs to TCF, Huntington and the combined company. Any such actions may create uncertainty relating to the merger and may be costly and distracting to management. Further, the defense or settlement of any lawsuit or claim that remains unresolved at the time the merger is completed may adversely affect the combined company's business, financial condition and results of operations. For more information, see "The Merger—Litigation Related to the Merger."

The merger agreement limits TCF's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger and may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Huntington or TCF.

The merger agreement contains "no shop" covenants that restrict TCF's ability to, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or proposals with respect to, engage or participate in any negotiations with any person concerning, provide any confidential or nonpublic information or data to, or have or participate in any discussions with, any person relating to, any acquisition proposal, subject to certain exceptions, or, during the term of the merger agreement, approve or enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other similar agreement relating to any acquisition proposal.

The merger agreement further provides that, during the twelve (12)-month period following the termination of the merger agreement under specified circumstances, including the entry into a definitive agreement or consummation of a transaction with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal, Huntington or TCF may be required to pay to the other party a cash termination fee equal to $238.8 million. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Termination Fee" beginning on page 131.

These provisions could discourage a potential third-party acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant portion of Huntington or TCF from considering or proposing that acquisition.

The merger agreement subjects Huntington and TCF to certain restrictions on their respective business activities prior to the effective time.

The merger agreement subjects Huntington and TCF to certain restrictions on their respective business activities prior to the effective time. Subject to certain specified exceptions, the merger agreement obligates TCF to, and to cause each of its subsidiaries to, conduct its business in the ordinary course in all material respects and use reasonable best efforts to maintain and preserve intact its business organization and advantageous business relationships, and each of Huntington and TCF to, and to cause each of its subsidiaries to, take no action that would reasonably be likely to adversely affect or delay the ability of either Huntington or TCF to obtain any necessary approvals of any regulatory agency or other governmental entity required for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or to perform its respective covenants and agreements under the merger agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement on a timely basis. These restrictions could prevent Huntington and TCF from pursuing certain business opportunities that arise prior to the effective time. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Covenants and Agreements—Conduct of Businesses Prior to the Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 120.

The opinions of Huntington's and TCF's financial advisors delivered to the parties' respective boards of directors prior to the signing of the merger agreement will not reflect changes in circumstances occurring after the date of such opinions.

Each of the opinions of Huntington's and TCF's financial advisors was delivered on, and dated, December 13, 2020. Changes in the operations and prospects of Huntington and TCF, general market and economic conditions and other factors which may be beyond the control of Huntington and TCF may have altered the value of Huntington or TCF or the prices of shares of Huntington common stock and shares of TCF common stock as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, or may alter such values and prices by the time the merger is completed. The opinions do not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the dates of those opinions. See the section entitled "The Merger—Opinion of Huntington's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 86 and the section entitled "The Merger—Opinion of TCF's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 72.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The COVID-19 pandemic's impact on the combined company's business and operations is uncertain.

The extent to which the COVID-19 pandemic will negatively affect the business, financial condition, liquidity, capital and results of operations of the combined company will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including the scope and duration of the COVID-19 pandemic, the direct and indirect impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on employees, clients, counterparties and service providers, as well as other market participants, and actions taken by governmental authorities and other third parties in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Given the ongoing and dynamic nature of the circumstances, it is difficult to predict the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the combined company's business, and there is no guarantee that efforts by the combined company to address the adverse impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic will be effective.

Even after the COVID-19 pandemic has subsided, the combined company may continue to experience adverse impacts to its business as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic's global economic impact, including reduced availability of credit, adverse impacts on liquidity and the negative financial effects from any recession or depression that may occur.

Risks Relating to Huntington's Business

You should read and consider risk factors specific to Huntington's business that will also affect the combined company after the merger. These risks are described in the sections entitled "Risk Factors" in Huntington's Annual Report on Form 10-K most recently filed with the SEC and in other documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Please see the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 178 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for the location of information incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks Relating to TCF's Business

You should read and consider risk factors specific to TCF's business that will also affect the combined company after the merger. These risks are described in the sections entitled "Risk Factors" in TCF's Annual Report on Form 10-K most recently filed with the SEC and in other documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. THE HUNTINGTON SPECIAL MEETING

This section contains information for holders of Huntington common stock about the special meeting that Huntington has called to allow holders of Huntington common stock to consider and vote on the merger agreement and other related matters. This joint proxy statement/prospectus is accompanied by a notice of the special meeting of holders of Huntington common stock and a form of proxy card that the Huntington board of directors is soliciting for use by the holders of Huntington common stock at the special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Date, Time and Place of the Meeting

The Huntington special meeting will be held virtually via the Internet on March 25, 2021 at 3:30 p.m., Eastern Time. The Huntington special meeting will be held solely via live webcast and there will not be a physical meeting location given the current public health impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic and our desire to promote the health and safety of Huntington shareholders, as well as Huntington directors, officers, employees and other constituents.

Only Huntington shareholders as of the close of business on the record date are entitled to receive notice of, and vote at, the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

If you are a holder of record, you will be able to attend the Huntington special meeting online, ask a question and vote by visiting the Huntington special meeting website at www.meetingcenter.io/207906613 and following the instructions on your proxy card. If you hold your shares of Huntington common stock in “street name” and want to attend the Huntington special meeting online by webcast (with the ability to ask a question and/or vote, if you choose to do so), you must first register by obtaining a signed legal proxy from your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee giving you the right to vote the shares and submitting proof of such legal proxy along with your name and email address to legalproxy@computershare.com or Computershare, Huntington Legal Proxy, P.O. Box 43001, Providence, RI 02940-3001, no later than March 22, 2021 at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time. You will receive a confirmation of your registration by email with instructions for accessing the Huntington special meeting website.

The password for the Huntington special meeting, if requested, is HBAN2021.

Matters to Be Considered

At the Huntington special meeting, holders of Huntington common stock will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

- the Huntington merger proposal;
- the Huntington authorized share count proposal; and
- the Huntington adjournment proposal.

Pursuant to the MGCL and Huntington's bylaws, only the matters set forth in the Notice of Virtual Special Meeting of Shareholders may be brought before the Huntington special meeting.

Recommendation of Huntington's Board of Directors

The Huntington board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” the Huntington merger proposal, “FOR” the Huntington authorized share count proposal and “FOR” the Huntington adjournment proposal. See “The Merger—Huntington's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Huntington's Board of Directors” beginning on page 83 for a more detailed discussion of the Huntington board of directors' recommendation.

Record Date and Quorum

The Huntington board of directors has fixed the close of business on February 11, 2021 as the record date for determination of the holders of Huntington common stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the Huntington special meeting. On the record date for the Huntington special meeting, there were 1,017,245,480 shares of Huntington common stock outstanding.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of Huntington common stock outstanding on the record date and entitled to vote at the Huntington special meeting must be present, either in attendance virtually via the Huntington special meeting website or by proxy, to constitute a quorum at the Huntington special meeting. If you fail to submit a proxy prior to the special meeting or to vote at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website, your shares of Huntington common stock will not be counted towards a quorum. Abstentions are considered present for purposes of establishing a quorum.

Under the MGCL and Huntington's bylaws, whether or not a quorum is present, the chairman of the meeting may adjourn the Huntington special meeting.

At the Huntington special meeting, each share of Huntington common stock is entitled to one (1) vote on all matters properly submitted to holders of Huntington common stock. Shares of Huntington preferred stock are not entitled to any votes at the Huntington special meeting.

As of the record date, Huntington directors and executive officers and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote approximately 6,802,270 shares of Huntington common stock, representing approximately sixty-six hundredths of one percent (0.66%) of the outstanding shares of Huntington common stock. We currently expect that Huntington's directors and executive officers will vote their shares in favor of the merger and the other proposals to be considered at the Huntington special meeting, although none of them has entered into any agreements obligating them to do so.

Broker Non-Votes

A broker non-vote occurs when a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee is not permitted to vote on a "non-routine" matter without instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares and the beneficial owner fails to provide the bank, broker, trustee or other nominee with such instructions. Broker non-votes only count toward a quorum if at least one (1) proposal is presented with respect to which the bank, broker, trustee or other nominee has discretionary authority. It is expected that all proposals to be voted on at the Huntington special meeting will be "non-routine" matters, and, as such, broker non-votes, if any, will not be counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum at the Huntington special meeting. If your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee holds your shares of Huntington common stock in "street name," such entity will vote your shares of Huntington common stock only if you provide instructions on how to vote by complying with the instructions provided to you by your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee with this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Vote Required; Treatment of Abstentions; Broker Non-Votes and Failure to Vote

Huntington merger proposal:

- Vote required: Approval of the Huntington merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast on the merger by the holders of outstanding Huntington common stock.
- Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark "ABSTAIN" on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website or fail to instruct your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee how to vote with respect to the Huntington merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the Huntington merger proposal.

Huntington authorized share count proposal:

- Vote required: Approval of the Huntington authorized share count proposal requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast on the Huntington charter amendment by the holders of outstanding Huntington common stock.
- Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark "ABSTAIN" on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website or fail to instruct your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee how to vote with respect to the Huntington authorized share count proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the Huntington authorized share count proposal.

Huntington adjournment proposal:

- Vote required: Approval of the Huntington adjournment proposal requires a majority of the votes cast on the Huntington adjournment proposal by the holders of Huntington common stock entitled to vote.
- Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark “ABSTAIN” on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website or fail to instruct your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee how to vote with respect to the Huntington adjournment proposal, you will not be deemed to have cast a vote with respect to the Huntington adjournment proposal and it will have no effect on the Huntington adjournment proposal.

Proxies

A holder of Huntington common stock may vote by proxy or at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website. TABLE OF CONTENTS

Huntington requests that holders of Huntington common stock vote by telephone, over the Internet or by completing and signing the accompanying proxy card and returning it to Huntington as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When the accompanying proxy card is returned properly executed, the shares of Huntington common stock represented by it will be voted at the Huntington special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained on the proxy card. If you make no specification on your proxy card as to how you want your shares voted before signing and returning it, your proxy will be voted "FOR" the Huntington merger proposal, "FOR" the Huntington authorized share count proposal and "FOR" the Huntington adjournment proposal.

If a holder's shares are held in "street name" by a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee, the holder should check the instructions provided by that firm to determine whether the holder may vote by telephone or the Internet.

Every vote is important. Accordingly, you should sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, or vote via the Internet or by telephone, whether or not you plan to attend the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website. Sending in your proxy card or voting by telephone or on the Internet will not prevent you from voting your shares personally via the Huntington special meeting website at the meeting because you may subsequently revoke your proxy.

Shares Held in Street Name

If your shares are held in "street name" through a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee, you must instruct the bank, broker, trustee or other nominee on how to vote your shares. Your broker, bank or other nominee will vote your shares only if you provide specific instructions on how to vote by following the instructions provided to you by your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee.

You may not vote shares held in a brokerage or other account in "street name" by returning a proxy card directly to Huntington or by voting at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website unless you obtain a legal proxy from your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee. If your shares of Huntington common stock are held in street name, you must register by submitting proof of such legal proxy along with your name and email address to legalproxy@computershare.com or Computershare, Huntington Legal Proxy, P.O. Box 43001, Providence, RI 02940-3001, no later than March 22, 2021 at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, to vote at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website.

Further, banks, brokers, trustees or other nominees who hold shares of Huntington common stock on behalf of their customers may not give a proxy to Huntington to vote those shares with respect to any non-routine matters without specific instructions from you, as banks, brokers, trustees and other nominees do not have discretionary voting power on any non-routine matters that will be voted upon at the Huntington special meeting, including the Huntington merger proposal, the Huntington authorized share count proposal and the Huntington adjournment proposal.

Revocability of Proxies

If you are a holder of Huntington common stock of record, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by:

- submitting a written notice of revocation to Huntington's corporate secretary;
- granting a subsequently dated proxy;
- voting by telephone or the Internet at a later time, before 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the day before the Huntington special meeting; or
- attending virtually and voting at the Huntington special meeting via the Huntington special meeting website.

If you hold your shares of Huntington common stock through a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee, you should contact your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee to change your vote.

Attendance virtually at the Huntington special meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy. A revocation or later-dated proxy received by Huntington after the deadlines described above will not affect the vote. Huntington's corporate secretary's mailing address is: Huntington Center, 41 South High Street,

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Columbus, Ohio 43287. If the Huntington special meeting is postponed or adjourned, it will not affect the ability of holders of Huntington common stock of record as of the record date to exercise their voting rights or to revoke any previously granted proxy using the methods described above.

HUNTINGTON PROPOSALS

Proposal 1: Huntington Merger Proposal

Huntington is asking holders of Huntington common stock to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby, including the issuance of Huntington stock pursuant to the merger agreement. Holders of Huntington common stock should read this joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in its entirety, including the annexes, for more detailed information concerning the merger agreement and the merger. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

After careful consideration, the Huntington board of directors, by a unanimous vote of all directors, determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Huntington and its shareholders and declared it advisable to enter into the merger agreement, and unanimously adopted and approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. See “The Merger—Huntington’s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Huntington’s Board of Directors” beginning on page 83 for a more detailed discussion of the Huntington board of directors’ recommendation.

Proposal 2: Huntington Authorized Share Count Proposal

In connection with the merger, Huntington is asking its shareholders to approve an amendment to Huntington’s charter to increase the number of authorized shares of Huntington common stock from one billion five hundred million (1,500,000,000) to two billion two hundred fifty million (2,250,000,000), effective immediately prior to, and subject to, the completion of the merger. A copy of the Huntington charter amendment to effect the authorized share count increase is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. Holders of Huntington common stock should read the Huntington charter amendment in its entirety.

As of the close of business on the record date for the Huntington special meeting, there were 1,017,245,480 outstanding shares of Huntington common stock and 56,351,655 shares of Huntington common stock reserved for issuance to directors and employees under various compensation and benefits plans, with the remaining 426,402,865 shares being authorized, unissued and unreserved shares available for other corporate purposes. In connection with the merger, Huntington expects to issue approximately 458 million shares of Huntington common stock to holders of TCF common stock.

The Huntington board of directors considers the proposed increase in the number of authorized shares advisable because it will enable Huntington to complete the merger and it will provide greater flexibility in the capital structure of the combined company following the merger by allowing it to raise capital that may be necessary to further develop its business, to fund potential acquisitions, to have shares available for use in connection with stock plans and to pursue other corporate purposes that may be identified by the board of directors of the combined company in the future. After careful consideration, the Huntington board of directors, by a unanimous vote of all directors, determined that the Huntington charter amendment is advisable and in the best interests of Huntington and approved the Huntington charter amendment.

Each share of Huntington common stock authorized for issuance has the same rights as, and is identical in all respects with, each other share of Huntington common stock currently outstanding. The newly authorized shares of Huntington common stock will not affect the rights, such as voting and liquidation rights, of the shares of Huntington common stock currently outstanding. Under the Huntington charter, shareholders of Huntington do not have preemptive rights.

Therefore, should the Huntington board of directors elect to issue additional shares of Huntington common stock, other than on a pro rata basis to all current common shareholders, existing common shareholders of Huntington would not have any preferential rights to purchase those shares, and such issuance could have a dilutive effect on earnings per share, book value per share, and the voting power and shareholdings of current shareholders of Huntington, depending on the particular circumstances in which the additional shares of Huntington common stock are issued. Please see the section entitled “Description of Huntington Capital Stock” beginning on page 137 for a description of Huntington capital stock and the rights of shareholders of Huntington. The Huntington board of directors continually considers Huntington’s capital structure and will determine the terms and timing of any future issuance.

The Huntington charter amendment will become effective immediately prior to the effective time, subject to the completion of the merger.

The foregoing description of the Huntington charter amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Huntington charter amendment, which is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The Huntington board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the Huntington authorized share count proposal.

Proposal 3: Huntington Adjournment Proposal

The Huntington special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Huntington special meeting to approve the Huntington merger proposal or the Huntington authorized share count proposal or to ensure that any supplement or amendment to this joint proxy statement/prospectus is timely provided to holders of Huntington common stock.

If, at the Huntington special meeting, the number of shares of Huntington common stock present virtually or represented and voting in favor of the Huntington merger proposal or the Huntington authorized share count proposal is insufficient to approve the Huntington merger proposal or the Huntington authorized share count proposal, as applicable, Huntington intends to move to adjourn the Huntington special meeting in order to enable the Huntington board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Huntington merger proposal or the Huntington authorized share count proposal, as applicable. In that event, Huntington will ask holders of Huntington common stock to vote upon the Huntington adjournment proposal, but not the Huntington merger proposal or the Huntington authorized share count proposal.

In this proposal, Huntington is asking holders of Huntington common stock to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Huntington board of directors on a discretionary basis to vote in favor of adjourning the Huntington special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from holders of Huntington common stock who have previously voted. Pursuant to the Huntington bylaws, the Huntington special meeting may be adjourned without new notice being given, if held on a date not more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the original record date.

The approval of the Huntington adjournment proposal by holders of Huntington common stock is not a condition to the completion of the merger.

The Huntington board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the Huntington adjournment proposal.

THE TCF SPECIAL MEETING

This section contains information for holders of TCF common stock about the special meeting that TCF has called to allow holders of TCF common stock to consider and vote on the merger agreement and other related matters. This joint proxy statement/prospectus is accompanied by a notice of the special meeting of holders of TCF common stock and a form of proxy card that the TCF board of directors is soliciting for use by the holders of TCF common stock at the special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Date, Time and Place of the Meeting

The TCF special meeting will be held virtually via the Internet on March 25, 2021 at 3:30 p.m., Eastern Time. The TCF special meeting will be held solely via live webcast and there will not be a physical meeting location given the current public health impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic and our desire to promote the health and safety of TCF shareholders, as well as TCF directors, officers, employees and other constituents.

Only TCF shareholders as of the close of business on the record date are entitled to receive notice of, and vote at, the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website or any adjournment or postponement thereof. TCF shareholders will be able to attend the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website or by proxy, submit questions and vote their shares electronically during the meeting by visiting the TCF special meeting website at www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/TCF2021SGM. TCF shareholders will need the control number found on their proxy card or voting instruction form in order to access the TCF special meeting website.

Matters to Be Considered

At the TCF special meeting, holders of TCF common stock will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

- the TCF merger proposal;
- the TCF compensation proposal; and
- the TCF adjournment proposal.

Recommendation of TCF's Board of Directors

The TCF board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the TCF merger proposal, "FOR" the TCF compensation proposal and "FOR" the TCF adjournment proposal. See "The Merger—TCF's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the TCF Board of Directors" beginning on page 69 for a more detailed discussion of the TCF board of directors' recommendation.

Record Date and Quorum

The TCF board of directors has fixed the close of business on February 11, 2021 as the record date for determination of the holders of TCF common stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the TCF special meeting. On the record date for the TCF special meeting, there were 152,588,177 shares of TCF common stock outstanding.

Holders of a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of TCF common stock on the record date and entitled to vote at the TCF special meeting must be present, either in attendance virtually via the TCF special meeting website or by proxy, to constitute a quorum at the TCF special meeting. If you fail to submit a proxy prior to the special meeting or to vote at the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website, your shares of TCF common stock will not be counted towards a quorum. Abstentions are considered present for purposes of establishing a quorum.

Under TCF's bylaws, if a quorum is not present at the TCF special meeting, the chair of the TCF special meeting or holders of a majority of the shares of TCF common stock entitled to vote who are represented in person (including virtually via the TCF special meeting website) or by proxy at the TCF special meeting may adjourn the TCF special meeting.

At the TCF special meeting, each share of TCF common stock is entitled to one (1) vote on all matters properly submitted to holders of TCF common stock.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

As of the record date, TCF directors and executive officers and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote approximately 1,233,585 shares of TCF common stock, representing approximately 0.8% of the shares of TCF common stock outstanding on the record date. TCF currently expects that TCF's directors and executive officers will vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement and the other proposals to be considered at the TCF special meeting, although none of them has entered into any agreements obligating them to do so.

Broker Non-Votes

A broker non-vote occurs when a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee is not permitted to vote on a "non-routine" matter without instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares and the beneficial owner fails to provide the bank, broker, trustee or other nominee with such instructions. Broker non-votes only count toward a quorum if at least one (1) proposal is presented with respect to which the bank, broker, trustee or other nominee has discretionary authority. It is expected that all proposals to be voted on at the TCF special meeting will be "non-routine" matters, and, as such, broker non-votes, if any, will not be counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum at the TCF special meeting. If your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee holds your shares of TCF common stock in "street name," such entity will vote your shares of TCF common stock only if you provide instructions on how to vote by complying with the voting instruction form sent to you by your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee with this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Vote Required; Treatment of Abstentions; Broker Non-Votes and Failure to Vote

TCF merger proposal:

- Vote required: Approval of the TCF merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of TCF common stock entitled to vote thereon.
- Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark "ABSTAIN" on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote at the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website or fail to instruct your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee how to vote with respect to the TCF merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the TCF merger proposal.

TCF compensation proposal:

- Vote required: Approval of the TCF compensation proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of TCF common stock entitled to vote via the TCF special meeting website or represented by proxy at the TCF special meeting.
- Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark "ABSTAIN" on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote at the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website or fail to instruct your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee how to vote with respect to the TCF compensation proposal, your shares will not be deemed to be a vote cast at the TCF special meeting and it will have no effect on the TCF compensation proposal.

TCF adjournment proposal:

- Vote required: Approval of the TCF adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of TCF common stock entitled to vote via the TCF special meeting website or represented by proxy at the TCF special meeting.
- Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark "ABSTAIN" on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote at the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website or fail to instruct your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee how to vote with respect to the TCF adjournment proposal, your shares will not be deemed to be a vote cast at the TCF special meeting and it will have no effect on the TCF adjournment proposal.

Attending the Virtual Special Meeting

The TCF special meeting may be accessed via the TCF special meeting website, where TCF shareholders will be able to listen to the TCF special meeting, submit questions and vote online. You are entitled to attend the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website only if you were a shareholder of record at the close of business on the record date or you held your TCF shares beneficially in the name of a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee as of the record date, or you hold a valid proxy for the TCF special meeting. If you were a shareholder of record at the close of business on the record date and wish to attend the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website, you will need the control number on your proxy card. If a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee is the record owner of your shares of TCF common stock, you will need to obtain your specific control number and further instructions from your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee.

You may submit questions during the live audio webcast of the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website. To ensure the TCF special meeting is conducted in a manner that is fair to all shareholders, we may exercise discretion in determining the order in which questions are answered and the amount of time devoted to any one question. We reserve the right to edit or reject questions we deem inappropriate or not relevant to the TCF special meeting's limited purpose.

Technical assistance will be available for shareholders who experience an issue accessing the TCF special meeting. Contact information for technical support will appear on the TCF special meeting website prior to the start of the TCF special meeting.

Proxies

A holder of TCF common stock may vote by proxy or at the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website. If you hold your shares of TCF common stock in your name as a holder of record, to submit a proxy, you, as a holder of TCF common stock, may use one of the following methods:

- By telephone: by calling the toll-free number indicated on the accompanying proxy card and following the recorded instructions.
- Through the Internet: by visiting the website indicated on the accompanying proxy card and following the instructions.
- By completing and returning the accompanying proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope: the envelope requires no additional postage if mailed in the United States.

If you intend to submit your proxy by telephone or via the Internet, you must do so by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the day before the TCF special meeting. If you intend to submit your proxy by mail, your completed proxy card must be received prior to the TCF special meeting.

TCF requests that holders of TCF common stock vote by telephone, over the Internet or by completing and signing the accompanying proxy card and returning it to TCF as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When the accompanying proxy card is returned properly executed, the shares of TCF common stock represented by it will be voted at the TCF special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained on the proxy card. If you make no specification on your proxy card as to how you want your shares voted before signing and returning it, your proxy will be voted "FOR" the TCF merger proposal, "FOR" the TCF compensation proposal and "FOR" the TCF adjournment proposal.

If a holder's shares are held in "street name" by a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee, the holder should check the voting form used by that firm to determine whether the holder may vote by telephone or the Internet.

Every vote is important. Accordingly, you should sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, or vote via the Internet or by telephone, whether or not you plan to attend the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website. Sending in your proxy card or voting by telephone or on the Internet will not prevent you from voting your shares personally via the TCF special meeting website at the meeting because you may subsequently revoke your proxy.

Shares Held in Street Name

If your shares are held in "street name" through a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee, you must instruct the broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares. Your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee will vote your shares only if you provide specific instructions on how to vote by following the instructions provided to you by your broker, bank or other nominee.

You may not vote shares held in "street name" by returning a proxy card directly to TCF.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Further, banks, brokers, trustees or other nominees who hold shares of TCF common stock on behalf of their customers may not give a proxy to TCF to vote those shares with respect to any non-routine matters without specific instructions from you, as banks, brokers, trustees and other nominees do not have discretionary voting power on any non-routine matters that will be voted upon at the TCF special meeting, including the TCF merger proposal, the TCF compensation proposal and the TCF adjournment proposal.

Revocability of Proxies

If you are a holder of TCF common stock of record, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by:

- submitting a written notice of revocation to TCF's corporate secretary;
- granting a subsequently dated proxy;
- voting by telephone or the Internet at a later time, before 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the day before the TCF special meeting; or
- attending virtually and voting at the TCF special meeting via the TCF special meeting website.

If you hold your shares of TCF common stock through a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee, you may change your vote by:

- contacting your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee; or
- attending and voting your shares at the TCF special meeting virtually via the TCF special meeting website if you have your specific 16-digit control number, which is included on your proxy card or the voting instruction form from your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee. Please contact your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee to obtain further instructions.

Attendance virtually at the TCF special meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy. A revocation or later-dated proxy received by TCF after the deadlines described above will not affect the vote. TCF's corporate secretary's mailing address is: TCF Financial Corporation, Suite 1800, 333 W. Fort Street, Detroit, Michigan, 48226, Attention: Corporate Secretary. If the TCF special meeting is postponed or adjourned, it will not affect the ability of holders of TCF common stock of record as of the record date to exercise their voting rights or to revoke any previously granted proxy using the methods described above.

Delivery of Proxy Materials

As permitted by applicable law, only one (1) copy of this joint proxy statement/prospectus is being delivered to holders of TCF common stock residing at the same address, unless such holders of TCF common stock have notified TCF of their desire to receive multiple copies of the joint proxy statement/prospectus.

If you hold shares of both Huntington common stock and TCF common stock, you will receive separate packages of proxy materials to vote your TCF common stock and Huntington common stock.

TCF will promptly deliver, upon oral or written request, a separate copy of the joint proxy statement/prospectus to any holder of TCF common stock residing at an address to which only one (1) copy of such document was mailed. Requests for additional copies should be directed to TCF's Investor Relations at (866) 258-1807 or TCF's proxy solicitor, D.F. King & Co., Inc., by calling toll-free at (800) 207-3159.

Solicitation of Proxies

Huntington and TCF will share equally the expenses incurred in connection with the printing and mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. To assist in the solicitation of proxies, TCF has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc., for a fee of $12,500 plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses for their services. TCF and its proxy solicitor will also request banks, brokers, trustees and other intermediaries holding shares of TCF common stock beneficially owned by others to send this document to, and obtain proxies from, the beneficial owners and may reimburse such record holders for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in so doing. Solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone and other electronic means, advertisements and personal solicitation by the directors, officers or employees of TCF. No additional compensation will be paid to TCF's directors, officers or employees for solicitation.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

You should not send in any TCF stock certificates with your proxy card (or, if you hold your shares in “street name” your voting instruction card). The exchange agent will mail a transmittal letter with instructions for the surrender of stock certificates to holders of TCF common stock as soon as practicable after completion of the merger.

Other Matters to Come Before the TCF Special Meeting

TCF management knows of no other business to be presented at the TCF special meeting, but if any other matters are properly presented to the meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof, the persons named in the proxies will vote upon them in accordance with the board of directors’ recommendations.

Assistance

If you need assistance in completing your proxy card, have questions regarding TCF’s special meeting or would like additional copies of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, please contact TCF’s Investor Relations at (866) 258-1807 or TCF’s proxy solicitor, D.F. King & Co., Inc., by calling toll-free at (800) 207-3159.

TCF PROPOSALS

Proposal 1: TCF Merger Proposal

TCF is asking holders of TCF common stock to approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. Holders of TCF common stock should read this joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in its entirety, including the annexes, for more detailed information concerning the merger agreement and the merger. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

After careful consideration, the TCF board of directors unanimously determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of TCF and its shareholders and unanimously adopted the merger agreement and authorized and approved the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. See “The Merger—TCF’s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of TCF’s Board of Directors” beginning on page 69 for a more detailed discussion of the TCF board of directors’ recommendation.

The TCF board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the TCF merger proposal.

Proposal 2: TCF Compensation Proposal

Pursuant to Section 14A of the Exchange Act and Rule 14a-21(c) thereunder, TCF is seeking a non-binding, advisory shareholder approval of the compensation of TCF’s named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger as disclosed in the section entitled “The Merger—Interests of TCF’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger—Merger-Related Compensation for TCF’s Named Executive Officers—Golden Parachute Compensation” beginning on page 108. The proposal gives holders of TCF common stock the opportunity to express their views on the merger-related compensation of TCF’s named executive officers.

Accordingly, TCF is asking holders of TCF common stock to vote “FOR” the adoption of the following resolution, on a non-binding advisory basis:

“RESOLVED, that the compensation that will or may be paid or become payable to the TCF named executive officers, in connection with the merger, and the agreements or understandings pursuant to which such compensation will or may be paid or become payable, in each case as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in “The Merger—Interests of TCF’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger— Merger-Related Compensation for TCF’s Named Executive Officers—Golden Parachute Compensation” are hereby APPROVED.”

The vote on the advisory compensation proposal is a vote separate and apart from the votes on the TCF merger proposal and the TCF adjournment proposal. Accordingly, if you are a holder of TCF common stock, you may vote to approve the TCF merger proposal and/or the TCF adjournment proposal and vote not to approve the TCF compensation proposal, and vice versa. The approval of the TCF compensation proposal by holders of TCF common stock is not a condition to the completion of the merger. If the merger is completed, the merger-related compensation will be paid to TCF’s named executive officers to the extent payable in accordance with the terms of the compensation agreements and arrangements even if holders of TCF common stock fail to approve the advisory vote regarding merger-related compensation.

The TCF board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the advisory TCF compensation proposal.

Proposal 3: TCF Adjournment Proposal

The TCF special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the TCF special meeting to approve the TCF merger proposal or to ensure that any supplement or amendment to this joint proxy statement/prospectus is timely provided to holders of TCF common stock.

If, at the TCF special meeting, the number of shares of TCF common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the TCF merger proposal is insufficient to approve the TCF merger proposal, TCF intends to move to adjourn the TCF special meeting in order to enable the TCF board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the TCF merger proposal. In that event, TCF will ask holders of TCF common stock to vote upon the TCF adjournment proposal, but not the TCF merger proposal or the TCF compensation proposal.

In this proposal, TCF is asking holders of TCF common stock to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the TCF board of directors, on a discretionary basis, to vote in favor of adjourning the TCF special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from holders of TCF common stock who have previously voted. Pursuant to the TCF bylaws, the TCF special meeting may be adjourned without new notice being given.

The approval of the TCF adjournment proposal by holders of TCF common stock is not a condition to the completion of the merger.

The TCF board of directors recommends a vote “FOR” the TCF adjournment proposal.

Terms of the Merger

Each of Huntington’s and TCF’s respective board of directors has approved the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that TCF will merge with and into Huntington, with Huntington as the surviving corporation. Following the completion of the merger, TCF National Bank, a wholly owned bank subsidiary of TCF, will merge with and into The Huntington National Bank, a wholly owned bank subsidiary of Huntington, with The Huntington National Bank as the surviving bank.

In the merger, each share of TCF common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than certain shares held by Huntington or TCF) will be converted into the right to receive 3.0028 shares of Huntington common stock. No fractional shares of Huntington common stock will be issued in connection with the merger, and holders of TCF common stock will be entitled to receive cash in lieu thereof.

Also in the merger, each share of TCF series C preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive one (1) share of new Huntington preferred stock.

Holders of Huntington common stock and holders of TCF common stock are being asked to approve the merger and the merger agreement. See the section entitled “The Merger Agreement” beginning on page 114 for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about the conditions to the completion of the merger and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement.

Background of the Merger

As part of the ongoing consideration and evaluation of their respective long-term prospects and strategies, each of Huntington’s and TCF’s board of directors (which we refer to in this section as the “Huntington Board” and the “TCF Board”, respectively) and Huntington’s and TCF’s senior management have regularly reviewed and assessed their respective business strategies and objectives, including assessments of strategic growth opportunities potentially available to Huntington and TCF, as part of their respective continuous efforts to enhance value for their respective shareholders and deliver the best possible services to their respective customers and communities. These reviews have focused on, among other things, prospects and developments in the financial services industry, in the regulatory environment, in the economy generally, and in financial markets, and the implications of such developments for financial institutions generally and Huntington and TCF, in particular. These reviews have also included assessments of ongoing consolidation in the financial services industry and the benefits and risks to Huntington and TCF, respectively, and their respective shareholders of strategic combinations compared to the benefits and risks of continued operation as a stand-alone company.

Mr. Stephen Steinour, Huntington’s chairman, president and chief executive officer, Mr. Gary Torgow, TCF’s executive chairman, and Mr. David T. Provost, TCF’s chief executive officer, have known each other for a number of years and have periodically discussed matters of mutual interest to their respective institutions, including in particular community and neighborhood support and development programs, as well as developments in the financial services industry generally. These discussions have occurred during the course of investor and banking industry conferences and social and community settings. Prior to October 2020, none of these discussions included discussions regarding a potential business combination between Huntington and TCF. On October 29, 2020, several days after TCF’s announcement of its third quarter earnings, Mr. Steinour contacted Mr. Torgow to suggest a meeting between Mr. Steinour and Messrs. Torgow and Provost. Mr. Provost arranged for such a meeting, which was held on November 3, 2020 at the Detroit Athletic Club and included Messrs. Steinour, Torgow and Provost. At that meeting, Mr. Steinour expressed his interest in pursuing discussions regarding a merger of the two companies.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Shortly thereafter, Mr. Torgow briefed Vance Opperman, the TCF Board's lead independent director, regarding his discussions with Mr. Steinour and the potential opportunities of a business combination with Huntington. Messrs. Torgow and Opperman engaged in a number of discussions regarding these matters and possible steps for exploring such a transaction. Mr. Opperman expressed his support for TCF management to engage in preliminary discussions regarding whether such a transaction was feasible. Over the course of the following weeks, Messrs. Opperman, Torgow and Provost also informed and discussed the opportunity of exploring a potential transaction with each of the other TCF directors.

Over the weeks following their initial call, Messrs. Steinour, Torgow, and Provost discussed the potential financial and operational benefits of a merger between Huntington and TCF and possible terms for such a transaction, including a framework for determining the exchange ratio, merger consideration and governance terms. Mr. Steinour also indicated that Huntington anticipated entering into advisory services and non-competition agreements with Messrs. Torgow and Provost, which would be effective upon the closing of the transaction, to assist in business development and customer, community and government relations following the closing, and which would include customary non-competition and other restrictive covenants, which Huntington believed would support the value of the TCF franchise and the combined company.

During this period, Mr. Steinour regularly discussed the potential transaction with members of the Huntington Board, including lead independent director David L. Porteous, who expressed their support for Huntington management continuing to pursue preliminary discussions with TCF regarding a potential business combination. On November 12, 2020, a meeting of the joint Executive Committee of the Huntington Board and of The Huntington National Bank board of directors was held to discuss the potential transaction with TCF, which members of management attended. At the meeting, Mr. Steinour and other members of Huntington management updated the Executive Committee on the potential business combination with TCF, the synergies, opportunities and other benefits that could be realized through a combination, and the preliminary transaction terms under discussion with TCF. Following discussion, the Executive Committee unanimously supported moving forward with negotiations with TCF around a potential business combination.

On November 16, 2020, Messrs. Steinour, Provost and Torgow agreed on an outline of terms to present to their respective boards for consideration. These terms included merger consideration consisting of Huntington common stock (with Huntington having the option to include cash for up to 10% of the total consideration), an 11% acquisition premium to be calculated using a methodology and measuring period to be agreed, five TCF directors being added to Huntington's board, dual headquarters in Columbus and Detroit for the combined company's banking operations, the combined company's intention to increase total employment in TCF's new Detroit headquarters to at least eight hundred (800) employees, the cities of Minneapolis, Chicago and Midland remaining as centers of influence for the combined company, and Mr. Torgow being appointed as chairman of The Huntington National Bank board of directors at closing.

On November 19, 2020, a meeting of the joint Executive Committee of the Huntington Board and of The Huntington National Bank board of directors was held to further discuss the potential transaction with TCF, which members of management attended. At the meeting, Mr. Steinour and other members of Huntington management updated the Executive Committee on the potential transaction and the preliminary terms discussed among Messrs. Steinour, Provost and Torgow, and members of management and the Executive Committee discussed the potential synergies and other opportunities that could be realized through a combination and the due diligence to be undertaken in connection with a transaction. Following discussion, the Executive Committee unanimously supported continuing discussions with TCF and conducting a reciprocal due diligence review.

On November 20, 2020, Huntington and TCF executed a mutual nondisclosure agreement in order to facilitate more detailed discussions of a potential business combination and reciprocal due diligence efforts.

Starting on November 21, 2020, TCF made available to Huntington, and starting on November 25, 2020, Huntington made available to TCF, documents for mutual due diligence review in virtual data rooms. Through December 13, 2020, the parties engaged in extensive mutual due diligence, including through a series of virtual due diligence meetings and telephone calls between the parties and their respective representatives to discuss relevant topics.

On November 24, 2020, the TCF Board held a meeting to discuss, among other matters, the potential transaction with Huntington, with members of TCF management, representatives of KBW and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, legal counsel to TCF, which we refer to as "Simpson Thacher", and Mr. Dennis Klaeser, who previously served as Chemical Financial Corporation's chief financial officer, and then served as TCF's chief financial officer until October 1, 2020, and whom TCF had engaged to advise it in connection with a potential transaction, in attendance. (This meeting and each of the subsequent TCF Board meetings were held as joint meetings with the TCF Board's Strategic Initiatives Committee). Messrs. Torgow and Provost reported to the TCF Board on the various discussions they and other representatives of TCF management had had with representatives of Huntington regarding the potential transaction. Representatives of TCF management provided the TCF Board with, among other information, an overview of Huntington and its business operations and the then-current state of, and outlook for, the banking industry in general, as well as TCF's operations and prospects and the strategic rationale for considering a merger with Huntington, including the accelerating need for investments in technology and the competitive benefits of scale in the banking industry. Mr. Klaeser reviewed with the TCF Board the key terms for the potential transaction that Messrs. Torgow, Provost, and Steinour had discussed. A Simpson Thacher representative reviewed with the TCF Board certain legal considerations, including the directors' fiduciary duties in connection with their consideration of a potential transaction with Huntington. Mr. Torgow also advised the TCF Board that Huntington expected Messrs. Torgow and Provost to enter into advisory services and non-competition agreements, which would be effective upon the closing of the transaction, to assist in business development and customer, community and government relations following the closing. Following discussion, the TCF directors expressed their support for continuing to explore whether a potential transaction was feasible and directed Messrs. Torgow and Provost and other members of TCF management, with the assistance of KBW and Simpson Thacher, to continue their discussions and negotiations with Huntington and its advisors regarding such a transaction.

On November 30, 2020, Huntington's counsel, Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, which we refer to as "Wachtell Lipton", shared with Simpson Thacher a first draft of the proposed merger agreement. From November 30, 2020 until December 13, 2020, Huntington's and TCF's legal advisors negotiated the proposed merger agreement and other transaction documents.

Also on November 30, 2020, the TCF Board held a meeting to discuss, among other matters, the potential transaction with Huntington, with members of TCF management, Mr. Klaeser and representatives of KBW and Simpson Thacher in attendance. Messrs. Torgow and Provost reported, among other things, that representatives of TCF had had numerous discussions with representatives of Huntington regarding all aspects of due diligence since the November 24, 2020 TCF Board meeting. Mr. Klaeser then reviewed with the TCF Board certain financial information implied by the potential transaction, including a preliminary estimate of the cost savings that could potentially be achieved in the potential transaction. A KBW representative discussed certain preliminary financial observations, the transactional landscape in the banking industry and other potential strategic alternatives for TCF, including the universe of other potential acquirors and merger partners. TCF management reviewed with the TCF Board certain strategic and operational benefits that could potentially be achieved in a business combination with Huntington.

On December 1, 2020, a meeting of the joint Executive Committee of the Huntington Board and of The Huntington National Bank board of directors was held to further discuss the potential transaction with TCF, which members of management and representatives of Wachtell Lipton attended. At the meeting, Mr. Steinour and other members of Huntington management updated the Executive Committee on the status of the parties' mutual due diligence and of discussions with TCF regarding transaction terms. Representatives of Wachtell Lipton discussed with the members of the Executive Committee the terms of the transaction documents, including the advisory services and non-competition agreements proposed to be entered into in connection with the transaction. Following discussion, the Executive Committee unanimously supported continuing negotiations with TCF.

On December 7, 2020, a meeting of the joint Risk Oversight and joint Audit Committees of the Huntington Board and of The Huntington National Bank board of directors was held, which members of Huntington management attended. At the meeting, members of Huntington management reviewed with the committee members the status and key findings of Huntington's due diligence review of TCF across a variety of areas. In addition, during this period Mr. Steinour updated other members of the Huntington Board on the status of the transaction.

On December 9, 2020, a joint meeting of the Huntington Board and The Huntington National Bank board of directors was held to further discuss the potential transaction with TCF, which members of management and representatives of Wachtell Lipton and Goldman Sachs attended. At the meeting, Mr. Steinour updated the directors on the status of discussions between Huntington and TCF and their respective advisors. Representatives of Wachtell Lipton discussed with the directors the terms of the transaction documents, including the principal terms of the draft merger agreement and the advisory services and non-competition agreements, and reviewed with the directors their fiduciary duties in connection with their consideration of a potential transaction with TCF. Members of Huntington management reviewed with the directors certain financial aspects of the potential transaction, including with respect to the pro forma financial impacts of the potential transaction. Representatives of Goldman Sachs then reviewed with the directors certain preliminary financial analyses regarding the two companies. Members of Huntington management reviewed with the directors the key findings of Huntington's due diligence review of TCF across a variety of areas. Following discussion, the directors expressed unanimous support for pursuing a potential transaction with TCF on the terms discussed at the meeting and directed Huntington management, with the assistance of Huntington's advisors, to finalize the merger agreement and other transaction documents.

Also on December 9, 2020, the TCF Board held a meeting to discuss the potential transaction with Huntington, with members of TCF management, Mr. Klaeser and representatives of KBW and Simpson Thacher in attendance. Messrs. Torgow and Provost updated the TCF Board regarding the discussions between TCF and Huntington and their respective advisors since the last TCF Board meeting. They reported, among other things, on discussions to finalize the calculation of the merger exchange ratio based on the parties' ongoing negotiations and substantial completion of their due diligence reviews. Mr. Provost noted that the final exchange ratio in the transaction would be calculated based on the volume weighted average prices of the common stock of Huntington and TCF for a specified period preceding the signing of the merger agreement. Members of TCF management then reviewed with the TCF Board the status, process and key findings of TCF's ongoing due diligence review of Huntington. Mr. Klaeser and a representative of KBW then reviewed with the TCF Board certain financial aspects of the potential transaction based on the preliminary proposed exchange ratio. A representative of Simpson Thacher reviewed with the TCF Board the principal terms of the draft merger agreement. Following discussion, the TCF directors expressed unanimous support for pursuing a potential transaction with Huntington on the terms discussed at the meeting and directed TCF management, with the assistance of TCF's advisors, to finalize the merger agreement and other transaction documents.

During the rest of that day and through December 13, 2020, Huntington's and TCF's management teams, with the assistance of the parties' respective financial and legal advisors, continued to negotiate and finalize the merger agreement and other transaction documents.

On December 13, 2020, a joint meeting of the Huntington Board and The Huntington National Bank board of directors was held to discuss the potential transaction with TCF, which members of management and representatives of Wachtell Lipton and Goldman Sachs attended. At the meeting, Mr. Steinour updated the directors on the final negotiations with TCF and reviewed certain considerations relating to the proposed transaction, including with respect to the anticipated timeline and financial implications of the proposed transaction. Members of the Huntington Board and management reviewed the due diligence effort and findings of Huntington management and Huntington's advisors. Representatives of Goldman Sachs reviewed with the Huntington Board Goldman Sachs' financial analysis summarized below under "—Opinion of Huntington's Financial Advisor" and rendered to the Huntington Board the oral opinion of Goldman Sachs, subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated December 13, 2020, to the Huntington Board, and attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C, to the effect that, as of the date of Goldman Sachs' written opinion and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in Goldman Sachs' written opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to Huntington. Representatives of Wachtell Lipton reviewed for the directors the final terms of the proposed merger agreement and other transaction documents and reviewed the directors' fiduciary duties in connection with their consideration of a potential transaction with TCF, as they had previously done. Following further discussion, during which the directors considered the matters reviewed and discussed at that meeting and all prior meetings, including the factors described under the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "—Huntington's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Huntington Board of Directors," the Huntington Board, by a unanimous vote of all directors, determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement were advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Huntington and its shareholders and declared it advisable to enter into the merger agreement, and unanimously adopted and approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Also on December 13, 2020, the TCF Board and the TCF National Bank board of directors held a joint meeting to discuss the potential transaction with Huntington, with members of TCF management, Mr. Klaeser and representatives of KBW and Simpson Thacher in attendance. Messrs. Torgow and Provost updated the TCF Board on the final negotiations with Huntington relating to the proposed transaction, and noted that based on the agreed methodology and the respective trading prices of the two companies' shares through the close of trading on Friday, the parties had agreed that, subject to approval by the TCF Board and the Huntington Board, the final exchange ratio would be 3.0028, representing an 11.6% premium to TCF's common stock closing price on Friday and a pro forma ownership by TCF common shareholders in the combined company of approximately 31%. A representative of Simpson Thacher updated the directors on the final terms of the proposed merger agreement. KBW then reviewed and discussed with the TCF Board, among other matters, the financial aspects of the proposed transaction and rendered to the TCF Board an opinion, which was initially rendered verbally and confirmed by a written opinion dated December 13, 2020, to the effect that, as of that date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW as set forth in such opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of TCF common stock. See "—Opinion of TCF's Financial Advisor." A KBW representative then reviewed and discussed with the TCF Board potential illustrative pro forma valuation implications of the proposed transaction for the outstanding TCF preferred stock. Following further discussion, during which the directors considered the matters reviewed and discussed at that meeting and all prior meetings, including the factors described under the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "—TCF's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the TCF Board of Directors," the TCF Board unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement were advisable and fair to and in the best interests of TCF and its common shareholders, and adopted the merger agreement and approved the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and recommended that TCF common shareholders approve the merger agreement. The TCF Board also determined that, as of the date of the meeting, the fair value of a share of the new series of Huntington preferred stock to be issued to holders of TCF's outstanding preferred stock in the proposed merger was not less than the fair value of a share of TCF's outstanding preferred stock.

Shortly following the TCF Board meeting that same day, the compensation and pension committee of the TCF Board held a meeting with Messrs. Torgow and Provost and other representatives of TCF management and Simpson Thacher in attendance. Mr. Torgow reviewed with the committee the proposed terms of new and amended retention and change-in-control arrangements with certain members of TCF's executive leadership team, including Messrs. Torgow, Provost and Shafer, as reviewed with the committee at an earlier meeting and furnished to the full TCF Board. Mr. Torgow then reviewed with the committee the material terms of the advisory services and non-competition agreements that Messrs. Torgow and Provost and Huntington would enter into in connection with the proposed transaction, as previously furnished to the full TCF Board. Following discussion, the committee approved the proposed new and amended retention and change-in-control arrangements. For a description of such compensation arrangements, see "—Interests of TCF's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger."

In the evening of December 13, 2020, following the meetings of the Huntington Board and the TCF Board, Huntington and TCF executed the merger agreement.

The transaction was announced later in the evening of December 13, 2020 in a press release jointly issued by Huntington and TCF.

TCF's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of TCF's Board of Directors

In reaching its decision to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and to recommend that its shareholders approve the merger agreement and the merger, the TCF board of directors evaluated the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in consultation with TCF's management, as well as TCF's financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following factors:

- each of TCF's and Huntington's business, operations, financial condition, stock performance, asset quality, earnings and prospects. In reviewing these factors, including the information obtained through due diligence, the TCF board of directors considered that Huntington's and TCF's respective business, operations and risk profile complement each other and that the companies' separate earnings and prospects, and the synergies and scale potentially available in the proposed transaction, create the opportunity for the combined company to leverage complementary and diversified revenue streams and to have superior future earnings and prospects compared to TCF's earnings and prospects on a stand-alone basis;

- the ability to leverage the combined company's investments in innovation and technology to improve customer offerings and service;
- the combined company's position as one of the largest financial services organizations based in the United States in terms of market capitalization, loans, deposits and net income;
- that the combined company's expanded distribution channels and scale positions it to serve an expanded customer base through a distinctive customer experience while driving enhanced financial performance;
- the ability of the combined company to leverage Huntington's broader product and services offering, as well as its award-winning digital capabilities, across the expanded combined customer base and the complementary nature of TCF's national inventory and equipment finance businesses, which will support Huntington's existing commercial efforts;
- the fact that, upon the closing, the combined company's board of directors would include five legacy TCF directors and that Mr. Torgow would serve as chairman of The Huntington National Bank, each of which the TCF board of directors believes enhances the likelihood that the strategic benefits TCF expects to achieve as a result of the merger will be realized;
- the fact that the combined company will have dual headquarters for banking operations in Detroit, Michigan and Columbus, Ohio, with the headquarters of the combined company's commercial banking operations located in Detroit, Michigan and the headquarters of the combined company's consumer banking operations located in Columbus, Ohio;
- the fact that the combined company plans to remain connected to Minneapolis, where TCF was founded nearly a century ago, with Minneapolis, Chicago and Midland remaining as centers of influence for the combined company following the merger;
- the fact that at least 800 employees of the combined company, nearly three times the number TCF had planned, will be housed at the headquarters for the commercial bank in Detroit thereby deepening the combined company's presence in, and commitment to, the city;
- the fact that, prior to the closing, Huntington will contribute $50 million to a donor advised fund at the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan to serve the needs of communities in Detroit and across the footprint of the combined bank operations;
- its knowledge of the current environment in the financial services industry, including economic conditions and the interest rate and regulatory environments, increased operating costs resulting from regulatory and compliance mandates, increasing competition from both banks and non-bank financial and financial technology firms, current financial market conditions and the likely effects of these factors on TCF's and the combined company's potential growth, development, productivity and strategic options;
- its views with respect to other strategic alternatives potentially available to TCF, including continuing as a standalone company and a transformative transaction with another potential acquiror or merger partner, and its belief that a transaction with such other potential transaction partners would not deliver the financial and operational benefits that could be achieved in the proposed merger with Huntington or that such other potential partners currently were not interested in pursuing a transaction in the geographies in which TCF was operating;
- the exchange ratio in relation to the respective earnings contributions of TCF and Huntington;
- Huntington's past record of integrating acquisitions and of realizing expected financial and other benefits of such acquisitions;

- the anticipated pro forma financial impact of the merger on the combined company, including earnings, earnings per share accretion, dividends, return on equity, tangible book value, asset quality, operational efficiency, liquidity and regulatory capital levels;
- the complementary nature of TCF's and Huntington's businesses and prospects given the markets they serve and products they offer, and the expectation that the transaction would provide economies of scale, enhanced ability to invest in technology and innovation, expanded product offerings, cost savings opportunities and enhanced opportunities for growth;
- its belief that the two companies' purpose-driven corporate cultures are similar and compatible, which would facilitate integration and implementation of the transaction;
- TCF's and Huntington's shared views regarding the best approach to combining and integrating the two companies, structured to maximize the potential for synergies and positive impact to local communities and minimize the loss of customers and employees and to further diversify the combined company's operating risk profile compared to the risk profile of either company on a stand-alone basis;
- its review and discussions with TCF's management concerning TCF's due diligence examination of the operations, financial condition and regulatory compliance programs and prospects of Huntington;
- the expectation that the required regulatory approvals could be obtained in a timely fashion;
- the expectation that the transaction will be generally tax-free for United States federal income tax purposes to TCF's shareholders;
- the fact that the exchange ratio would be fixed, which the TCF board of directors believed was consistent with market practice for transactions of this type and with the strategic purpose of the transaction;
- its expectation that, upon consummation of the merger, TCF shareholders would own approximately 31% of the combined company on a fully diluted basis;
- the fact that TCF's shareholders will have an opportunity to vote on the approval of the merger agreement and the merger;
- the impact of the merger on TCF's employees, including the benefits agreed to be provided by Huntington pursuant to the merger agreement;
- the opinion of KBW, dated December 13, 2020, to the TCF board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of TCF common stock of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger. See "—Opinion of TCF's Financial Advisor"; and
- the terms of the merger agreement, which TCF reviewed with its legal advisor, including the representations, covenants, deal protection and termination provisions.

The TCF board of directors also considered the potential risks related to the transaction but concluded that the anticipated benefits of combining with Huntington were likely to outweigh these risks. These potential risks include:

- the possible diversion of management attention and resources from other strategic opportunities and operational matters while working to implement the transaction and integrate the two companies;
- the risk of losing key TCF employees during the pendency of the merger and thereafter;
- the restrictions on the conduct of TCF's business during the period between execution of the merger agreement and the consummation of the merger, which could potentially delay or prevent TCF from undertaking business opportunities that might arise or certain other actions it might otherwise take with respect to its operations absent the pendency of the merger;
- the potential effect of the merger on TCF's overall business, including its relationships with customers, employees, suppliers and regulators;
- the fact that TCF's shareholders would not be entitled to appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- the possibility of encountering difficulties in achieving cost savings and synergies in the amounts currently estimated or within the time frame currently contemplated;
- certain anticipated merger-related costs, which could also be higher than expected;
- the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the bank merger and the risk that such regulatory approvals will not be received or will not be received in a timely manner or may impose burdensome or unacceptable conditions;
- the potential for legal claims challenging the merger;
- the risk that the merger may not be completed despite the combined efforts of TCF and Huntington or that completion may be unduly delayed, including as a result of delays in obtaining the required regulatory approvals; and
- the other risks described under the sections entitled “Risk Factors” and “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.”

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the TCF board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the board. In reaching its decision to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the TCF board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The TCF board of directors considered all these factors as a whole in evaluating the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

For the reasons set forth above, the TCF board of directors determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of TCF and its shareholders, and adopted the merger agreement and approved the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

In considering the recommendation of the TCF board of directors, you should be aware that certain directors and executive officers of TCF may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, interests of shareholders of TCF generally and may create potential conflicts of interest. The TCF board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them when evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and in recommending to TCF’s shareholders that they vote in favor of the TCF merger proposal. See “The Merger—Interests of TCF’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.”

It should be noted that this explanation of the reasoning of the TCF board of directors and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed in the section entitled “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” on page 40.

For the reasons set forth above, the TCF board of directors unanimously recommends that the holders of TCF common stock vote “FOR” the TCF merger proposal and “FOR” the other proposals to be considered at the TCF special meeting.

Opinion of TCF’s Financial Advisor

TCF engaged KBW to render financial advisory and investment banking services to TCF, including an opinion to the TCF board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the common shareholders of TCF of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger of TCF with and into Huntington. TCF selected KBW because KBW is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of financial services businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

As part of its engagement, representatives of KBW attended the meeting of the TCF board of directors held on December 13, 2020, at which the TCF board of directors evaluated the proposed merger. At this meeting, KBW reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered to the TCF board an opinion to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW as set forth in its opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of TCF common stock. The TCF board of directors approved the merger agreement at this meeting.

The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion, which is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference, and describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in preparing the opinion.

KBW's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the TCF board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the merger. The opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio in the merger to the holders of TCF common stock. It did not address the underlying business decision of TCF to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement or constitute a recommendation to the TCF board of directors in connection with the merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of TCF common stock or any shareholder of any other entity as to how to vote in connection with the merger or any other matter, nor does it constitute a recommendation regarding whether or not any such shareholder should enter into a voting, shareholders' or affiliates' agreement with respect to the merger or exercise any dissenters' or appraisal rights that may be available to such shareholder.

KBW's opinion was reviewed and approved by KBW's Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with its policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

In connection with the opinion, KBW reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of TCF and Huntington and bearing upon the merger, including, among other things:

- a draft of the merger agreement dated December 11, 2020 (the most recent draft then made available to KBW);
- the audited financial statements and the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 of TCF;
- the unaudited quarterly financial statements and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2020, June 30, 2020 and September 30, 2020 of TCF;
- the audited financial statements and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 of Huntington;
- the unaudited quarterly financial statements and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2020, June 30, 2020 and September 30, 2020 of Huntington;
- certain regulatory filings of TCF and Huntington and their respective subsidiaries, including the quarterly reports on Form FR Y-9C and call reports filed with respect to each quarter during the three-year period ended December 31, 2019 as well as the quarters ended March 31, 2020, June 30, 2020 and September 30, 2020;
- certain other interim reports and other communications of TCF and Huntington to their respective shareholders; and
- other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of TCF and Huntington that was furnished to KBW by TCF and Huntington or that KBW was otherwise directed to use for purposes of KBW's analyses.

KBW's consideration of financial information and other factors that it deemed appropriate under the circumstances or relevant to its analyses included, among others, the following:

- the historical and current financial position and results of operations of TCF and Huntington;
- the assets and liabilities of TCF and Huntington;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry;
- a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for TCF and Huntington with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which were publicly traded;
- publicly available consensus “street estimates” of TCF, as well as assumed long-term TCF growth rates provided to KBW by TCF management, all of which information was discussed with KBW by TCF management and used and relied upon by KBW at the direction of such management and with the consent of the TCF board of directors;
- publicly available consensus “street estimates” of Huntington, as well as assumed long-term Huntington growth rates provided to KBW by Huntington management, all of which information was discussed with KBW by Huntington management and used and relied upon by KBW based on such discussions, at the direction of TCF management and with the consent of the TCF board of directors; and
- estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the merger on Huntington (including, without limitation, the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the merger) that were prepared by, and provided to and discussed with KBW by, Huntington management and that were used and relied upon by KBW based on such discussions, at the direction of TCF management and with the consent of the TCF board of directors.

KBW also performed such other studies and analyses as it considered appropriate and took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. KBW also participated in discussions held by the managements of TCF and Huntington regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters as KBW deemed relevant to its inquiry. KBW was not requested to, and did not, assist TCF with soliciting indications of interest from third parties regarding a potential transaction with TCF.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, KBW relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was provided to it or that was publicly available and KBW did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assume any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. KBW relied upon the management of TCF as to the reasonableness and achievability of the publicly available consensus “street estimates” of TCF and the assumed TCF long-term growth rates referred to above (and the assumptions and bases therefor), and KBW assumed that all such information was reasonably prepared and represented, or in the case of the TCF “street estimates” referred to above that such estimates were consistent with, the best currently available estimates and judgments of TCF management and that the forecasts, projections and estimates reflected in such information would be realized in the amounts and in the time periods estimated. KBW further relied, with the consent of TCF, upon Huntington management as to the reasonableness and achievability of the publicly available consensus “street estimates” of Huntington, the assumed Huntington long-term growth rates, and the estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the merger on Huntington (including, without limitation, the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the merger), all as referred to above (and the assumptions and bases for all such information), and KBW assumed that all such information was reasonably prepared and represented, or in the case of the Huntington “street estimates” referred to above that such estimates were consistent with, the best currently available estimates and judgments of Huntington management and that the forecasts, projections and estimates reflected in such information would be realized in the amounts and in the time periods estimated.

It is understood that the portion of the foregoing financial information of TCF and Huntington that was provided to KBW was not prepared with the expectation of public disclosure and that all of the foregoing financial information, including the publicly available consensus “street estimates” of TCF and Huntington, was based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain (including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and, in particular, assumptions regarding the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic) and, accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such information. KBW assumed, based on discussions with the respective managements of TCF and Huntington and with the consent of the TCF board of directors, that all such information provided a reasonable basis upon which

KBW could form its opinion and KBW expressed no view as to any such information or the assumptions or bases therefor. Among other things, such information assumed that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic could have an adverse impact, which has been assumed to be limited, on TCF and Huntington. KBW relied on all such information without independent verification or analysis and did not in any respect assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof.

KBW also assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either TCF or Huntington since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity that were made available to KBW. KBW is not an expert in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and KBW assumed, without independent verification and with TCF's consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for TCF and Huntington are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering its opinion, KBW did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals or physical inspection of the property, assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of TCF or Huntington, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, nor did KBW examine any individual loan or credit files, nor did it evaluate the solvency, financial capability or fair value of TCF or Huntington under any state or federal laws, including those relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other matters. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and should not be taken as KBW's view of the actual value of any companies or assets.

KBW assumed, in all respects material to its analyses:

- that the merger and any related transactions (including, without limitation, the bank merger) would be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement (the final terms of which KBW assumed would not differ in any respect material to KBW's analyses from the draft reviewed by KBW and referred to above) with no adjustments to the exchange ratio and with no other consideration or payments in respect of TCF common stock;
- that the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement were true and correct;
- that each party to the merger agreement and all related documents would perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;
- that there were no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions, any necessary regulatory or governmental approval for the merger or any related transactions and that all conditions to the completion of the merger and any related transactions would be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the merger agreement or any of the related documents; and
- that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger and any related transactions, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of TCF, Huntington or the pro forma entity, or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including without limitation the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the merger.

KBW assumed that the merger would be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. KBW was further advised by representatives of TCF that TCF relied upon advice from its advisors (other than KBW) or other appropriate sources as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to TCF, Huntington, the merger and any related transaction, and the merger agreement. KBW did not provide advice with respect to any such matters.

KBW's opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date of the opinion, of the exchange ratio in the merger to the holders of TCF common stock. KBW expressed no view or opinion as to any other terms or aspects of the merger or any term or aspect of any related transaction (including the bank merger), including without limitation, the form or structure of the merger or any such related transaction, the treatment of outstanding preferred stock and other securities of TCF in the merger, any consequences of the merger or any such related transaction to TCF, its shareholders, creditors or otherwise, or any terms, aspects, merits or implications of any employment, consulting, voting, support, shareholder, charitable giving or other agreements, arrangements or understandings contemplated or entered into in connection with the merger, any such related transaction, or otherwise. KBW's opinion was necessarily based upon conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on the date of such opinion and the information made available to KBW through such date. There has been widespread disruption, extraordinary uncertainty and unusual volatility arising from the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, including the effect of evolving governmental interventions and non-interventions. Developments subsequent to the date of KBW's opinion may have affected, and may affect, the conclusion reached in KBW's opinion and KBW did not and does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. KBW's opinion did not address, and KBW expressed no view or opinion with respect to:

- the underlying business decision of TCF to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement;
- the relative merits of the merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that are, have been or may be available to or contemplated by TCF or the TCF board of directors;
- the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of TCF's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the holders of TCF common stock;
- the effect of the merger or any related transaction on, or the fairness of the consideration to be received by, holders of any class of securities of TCF (other than the holders of TCF common stock, solely with respect to the exchange ratio as described in KBW's opinion and not relative to the consideration to be received by holders of any other class of securities) or holders of any class of securities of Huntington or any other party to any transaction contemplated by the merger agreement;
- the actual value of Huntington common stock to be issued in the merger;
- the prices, trading range or volume at which TCF common stock or Huntington common stock would trade following the public announcement of the merger or the prices, trading range or volume at which Huntington common stock would trade following the consummation of the merger;
- any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to any of the parties to the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement; or
- any legal, regulatory, accounting, tax or similar matters relating to TCF, Huntington, their respective shareholders, or relating to or arising out of or as a consequence of the merger or any related transaction (including the bank merger), including whether or not the merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes.

In performing its analyses, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of KBW, TCF and Huntington. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, KBW's opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the TCF board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the TCF board of directors with respect to the fairness of the exchange ratio. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiation between TCF and Huntington and the decision of TCF to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of the TCF board of directors.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented by KBW to the TCF board of directors in connection with its opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the financial analyses underlying the opinion or the presentation made by KBW to the TCF board of directors, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, KBW did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, KBW believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion.

For purposes of the financial analyses described below, KBW utilized an implied transaction value for the merger of $38.83 per outstanding share of TCF common stock, or approximately $5,975.9 million in the aggregate (inclusive of the implied value of in-the-money TCF stock options), based on the 3.0028x exchange ratio in the proposed merger and the closing price of $12.93 for Huntington common stock on December 11, 2020. In addition to the financial analyses described below, KBW reviewed with the TCF board of directors for informational purposes, among other things, an implied transaction multiple for the proposed merger (based on the implied transaction value for the merger of $38.83 per outstanding share of TCF common stock) of 11.8x TCF's estimated calendar year 2022 earnings per share ("EPS") taken from publicly available consensus "street estimates" for TCF.

TCF Selected Companies Analysis. Using publicly available information, KBW compared the financial performance, financial condition and market performance of TCF to 13 major exchange-traded U.S. banks with total assets between $35 billion and $65 billion. KBW also used 2020, 2021 and 2022 EPS estimates taken from publicly available consensus "street estimates" for TCF and the selected companies. Certain financial data prepared by KBW, and as referenced in the tables presented below, may not correspond to the data presented in TCF's historical financial statements, or the analyses performed by Goldman Sachs presented under the section "The Merger—Opinion of Huntington's Financial Advisor," as a result of the different periods, assumptions and methods used by KBW to compute the financial data presented.

Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies involved.

Selected Transactions Analysis. KBW reviewed publicly available information related to 17 selected U.S. bank transactions announced since January 1, 2018 with announced deal values greater than $1 billion. Transactions with acquired companies headquartered in Puerto Rico were excluded from the selected transactions.

The selected transactions were as follows:

Acquiror	Acquired Company
PNC Financial Services Group, Inc.	BBVA USA Bancshares, Inc.
First Citizens BancShares, Inc.	CIT Group Inc.
Pacific Premier Bancorp, Inc.	Opus Bank
South State Corporation	CenterState Bank Corporation
United Bankshares, Inc.	Carolina Financial Corporation
First Horizon National Corporation	IBERIABANK Corporation
CIT Group Inc.	Mutual of Omaha Bank
Prosperity Bancshares, Inc.	LegacyTexas Financial Group, Inc.
Mechanics Bank	Rabobank, National Association
BB&T Corporation	SunTrust Banks, Inc.
TCF Financial Corporation	Chemical Financial Corporation
WSFS Financial Corporation	Beneficial Bancorp, Inc.
Synovus Financial Corp.	FCB Financial Holdings, Inc.
Veritex Holdings, Inc.	Green Bancorp, Inc.
Independent Bank Group, Inc.	Guaranty Bancorp
Fifth Third Bancorp	MB Financial, Inc.
Cadence Bancorporation	State Bank Financial Corporation

For each selected transaction, KBW derived the following implied transaction statistics, in each case based on the transaction consideration value paid for the acquired company and using financial data based on the acquired company's then latest publicly available financial statements prior to the announcement of the respective transaction and, to the extent publicly available, one year forward estimated EPS prior to the announcement of the respective transaction:

- Price per common share to tangible book value per share of the acquired company (in the case of selected transactions involving a private acquired company, this transaction statistic was calculated as total transaction consideration divided by total tangible common equity);
- Price per common share to estimated EPS of the acquired company for the first full year after the announcement of the respective transaction, referred to as Forward EPS, in the 14 selected transactions in which consensus "street estimates" for the acquired company were available at announcement; and
- Tangible equity premium to core deposits (total deposits less time deposits greater than $100,000) of the acquired company, referred to as core deposit premium.

KBW then reviewed the ratio of the implied tangible book value multiple for each selected transaction to the acquiror's standalone tangible book value multiple based on the acquiror's then latest closing stock price and then latest publicly available financial statements prior to the announcement of the respective transaction

(referred to as the pay to trade ratio). KBW also reviewed the price per common share paid for the acquired company for the 14 selected transactions involving publicly traded acquired companies as a premium/(discount) to the closing stock price of the acquired company one day prior to the announcement of the acquisition (expressed as a percentage and referred to as the one day market premium). The resulting transaction statistics for the selected transactions were compared with the corresponding transaction statistics for the proposed merger based on the implied transaction value for the merger of $38.83 per outstanding share of TCF common stock and using historical financial information for TCF and Huntington as of ended September 30, 2020, TCF’s estimated calendar year 2021 EPS taken from publicly available consensus “street estimates” for TCF and the closing prices of TCF common stock and Huntington common stock on December 11, 2020.

The results of the analysis are set forth in the following table (excluding the impact of the Forward EPS multiple for one of the selected transactions which multiple was considered to be not meaningful because it was greater than 30.0x):

	Huntington / TCF	Selected Transactions

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above selected transaction analysis is identical to TCF or the proposed merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies involved.

Relative Contribution Analysis. KBW analyzed the relative standalone contribution of Huntington and TCF to various pro forma balance sheet and income statement items and the combined market capitalization of the combined entity. This analysis did not include purchase accounting adjustments or cost savings. To perform this analysis, KBW used (i) balance sheet data for Huntington and TCF as of the period ended September 30, 2020, (ii) publicly available consensus “street estimates” for Huntington and TCF, and (iii) market price information as of December 11, 2020. The results of KBW’s analysis are set forth in the following table, which also compares the results of KBW’s analysis with the implied pro forma ownership percentages of Huntington and TCF shareholders in the combined company based on the 3.0028x exchange ratio provided for in the merger agreement:

Financial Impact Analysis. KBW performed a pro forma financial impact analysis that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of Huntington and TCF. Using (i) closing balance sheet estimates as of June 30, 2021 for Huntington and TCF taken from publicly available consensus “street estimates”, (ii) publicly available calendar year 2020, 2021 and 2022 EPS consensus “street estimates” for Huntington, (iii) publicly available calendar year 2020, 2021 and 2022 EPS consensus “street estimates” for TCF and (iv) pro forma assumptions (including, without limitation, the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger and certain other earnings adjustments, accounting adjustments and restructuring charges assumed with respect thereto) provided by Huntington management, KBW analyzed the potential financial impact of the merger on certain projected financial results of Huntington. This analysis indicated the merger could be accretive to Huntington’s estimated 2022 EPS and could be dilutive to Huntington’s estimated tangible book value per share at closing as of June 30, 2021. Furthermore, the analysis indicated that, pro forma for the merger, each of Huntington’s tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio, Leverage Ratio, Common Equity Tier 1 Ratio, Tier 1 Capital Ratio and Total Risk-based Capital Ratio at closing as of June 30, 2021 could be lower. For all of the above analysis, the actual results achieved by Huntington following the merger may vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Huntington Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Huntington to estimate a range for the implied equity value of Huntington. In this analysis, KBW used publicly available consensus “street estimates” for Huntington and assumed long-term growth rates for Huntington provided by Huntington management, and assumed discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 12.0%. The range of values was derived by adding (i) the present value of the estimated excess cash flows that Huntington could generate over the period from June 30, 2021 through December 31, 2026 as a standalone company, and (ii) the present value of Huntington’s implied terminal value at the end of such period. KBW assumed that Huntington would maintain a common equity tier 1 ratio of 9.00% and would retain sufficient earnings to maintain that level. In calculating implied terminal values for Huntington, KBW applied a range of 9.5x to 12.5x to Huntington’s estimated 2026 earnings. This discounted cash flow analysis resulted in a range of implied values per share of Huntington common stock of $12.50 to $16.60.

The discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent on the assumptions that must be made, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values, dividend payout rates, and discount rates. The foregoing discounted cash flow analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Huntington or the pro forma combined company.

TCF Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis of TCF to estimate a range for the implied equity value of TCF. In this analysis, KBW used publicly available consensus “street estimates” for TCF and assumed long-term growth rates for TCF provided by TCF management, and assumed discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 13.0%. The range of values was derived by adding (i) the present value of the estimated excess cash flows that TCF could generate over the period from June 30, 2021 through December 31, 2026 as a standalone company, and (ii) the present value of TCF’s implied terminal value at the end of such period. KBW assumed that TCF would maintain a common equity tier 1 ratio of 9.00% and would retain sufficient earnings to maintain that level. In calculating implied terminal values for TCF, KBW applied a range of 9.0x to 13.0x to TCF’s estimated 2026 earnings. This discounted cash flow analysis resulted in a range of implied values per share of TCF common stock of $32.99 to $45.86.

The discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent on the assumptions that must be made, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values, dividend payout rates, and discount rates. The foregoing discounted cash flow analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of TCF.

Pro Forma Combined Discounted Cash Flow Analysis KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range for the implied equity value of the pro forma combined entity, taking into account the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger as well as certain other earnings adjustments, accounting adjustments and restructuring charges assumed with respect thereto. In this analysis, KBW used publicly available consensus “street estimates” for Huntington and TCF, assumed long-term growth rates for Huntington and TCF provided by Huntington management and estimated cost savings and related expenses, other earnings adjustments, accounting adjustments and restructuring charges provided by Huntington management, and KBW assumed discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 12.0%. The range of values was derived by adding

(i) the present value of the estimated excess cash flows that the pro forma combined entity could generate over the period from June 30, 2021 through December 31, 2026, and (ii) the present value of the pro forma combined entity's implied terminal value at the end of such period, in each case applying estimated cost savings and related expenses, other earnings adjustments, accounting adjustments and restructuring charges. KBW assumed that the pro forma combined entity would maintain a common equity tier 1 ratio of 9.00% and would retain sufficient earnings to maintain that level. In calculating implied terminal values for the pro forma combined entity, KBW applied a range of 9.5x to 12.5x the pro forma combined entity's estimated 2026 earnings. This discounted cash flow analysis resulted in a range of implied values for the 3.0028 shares of Huntington common stock to be received in the proposed merger for each share of TCF common stock of $42.12 to $56.43.

The discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent on the assumptions that must be made, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values, dividend payout rates, and discount rates. The foregoing discounted cash flow analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of the pro forma combined entity.

Miscellaneous. KBW acted as financial advisor to TCF in connection with the proposed merger and did not act as an advisor to or agent of any other person. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, KBW has experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. KBW and its affiliates, in the ordinary course of its and their broker-dealer businesses (and further to existing sales and trading relationships between a KBW broker-dealer affiliate and each of TCF and Huntington), may from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, TCF and Huntington. In addition, as a market maker in securities, KBW and its affiliates may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of TCF or Huntington for its and their own respective accounts and for the accounts of its and their respective customers and clients.

Pursuant to the KBW engagement agreement, TCF agreed to pay KBW a total cash fee equal to $34,000,000, $4,000,000 of which became payable to KBW with the rendering of its opinion and the balance of which is contingent upon the closing of the merger. TCF also agreed to reimburse KBW for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify KBW against certain liabilities relating to or arising out of KBW's engagement or KBW's role in connection therewith. In addition to the present engagement, in the two years preceding the date of its opinion, KBW provided investment banking or financial advisory services to TCF and received compensation for such services. KBW acted as financial advisor to TCF (then known as Chemical Financial Corporation) in connection with its merger of equals with legacy TCF, which was completed in August 2019. In addition, KBW acted as co-manager for TCF National Bank's May 2020 offering of fixed-to-floating rate subordinated notes. In connection with the foregoing acquisition and subordinated notes offering, KBW received fees of approximately $26 million in the aggregate from TCF. In the two years preceding the date of its opinion, KBW did not provide investment banking or financial advisory services to Huntington. KBW may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to TCF or Huntington and receive compensation for such services.

Huntington's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Huntington's Board of Directors

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and to recommend that its shareholders approve the merger and the Huntington charter amendment, the Huntington board of directors evaluated the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in consultation with Huntington's management, as well as Huntington's financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following factors:

- each of Huntington's, TCF's and the combined company's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings, and prospects. In reviewing these factors, including the information obtained through due diligence, the Huntington board of directors considered that TCF's business and operations and risk profile complement those of Huntington, and that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement would result in a combined company with an expanded distribution and scale that would position Huntington to serve an expanded customer base through a distinctive customer experience;

- the strategic rationale for the merger, including the ability of the combined company to serve the banking needs of consumers and businesses in highly attractive markets, including the combination of Huntington's and TCF's operations in Detroit and Chicago, and Huntington's entrance into Minneapolis / St. Paul, Denver and Milwaukee, each of which were considered highly attractive markets;
- the Huntington board of directors' belief that TCF's earnings and prospects, and the synergies potentially available in the proposed merger, would significantly improve Huntington's market position, increase scale and provide greater revenue growth opportunities and would create the opportunity for the combined company to have superior future earnings and prospects compared to Huntington's earnings and prospects on a stand-alone basis;
- the expectation that, following the merger, the combined company will have a top five rank in approximately 70% of its deposit markets, including the most retail deposits in both Ohio and Michigan;
- the complementary nature of the cultures of the two companies, including with respect to corporate purpose, strategic focus, target markets, client service, credit cultures, risk profiles and community commitment, and the Huntington board of directors' belief that the complementary cultures will facilitate the successful integration and implementation of the transaction;
- the complementary nature of the products, customers and markets of the two companies, which Huntington believes should provide the opportunity to mitigate risks and increase potential returns;
- the ability to accelerate investments in digital capabilities, while also leveraging existing technology across a broader customer base;
- the expanded possibilities for growth that would be available to the combined company, given its larger size, asset base, capital and footprint;
- the anticipated pro forma financial impact of the merger on the combined company, including the expected positive impact on financial metrics, including earnings per share, and the expectation that the tangible book value per share dilution from the merger would be earned back within a reasonable period following closing;
- the expectation of significant cost savings resulting from the merger;
- the terms of the merger and the fact that the exchange ratio is fixed, with no adjustment in the merger consideration to be received by TCF shareholders as a result of possible increases or decreases in the trading price of TCF or Huntington stock following the announcement of the merger, which the Huntington board of directors believed was consistent with market practice for transactions of this type and with the strategic purpose of the transaction;
- the fact that Mr. Steinour would continue to serve as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the combined company and the provisions of the merger agreement setting forth the corporate governance of the combined company, including that upon the closing, the combined company's board of directors would be comprised of thirteen (13) Huntington directors and five (5) TCF directors, which the Huntington board of directors believes enhances the likelihood that the strategic benefits that Huntington expects to achieve as a result of the merger will be realized;
- the fact that the combined company will continue to benefit from the support and experience of Messrs. Torgow and Provost, who will continue to assist in business development and customer, community and government relations following the closing pursuant to the advisory services and non-competition agreements entered into between Huntington and Messrs. Torgow and Provost;
- its understanding of the current and prospective environment in which Huntington and TCF operate, including economic conditions, the interest rate environment, the accelerating pace of technological change in the banking industry, increased operating costs resulting from regulatory and compliance mandates, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, and the likely effect of these factors on Huntington both with and without the merger;

- its review and discussions with Huntington’s management and advisors concerning Huntington’s due diligence examination of, among other areas, the operations, financial condition and regulatory compliance programs and prospects of TCF;
- its expectation that Huntington will retain its strong capital position and asset quality upon completion of the merger;
- the oral opinion of Goldman Sachs, subsequently confirmed in Goldman Sachs’ written opinion dated as of December 13, 2020, to the effect that, as of the date of Goldman Sachs’ written opinion and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in Goldman Sachs’ written opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to Huntington, as more fully described below in the section “—Opinion of Huntington’s Financial Advisor,” beginning on page 86;
- its expectation that the required regulatory approvals could be obtained in a timely fashion;
- its review with Huntington’s outside legal advisor, Wachtell Lipton, of the terms of the merger agreement, including the representations, covenants, deal protection and termination provisions; and
- Huntington’s past record of integrating mergers and of realizing projected financial goals and benefits of acquisitions and the strength of Huntington’s management and infrastructure to successfully complete the integration process.

The Huntington board of directors also considered potential risks related to the merger but concluded that the anticipated benefits of the merger were likely to outweigh these risks. These potential risks include:

- the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the bank merger and the risk that such regulatory approvals may not be received in a timely manner or at all or may impose unacceptable conditions;
- the possibility that divestitures may be required by regulatory authorities in certain markets in which Huntington and TCF compete;
- the possibility of encountering difficulties in achieving anticipated synergies and cost savings in the amounts estimated or in the timeframe contemplated;
- the possibility of encountering difficulties in successfully integrating Huntington’s and TCF’s business, operations and workforce;
- the risk of losing key Huntington or TCF employees during the pendency of the merger and thereafter;
- the dilution to current Huntington shareholders from the issuance of additional shares of Huntington common stock in the merger;
- certain anticipated merger-related costs;
- the possible diversion of management attention and resources from the operation of Huntington’s business towards the completion of the merger;
- the potential for legal claims challenging the merger; and
- the other risks described under the sections entitled “Risk Factors” beginning on page 42 and “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” beginning on page 40.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Huntington board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Huntington board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the merger, and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Huntington board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Huntington board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including through its discussions with Huntington’s management and financial and legal advisors, in evaluating the merger agreement, the merger, and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

For the reasons set forth above, the Huntington board of directors determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Huntington and its shareholders, and adopted and approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby.

It should be noted that this explanation of the reasoning of the Huntington board of directors and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed in the section entitled “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” beginning on page 40.

For the reasons set forth above, the Huntington board of directors unanimously recommends that the holders of Huntington common stock vote “FOR” the Huntington merger proposal, “FOR” the Huntington authorized share count proposal and “FOR” the other proposals to be considered at the Huntington special meeting.

Opinion of Huntington’s Financial Advisor

At a meeting of the Huntington board of directors, Goldman Sachs rendered to the Huntington board of directors its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in Goldman Sachs’ written opinion dated as of December 13, 2020, to the effect that, as of the date of Goldman Sachs’ written opinion, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in Goldman Sachs’ written opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to Huntington.

Goldman Sachs also held discussions with members of the senior managements of Huntington and TCF regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of TCF and with the members of senior management of Huntington regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of Huntington and the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the proposed merger; reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the shares of Huntington common stock and the shares of TCF common stock; compared certain financial and stock market information for Huntington and TCF with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry; and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as Goldman Sachs deemed appropriate.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Goldman Sachs, with the consent of the Huntington board of directors, relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by Goldman Sachs, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification thereof. In that regard, Goldman Sachs assumed with the consent of the Huntington board of directors that the Forecasts, including the Synergies, were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Huntington. Goldman Sachs did not review individual credit files or make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or other off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of Huntington or TCF or any of their respective subsidiaries and Goldman Sachs was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. Goldman Sachs is not an expert in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances and marks for losses with respect thereto and, accordingly, Goldman Sachs assumed that such allowances and marks for losses for Huntington or TCF are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. Goldman Sachs assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the proposed merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on Huntington or TCF or on the expected benefits of the proposed merger in any way meaningful to Goldman Sachs' analysis. Goldman Sachs also assumed that the proposed merger would be consummated on the terms set forth in the merger agreement, without the waiver or modification of any term or condition the effect of which would be in any way meaningful to its analysis.

Goldman Sachs' opinion did not address the underlying business decision of Huntington to engage in the proposed merger, or the relative merits of the proposed merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to Huntington; nor did it address any legal, regulatory, tax or accounting matters. Goldman Sachs' opinion addressed only the fairness from a financial point of view to Huntington, as of the date of Goldman Sachs' written opinion, of the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement. Goldman Sachs did not express any view on, and its opinion does not address, any other term or aspect of the merger agreement or the proposed merger or any term or aspect of any other agreement or instrument contemplated by the merger agreement or entered into or amended in connection with the proposed merger, including the fairness of the proposed merger to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Huntington; nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of Huntington or TCF, or any class of such persons in connection with the proposed merger, whether relative to the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement or otherwise. Goldman Sachs did not express any opinion as to the prices at which shares of Huntington common stock would trade at any time, as to the potential effects of volatility in the credit, financial and stock markets on Huntington or TCF or the proposed merger, or as to the impact of the proposed merger on the solvency or viability of Huntington or TCF or the ability of Huntington or TCF to pay their respective obligations when they come due. Goldman Sachs' opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Goldman Sachs as of, the date of Goldman Sachs' written opinion, and Goldman Sachs assumed no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming its opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date of Goldman Sachs' written opinion. Goldman Sachs' advisory services and its opinion were provided for the information and assistance of the Huntington board of directors in connection with its consideration of the proposed merger and Goldman Sachs' opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of Huntington common stock should vote with respect to the proposed merger or any other matter. Goldman Sachs' opinion was approved by a fairness committee of Goldman Sachs.

Summary of Financial Analyses

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented by Goldman Sachs to the Huntington board of directors in connection with Goldman Sachs' rendering to the Huntington board of directors the opinion described above. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Goldman Sachs, nor does the order of analyses described represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Goldman Sachs. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of Goldman Sachs' financial analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before December 11, 2020, the last completed trading day prior to announcement of the proposed merger, and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

Implied Deal Premia and Multiples

Goldman Sachs calculated and compared certain implied premia and multiples using the implied value of the merger consideration to be paid by Huntington for each share of TCF common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. For purposes of its analysis, Goldman Sachs calculated an implied value for the merger consideration of $38.83 by multiplying the exchange ratio of 3.0028x pursuant to the merger agreement by $12.93, the closing price for the shares of Huntington common stock on December 11, 2020.

Goldman Sachs calculated and/or compared the following:

- the implied premia represented by the $38.83 implied value of the merger consideration relative to:
 - $34.78, the closing price for shares of TCF common stock on December 11, 2020, the last full trading day prior to announcement of the proposed merger (the "Pre-Announcement Price"),
 - $35.27 and $34.55, the average trading prices for shares of TCF common stock over the 10-day and 30-day periods ended December 11, 2020, respectively (the "10-Day Average Price" and "30-Day Average Price", respectively),
 - $47.30, the highest trading price for shares of TCF common stock over the 52-week period ended December 11, 2020 (the "52-Week High Price"), and
 - $59.18, the all-time high trading price for shares of TCF common stock (the "All-Time High Price");
- the $38.83 implied value of the merger consideration, in each case, as a multiple of
 - the estimated earnings per share ("EPS") for TCF (such multiple, "Price/EPS") for 2021 and 2022, calculated using the EPS estimates for TCF reflected in the Forecasts; and
 - the tangible book value ("TBV") per share for TCF (such multiple "Price/TBV" per share) as of September 30, 2020, using TBV per share information provided by management of TCF.

The results of these calculations are set forth below:

10-Day Average Price of $35.27	10.1

Selected Companies Analyses

For reference purposes only, Goldman Sachs reviewed and compared certain financial information for TCF and Huntington on a stand-alone basis to corresponding financial information and public market multiples for the selected publicly traded companies in the banking industry listed below, which are referred to, respectively, as the “TCF selected companies” and the “Huntington selected companies.” Although none of the selected companies is directly comparable to TCF, the selected companies were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations that, for purposes of analysis, may be considered similar to certain operations of TCF and Huntington, respectively.

For each of TCF and Huntington on a stand-alone basis and the selected companies, Goldman Sachs calculated and compared its closing price per share as of December 11, 2020 as a multiple of each of:

- estimated EPS for the next twelve months and calendar years 2021 and 2022; and
- its stated book value (“SBV”) per share and TBV per share as of its most recently completed fiscal quarter for which SBV per share and TBV per share information was publicly available as of December 11, 2020.

For purposes of its calculations, Goldman Sachs used 2021 and 2022 EPS estimates for the selected companies reflecting the most recent median EPS estimates for such companies published by Institutional Broker Estimate System (“IBES”) as of December 11, 2020. For TCF, Goldman Sachs used the 2021 and 2022 EPS estimates reflected in the Forecasts. For Huntington, Goldman Sachs used the 2021 and 2022 EPS estimates reflected in the Forecasts as well as the most recent median EPS estimates published by IBES as of December 11, 2020.

The multiples calculated by Goldman Sachs for the selected companies and for TCF and Huntington on a stand-alone basis are as follows:

Illustrative Present Value of Future Stock Price Analysis for TCF on a Stand-Alone Basis

Goldman Sachs performed an illustrative analysis to derive a range of illustrative present values per share of TCF common stock, based on theoretical future values calculated by Goldman Sachs for the shares of TCF common stock on a stand-alone basis.

Goldman Sachs derived a range of theoretical future values per share for the shares of TCF common stock on a stand-alone basis as of December 31, 2021, 2022 and 2023 by applying illustrative one-year forward price to EPS multiples of 11.0x to 13.0x to the estimates of the EPS of TCF for 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively, set forth in the Forecasts. By applying a discount rate of 11.0%, reflecting an estimate of TCF's cost of equity on a stand-alone basis, Goldman Sachs discounted to present value as of September 30, 2020 the theoretical future values per share it derived for TCF, to yield illustrative present values per share of TCF common stock ranging from $35.39 to $42.62.

The illustrative one-year forward price to EPS multiples used in the foregoing analysis were derived by Goldman Sachs using its professional judgment and experience, taking into account the multiples calculated by Goldman Sachs for TCF and the selected companies as set forth above under "—Selected Companies Analyses." Goldman Sachs derived the discount rate used in the foregoing analysis by application of the capital asset pricing model ("CAPM"), which requires certain company-specific inputs, including a beta for the company, as well as certain financial metrics for the United States financial markets generally.

Regression Analysis for TCF on a Stand-Alone Basis

Goldman Sachs performed a regression analysis using the Price/TBV per share multiples for the TCF selected companies calculated by Goldman Sachs as described above under "—Selected Companies Analyses" compared to the 2022 estimated return on average tangible common equity ("2022E ROATCE") for those selected companies using the median estimates for such companies published by IBES as of December 11, 2020 to derive a regression line reflecting a range of Price/TBV per share multiples at a range of 2022E ROATCE for the selected companies. Goldman Sachs observed that the 2022E ROATCE for TCF as reflected in the Forecasts corresponded to an implied Price/TBV per share multiple of 1.3x on the regression line.

Goldman Sachs applied implied Price/TBV per share multiples ranging from 1.2x to 1.4x to the TBV per share as of September 30, 2020 for TCF, as reflected in its publicly available filings, to derive a range of implied values per share of TCF common stock of $30.80 to $36.05.

Premia Paid Analysis

Goldman Sachs reviewed and analyzed, using publicly available data obtained from S&P Global databases and public company filings, the premia paid in all-stock acquisitions of publicly traded bank and thrift companies in the United States announced during the period from January 1, 2015 through December 11, 2020 in which the implied transaction value was greater than $200 million. For the entire period and for each calendar year through December 11, 2020, Goldman Sachs calculated the average premia of the price paid in acquisitions announced during such period relative to the target company's closing share price one day prior to the announcement of the transaction. The following shows a summary of the results of the review:

	Premium to 1-Day
Entire Period
Average	16%
Calendar Years
2015 average	28%
2016 average	22%
2017 average	19%
2018 average	10%
2020 year to date average	12%

Based on its review of the foregoing data and its professional judgment and experience, Goldman Sachs applied a reference range of illustrative premia of 10%-30% to $34.78, the closing price for shares of TCF common stock on December 11, 2020, the last full trading day prior to announcement of the proposed merger. This analysis resulted in a range of implied values per share of TCF common stock of $38.26 to $45.21.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis

Goldman Sachs analyzed certain publicly available information relating to certain acquisition transactions announced since January 1, 2015 involving target companies in the banking industry in the United States in which the implied transaction value was greater than $3 billion.

While none of the target companies in the selected transactions are directly comparable to TCF and none of the selected transactions are directly comparable to the proposed transaction, the target companies in the selected transactions are companies with certain operations that, for the purposes of analysis, may be considered similar to certain operations of TCF, and as such, for purposes of the analysis, the selected transactions may be considered similar to the proposed transaction.

Using publicly available information, for each of the selected transactions, Goldman Sachs calculated (i) Price/estimated EPS for its first full fiscal year after the announcement of the applicable transaction, and (ii) Price/TBV per share multiples as of the last full fiscal quarter prior to the announcement of the applicable transaction, in each case using information disclosed in public company filings, estimates published by IBES and other publicly available information. The selected transactions and the implied multiples calculated for the transactions are set forth below.

Using discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 12.0%, reflecting estimates of the cost of equity for TCF, Goldman Sachs derived a range of illustrative equity values for TCF by discounting to present value as of September 30, 2020, (a) the implied distributions to/infusions from TCF's shareholders over the period beginning September 30, 2020 through December 31, 2024 calculated using the Forecasts for TCF, on a standalone basis as well as on a standalone basis but taking into account the effect of the proposed merger, assuming in each case, at the direction of Huntington management, that TCF would make distributions of capital in excess of the amount necessary to achieve a target common equity tier 1 capital of 10.0%, and (b) a range of illustrative terminal values for TCF, on a standalone basis as well as on a standalone basis but taking into account the effect of the proposed merger, as of December 31, 2024, calculated by applying illustrative one-year forward Price/EPS multiples ranging from 11.0x to 13.0x to the estimate of TCF's terminal year (2025) net income, as reflected in the Forecasts for TCF on a standalone basis as well as the Forecasts for TCF on a standalone basis but taking into account the effect of the proposed merger. Goldman Sachs derived the range of discount rates by application of the CAPM. To derive illustrative terminal values for TCF on a standalone basis as well as on a standalone basis but taking into account the effect of the proposed merger, Goldman Sachs applied illustrative one-year forward Price/EPS multiples based on its professional judgment and experience, taking into account the multiples it calculated for TCF and the TCF selected companies as described above under "—Selected Companies Analyses."

Goldman Sachs divided the ranges of illustrative equity values it derived for TCF on a standalone basis as well as the ranges of illustrative equity values it derived for TCF on a standalone basis but taking into account the effect of the proposed merger by the total number of fully diluted shares of TCF common stock outstanding as provided by Huntington management to derive illustrative ranges of present values per share of TCF common stock on a standalone basis of $37.62 to $45.43 and on a standalone basis but taking into account the effect of the proposed merger of $51.91 to $64.17.

General

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Goldman Sachs' opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Goldman Sachs considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, Goldman Sachs made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses. No company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to Huntington or TCF or the proposed merger.

Goldman Sachs prepared these analyses for purposes of providing its opinion to the Huntington board of directors that, as of the date of the opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to Huntington. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon projections of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of Huntington, TCF, Goldman Sachs or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecast.

The exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Huntington and TCF and was approved by the Huntington board of directors. Goldman Sachs provided advice to Huntington during these negotiations. Goldman Sachs did not, however, recommend any specific exchange ratio to Huntington or that any specific exchange ratio constituted the only appropriate consideration for the proposed merger.

As described above, Goldman Sachs' opinion to the Huntington board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Huntington board of directors in making its determination to approve the proposed merger. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Goldman Sachs in connection with the delivery of its fairness opinion to the Huntington board of directors and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the written opinion of Goldman Sachs attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Goldman Sachs and its affiliates are engaged in advisory, underwriting and financing, principal investing, sales and trading, research, investment management and other financial and non-financial activities and services for various persons and entities. Goldman Sachs and its affiliates and employees, and funds or other entities they manage or in which they invest or have other economic interests or with which they co-invest, may at any time purchase, sell, hold or vote long or short positions and investments in securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments of Huntington, TCF, any of their respective affiliates and third parties, or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the proposed merger. Goldman Sachs acted as financial advisor to Huntington in connection with, and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the proposed merger. Goldman Sachs has provided certain financial advisory and/or underwriting services to Huntington and/or its affiliates from time to time for which its Investment Banking Division has received, and may receive, compensation, including having acted as bookrunning manager with respect to the public offering of Huntington's 2.625% Senior Notes due 2024 (aggregate principal amount $800,000,000) in July 2019; as joint bookrunning manager with respect to the public offering of Huntington's 5.625% Series F Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock in May 2020; and as joint bookrunning manager with respect to the public offering of Huntington's 4.450% Series G Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock in August 2020. During the two year period ended December 13, 2020, Goldman Sachs has recognized compensation for financial advisory and/or underwriting services provided by its Investment Banking Division to Huntington and/or its affiliates of approximately $2.5 million. During the two-year period ended December 13, 2020, the Investment Banking Division of Goldman Sachs has not been engaged by TCF and/or its respective affiliates to provide financial advisory and/or underwriting services for which Goldman Sachs has recognized compensation. Goldman Sachs may also in the future provide financial advisory and/or underwriting services to Huntington, TCF and their respective affiliates for which its Investment Banking Division may receive compensation.

Huntington selected Goldman Sachs as its financial advisor because it is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the proposed merger. Pursuant to an engagement letter dated December 11, 2020, Goldman Sachs was engaged to serve as the financial advisor to the Huntington board of directors in connection with the proposed merger. The engagement letter between Huntington and Goldman Sachs provides for a transaction fee in an amount equal to $30 million, all of which is contingent upon consummation of the transaction. In addition, Huntington agreed to reimburse Goldman Sachs for certain of its expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Goldman Sachs and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Certain Unaudited Prospective Financial Information

Huntington and TCF do not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose forecasts or internal projections as to their respective future performance, revenues, earnings, financial condition or other results given, among other reasons, the inherent uncertainty of the underlying assumptions and estimates, other than, from time to time, estimated ranges of certain expected financial results and operational metrics for the current year and certain future years in their respective regular earnings press releases and other investor materials.

However, Huntington and TCF are including in this joint proxy statement/prospectus certain unaudited prospective financial information for Huntington and TCF that was made available as described below. We refer to this information collectively as the "prospective financial information." A summary of certain significant elements of this information is set forth below and is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus solely for the purpose of providing holders of Huntington common stock and holders of TCF common stock access to certain nonpublic information made available to Huntington and TCF and their respective boards of directors and financial advisors.

Neither Huntington nor TCF endorses the prospective financial information as necessarily predictive of actual future results. Furthermore, although presented with numerical specificity, the prospective financial information reflects numerous estimates and assumptions made by Huntington senior management or TCF senior management, as applicable, at the time such prospective financial information was prepared or approved for use by the financial advisors and represents Huntington senior management's or TCF senior management's respective evaluation of Huntington's and TCF's expected future financial performance on a stand-alone basis, without reference to the merger (except as expressly set forth below under "—Certain Estimated Synergies Attributable to the Merger"). In addition, since the prospective financial information covers multiple years, such information by its nature becomes subject to greater uncertainty with each successive year. These and the other estimates and assumptions underlying the prospective financial information involve judgments with respect to, among other things, economic, competitive, regulatory and financial market conditions and future business decisions that may not be realized and that are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive and regulatory uncertainties and contingencies, including, among other things, the inherent uncertainty of the business and economic conditions affecting the industries in which Huntington and TCF operate and the risks and uncertainties described under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 42 and "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 40 and in the reports that Huntington and TCF file with the SEC from time to time, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are outside the control of Huntington and TCF and will be beyond the control of the combined company. There can be no assurance that the underlying assumptions or projected results will be realized, and actual results could differ materially from those reflected in the prospective financial information, whether or not the merger is completed. Further, these assumptions do not include all potential actions that the senior management of Huntington or TCF could or might have taken during these time periods. The inclusion in this joint proxy statement/prospectus of the unaudited prospective financial information below should not be regarded as an indication that Huntington, TCF or their respective boards of directors or advisors considered, or now consider, this prospective financial information to be material information to any holders of Huntington common stock or holders of TCF common stock, as the case may be, particularly in light of the inherent risks and uncertainties associated with such prospective financial information, or that it should be construed as financial guidance, and it should not be relied on as such. This information was prepared solely for internal use and is subjective in many respects and thus is susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. The prospective financial information is not fact and should not be relied upon as necessarily indicative of actual future results. The prospective financial information also reflects numerous variables, expectations and assumptions available at the time it was prepared as to certain business decisions that are subject to change and does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared, including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or the possible financial and other effects on Huntington or TCF of the merger, and does not attempt to predict or suggest actual future results of the combined company or give effect to the merger, including the effect of negotiating or executing the merger agreement, the costs that may be incurred in connection with consummating the merger, the potential synergies that may be achieved by the combined company as a result of the merger (except as expressly set forth below under “—Certain Estimated Synergies Attributable to the Merger”), the effect on Huntington or TCF of any business or strategic decision or action that has been or will be taken as a result of the merger agreement having been executed, or the effect of any business or strategic decisions or actions which would likely have been taken if the merger agreement had not been executed, but which were instead altered, accelerated, postponed or not taken in anticipation of the merger. Further, the prospective financial information does not take into account the effect of any possible failure of the merger to occur. No assurances can be given that if the prospective financial information and the underlying assumptions had been prepared as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, similar assumptions would be used. In addition, the prospective financial information may not reflect the manner in which the combined company would operate after the merger.

The prospective financial information was not prepared for the purpose of, or with a view toward, public disclosure or with a view toward complying with the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information, published guidelines of the SEC regarding forward-looking statements or generally accepted accounting principles. As described and subject to the above, the prospective financial information included in this document has been provided by Huntington’s and TCF’s management. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (Huntington’s independent registered public accounting firm), KPMG LLP (TCF’s independent registered public accounting firm), or any other independent accounting firm have not audited, reviewed, examined, compiled nor applied agreed-upon procedures with respect to the accompanying prospective financial information and, accordingly, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and KPMG LLP do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance with respect thereto. The PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and KPMG LLP reports incorporated by reference to this document relate to Huntington’s and TCF’s previously issued financial statements. It does not extend to the prospective financial information and should not be read to do so.

In addition, the following prospective financial information with respect to TCF for the years ending December 31, 2023 through 2025 was extrapolated by Huntington management based on certain long-term growth rate and other assumptions and approved by Huntington for use by Goldman Sachs and used by Goldman Sachs in performing its financial analysis with respect to TCF on a stand-alone basis: (1) estimated net income to common of $549 million, $580 million and $620 million, (2) estimated diluted EPS of $3.67, $3.87 and $4.14, and (3) estimated total assets of $50,630 million, $53,162 million and $55,820 million for calendar years 2023, 2024 and 2025, respectively.

Huntington Prospective Financial Information

The following table presents the consensus Wall Street research estimates for Huntington's 2020 through 2022 net income available to Huntington common shareholders, diluted EPS and total risk weighted assets, which we refer to collectively as the Huntington street estimates, that were used by KBW at the direction of TCF management in the financial analyses performed in connection with KBW's opinion:

($ in millions, except per share)	2020E	2021E	2022E
Net Income to Common	$ 722	$ 1,074	$ 1,263
Diluted EPS	$ 0.70	$ 1.05	$ 1.25

Total Risk-Weighted Assets	$88,290	$ 89,392	$ 92,247

For purposes of extrapolating Huntington's financial results, Huntington senior management provided KBW with, among other things, estimated long-term annual growth rates of 3% for Huntington's net income and for Huntington's risk weighted assets, an estimated pre-tax cost of cash of 1.05% and an estimated marginal tax rate of 18.0%.

The prospective financial information with respect to Huntington provided to Goldman Sachs by Huntington management and approved by Huntington for use by Goldman Sachs and used by Goldman Sachs in performing its financial analysis with respect to Huntington on a stand-alone basis included the following annual forecasts for the years ending December 31, 2020, 2021 and 2022:

Net Income to Common	$ 710	$ 1,337	$ 1,364
Diluted EPS	$ 0.69	$ 1.29	$ 1.33
Total Assets	$116,741	$115,559	$119,499

In addition, the following prospective financial information with respect to Huntington for the years ending December 31, 2023 through 2025 was extrapolated by Huntington management based on certain long-term growth rate and other assumptions and approved by Huntington for use by Goldman Sachs and used by Goldman Sachs in performing its financial analysis with respect to Huntington on a stand-alone basis: (1) estimated net income to common of $1,455 million, $1,478 million and $1,557 million, (2) estimated diluted EPS of $1.45, $1.48 and $1.59, and (3) estimated total assets of $125,474 million, $131,747 million and $138,335 million for calendar years 2023, 2024 and 2025, respectively.

Certain Estimated Synergies Attributable to the Merger

TCF management and Huntington management jointly developed and provided to their respective boards of directors certain prospective financial information relating to the anticipated cost synergies to be realized by the combined company beginning in 2021. Such prospective financial information also was (i) provided to KBW and approved by TCF for KBW's use and reliance, and (ii) provided to Goldman Sachs and approved by Huntington for Goldman Sachs' use and reliance, in each case in connection with such financial advisors' respective financial analyses and opinions as described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus under "—Opinion of TCF's Financial Advisor" and "—Opinion of Huntington's Financial Advisor."

The cost synergies consisted of estimated cost savings equal to 40% of TCF's core pre-initiative cash noninterest expense excluding depreciation and amortization, or approximately $490 million in pre-tax cost synergies, phased in 50% during 2021, 75% in 2022 and 100% thereafter, with a 3% annual growth in cost savings base in 2022 and thereafter.

The prospective financial information prepared by Huntington management with respect to TCF on a stand-alone basis was adjusted by Huntington management to give effect to the estimated cost synergies and certain purchase accounting adjustments, certain restructuring charges, and other assumptions related to the merger to derive prospective financial information with respect to TCF after giving effect to the merger, which was provided to Goldman Sachs by Huntington management and approved by Huntington for use by Goldman Sachs and used by Goldman Sachs in performing its financial analysis with respect to TCF after giving effect to the merger, and included estimated net income to common of $135 million in the second half of 2021 (or $315 million excluding certain restructuring charges), and estimated net income to common of $568 million (or $748 million excluding certain restructuring charges), $761 million, $837 million and $970 million for calendar years 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025, respectively.

See above in this section for further information regarding the uncertainties underlying the synergy estimates as well as the sections entitled “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” and “Risk Factors” beginning on pages 40 and 42, respectively, for further information regarding the uncertainties and factors associated with realizing synergies in connection with the merger.

General

The prospective financial information was prepared separately using, in some cases, different assumptions, and the different estimates are not intended to be added together. Adding the prospective financial information together for the two companies is not intended to represent the results the combined company will achieve if the merger is completed and is not intended to represent forecasted financial information for the combined company if the merger is completed.

By including in this joint proxy statement/prospectus a summary of the prospective financial information, neither Huntington nor TCF nor any of their respective representatives has made or makes any representation to any person regarding the ultimate performance of Huntington or TCF compared to the information contained in the prospective financial information. Neither Huntington, TCF, nor, after completion of the merger, the combined company, undertakes any obligation to update or otherwise revise the prospective financial information to reflect circumstances existing since their preparation or to reflect the occurrence of subsequent or unanticipated events, even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be inappropriate, or to reflect changes in general economic or industry conditions. None of Huntington, TCF or their respective advisors or other representatives has made, makes or is authorized in the future to make any representation to any shareholder of Huntington or TCF or other person regarding Huntington’s or TCF’s ultimate performance compared to the information contained in the prospective financial information or that the results reflected in the prospective financial information will be achieved. The prospective financial information included above is provided because it was made available to and considered by Huntington and TCF and their respective boards of directors and financial advisors in connection with the merger.

In light of the foregoing, and considering that the Huntington and TCF special meetings will be held several months after the prospective financial information was prepared, as well as the uncertainties inherent in any forecasted information, Huntington shareholders and TCF shareholders are cautioned not to place unwarranted reliance on such information, and are urged to review Huntington’s and TCF’s most recent SEC filings for a description of their reported financial results and the financial statements of Huntington and TCF incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See the section entitled “Where You Can Find More Information.” The prospective financial information summarized in this section is not included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in order to induce any holder of Huntington common stock to vote in favor of the Huntington merger proposal or any of the other proposals to be voted on at the Huntington special meeting or to induce any holder of TCF common stock to vote in favor of the TCF merger proposal or any of the other proposals to be voted on at the TCF special meeting.

Interests of TCF’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the TCF board of directors with respect to the merger, TCF shareholders should be aware that certain of TCF’s directors and executive officers have interests in the merger, including financial interests, that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the other shareholders of TCF generally. The TCF board of directors was aware of and considered these interests during its deliberations on the merits of the merger and in determining to recommend to TCF shareholders that they vote for the TCF merger proposal and thereby approve the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. See the sections entitled “The Merger—Background of the Merger” and “The Merger—TCF’s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of TCF’s Board of Directors” in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. These interests are described in more detail below, and certain of them are quantified in the narrative and table below.

Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards

The outstanding TCF equity awards held by TCF’s executive officers immediately prior to the effective time will be generally treated in the same manner as those TCF equity awards held by other employees of TCF, and in each case, except as described below, will be treated in accordance with the terms and conditions that were applicable to such awards before the effective time. As further described in “The Merger Agreement—Treatment of TCF Equity Awards,” at the effective time of the merger, each outstanding TCF equity award granted under TCF’s equity compensation plans, other than unvested TCF restricted stock awards held by non-employee directors, will be converted into a corresponding award with respect to Huntington common stock, with the number of shares underlying such award (and, in the case of TCF stock options, the applicable exercise price) adjusted based on the exchange ratio in the merger. Each such award will continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions as applied to the award immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, except that, in the case of TCF restricted stock unit awards subject to performance-based vesting conditions, the number of shares underlying the award will be determined with any performance goals deemed satisfied at the greater of the target and actual level of performance through the most recently completed calendar quarter prior to the effective time of the merger as reasonably determined by the compensation committee of the TCF board of directors in the ordinary course consistent with past practice. At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding unvested TCF restricted stock award that is held by a non-employee director will vest and be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of TCF common stock subject to such TCF restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Each TCF equity award agreement governing the treatment of such awards provides for “double-trigger” vesting if the executive officer is terminated by TCF without cause, or if the executive officer terminates his or her employment for good reason (each, a “qualifying termination”) upon or within the two (2)-years following a change in control. In addition, TCF’s executive officers are also party to employment and change-in-control agreements with TCF that include similar “double-trigger” vesting provisions (other than in the case of Mr. McComish, whose awards are governed by the applicable award agreements) that provide that, upon a qualifying termination within two (2)-years following a change in control, subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims, the executive officer’s unvested TCF stock options will fully vest and, other than with respect to TCF stock options granted to certain executive officers prior to November 2, 2017, remain exercisable until the earlier of three (3) years following such qualifying termination and the remaining term of such TCF stock option, and unvested time-vested TCF restricted stock unit awards and unvested TCF restricted stock unit awards formerly subject to performance conditions will fully vest.

The closing of the merger will constitute a change in control for purposes of the TCF equity awards. Accordingly, if the executive officer experiences a qualifying termination within the two (2)-year period following the closing of the merger, all unvested TCF stock options, TCF restricted stock awards and TCF restricted stock unit awards, including those subject to performance-based vesting conditions (which will be considered earned upon the closing at the greater of target and actual level of performance through the most recently completed calendar quarter prior to the merger) will fully vest.

For an estimate of the amounts that would be realized by each of TCF’s named executive officers upon a qualifying termination event in settlement of his unvested TCF equity awards, see “—Merger-Related Compensation for TCF’s Named Executive Officers—Golden Parachute Compensation” below. The estimated aggregate amount that would be realized by the twelve (12) executive officers who are not named executive officers in settlement of their unvested TCF equity awards that were outstanding on February 8, 2021 (including associated dividend equivalent rights and cash dividend rights accrued thereon) if the merger was completed on February 8, 2021 and each executive officer experienced a qualifying termination on that date is $15,124,147. In addition, the estimated aggregate amount that would be realized by the thirteen (13) TCF non-employee directors in settlement of their TCF equity awards (including associated dividend equivalent rights and cash dividend rights accrued thereon) that are outstanding as of February 8, 2021 if the effective time occurred on February 8, 2021 is $2,001,009. These amounts are calculated using a price per share of TCF common stock of $36.78 (the average closing price of TCF common stock on the first five (5) business days following the announcement of the merger) and, in the case of TCF restricted stock unit awards with performance-based vesting conditions, assumed target performance. These amounts do not attempt to forecast any additional equity grants, issuances or forfeitures that may occur prior to the closing of the merger and do not include the dividend equivalent rights that will accrue as of February 12, 2021. As a result of the foregoing assumptions, which may or may not be accurate on the relevant date, the actual amounts, if any, to be realized by TCF's executive officers who are not named executive officers and directors may materially differ from the amounts set forth above.

TCF Employment Agreements

Employment Agreement of David T. Provost

On December 13, 2020, TCF entered into an employment agreement with David T. Provost (the "Provost employment agreement"), its Chief Executive Officer, which will continue for an initial two (2)-year period from such date that will automatically extend for an additional two (2)-year period from the date of a change in control of TCF. The effective time of the merger will constitute a change in control under the Provost employment agreement. Under the Provost employment agreement, Mr. Provost is entitled to receive:

- an annual salary of at least $1.00, subject to annual review and adjustment;
- participation in annual bonus opportunity and equity programs starting in calendar year 2021, with a target bonus opportunity of $950,000;
- participation in long-term equity or equity-based incentive programs, with an annual aggregate grant date target value equal to at least $1.9 million;
- participation in the same benefit plans as apply to TCF's senior executives generally on the same terms and conditions; and
- certain specified perquisites, including an auto allowance and payment of certain membership fees.

The Provost employment agreement provides that Mr. Provost is eligible for certain benefits, including severance, upon certain terminations of employment not in connection with a change in control. In addition, if Mr. Provost is terminated other than for "cause" or resigns for "good reason" within six (6)-months prior to or two (2)-years following a change in control (a "change-in-control termination"), including the merger, subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims, he will be entitled to change-in-control severance as follows:

- the sum of (i) the greater of (a) $2.85 million and (b) three (3) times his then-base salary, disregarding any reduction in base salary due to a good-reason termination, if applicable, plus (ii) three (3) times the average of his bonuses under TCF's annual executive incentive plan for each of the three (3) most recently completed calendar years of his employment with TCF (with each such bonus calculated at the higher of $1.5 million and actual bonus paid), with a portion payable in a lump-sum and the remaining portion payable over 104 weeks in equal installments;
- twelve (12)-months of outplacement services through an external firm following termination; and
- a lump-sum health care stipend of $10,000 that may be used for any purpose.

In addition, the equity award treatment described above under the heading "—Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards" will apply.

Under the Provost employment agreement, Mr. Provost agreed to covenants of confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation and non-disparagement. Under the Provost employment agreement, if any payments would be subject to excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code, such payments will be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of the payments are subject to excise taxes, but only if reducing the payments provides Mr. Provost with a net after-tax benefit that is greater than if the reduction is not made.

In addition, TCF may award Mr. Provost a prorated bonus in respect of the 2021 performance year, with such amount to be paid immediately prior to the closing of the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable to Mr. Provost upon a change-in-control termination under the Provost employment agreement, see “—Merger-Related Compensation for TCF’s Named Executive Officers—Golden Parachute Compensation” below.

Employment Agreement of Gary Torgow

On December 13, 2020, TCF entered into an employment agreement with Gary Torgow (the “Torgow employment agreement”), the Executive Chairman of TCF’s Board of Directors, that superseded and replaced his prior amended and restated retention agreement with TCF, dated March 10, 2020. The Torgow employment agreement provides for an initial two (2)-year period that will automatically extend for an additional two (2)-year period from the date of a change in control. The effective time of the merger will constitute a change in control under the Torgow employment agreement. Under the Torgow employment agreement, Mr. Torgow is entitled to receive:

- an annual salary of at least $950,000, subject to annual review and adjustment;
- participation in annual bonus opportunity and equity programs with a target bonus opportunity of one hundred percent (100%) of base salary;
- participation in long-term equity or equity-based incentive programs, with an annual aggregate grant date target value equal to at least two (2) times his base salary;
- participation in the same benefit plans as apply to TCF’s senior executives generally on the same terms and conditions; and
- certain specified perquisites, including an auto allowance and payment of certain membership fees.

The Torgow employment agreement provides that Mr. Torgow is eligible for certain benefits, including severance, upon certain terminations of employment not in connection with a change in control. In addition, if Mr. Torgow experiences a change-in-control termination, subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims, he will be entitled to receive change-in-control severance as follows:

- the sum of (i) three (3) times his then-base salary (disregarding any reduction in base salary due to a good-reason termination, if applicable), plus (ii) three (3) times the average of his bonuses under TCF’s annual executive incentive plan for each of the three (3) most recently completed calendar years of his employment with TCF (with each such bonus calculated at the higher of $1.5 million and actual bonus paid), with a portion payable in a lump sum and the remaining portion payable over 104 weeks in equal installments;
- twelve (12)-months of outplacement services through an external firm following termination; and
- a lump-sum health care stipend of $10,000 that may be used for any purpose.

In addition, the equity award treatment described above under the heading “—Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards” will apply.

Under the Torgow employment agreement, Mr. Torgow agreed to covenants of confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation and non-disparagement. Under the Torgow employment agreement, if any payments would be subject to excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code, such payments will be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of the payments are subject to excise taxes, but only if reducing the payments provides Mr. Torgow with a net after-tax benefit that is greater than if the reduction is not made.

In addition, TCF may award Mr. Torgow a prorated bonus in respect of the 2021 performance year and grant him a cash transition award, with each such amount to be paid immediately prior to the closing of the merger. As of the date hereof, the amount of Mr. Torgow’s cash transition award has not been determined but, if paid, is not expected to be greater than $6,000,000.

For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable to Mr. Torgow upon a change-in-control termination under the Torgow employment agreement, see “—Merger-Related Compensation for TCF’s Named Executive Officers—Golden Parachute Compensation” below.

Employment Agreements of Messrs. Shafer, Jones, and Maass

On December 13, 2020, each of Messrs. Shafer, Jones, and Maass entered into an amended and restated employment agreement that superseded and replaced each executive officer's existing executive employment agreement with TCF (effective July 31, 2019, August 1, 2019, and December 13, 2019, respectively). The term of each employment agreement will be automatically extended until the second anniversary of a change in control, such as the merger. Under each executive officer's employment agreement, if the executive experiences a change-in-control termination, each executive officer will be eligible to receive, subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims:

- a cash severance payment equal to:
 - with respect to Mr. Shafer, the sum of (i) three (3) times his then-base salary (disregarding any reduction in base salary due to a good-reason termination, if applicable), plus (ii) three (3) times the average of his bonuses under TCF's annual executive incentive plan for each of the three (3) most recently completed calendar years of his employment with TCF (with each such bonus calculated at the higher of $1.5 million and actual bonus paid), with a portion payable in a lump sum and the remaining portion payable over 104 weeks in equal installments; or
 - with respect to Messrs. Jones and Maass, two (2) times the sum of (i) his then-base salary (disregarding any reduction in base salary due to a good-reason termination, if applicable), plus (ii) the average of his bonuses under TCF's annual executive plan for each of the three (3) most recently completed calendar years of his employment with TCF (or such lesser number of completed calendar years that the executive officer has been employed by TCF), subject to Section 409A of the Code, payable in a lump sum;
- a lump-sum cash health care stipend in the amount of $10,000, which can be used for any purpose; and
- executive-level outplacement services for a period not to exceed twelve (12)-months.

In addition, the equity award treatment described above under the heading “—Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards” will apply.

Mr. Shafer's amended and restated employment agreement also increased his minimum bonus threshold to $1.5 million for purposes of calculating severance and increased his annual equity grant target to two hundred percent (200%) of base salary.

Each of Messrs. Shafer, Jones, and Maass is subject to covenants of confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation and non-disparagement under his employment agreement. Under each employment agreement, if any payments would be subject to excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code, such payments will be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of the payments is subject to excise taxes, but only if reducing the payments provides the executive officer with a net after-tax benefit that is greater than if the reduction is not made.

For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable to Messrs. Shafer, Jones, and Maass upon a qualifying termination in connection with the merger under their respective employment agreements, see “—Merger-Related Compensation for TCF's Named Executive Officers—Golden Parachute Compensation” below.

Employment Agreements with Other TCF Executive Officers

TCF is also party to employment agreements with the following executive officers who are not named executive officers: Messrs. Butterfield, Green, Henak, Jackson, McComish, Regan, and Terpsma, and Mmes. Kuohn and Wendt. Under each of these employment agreements, if the executive officer experiences a change-in-control termination, subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims, the executive officer is entitled to receive a severance payment, payable in a lump-sum, equal to one and one-half (1.5) times or two (2) times, as applicable, the sum of (a) his or her annual base salary (disregarding any reduction in base salary due to a good-reason termination) plus (b) an amount equal to the average of his or her annual performance bonuses during the three (3) most recently completed calendar years before the change-in-control event (or the lesser number of years such executive officer has been employed). Each executive officer will also receive a lump-sum health care stipend in the amount of $10,000 and executive-level outplacement services for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months.

In addition, the equity award treatment described above under the heading “—Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards” will apply.

Each executive officer is subject to covenants of confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation and non-disparagement under his or her employment agreement. Under each employment agreement, if any payments would be subject to excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code, such payments will be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of the payments are subject to excise taxes, but only if reducing the payments provides the executive officer with a net after-tax benefit that is greater than if the reduction is not made.

The estimated aggregate value of the severance and other benefits described above (other than the equity award vesting, which is quantified above in “—Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards”) that would be payable to TCF’s nine (9) executive officers who are not named executive officers under their employment agreements with TCF if the merger were to be completed on February 8, 2021 and each executive officer experienced a change-in-control termination on that date is $13,979,710.

TCF Change-in-Control Agreements

TCF is party to change-in-control agreements (amended on December 13, 2020, in the case Mr. White, and entered into on such date in the case of Ms. Kelly) with the following executive officers who are not named executive officers: Messrs. Meringolo and White and Ms. Kelly. Under each change-in-control agreement, if the executive officer experiences a change-in-control termination, subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims, the executive officer is entitled to receive a severance payment, payable in a lump sum, equal to one and one-half (1.5) times the sum of (a) his or her annual base salary (disregarding any reduction in base salary due to a good-reason termination) plus (b) an amount equal to the average of his or her annual performance bonuses during the three (3) most recently completed calendar years before the change-in-control event (or the lesser number of years such executive officer has been employed). Each executive officer will also receive continued payment of the employer portion of COBRA coverage for up to twelve (12)-months and executive-level outplacement services for a period not to exceed twelve (12)-months. In addition, the equity award treatment described above under the heading “—Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards” will apply.

Each executive officer who is party to a change-in-control agreement is subject to covenants of confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation and non-disparagement. Under each change-in-control agreement, if any payments would be subject to excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code, such payments will be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of the payments are subject to excise taxes, but only if reducing the payments provides the executive officer with a net after-tax benefit that is greater than if the reduction is not made. The estimated aggregate value of the severance and other benefits described above (other than the equity award vesting, which is quantified above in “—Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards”) that would become payable to the three (3) TCF executive officers who are not named executive officers under their change-in-control severance agreements if the merger were completed on February 8, 2021, and such executive officers experienced a change-in-control termination on that date is $3,051,140.

Consulting Agreement with Dennis L. Klaeser

TCF is party to a consulting agreement with Mr. Klaeser (the “Klaeser consulting agreement”), TCF’s former Chief Financial Officer, dated as of August 5, 2020. The Klaeser consulting agreement has a two (2)-year term that commenced on October 2, 2020, and provides that Mr. Klaeser will receive an annual fee equal to $215,000 as compensation for providing consulting services in connection with strategic matters for TCF. In addition, Mr. Klaeser is eligible to receive a success fee for each successful transaction for which Mr. Klaeser provides material support during the term of the Klaeser consulting agreement. Any success fee is calculated in accordance with the terms of the Klaeser consulting agreement.

In connection with the merger, TCF has agreed that Mr. Klaeser will receive a success fee in satisfaction of the obligations under the Klaeser consulting agreement upon consummation of the merger, subject to certain conditions. For the anticipated amount of the success fee in connection with the merger that would be payable to Mr. Klaeser under the Klaeser consulting agreement, see “—Merger-Related Compensation for TCF’s Named Executive Officers—Golden Parachute Compensation” below.

Huntington Letter Agreements

On December 13, 2020, Huntington entered into a letter agreement (a “letter agreement”) with each of Messrs. Provost and Torgow with respect to the terms of his service as an advisor to Huntington after the consummation of the merger.

Each of Messrs. Provost and Torgow will serve as an advisor to Huntington through the third anniversary of the consummation of the merger. As compensation for the advisory services and the restrictive covenants described below, each of Messrs. Torgow and Provost will be entitled to a lump-sum cash payment of $3.25 million at the effective time and an annual advisory fee equal to $3.25 million for each of the first two (2) twelve (12)-month periods following the effective time and $2.75 million for the third twelve (12)-month period following the effective time. Such amounts (along with certain continued executive-level benefits) are the only compensation that either named executive officer will receive with respect to his service to Huntington and its affiliates following the closing of the merger in any capacity.

Under each letter agreement, each of Messrs. Provost and Torgow has agreed to be bound by certain restrictive covenants, including non-competition and non-solicitation covenants, for the five (5)-year period following the closing of the merger. Messrs. Provost and Torgow will also be subject to indefinite confidentiality covenants.

Each letter agreement does not affect the severance and other benefits under the terms of the Provost employment agreement or the Torgow employment agreement, as described above in “—TCF Employment Agreements—Employment Agreement of David T. Provost” and “—TCF Employment Agreements—Employment Agreement of Gary Torgow.” Each letter agreement acknowledges that the termination of employment at the closing of the merger for each of Mr. Provost and Mr. Torgow will be deemed a “Change-in-Control Termination” under the Provost employment agreement and the Torgow employment agreement, respectively, and that each will be entitled to the severance and other benefits under such agreement that are described above and quantified below in the section entitled “—Merger-Related Compensation for TCF’s Named Executive Officers—Golden Parachute Compensation” upon his separation from service at the effective time of the merger.

Membership of the Board of Directors of the Huntington and The Huntington National Bank

The Huntington board of directors following the merger will consist of eighteen (18) directors, thirteen (13) of whom will be the current members of the Huntington board of directors and five (5) of whom will be current members of the TCF board of directors. For additional information, see “The Merger—Governance of the Combined Company After the Merger” beginning on page 109. Non-employee members of the Huntington board of directors will be compensated for such service. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, no decisions have been made with respect to which current members of the TCF board of directors will serve on the Huntington board of directors after the merger.

In addition, as of the effective time of the bank merger, Mr. Torgow will be appointed as Chairman of the board of directors of The Huntington National Bank. Mr. Torgow will not be eligible to receive any additional compensation (other than the advisory fees described above in “—Huntington Letter Agreements”) for such service.

Huntington Employment Arrangements

Huntington has entered into agreements (the “Huntington agreements”) with the following TCF executive officers to set forth the terms of their post-closing employment with Huntington: Messrs. Shafer, Jones, Henak, Jackson, Regan and White and Mmes. Kuohn and Kelly. Each Huntington agreement will become effective upon the effective time and supersede his or her TCF employment or change-in-control agreement, described above in the sections entitled “—TCF Employment Agreements” and “—TCF Change-in-Control Agreements”, other than specific provisions (including all applicable restrictive covenants) that expressly survive. The Huntington agreements provide that the TCF executives will serve in the following positions: Mr. Shafer as Co-President of Commercial Banking; Mr. Jones as Head of Middle Market Banking – Minnesota and Colorado and Chair for Minnesota and Colorado; Mr. Henak as Special Advisor to the executive leader(s) of the Commercial Banking Segment; Mr. Jackson as Risk Analytics, Reporting & Governance Officer; Mr. Regan as Operational Risk Director; Mr. White as Regional Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Director; Ms. Kuohn as HR Strategy & Colleague Experience Director; and Ms. Kelly as Executive Managing Director, Commercial Real Estate.

In consideration for their services, (i) Mr. Shafer will receive an annual base salary of $630,000 and be eligible for a target annual incentive opportunity for the 2021 and 2022 performance years of 115% of his base salary and an annual equity award for 2022 performance with a target opportunity of 215% of his base salary; (ii) Mr. Jones will receive an annual base salary of $600,000 and be eligible for a target annual incentive opportunity for the 2021 and 2022 performance years of 80% of his base salary and an annual equity award for 2022 performance with a target opportunity of 120% of his base salary; (iii) Mr. Henak will receive an annual base salary of $580,000 and be eligible for an incentive award for the 2021 performance year equal to $1,400,000; (iv) Mr. Jackson will receive an annual base salary of $350,000 and be eligible for a target annual incentive opportunity for the 2021 and 2022 performance years of 50% of his base salary and an annual equity award for 2022 performance with a target opportunity of 55% of his base salary; (v) Mr. Regan will receive an annual base salary of $300,000 and be eligible for a target annual incentive opportunity for the 2021 and 2022 performance years of 50% of his base salary and an annual equity award for 2022 performance with a target opportunity of 55% of his base salary; (vi) Mr. White will receive an annual base salary of $220,000 and be eligible for a target annual incentive opportunity for the 2021 and 2022 performance years of 35% of his base salary and an annual equity award for 2022 performance with a target opportunity of 25.5% of his base salary; (vii) Ms. Kuohn will receive an annual base salary of $425,000 and be eligible for a target annual incentive opportunity for the 2021 and 2022 performance years of 50% of her base salary and an annual equity award for 2022 performance with a target opportunity of 55% of her base salary; and (viii) Ms. Kelly will receive an annual base salary of $500,000 and be eligible for a target annual incentive opportunity for the 2021 and 2022 performance years of 90% of her base salary and an annual equity award for 2022 performance with a target opportunity of 140% of her base salary.

Each executive officer will be eligible for employee benefits no less favorable than those provided to similarly situated Huntington employees (though certain benefits may continue to be provided under the TCF benefits platform until fully integrated). Until the second anniversary of the effective time, the executive officers will not be eligible for severance or transition pay upon a termination of employment with Huntington, although upon the closing, Mr. Shafer will be eligible to enter into an executive agreement with Huntington that will provide for severance benefits equal to two and one-half times his annual base salary and target annual incentive award upon a qualifying termination following a change in control of Huntington.

To incentivize the aforementioned TCF executive officers to remain employed with Huntington after the effective time, each Huntington agreement provides that the executive officer will receive payments equal to the amount of potential severance payments (subject to reduction as determined to be necessary to avoid the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code) under the executive officer's preexisting TCF employment agreement or TCF change-in-control agreement that the executive officer would otherwise have become entitled to in connection with a qualifying termination at or within two (2) years following the closing. Each of Messrs. Shafer, Jones, Henak, Jackson and Regan and Ms. Kuohn will receive a portion of such severance amount in cash approximately sixty (60) days following the closing, subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims. The remainder of the severance amount will be credited to a deferred compensation account and will be paid following the executive officer's future "separation from service" (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code), subject to the execution and non-revocation of a second release of claims. Mr. White and Ms. Kelly will receive the full amount of the potential severance payments under his or her TCF change-in-control agreement in cash approximately sixty (60) days following the closing, subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims.

In connection with the merger, each executive officer's TCF equity awards will be treated as described above in "—Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards" and will continue to vest based on the executive officer's service to Huntington, subject to "double-trigger" vesting upon a qualifying termination within the two (2) years following the closing. However, each Huntington agreement (other than that with Mr. Henak) provides that the good reason trigger applicable to the executive officer's equity awards will instead be based upon the compensation and terms set forth in the applicable Huntington agreement. In addition, effective January 1, 2022, the preexisting one (1) year advance written notice period under the retirement provisions applicable to Ms. Kuohn's TCF equity awards will be reduced to two (2) months' advance written notice.

Mr. Henak's employment with Huntington will terminate on December 31, 2021, at which time he will receive the $10,000 health care stipend under his TCF employment agreement in accordance with the terms thereof. Prior to such date, Huntington and Mr. Henak will enter into a consulting agreement memorializing the terms of his service to Huntington as a consultant for a period of time after December 31, 2021. Ms. Kuohn's employment with Huntington will terminate on December 31, 2022 or such earlier date as determined by Huntington. Subject to Mr. Henak's and Ms. Kuohn's satisfaction of his or her obligations under the Huntington agreement and the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims, these contemplated terminations will entitle the executive officer to the "double-trigger" vesting of his or her TCF equity awards described above.

Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance

Under the merger agreement, each present and former director and officer of TCF or any of its subsidiaries is entitled to continued indemnification and insurance coverage through the combined company for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger. For additional information, see "The Merger Agreement—Covenants and Agreements—Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance" beginning on page 126.

Merger-Related Compensation for TCF's Named Executive Officers

This section sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K regarding the compensation for each of TCF's named executive officers that is based on or that otherwise relates to the merger. The merger-related compensation payable to these individuals is subject to a non-binding advisory vote of TCF's shareholders, as described above in "TCF Proposals—Proposals 2: TCF Compensation Proposal." The table below sets forth, for the purposes of this golden parachute disclosure, the amount of payments and benefits that each TCF named executive officer would receive, using the following assumptions:

- The merger is consummated on February 8, 2021 (which is an assumed date solely for the purposes of calculations in this section);
- Each of Messrs. Provost, Torgow, Shafer, Jones, and Maass experiences a qualifying termination of employment other than for "cause" immediately following the effective time;
- Each of the named executive officer's base salary rate and annual target bonus remain unchanged from those in place as of February 8, 2021;
- 2020 annual bonuses have been paid as of such qualifying termination of employment;
- TCF equity awards that are outstanding as of February 8, 2021;
- Performance under all performance-based TCF restricted stock unit awards is satisfied at the target performance level;
- Dividend equivalent rights and cash dividend rights have been included in the estimates; and
- A price per share of TCF common stock of $36.78, the average closing price per share over the first five business days following the announcement of the merger agreements.

The calculations in the table do not include amounts that TCF's named executive officers were already entitled to receive or vested in as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, for each of Messrs. Provost and Torgow, the calculations in the table do not include any amounts that may become payable under the letter agreements with Mr. Provost and Mr. Torgow, as described in the section entitled "—Huntington Letter Agreements" or the employment arrangements with certain other named executive officers, as described in the section entitled "—Huntington Employment Arrangements," as, in each case, those amounts are contingent upon, and will be paid as compensation for, services provided to Huntington following the closing. These amounts also do not reflect compensation actions that may occur after the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus but before the effective time of the merger, including any additional equity grants, issuances or forfeitures that may occur prior to the closing of the merger. As a result of the foregoing assumptions, which may or may not actually occur or be accurate on the relevant date, including the assumptions described in the footnotes to the table, the actual amounts, if any, to be received by a named executive officer may materially differ from the amounts set forth below.

Craig R. Dahl	—	—	—	—
Dennis L. Klaeser	$4,250,000	—	—	$ 4,250,000

- (1) Messrs. Dahl and Klaeser terminated employment with TCF effective October 27, 2020 and October 1, 2020, respectively. Accordingly, as of the assumed effective time of the merger of February 8, 2021, Mr. Dahl is not entitled to merger-related compensation, and Mr. Klaeser is only entitled to the success fee under the Klaeser consulting agreement described above.
- (2) Cash. The cash amount payable to the named executive officers represents the following:
- Pursuant to the employment agreement with each named executive officer (other than Messrs. Dahl and Klaeser) described in the section entitled “—TCF Employment Agreements,” cash severance calculated as follows: for Mr. Provost, the sum of (i) $2.85 million, plus (ii) three (3) times the average of his bonuses under TCF’s annual executive incentive plan for each of the three (3) most recently completed calendar years of his employment with TCF (with each such bonus calculated at the higher of $1.5 million and actual bonus paid); for each of Messrs. Torgow and Shafer, the sum of (i) three (3) times his base salary, plus (ii) three (3) times the average of his bonuses under TCF’s annual executive incentive plan for each of the three (3) most recently completed calendar years of his employment with TCF (with each such bonus calculated at the higher of $1.5 million and actual bonus paid); and for each of Messrs. Jones and Maass, two (2) times the sum of (i) his base salary, plus (ii) the average of his bonuses under TCF’s annual executive plan for each of the three (3) most recently completed calendar years of his employment with TCF (or such lesser number of completed calendar years that the executive officer has been employed by TCF);
 - Cash totals shown in the above table consist of cash severance noted in the paragraph above, plus pursuant to the employment agreement with each named executive officer (other than Messrs. Dahl and Klaeser) described in the section entitled “—TCF Employment Agreements,” a $10,000 lump-sum stipend, which is intended to fund payment for health coverage but may be used for any purpose; and
 - For Mr. Klaeser, a success fee for his consulting services rendered in connection with the merger equal to $4,250,000 that will become payable at the effective time under the Klaeser consulting agreement, as described in the section entitled “—Consulting Agreement with Dennis L. Klaeser.”
 - The cash amounts payable to each named executive officer are “double-trigger,” or are payable only upon a qualifying termination in connection with the merger (except for the consulting fee payable to Mr. Klaeser, which is “single-trigger” and will be payable upon the effective time).
- (3) Equity. As described in “—Treatment of Outstanding TCF Equity Awards,” at the effective time, each outstanding TCF equity award held by the named executive officers (except as described below) will be converted into a corresponding award with respect to Huntington common stock, with the number of shares underlying such award (and, in the case of TCF stock options, the applicable exercise price) adjusted based on the exchange ratio. In the case of TCF restricted stock unit awards subject to performance vesting conditions, the number of shares underlying the converted award will be determined with any performance goals deemed satisfied at the greater of the target and actual level of performance through the most recently completed calendar quarter prior to the effective time. Any such converted equity awards will vest upon a qualifying termination in connection with the merger (i.e., “double-trigger”), other than the 3,860 TCF restricted stock awards granted to Mr. Provost in his prior capacity as a non-employee director, which awards will fully vest at the effective time (i.e., “single-trigger”) in accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to such awards prior to the effective time.

David Provost	—	$141,971	—	—	$ 4,053	$ 146,024
Gary Torgow	—	—	$4,166,255	$2,976,164	$184,606	$7,327,025
Thomas Shafer	$0	—	$3,534,852	$1,074,859	$193,444	$4,803,155
Michael Jones	—	$100,998	$1,639,505	$ 817,840	$ 76,662	$2,635,005

Craig R. Dahl	—	—	—	—	—	—
Dennis L. Klaeser	—	—	—	—	—	—

- (a) Mr. Shafer is the only named executive officer with unvested TCF stock options (holding 3,433 unvested TCF stock options with an exercise price of $46.95 per share and 5,328 unvested TCF stock options with an exercise price of $53.72 per share); however, such TCF stock options are out-of-the-money based on the assumed price per share of TCF common stock of $36.78, and thus no value for such awards is included in this table.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- (b) Mr. Provost holds 3,860 unvested TCF restricted stock awards that he received as a non-employee director. This amount is “single-trigger” and will be realized at the effective time without regard to whether Mr. Provost experiences a qualifying termination of employment.
- (c) As described above, the table assumes that performance under any TCF restricted stock unit awards subject to performance vesting conditions is met at the target performance level.
- (d) This column also includes accrued cash dividends.
- (4) Perquisites/Benefits. The amount in this column reflects twelve (12)-months of outplacement services through an external firm following termination, estimated at $25,000. Such amount is “double-trigger,” or payable only upon a qualifying termination in connection with the merger.

Governance of the Combined Company After the Merger

Charter Amendment

In connection with the merger, Huntington’s charter will be amended to increase the number of authorized shares of Huntington common stock from one billion five hundred million (1,500,000,000) shares to two billion two hundred fifty million shares (2,250,000,000). A copy of the Huntington charter amendment is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B.

At the effective time, the charter of Huntington, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time, as amended as described above, will be the charter of the combined company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law.

Bylaws

At the effective time, the bylaws of Huntington, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time, will be the bylaws of the combined company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law.

Board of Directors

As of the effective time, the number of directors constituting the Huntington board of directors will be increased by five (5) for a total of eighteen (18) directors, and five (5) current directors of TCF (the “TCF directors”) will be appointed to the board of directors of Huntington. Each of the TCF directors will be designated by TCF, subject to the approval of the Huntington board of directors (not to be unreasonably withheld). One TCF director will not stand for reelection to the Huntington board of directors at Huntington’s 2022 annual meeting of shareholders. In addition, as of the effective time of the bank merger, Gary Torgow will be appointed as Chairman of the board of directors of The Huntington National Bank. Following the effective time, the meetings of the Huntington board of directors and, following the effective time of the bank merger, the board of directors of The Huntington National Bank will rotate between (i) Columbus and (ii) Detroit / Minneapolis.

Headquarters and Operations

The combined company and its subsidiaries will have dual headquarters for banking operations in Columbus, Ohio, and Detroit, Michigan, with the headquarters of the consumer banking operations of the combined company and its subsidiaries being located in Columbus, Ohio and the headquarters of the commercial banking operations of the combined company and its subsidiaries being located in Detroit, Michigan. The headquarters of the combined company and the main office of The Huntington National Bank will be located in Columbus, Ohio. Under the merger agreement, Huntington and TCF (A) agree that it is the intention of the combined company to increase total employment in the planned TCF headquarters building located at the corner of Woodward and Elizabeth Streets in Detroit, Michigan to at least eight hundred (800) employees and (B) recognize the continued importance of Minneapolis, Midland and Chicago to the combined company and its subsidiaries.

Foundation

At or prior to the closing, Huntington will contribute $50 million to establish the foundation, dedicated to supporting primarily any markets in which Huntington operates. TCF’s current Executive Chairman and TCF’s current Chief Executive Officer will recommend and allocate such funds in a manner generally consistent with Huntington’s recommended charitable giving guidelines, and will periodically report to Huntington regarding the activities, contributions and grants made by the foundation. TCF's current Executive Chairman and TCF's current Chief Executive Officer may fully distribute the foundation's funds over a seven (7)-year period from the closing date (and may not fully distribute such funds prior to the end of such period).

Accounting Treatment

Huntington prepares its financial statements in accordance with GAAP. The merger will be accounted for as an acquisition of TCF by Huntington under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with GAAP. Huntington will be treated as the acquirer for accounting purposes.

Regulatory Approvals

To complete the merger and bank merger, Huntington and TCF need to obtain approvals or consents from, or make filings with, a number of U.S. federal and state bank and other regulatory authorities. Subject to the terms of the merger agreement, Huntington and TCF have agreed to cooperate with each other and use reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings (and in the case of the applications, notices, petitions and filings required to obtain the requisite regulatory approvals, use their reasonable best efforts to make such filings within forty-five (45) days of the date of the merger agreement), to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including the merger and the bank merger), and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and governmental entities. These approvals include, among others, the approval of the merger and bank merger by the Federal Reserve Board and the OCC, respectively. Nothing in the merger agreement will be deemed to require Huntington or TCF or any of their respective subsidiaries, and neither Huntington nor TCF nor any of their respective subsidiaries will be permitted (without the written consent of the other party), to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with obtaining any permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of governmental entities that would reasonably be likely to have a material adverse effect on the combined company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the merger (a "materially burdensome regulatory condition").

The approval of an application means only that the statutory and regulatory criteria for approval have been satisfied or waived. It does not mean that the approving authority has determined that the consideration to be received by holders of TCF common stock in the merger is fair. Regulatory approval does not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the merger.

Huntington and TCF believe that the merger does not raise significant regulatory concerns and that they will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals. However, there can be no assurance that all of the regulatory approvals described below will be obtained and, if obtained, there can be no assurances regarding the timing of the approvals, the companies' ability to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms or the absence of litigation challenging such approvals. In addition, there can be no assurance that such approvals will not impose conditions or requirements that, individually or in the aggregate, would or could reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, assets or business of the combined company following completion of the merger. There can likewise be no assurances that U.S. federal or state regulatory or competition authorities will not attempt to challenge the merger or, if such a challenge is made, what the result of such challenge will be.

Federal Reserve Board

The merger is subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board pursuant to section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the "BHC Act"). The Federal Reserve Board takes into consideration a number of factors when acting on applications under section 3 of the BHC Act. These factors include the financial and managerial resources of the companies and banks involved (including consideration of the capital adequacy, liquidity, and earnings performance, as well as the competence, experience and integrity of the officers, directors and principal shareholders, and the records of compliance with applicable laws and regulations) and future prospects of the combined company. The Federal Reserve Board also considers the effectiveness of the applicant in combatting money laundering, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, as well as the extent to which the proposal would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system. The Federal Reserve Board may not approve a proposal that would have significant adverse effects on competition or on the concentration of resources in any banking market.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In considering an application under section 3 of the BHC Act, the Federal Reserve Board also reviews the records of performance of the relevant insured depository institutions under the Community Reinvestment Act (the “CRA”), pursuant to which the Federal Reserve Board must also take into account the record of performance of each of Huntington and TCF in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods, served by their depository institution subsidiaries. In their most recent CRA performance evaluation, Huntington’s wholly owned subsidiary, The Huntington National Bank, and TCF’s wholly owned subsidiary, TCF National Bank, each received an overall regulatory rating of “outstanding.”

In addition, in connection with an interstate merger transaction, the Federal Reserve Board considers certain additional factors under the Riegle-Neal Interstate Banking and Branching Efficiency Act of 1994 (the “Riegle-Neal Act”), including the capital position of the acquiring bank holding company, state laws regarding the minimum age of the bank to be acquired, the concentration of deposits on a nationwide and statewide basis, and compliance with any applicable state community reinvestment and antitrust laws.

The initial filing of the application to the Federal Reserve Board occurred on January 11, 2021. As part of the initial filing, Huntington and TCF offered to divest TCF branches in four Michigan banking markets with deposits totaling approximately $375 million, based on Summary of Deposit levels reported as of June 30, 2020, to address potential competitive concerns. There can be no assurance that the divestiture proposal will be accepted or deemed sufficient by the Federal Reserve Board. In addition, and as noted above, the Federal Reserve Board takes into consideration a number of factors in its evaluation of a merger application; the probable competitive effects of a proposed transaction is only one such factor.

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency

The merger of TCF National Bank with and into The Huntington National Bank requires the prior approval of the OCC under the National Bank Act, the Bank Merger Act, and the Riegle-Neal Act. In evaluating the application, the OCC will consider: (i) the financial and managerial resources of the banks party to the bank merger and the future prospects of the combined company, (ii) the convenience and needs of the community to be served and the record of the banks under the CRA, including their CRA ratings, (iii) the banks’ effectiveness in combating money-laundering activities, and (iv) the extent to which the proposal would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system.

Additionally, the OCC considers the capital level of the resulting bank, the conformity of the transaction to applicable law, the purpose of the merger, the impact of the merger on the safety and soundness of the bank, and the effect on the bank’s shareholders, depositors, other creditors and customers. In addition, in connection with an interstate bank merger transaction, such as the bank merger, the OCC considers certain additional factors under the Riegle-Neal Act, including the capital position of the acquiring bank, state laws regarding the minimum age of the bank to be acquired, the concentration of deposits on a nationwide and statewide basis, and compliance with any applicable state community reinvestment and antitrust laws. Under the Riegle-Neal Act, the OCC may approve an interstate merger transaction only if each constituent bank is adequately capitalized at the time the application for such transaction is filed with the OCC, and the OCC determines that the resulting bank will be well capitalized and well managed upon the consummation of the transaction.

The filing of the application to the OCC occurred on January 11, 2021.

Public Notice and Comments

The BHC Act, the Bank Merger Act and Federal Reserve Board and OCC regulations require published notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, the applications to the Federal Reserve and the OCC. These agencies take into account the views of third-party commenters, particularly on the subject of the merging parties’ CRA performance and record of service to their communities. As part of the review process in merger transactions, the Federal Reserve Board and OCC frequently receive protests from community groups and others. These agencies are also authorized to hold one or more public hearings or meetings if the agencies determine that such hearings or meetings would be appropriate. The receipt of written comments or any public meeting or hearing could prolong the period during which the applicable application is under review by these agencies.

Department of Justice Review and Waiting Periods

In addition to the Federal Reserve Board, the DOJ conducts a concurrent competitive review of the merger to analyze the merger’s competitive effects and determine whether the merger would result in a violation of the antitrust laws. Transactions approved under section 3 of the BHC Act generally may not be completed until thirty

(30) days after the approval of the applicable federal agency is received, during which time the DOJ may challenge the transaction on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the applicable federal agency and the concurrence of the DOJ, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than fifteen (15) days. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of such an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise.

In reviewing the merger, the DOJ could analyze the merger's effect on competition differently than the Federal Reserve Board, and, thus, it is possible that the DOJ could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve Board regarding the merger's effects on competition. A determination by the DOJ not to object to the merger may not prevent the filing of antitrust actions by private persons or state attorneys general. There can be no assurance if and when DOJ clearance will be obtained, or as to the conditions or limitations that such DOJ approval may contain or impose.

On January 11, 2021, as part of the initial filing with the Federal Reserve Board, Huntington and TCF offered to divest TCF branches in four Michigan banking markets with deposits totaling approximately $375 million, based on Summary of Deposit levels reported as of June 30, 2020, to address potential competitive concerns. There can be no assurance that the divestiture proposal will be accepted or deemed sufficient by the DOJ.

Additional Regulatory Approvals and Notices

Notifications and/or applications requesting approval may be submitted to various other federal and state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations.

Treatment of TCF Series C Preferred Stock and TCF Depositary Shares

In the merger, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of Huntington, TCF or any holder of securities thereof, each share of TCF series C preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will automatically be converted into the right to receive one (1) share of new Huntington preferred stock. Each outstanding share of TCF series C preferred stock is presently represented by TCF depositary shares that represent a 1/1000th interest in a share of the TCF series C preferred stock. Upon completion of the merger, Huntington will assume the obligations of TCF under the applicable deposit agreement. Each TCF depositary share will then become a Huntington depositary share.

Stock Exchange Listings

Huntington common stock is listed for trading on the NASDAQ under the symbol "HBAN." TCF common stock is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol "TCF" and TCF depositary shares are listed for trading on the NASDAQ under the symbol "TCFCP." In the merger, the TCF common stock and TCF depositary shares currently listed on the NASDAQ will be delisted from such exchange and deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Huntington will cause the shares of Huntington common stock and new Huntington preferred stock (or depositary shares in respect thereof) to be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the effective time. The merger agreement provides that neither Huntington nor TCF will be required to complete the merger if such shares are not authorized for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance. Following the merger, shares of Huntington common stock will continue to be listed on the NASDAQ.

Appraisal or Dissenters' Rights in the Merger

Under Section 3-202 of the MGCL, the holders of Huntington common stock will not be entitled to appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. Under Section 450.1762 of the MBCA, the holders of TCF common stock will not be entitled to appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger if, on the record date for the TCF special meeting, TCF's shares are listed on a national securities exchange. TCF common stock is currently listed on the NASDAQ, a national securities exchange, and is expected to continue to be so listed on the record date for the TCF special meeting. Accordingly, the holders of TCF common stock are not entitled to any appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger.

Litigation Related to the Merger

On February 2, 2021, a complaint, captioned Shiva Stein v. TCF Financial Corporation et al., No. 1:21-cv-00273-JKB, was filed by a purported shareholder of TCF in the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland. The complaint names TCF, the TCF board of directors and Huntington as defendants. The complaint alleges, among other things, that the defendants caused a materially incomplete and misleading registration statement relating to the proposed merger to be filed with the SEC in violation of Section 14(a) and Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder. The complaint seeks, among other relief, an injunction preventing the closing of the merger unless and until defendants disclose the allegedly omitted material information, rescission of the merger to the extent already implemented or awarding of rescissory damages, damages and an award of attorneys' and experts' fees. Huntington and TCF believe the claims asserted in the lawsuit are without merit.

On February 6, 2021, a complaint captioned Maegon Cassell v. Huntington Bancshares Incorporated et al., No. 1:21-cv-00161-MN, was filed by a purported shareholder of Huntington in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware. The complaint names Huntington, the Huntington board of directors and TCF as defendants. The complaint alleges, among other things, that the defendants caused a materially incomplete and misleading registration statement relating to the proposed merger to be filed with the SEC in violation of Section 14(a) and Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder. The complaint seeks, among other relief, an injunction preventing the closing of the merger, rescission of the merger in the event consummated or awarding of rescissory damages, dissemination of an amended registration statement that does not contain any allegedly untrue statements of material fact, a declaration that defendants violated Section 14(a) and Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act as well as Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder and an award of attorneys' and experts' fees. Huntington and TCF believe the claims asserted in the lawsuit are without merit.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

This section of the joint proxy statement/prospectus describes the material terms of the merger agreement. The description in this section and elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the complete text of the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated by reference herein. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. We urge you to read the full text of the merger agreement, as it is the legal document governing the merger. This section is not intended to provide you with any factual information about Huntington or TCF. Such information can be found elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the public filings Huntington and TCF make with the SEC, as described in the section entitled “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 178 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Explanatory Note Regarding the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement and this summary of terms are included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. Factual disclosures about Huntington and TCF contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or in the public reports of Huntington or TCF filed with the SEC may supplement, update or modify the factual disclosures about Huntington and TCF contained in the merger agreement. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties by Huntington, on the one hand, and by TCF, on the other hand, made solely for the benefit of the other. The representations, warranties and covenants made in the merger agreement by Huntington and TCF were qualified and subject to important limitations agreed to by Huntington and TCF in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. In particular, in your review of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purpose of establishing circumstances in which a party to the merger agreement may have the right not to consummate the merger if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement, rather than establishing matters as facts. The representations and warranties also may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable to shareholders and reports and documents filed with the SEC, and some were qualified by the matters contained in the confidential disclosure schedules that Huntington and TCF each delivered in connection with the merger agreement and certain documents filed with the SEC. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties, which do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, may have changed since the date of the merger agreement. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the merger agreement should not be relied on by any persons as characterizations of the actual state of facts about Huntington and TCF at the time they were made or otherwise and should be read only in conjunction with the other information provided elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Please see the section entitled “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 178.

Structure of the Merger

Each of Huntington’s and TCF’s respective boards of directors has unanimously adopted and approved the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides for the merger of TCF with and into Huntington, with Huntington continuing as the surviving corporation in the merger. Immediately following the merger, TCF National Bank, a national bank and wholly owned bank subsidiary of TCF, will merge with and into The Huntington National Bank, a national bank and wholly owned bank subsidiary of Huntington, with The Huntington National Bank as the surviving entity in the bank merger.

Huntington may at any time change the method of effecting the merger if and to the extent requested by Huntington, and TCF has agreed to enter into such amendments to the merger agreement as Huntington may reasonably request in order to give effect to such restructuring; provided, however, that no such change or amendment may (i) alter or change the amount or kind of the merger consideration provided for in the merger agreement, (ii) adversely affect the tax treatment of the merger with respect to TCF’s shareholders or (iii) be reasonably likely to cause the closing of the merger to be materially delayed or the receipt of the requisite regulatory approvals to be prevented or materially delayed.

Merger Consideration

Each share of TCF common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, except for shares of TCF common stock owned by TCF or Huntington (in each case other than shares of TCF common stock (i) held in any TCF benefit plans or related trust accounts, managed accounts, mutual funds and the like, or otherwise held in a fiduciary or agency capacity and (ii) held, directly or indirectly, in respect of debts previously contracted), will be converted at the effective time into the right to receive, without interest, 3.0028 shares of Huntington common stock.

All of the shares of TCF common stock converted into the right to receive the merger consideration will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be cancelled and will cease to exist as of the effective time, and each old certificate (which includes reference to book-entry account statements relating to the ownership of shares of TCF common stock) previously representing any such shares of TCF common stock will thereafter represent only the right to receive (i) the merger consideration, (ii) cash in lieu of a fractional share which the shares of TCF common stock represented by such old certificate have been converted into the right to receive pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement and (iii) any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, in each case without any interest thereon. Old certificates previously representing shares of TCF common stock will be exchanged for certificates or, at Huntington's option, evidence of shares in book-entry form representing whole shares of Huntington common stock (together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto and cash in lieu of fractional shares issued in consideration therefor) upon the surrender of such old certificates pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, without any interest thereon.

If, prior to the effective time, the outstanding shares of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities, in any such case as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, or there is any extraordinary dividend or extraordinary distribution, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment will be made to the exchange ratio to give the holders of TCF common stock the same economic effect as contemplated by the merger agreement prior to such event; provided that this will not permit Huntington or TCF to take any action with respect to its securities that is prohibited by the terms of the merger agreement.

At the effective time, all shares of TCF common stock that are owned by TCF or Huntington (in each case other than shares of TCF common stock (i) held in any TCF benefit plans or related trust accounts, managed accounts, mutual funds and the like, or otherwise held in a fiduciary or agency capacity and (ii) held, directly or indirectly, in respect of debts previously contracted) will be cancelled and will cease to exist, and neither the merger consideration nor any other consideration will be delivered in exchange therefor.

Also at the effective time, each share of TCF series C preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will automatically be converted into the right to receive one (1) share of new Huntington preferred stock and, upon such conversion, the TCF series C preferred stock will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be cancelled and will cease to exist as of the effective time.

Fractional Shares

No new certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Huntington common stock will be issued upon the surrender for exchange of old certificates or otherwise pursuant to the merger agreement, no dividend or distribution with respect to Huntington common stock will be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Huntington. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Huntington will pay to each former holder who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the average of the closing sale prices of Huntington common stock on the NASDAQ as reported by The Wall Street Journal for the five (5) consecutive full trading days ending on the day preceding the closing date (the "Huntington share closing price") by (ii) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all shares of TCF common stock held by such holder immediately prior to the effective time and rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Huntington common stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement.

Governing Documents

At the effective time, the charter of Huntington, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time, as amended by the Huntington charter amendment, will be the charter of the combined company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law, and the bylaws of Huntington, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time, will be the bylaws of the combined company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law. For a more detailed description of the governing documents of the combined company, see the section entitled “The Merger—Governance of the Combined Company After the Merger” beginning on page 109.

Treatment of TCF Equity Awards

- TCF Stock Options: At the effective time, each option granted by TCF to purchase shares of TCF common stock under a TCF stock plan (as defined in the merger agreement) that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time (a “TCF stock option”) will be assumed and converted automatically into an option (an “adjusted stock option”) to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF stock option immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms), the number of shares of Huntington common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of Huntington common stock) equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of TCF common stock subject to such TCF stock option immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (B) the exchange ratio, which adjusted stock option will have an exercise price per share of Huntington common stock equal to the quotient (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) obtained by dividing (1) the exercise price per share of TCF common stock subject to such TCF stock option immediately prior to the effective time, by (2) the exchange ratio.
- TCF Restricted Stock Awards: At the effective time, each award in respect of a share of TCF common stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction granted under a TCF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (a “TCF restricted stock award”) will (i) if granted to a non-employee member of the TCF board of directors, fully vest and be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive (without interest) the merger consideration in respect of each share of TCF common stock subject to such TCF restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time, which will be delivered as soon as reasonably practicable following the closing date and in no event later than ten (10) business days following the closing date (or on such later date if required to comply with Section 409A of the Code) and (ii) if not granted to a non-employee member of the TCF board of directors, be assumed and converted into a restricted stock award of shares of Huntington common stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms), and relating to the number of shares of Huntington common stock equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of TCF common stock subject to such TCF restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (B) the exchange ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole share of Huntington common stock. Each holder of a TCF restricted stock award converted into the right to receive the merger consideration that would have otherwise been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Huntington common stock (after aggregating all shares to be delivered in respect of all TCF equity awards held by such holder) will receive, in lieu thereof and upon surrender thereof, a cash payment (rounded to the nearest cent) (without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Huntington common stock (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) multiplied by the Huntington share closing price.
- TCF Restricted Stock Unit Awards: At the effective time, each restricted stock unit award in respect of shares of TCF common stock granted under a TCF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (a “TCF restricted stock unit award”) will be assumed and converted into a restricted stock unit award (with any performance goals deemed satisfied at the greater of the target and actual level of performance through the most recently completed calendar quarter prior to the closing as reasonably determined by the compensation committee of the TCF board of directors in the ordinary course consistent with past practice) in respect of Huntington common stock (an “adjusted restricted stock unit award”) with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms) and relating to the number of shares of Huntington common stock equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of TCF common stock subject to such TCF restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (B) the exchange ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole share of Huntington common stock; provided that each such adjusted restricted stock unit award will be subject to service-based vesting only and will no longer be subject to any performance conditions.

- TCF Deferred Stock Awards: At the effective time, each award in respect of a deferred share of TCF common stock granted under a TCF stock plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (a "TCF deferred stock award") will be assumed and converted automatically into a deferred stock award of shares of Huntington common stock subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF deferred stock award immediately prior to the effective time, and relating to the number of shares of Huntington common stock equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of TCF common stock subject to such TCF deferred stock award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (B) the exchange ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole share of Huntington common stock.

At or prior to the effective time, the TCF board of directors (or its compensation committee) will adopt any resolutions and take any actions that are necessary for the treatment of the TCF equity awards under the merger agreement.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the closing of the merger will take place at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, remotely via the electronic exchange of closing deliveries, on a date no later than three (3) business days after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable law) of the latest to occur of the conditions precedent set forth in the merger agreement (other than those conditions that by their nature can only be satisfied at the closing of the merger, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions), unless another date, time or place is agreed to in writing by Huntington and TCF (the date on which the closing occurs is referred to as the "closing date").

On or before the closing date, Huntington will cause to be filed articles of merger with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation and a certificate of merger with the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs. The merger will become effective as of the date and time specified in the articles of merger and the certificate of merger in accordance with the relevant provisions of the MGCL and the MBCA, or at such other date and time as provided by applicable law (such date and time being the "effective time").

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of TCF Stock Certificates

Letter of Transmittal

As promptly as practicable after the effective time, but in no event later than ten (10) days thereafter, Huntington will cause the exchange agent to mail to each holder of record of one or more old certificates representing shares of TCF common stock or TCF series C preferred stock immediately prior to the effective time that have been converted at the effective time into the right to receive the merger consideration or shares of new Huntington preferred stock, as applicable, a letter of transmittal (which will specify that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the old certificates will pass, only upon proper delivery of the old certificates to the exchange agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the old certificates in exchange for certificates representing the number of whole shares of Huntington common stock and any cash in lieu of fractional shares or shares of new Huntington preferred stock, as applicable, which the shares of TCF common stock or TCF series C preferred stock represented by such old certificate or old certificates will have been converted into the right to receive pursuant to the merger agreement as well as any dividends or distributions to be paid pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. In the event any old certificate for TCF common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such old certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Huntington or the exchange agent, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Huntington or the exchange agent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such old certificate, the exchange agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed old certificate the shares of Huntington common stock and any cash in lieu of fractional shares, or the shares of new Huntington preferred stock, as applicable, deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to the merger agreement.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

After the effective time, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of TCF of the shares of TCF common stock or TCF series C preferred stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time. If, after the effective time, old certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the exchange agent, they will be cancelled and exchanged for new certificates representing shares of Huntington common stock or new Huntington preferred stock, as applicable, cash in lieu of fractional shares and dividends or distributions that the holder presenting such old certificates is entitled to, as provided in the merger agreement.

None of Huntington, TCF, the combined company, the exchange agent or any other person will be liable to any former holder of shares of TCF common stock or TCF series C preferred stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Withholding

Huntington will be entitled to deduct and withhold, or cause the exchange agent to deduct and withhold, from any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Huntington common stock, cash dividends or distributions payable pursuant to the merger agreement or any other amount payable pursuant to the merger agreement to any holder of TCF common stock, TCF series C preferred stock or TCF equity awards, such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Huntington or the exchange agent, as the case may be, and paid over to the appropriate governmental authority, the withheld amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger agreement as having been paid to the holder of TCF common stock, TCF series C preferred stock or TCF equity awards in respect of which the deduction and withholding was made by Huntington or the exchange agent, as the case may be.

Dividends and Distributions

No dividends or other distributions declared with respect to Huntington common stock or new Huntington preferred stock will be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered old certificate representing shares of TCF common stock or TCF series C preferred stock, as applicable, until the holder thereof surrenders such old certificate in accordance with the merger agreement. After the surrender of an old certificate in accordance with the merger agreement, the record holder thereof will be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to the whole shares of Huntington common stock or shares of new Huntington preferred stock which the shares of TCF common stock or TCF series C preferred stock, as applicable, represented by such old certificate have been converted into the right to receive under the merger agreement.

Certain representations and warranties of Huntington and TCF are qualified as to “materiality” or “material adverse effect.” For purposes of the merger agreement, a “material adverse effect,” when used in reference to either Huntington, TCF or the combined company, means any effect, change, event, circumstance, condition, occurrence or development that, either individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be likely to have a material adverse effect on (i) the business, properties, assets, liabilities, results of operations or financial condition of such party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (ii) the ability of such party to timely consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The representations and warranties in the merger agreement do not survive the effective time.

In addition, prior to the effective time or earlier termination of the merger agreement, subject to certain specified exceptions, TCF will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, without the prior written consent of Huntington (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed):

Regulatory Matters

Huntington and TCF have agreed to cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings (and in the case of the applications, notices, petitions and filings required to obtain the requisite regulatory approvals, use their reasonable best efforts to make such filings within forty-five (45) days of the date of the merger agreement), to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including the merger and the bank merger), and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and governmental entities. Each of Huntington and TCF has agreed to use, and to cause their applicable subsidiaries to use, reasonable best efforts to obtain each such requisite regulatory approval and any approvals required for the bank merger as promptly as reasonably practicable. The parties have agreed to cooperate with each other in connection therewith (including the furnishing of any information and any reasonable undertaking or commitments that may be required to obtain the requisite regulatory approvals) and will respond as promptly as practicable to the requests of governmental entities for documents and information. Each of Huntington and TCF has the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, all the information relating to TCF or Huntington, as the case may be, and any of their respective subsidiaries, which appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any governmental entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties has agreed to act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party has agreed to provide the other with copies of any applications and all correspondence relating thereto prior to filing and with sufficient opportunity to comment, other than any portions of material filed in connection therewith that contain competitively sensitive business or other proprietary information or confidential supervisory information filed under a claim of confidentiality. Each of Huntington and TCF has agreed to consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Each party will consult with the other in advance of any meeting or conference with any governmental entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and, to the extent permitted by such governmental entity, give the other party and/or its counsel the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences; and provided that each party will promptly advise the other party with respect to substantive matters that are addressed in any meeting or conference with any governmental entity which the other party does not attend or participate in, to the extent permitted by such governmental entity and applicable law.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of Huntington and TCF has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to (i) avoid the entry of, or to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that would restrain, prevent or delay the closing, and (ii) avoid or eliminate each and every impediment so as to enable the closing to occur as soon as possible, including proposing, negotiating, committing to and effecting, by consent decree, hold separate order, or otherwise, the sale, divestiture or disposition of businesses or assets of Huntington, TCF and their respective subsidiaries. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in the merger agreement will be deemed to require Huntington or TCF or any of their respective subsidiaries, and neither Huntington nor TCF nor any of their respective subsidiaries will be permitted (without the written consent of the other party), to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with the foregoing or obtaining any permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of governmental entities that would reasonably be likely to have a material adverse effect on the combined company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the merger.

Each of Huntington and TCF has agreed to promptly advise the other upon receiving any communication from any governmental entity whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any requisite regulatory approval will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval will be materially delayed. In addition, TCF has agreed to, and to cause its subsidiaries to, reasonably cooperate with Huntington and its subsidiaries (including the furnishing of information and by making employees reasonably available) as is reasonably requested by Huntington in order to comply with the requirements of the Comprehensive Capital Analysis and Review and Dodd-Frank Act Stress Testing programs.

Employee Matters

Huntington has agreed to provide each TCF continuing employee, for so long as they are employed following the effective time, with the following: (i) during the period commencing at the effective time and ending on the first anniversary thereof, annual base salary or wages, as applicable, that are no less than the annual base salary or wages in effect for such continuing employee immediately prior to the effective time, (ii) during the period commencing at the effective time and ending on December 31, 2021, (a) target incentive opportunities (excluding equity-based awards but including any annual or short-term cash incentive) that are no less favorable than those provided to such continuing employee immediately prior to the effective time, and (b) employee benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to such continuing employees immediately prior to the effective time; and (iii) during the period commencing on January 1, 2022 and ending on the first anniversary of the effective time, (a) target incentive opportunities (including equity-based awards) that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees of Huntington and its subsidiaries, and (b) employee benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees of Huntington and its subsidiaries (excluding any frozen benefit plans of Huntington and its subsidiaries or benefit plans that exclusively provide benefits to grandfathered employees of Huntington and its subsidiaries); provided that until such time as Huntington fully integrates the continuing employees into its plans, participation in the TCF benefit plans will be deemed to satisfy the foregoing standards. In addition, for a period beginning at the effective time and continuing through the first anniversary thereof, each continuing employee who is not party to an individual agreement providing for severance or termination benefits and is terminated under severance qualifying circumstances will be eligible to receive severance benefits as set forth on the confidential disclosure schedules, subject to such employee's execution (and non-revocation) of a release of claims.

With respect to any employee benefit plans of Huntington or its subsidiaries in which any continuing employees become eligible to participate on or after the effective time (the "new plans"), subject to certain customary exclusions, Huntington and its subsidiaries will: (i) waive all preexisting conditions, exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to such employees and their eligible dependents under any new plans, (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to provide each such employee and their eligible dependents with credit for any co-payments or coinsurance and deductibles paid prior to the effective time under a TCF benefit plan that provides health care benefits, and (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to recognize all service of such employees with TCF and its subsidiaries for all purposes in any new plan to the same extent that such service was taken into account under the analogous TCF benefit plan prior to the effective time. Effective as of the effective time, Huntington agrees to assume and honor all TCF benefit plans in accordance with their terms. Huntington and TCF will also take the actions necessary to implement the commitments set forth in the confidential disclosure schedules.

Huntington may request that TCF terminate its 401(k) plan effective immediately prior to the effective time, in which case, continuing employees will be eligible to participate in and make rollover contributions to the Huntington 401(k) plan.

Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that from and after the effective time, the combined company will indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each present and former director, officer or employee of TCF and its subsidiaries (in each case, when acting in such capacity) (collectively, the “TCF indemnified parties”) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines, losses, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, whether arising before or after the effective time, arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to, the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of TCF or any of its subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of TCF or any of its subsidiaries as a director or officer of another person and pertaining to matters, acts or omissions existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time, including matters, acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and the combined company will also advance expenses as incurred by the TCF indemnified party to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law; provided, that in the case of advancement of expenses the TCF indemnified party to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking (in a reasonable and customary form) to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such TCF indemnified party is not entitled to indemnification.

The merger agreement requires the combined company to maintain in effect for a period of six (6) years after the effective time the current policies of directors’ and officers’ liability insurance maintained by TCF (provided, that the combined company may substitute therefor policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims against the present and former officers and directors of TCF or any of its subsidiaries arising from facts or events which occurred at or before the effective time (including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement). However, the combined company is not obligated to expend, on an annual basis, an amount in excess of 300% of the current annual premium paid as of the date of the merger agreement by TCF for such insurance (the “premium cap”), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed the premium cap, then the combined company will cause to be maintained policies of insurance that, in its good faith determination, provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to the premium cap. In lieu of the foregoing, TCF, in consultation with, but only upon the consent of Huntington, may (and at the request of Huntington, TCF will use its reasonable best efforts to) obtain at or prior to the effective time a six (6)-year “tail” policy under TCF’s existing directors’ and officers’ insurance policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in the preceding sentence if and to the extent that the same may be obtained for an amount that, in the aggregate, does not exceed the premium cap. If TCF purchases such a tail policy, the combined company will maintain such tail policy in full force and effect and continue to honor its obligations thereunder.

The obligations of the combined company, Huntington and TCF relating to indemnification and directors’ and officers’ insurance may not be terminated or modified in a manner so as to adversely affect any TCF indemnified party or any other person entitled to the benefit of such indemnification and directors’ and officers’ insurance without the prior written consent of the affected person.

Restructuring Efforts

The merger agreement provides that if either TCF or Huntington fails to obtain the requisite TCF vote or the requisite Huntington vote at the duly convened TCF special meeting or Huntington special meeting, as applicable, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, each of the parties will in good faith use its reasonable best efforts to negotiate a restructuring of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (provided, however, that no party will have any obligation to agree to (i) alter or change any material term of the merger agreement, including the amount or kind of the merger consideration, in a manner adverse to such party or its shareholders or (ii) adversely affect the tax treatment of the merger with respect to such party or its shareholders) and/or resubmit the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby (or as restructured pursuant to the merger agreement) to its shareholders for approval.

Certain Additional Covenants

The merger agreement also contains additional covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, obtaining required consents, the listing of the shares of Huntington common stock and new Huntington preferred stock (or depository shares in respect thereof) to be issued in the merger, access to information of the other company, advice of changes, exemption from takeover laws, shareholder litigation relating to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the assumption by Huntington or The Huntington National Bank of TCF and TCF National Bank indebtedness and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Combined Company Governance and Headquarters Matters

Under the merger agreement, Huntington and TCF have agreed to certain provisions relating to the governance and headquarters of the combined company and The Huntington National Bank, including composition of the combined company board of directors, the role of chairman of The Huntington National Bank and the headquarters of the combined company and The Huntington National Bank.

For a more detailed description of the governance matters relating to the combined company, see the section entitled “The Merger—Governance of the Combined Company After the Merger” beginning on page 109.

Shareholder Meetings and Recommendation of Huntington’s and TCF’s Boards of Directors

Each of TCF and Huntington have agreed to take, in accordance with applicable law and the TCF articles and TCF bylaws and the Huntington articles and Huntington bylaws, all actions necessary to convene a meeting of their respective shareholders (the “TCF special meeting” and the “Huntington special meeting”, respectively) to be held as soon as reasonably practicable after the registration on Form S-4 of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part is declared effective for the purpose of obtaining the requisite TCF vote and the requisite Huntington vote, respectively, required in connection with the merger agreement and the merger. Except in the case of a TCF adverse recommendation change or a Huntington adverse recommendation change, each of the board of directors of TCF and the board of directors of Huntington, respectively, will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from, in the case of TCF, the shareholders of TCF the requisite TCF vote, and in the case of Huntington, the shareholders of Huntington the requisite Huntington vote, including by communicating to its shareholders its recommendation (and including such recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus) that they approve, in the case of TCF, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (the “TCF board recommendation”), and in the case of Huntington, the merger and the Huntington charter amendment (the “Huntington board recommendation”) and will not make a TCF adverse recommendation change or a Huntington adverse recommendation change, respectively, except as described below. Each of TCF and Huntington will engage a proxy solicitor reasonably acceptable to the other party to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to the requisite TCF vote or the requisite Huntington vote, as applicable. However, subject to certain termination rights in favor of the other party as described in the sections entitled “—Termination of the Merger Agreement” and “—Effect of Termination,” if the TCF board of directors or the Huntington board of directors, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement and the merger, then, prior to the receipt of the requisite TCF vote or the requisite Huntington vote, as applicable, in submitting the merger agreement and the merger to its shareholders, the board of directors of TCF or the board of directors of Huntington, as applicable, may withhold or withdraw or modify or qualify in a manner adverse to Huntington or TCF, as applicable, the TCF board recommendation or the Huntington board recommendation, as applicable, or may submit the merger agreement and the merger to its shareholders without recommendation (each, a “TCF adverse recommendation change” or a “Huntington adverse recommendation change”, respectively) (although the resolutions approving the merger agreement as of the date of the merger agreement may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the board of directors of TCF or the board of directors of Huntington, as applicable, may communicate the basis for its TCF adverse recommendation change or its Huntington adverse recommendation change, as applicable, to its shareholders in the joint proxy statement/prospectus or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto; provided that neither board of directors may take any actions under this sentence unless (i) it gives the other party at least three (3) business days’ prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action (including, in the event such action is taken by the board of directors of TCF in response to a TCF acquisition proposal, the latest material terms and conditions and the identity of the third party in any such TCF acquisition proposal, or any amendment or modification thereof, or describe in reasonable detail such other event or circumstances) and (ii) at the end of such notice period, the relevant board of directors takes into account any amendment or modification to the merger agreement proposed by the other party and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would nevertheless more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement and the merger. In the case of TCF, any material amendment to any TCF acquisition proposal will be deemed to be a new TCF acquisition proposal for purposes of such notice requirement and will require a new notice period.

Except in the case of a TCF adverse recommendation change or Huntington adverse recommendation change, respectively, TCF or Huntington will adjourn or postpone the TCF special meeting or Huntington special meeting, respectively, if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled, there are insufficient shares of TCF common stock or Huntington common stock, respectively, represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting, TCF or Huntington, respectively, has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to obtain the requisite TCF vote or the requisite Huntington vote, respectively. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the merger agreement, unless the merger agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, each of the TCF special meeting and the Huntington special meeting will be convened and the merger agreement and the merger will be submitted to the shareholders of TCF at the TCF special meeting and the shareholders of Huntington at the Huntington special meeting, for the purpose of voting on the approval of the merger and the other matters contemplated thereby, and nothing contained in the merger agreement will be deemed to relieve TCF or Huntington of such obligation. Each of TCF and Huntington will only be required to adjourn or postpone the TCF special meeting and the Huntington special meeting, respectively, two (2) times pursuant to the first sentence of this paragraph.

Each of TCF and Huntington will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the TCF special meeting and the Huntington special meeting to occur as soon as reasonably practicable and on the same date.

Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers

TCF has agreed that it will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their respective officers, directors, agents, advisors and representatives not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or proposals with respect to, (ii) engage or participate in any negotiations with any person concerning, or (iii) provide any confidential or nonpublic information or data to, or have or participate in any discussions with, any person relating to, any TCF acquisition proposal, except to notify a person that has made or, to the knowledge of TCF, is making any inquiries with respect to, or is considering making a TCF acquisition proposal of the existence of the foregoing agreement. TCF has also agreed that it will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and its and their respective officers, directors, agents, advisors and representatives not to on its behalf, enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other similar agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement referred to and entered into in accordance with the merger agreement relating to a TCF acquisition proposal). For purposes of the merger agreement, an "acquisition proposal" means, with respect to TCF (a "TCF acquisition proposal") or Huntington (a "Huntington acquisition proposal"), as applicable, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, any offer, inquiry or proposal relating to, or any third-party indication of interest in, (i) any acquisition or purchase, direct or indirect, of twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the consolidated assets of a party and its subsidiaries or twenty-five percent (25%) or more of any class of equity or voting securities of a party or its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the consolidated assets of the party, (ii) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in such third party beneficially owning twenty-five percent (25%) or more of any class of equity or voting securities of a party or its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the consolidated assets of the party or (iii) a merger, consolidation, share exchange or other business combination, reorganization or similar transaction involving a party or its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the consolidated assets of the party.

However, prior to the receipt of the requisite TCF vote, in the event TCF receives an unsolicited bona fide written TCF acquisition proposal, it may, and may permit its subsidiaries and its and its subsidiaries' officers, directors, agents, advisors and representatives to, furnish or cause to be furnished nonpublic information or data and participate in such negotiations or discussions to the extent that its board of directors concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel, and with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors) that failure to take such actions would be more likely than not to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, provided that, prior to, or concurrently with providing any nonpublic information permitted to be so provided, TCF has provided such information to Huntington, and has entered into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to it than the confidentiality agreement between Huntington and TCF, which confidentiality agreement may not provide such person with any exclusive right to negotiate with TCF.

TCF has also agreed to, and to use reasonable best efforts to cause its officers, directors, agents, advisors and representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of the merger agreement with any person other than Huntington with respect to any TCF acquisition proposal. In addition, TCF has agreed to promptly (and in any event within one (1) business day) advise Huntington following receipt of any TCF acquisition proposal or any inquiry which could reasonably be expected to lead to a TCF acquisition proposal, and the substance thereof (including the material terms and conditions of and the identity of the person making such inquiry or TCF acquisition proposal) and will keep Huntington reasonably apprised of any related developments, discussions and negotiations on a current basis, including any amendments to or revisions of the material terms of such inquiry or TCF acquisition proposal. TCF will use its reasonable best efforts, subject to applicable law and the fiduciary duties of the board of directors of TCF, to enforce any existing confidentiality or standstill agreements to which it or any of its subsidiaries is a party in accordance with the terms thereof.

Nothing contained in the merger agreement will prevent either party or its board of directors from complying with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 under the Exchange Act with respect to an acquisition proposal or from making any legally required disclosure to such party's shareholders; provided that such rules and disclosures will in no way eliminate or modify the effect that any action pursuant to such rules or any such disclosures would otherwise have under the merger agreement.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Huntington's and TCF's respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver, at or prior to the effective time, of the following conditions:

- approval of the merger and the Huntington charter amendment by the shareholders of Huntington by the requisite Huntington vote and approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of TCF by the requisite TCF vote;
- the shares of Huntington common stock and new Huntington preferred stock (or depositary shares in respect thereof) issuable pursuant to the merger agreement having been authorized for listing on the NASDAQ, in each case subject to official notice of issuance;
- the effectiveness under the Securities Act of the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, and the absence of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement or proceedings for that purpose initiated or threatened by the SEC and not withdrawn;
- no order, injunction or decree issued by any court or governmental entity of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the merger, the bank merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement being in effect, and no law, statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree having been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any governmental entity which prohibits or makes illegal consummation of the merger, the bank merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- all requisite regulatory approvals having been obtained and remaining in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof having expired, and no such requisite regulatory approval having resulted in the imposition of any materially burdensome regulatory condition (as defined in "The Merger—Regulatory Approvals");
- the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the merger agreement, generally as of the date on which the merger agreement was entered into and as of the closing date, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement, and the receipt by each party of a certificate signed on behalf of the other party by the chief executive officer or the chief financial officer to the foregoing effect;

- the performance by the other party in all material respects of the obligations, covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the merger agreement at or prior to the closing date, and the receipt by each party of a certificate signed on behalf of the other party by the chief executive officer or the chief financial officer to such effect; and
- receipt by such party of an opinion of legal counsel, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to such party, dated as of the closing date, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; in rendering such opinion, counsel may require and rely upon representations contained in certificates of officers of Huntington and TCF reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel.

Neither Huntington nor TCF can provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement can be terminated at any time prior to completion of the merger, whether before or after the receipt of the requisite Huntington vote or the requisite TCF vote, in the following circumstances:

- by mutual consent of Huntington and TCF in a written instrument;
- by either Huntington or TCF if any governmental entity that must grant a requisite regulatory approval has denied approval of the merger or the bank merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction has issued a final nonappealable order, injunction or decree permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the merger or the bank merger, unless the failure to obtain a requisite regulatory approval is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe its obligations, covenants and agreements set forth in the merger agreement;
- by either Huntington or TCF if the merger has not been completed on or before December 13, 2021 (the “termination date”), unless the failure of the closing to occur by such date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe its obligations, covenants and agreements set forth in the merger agreement;
- by either Huntington or TCF (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, obligation, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement) if there is a breach of any of the obligations, covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties (or if any such representation or warranty ceases to be true) set forth in the merger agreement on the part of TCF, in the case of a termination by Huntington, or Huntington, in the case of a termination by TCF, which breach or failure to be true, either individually or in the aggregate with all other breaches by such party (or failures of such representations or warranties to be true), would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the closing date, the failure of an applicable closing condition of the terminating party and which is not cured by the earlier of the termination date and forty-five (45) days following written notice to the other party, or by its nature or timing cannot be cured during such period;
- by Huntington, prior to such time as the requisite TCF vote is obtained, if TCF or the TCF board of directors (i) withholds, withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to Huntington the TCF board recommendation, (ii) fails to make the TCF board recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, (iii) adopts, approves, recommends or endorses a TCF acquisition proposal or publicly announces an intention to adopt, approve, recommend or endorse a TCF acquisition proposal, (iv) fails to publicly and without qualification (A) recommend against any TCF acquisition proposal or (B) reaffirm the TCF board recommendation, in each case within ten (10) business days (or such fewer number of days as remains prior to the TCF special meeting) after a TCF acquisition proposal is made public or any request by Huntington to do so, or (v) materially breaches its obligations related to TCF shareholder approval or TCF acquisition proposals; or
- by TCF, prior to such time as the requisite Huntington vote is obtained, if Huntington or the Huntington board of directors (i) withholds, withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to

TCF the Huntington board recommendation, (ii) fails to make the Huntington board recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, (iii) adopts, approves, recommends or endorses a Huntington acquisition proposal or publicly announces an intention to adopt, approve, recommend, or endorse a Huntington acquisition proposal, (iv) fails to publicly and without qualification (A) recommend against any Huntington acquisition proposal or (B) reaffirm the Huntington board recommendation, in each case within ten (10) business days (or such fewer number of days as remains prior to the Huntington special meeting) after a Huntington acquisition proposal is made public or any request by TCF to do so, or (v) materially breaches its obligations related to Huntington shareholder approval.

Neither Huntington nor TCF is permitted to terminate the merger agreement as a result, in and of itself, of any increase or decrease in the market price of Huntington common stock or TCF common stock.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated by either Huntington or TCF, as provided under “—Termination of the Merger Agreement” above, the merger agreement will become void and have no effect, and none of Huntington, TCF, any of their respective subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them will have any liability of any nature whatsoever under the merger agreement, or in connection with the transactions contemplated thereby, except that (i) designated provisions of the merger agreement will survive the termination, including those relating to the confidential treatment of information, the effect of termination, including the termination fee described below, and certain general provisions, and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the merger agreement, neither Huntington nor TCF will be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its fraud or willful breach of any provision of the merger agreement occurring prior to termination (including, in the case of TCF, the loss to the holders of its capital stock and of TCF equity awards of the economic benefits of the merger (including the loss of premium offered to the shareholders of TCF), it being understood that TCF will be entitled to pursue damages for such losses and to enforce the right to recover such losses on behalf of its shareholders and the holders of TCF equity awards in its sole and absolute discretion, and any amounts received by TCF in connection therewith may be retained by TCF).

Termination Fee

TCF will pay Huntington a termination fee equal to $238.8 million by wire transfer of same-day funds (the “termination fee”) if the merger agreement is terminated in the following circumstances:

- In the event that the merger agreement is terminated by Huntington pursuant to the second to last bullet set forth under “—Termination of the Merger Agreement” above. In such case, the termination fee must be paid to Huntington as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of termination (and in any event, within three (3) business days of the date of termination).
- In the event that, after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the termination of the merger agreement, a bona fide TCF acquisition proposal has been communicated to or otherwise made known to the TCF board of directors or TCF’s senior management or has been made directly to TCF’s shareholders generally, or any person has publicly announced (and not withdrawn at least two (2) business days prior to the TCF special meeting) a TCF acquisition proposal with respect to TCF, and (A) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by either Huntington or TCF pursuant to the third bullet set forth under “—Termination of the Merger Agreement” above without the requisite TCF vote having been obtained or (B) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by Huntington pursuant to the fourth bullet set forth under “—Termination of the Merger Agreement” above, and (C) prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, TCF enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to a TCF acquisition proposal (whether or not the same TCF acquisition proposal as that referred to above), provided that for purposes of the foregoing, all references in the definition of TCF acquisition proposal to “twenty-five percent (25%)” will instead refer to “fifty percent (50%).” In such case, the termination fee must be paid to Huntington on the earlier of the date TCF enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction.

In such case, the termination fee must be paid to TCF as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of termination (and in any event, within three (3) business days of the date of termination).
- In the event that, after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the termination of the merger agreement, a bona fide Huntington acquisition proposal has been communicated to or otherwise made known to the Huntington board of directors or Huntington’s senior management or has been made directly to Huntington shareholders generally, or any person has publicly announced (and not withdrawn at least two (2) business days prior to the Huntington special meeting) a Huntington acquisition proposal with respect to Huntington, and (A) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by either TCF or Huntington pursuant to the third bullet set forth under “—Termination of the Merger Agreement” above without the requisite Huntington vote having been obtained or (B) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by TCF pursuant to the fourth bullet set forth under “—Termination of the Merger Agreement” above and (C) prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, Huntington enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to a Huntington acquisition proposal (whether or not the same Huntington acquisition proposal as that referred to above), provided that for purposes of the foregoing, all references in the definition of Huntington acquisition proposal to “twenty-five percent (25%)” will instead refer to “fifty percent (50%).” In such case, the termination fee must be paid to TCF on the earlier of the date Huntington enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction.

Fees and Expenses

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the merger agreement, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby will be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the merger is consummated, except that the costs and expenses of printing and mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC and any other governmental entity in connection with the merger, the bank merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be borne equally by Huntington and TCF.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

Subject to compliance with applicable law, the merger agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before or after the receipt of the requisite Huntington vote or the requisite TCF vote, except that after the receipt of the requisite Huntington vote or the requisite TCF vote, there may not be, without further approval of the shareholders of Huntington or TCF, as applicable, any amendment of the merger agreement that requires such further approval under applicable law.

At any time prior to the effective time, the parties may, to the extent legally allowed, extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered by such other party pursuant to the merger agreement, and waive compliance with any of the agreements or satisfaction of any conditions for its benefit contained in the merger agreement; provided, however, that after the receipt of the requisite Huntington vote or the requisite TCF vote, there may not be, without further approval of the shareholders of Huntington or TCF, as applicable, any extension or waiver of the merger agreement or any portion thereof that requires further approval under applicable law.

Governing Law

The merger agreement is governed by and will be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to any applicable conflicts of law principles (except that matters relating to the fiduciary duties of the TCF board of directors will be subject to the laws of the State of Michigan and matters relating to the fiduciary duties of the Huntington board of directors will be subject to the laws of the State of Maryland).

Specific Performance

Huntington and TCF will be entitled to specific performance of the terms of the merger agreement, including an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the merger agreement or to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions thereof (including the parties' obligation to consummate the merger), in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. Each of Huntington and TCF waives any defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate and any requirement under any law to post security or a bond as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following general discussion sets forth the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined in this section) of TCF common stock. This discussion does not address the tax consequences to U.S. holders of TCF series C preferred stock. This discussion also does not address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction or under any U.S. federal laws other than those pertaining to the income tax. This discussion is based upon the Code, the U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder and court and administrative rulings and decisions in effect on the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. These laws may change, possibly retroactively, and any change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

For purposes of this discussion, we use the term “U.S. holder” to mean:

- an individual citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;
- a trust if (i) its administration is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (ii) it has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person; or
- an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

If a partnership holds TCF common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partners and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding TCF common stock, you should consult your tax advisors.

This discussion is applicable to you only if you hold your shares of TCF common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of section 1221 of the Code. Further, this discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances or that may be applicable to you if you are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, including if you are:

- a financial institution;
- a tax-exempt organization;
- an S corporation or other pass-through entity (or investor therein);
- an insurance company;
- a mutual fund;
- a retirement plan, individual retirement account or other tax-deferred account;
- a dealer in securities or foreign currencies;
- a trader in securities who elects the mark-to-market method of accounting for your securities;
- a holder of TCF common stock subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code;
- a holder of TCF common stock who received TCF common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or through a tax-qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation;
- a person who is not a U.S. holder;
- a real estate investment trust;
- a regulated investment company;
- a person that has a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;
- an expatriate of the United States;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- a holder that holds (or that held, directly or constructively, at any time during the five year period ending on the date of the disposition of your TCF common stock pursuant to the merger) 5% or more of the outstanding TCF common stock;
- a holder of options granted under any TCF benefit plan;
or
- a holder of TCF common stock who holds TCF common stock as part of a hedge, straddle or a constructive sale or conversion transaction.

In addition, the discussion does not address any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 or any consequences under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act of 2010 (including the Treasury regulations issued thereunder and intergovernmental agreements entered into pursuant thereto or in connection therewith). Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex. They will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within the control of TCF or Huntington. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

Huntington and TCF intend the merger to qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. As described below, it is a condition to each party’s respective obligations to complete the merger that Huntington and TCF each receive a legal opinion that the merger will so qualify. Assuming the merger does so qualify, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger are as follows:

- you will not recognize gain or loss when you exchange your TCF common stock solely for Huntington common stock, except with respect to any cash received instead of a fractional share of Huntington common stock;
- your aggregate tax basis in the Huntington common stock that you receive in the merger (including any fractional share interest you are deemed to receive and exchange for cash) will equal your aggregate tax basis in the TCF common stock you surrender; and
- your holding period for the Huntington common stock that you receive in the merger (including any fractional share interest you are deemed to receive and exchange for cash) will include your holding period for the shares of TCF common stock that you surrender in the exchange.

If you acquired different blocks of TCF common stock at different times and at different prices, your tax basis and holding period in your Huntington common stock may be determined with reference to each block of TCF common stock.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares

If you receive cash instead of a fractional share of Huntington common stock, you will be treated as having received the fractional share of Huntington common stock pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged that fractional share for cash in redemption by Huntington. You will generally recognize capital gain or loss on any cash received instead of a fractional share of Huntington common stock equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the tax basis allocated to such fractional share. Any capital gain or loss will constitute long-term capital gain or loss if your holding period in TCF common stock surrendered in the merger is greater than one (1) year as of the effective time of the merger.

Closing Condition Tax Opinions

It is a condition to the closing of the merger that Huntington and TCF will receive opinions from Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, respectively, dated as of the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on representation letters provided by Huntington and TCF to be delivered at closing of the merger, and on certain customary factual assumptions.

Neither of these tax opinions will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service. Huntington and TCF have not and do not intend to seek any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding any matters relating to the merger, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service will not disagree with or challenge any of the conclusions described herein.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

If you are a non-corporate holder of TCF common stock you may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding on any cash payments received instead of a fractional share interest in Huntington common stock. You will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if you:

- furnish a correct taxpayer identification number and certify that you are not subject to backup withholding on the Form W-9 (or a suitable substitute or successor form) included in the letter of transmittal to be delivered to you following the completion of the merger and otherwise comply with all the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules; or
- are otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability, provided you timely furnish the required information to the Internal Revenue Service.

This summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences is for general information only and is not tax advice. You are urged to consult your tax advisor with respect to the application of U.S. federal income tax laws to your particular situation as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction.

DESCRIPTION OF HUNTINGTON CAPITAL STOCK

As a result of the merger, TCF shareholders will receive shares of Huntington common stock in the merger and will become Huntington shareholders. The following description summarizes the terms of Huntington's capital stock but does not purport to be complete, and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the applicable provisions of federal law governing bank holding companies, Maryland law and the Huntington charter and bylaws (the "Huntington bylaws"). The Huntington charter and the Huntington bylaws are filed as exhibits to the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part.

Huntington's authorized capital stock consists of 1,500,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 6,617,808 shares of serial preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. If the Huntington authorized share count proposal is approved, the authorized capital stock of Huntington will consist of 2,250,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 6,617,808 shares of serial preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, there were 1,017,245,480 shares of Huntington common stock issued and outstanding and 1,250,500 shares of Huntington preferred stock issued and outstanding. All outstanding shares of Huntington capital stock are fully paid and non-assessable.

Huntington Common Stock

Voting Rights

Holders of Huntington common stock are entitled at all times to one (1) vote for each share, subject, however, to the voting rights, if any, of the holders of Huntington preferred stock. Huntington shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

A nominee for election to the Huntington board of directors at a meeting of shareholders will be elected only if the number of votes cast "for" such nominee's election exceeds the number of votes cast "against" or affirmatively "withheld" as to such nominee's election; provided, however, that if, on either the date of Huntington's proxy statement for the meeting or on the date of the meeting, the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected, the directors will be elected by a plurality of all the votes cast at the meeting. Each share may be voted for as many individuals as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the share is entitled to be voted. A majority of the votes cast at a meeting of shareholders duly called and at which a quorum is present will be sufficient to approve any other matter which may properly come before the meeting, unless more than a majority of the votes cast is required by statute or by the Huntington charter.

Dividend Rights

Holders of Huntington common stock are entitled to receive dividends when authorized by the Huntington board of directors and declared by Huntington out of assets legally available for the payment of dividends, subject, however, to the dividend rights, if any, of the holders of Huntington preferred stock.

Liquidation Rights

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Huntington, the remaining assets of Huntington after the payment of all debts and necessary expenses, subject, however, to the rights of the holders of the Huntington preferred stock then outstanding, will be distributed among the holders of the common stock pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings.

Preemptive and Conversion Rights

Huntington's common stock has no preemptive or conversion rights and is not entitled to the benefits of any redemption or sinking fund provision.

Huntington Preferred Stock

The Huntington board of directors has the authority to classify and reclassify any unissued shares of Huntington preferred stock by authorizing the issuance of the Huntington preferred stock from time to time in one or more series with such distinctive serial designations as may be established by the Huntington board of directors. Any such series:

- may have such voting powers, full or limited, or may be without voting powers;
- may be subject to redemption at such time or times and at such prices;
- may be entitled to receive dividends (which may be cumulative or noncumulative) at such rate or rates, on such conditions, and at such times and payable in preference to, or in such relation to, the dividends payable on any other class or classes or series of stock;
- may have such rights upon the dissolution of, or upon any distribution of the assets of, Huntington;
- may be made convertible into, or exchangeable for, shares of any other class or classes or of any other series of the same or any other class of classes of stock of Huntington, at such price or prices or at such rates of exchange, and with such adjustments; and
- will have such other preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to the dividends, qualifications, terms or conditions of redemption or other rights, all as hereafter authorized by the Huntington board of directors and stated and expressed in the articles supplementary or other charter document providing for the issuance of such Huntington preferred stock.

Any of these actions could have an anti-takeover effect and discourage a transaction that some or a majority of Huntington’s shareholders might believe to be in their best interests or in which Huntington’s shareholders might receive a premium for their stock over Huntington’s then market price.

As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Huntington has 6,617,808 authorized shares of Huntington preferred stock, of which 1,250,500 shares are issued and outstanding, with 35,500 shares designated as Huntington series B preferred stock, 100,000 shares designated as Huntington series C preferred stock, 602,500 shares designated as Huntington series D preferred stock, of which 600,000 shares are outstanding, 5,000 shares designated as Huntington series E preferred stock, 5,000 shares designated as Huntington series F preferred stock, 5,000 shares designated as Huntington series G preferred stock and 500,000 shares designated as Huntington series H preferred stock.

In addition, at the effective time, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of Huntington, TCF or any holder of securities thereof, each share of TCF series C preferred stock will automatically be converted into the right to receive a share of new Huntington preferred stock and, upon such conversion, the TCF series C preferred stock will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be cancelled and will cease to exist as of the effective time. For more information, see the section entitled “Description of New Huntington Preferred Stock” beginning on page 151.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

A number of provisions of Maryland law and Huntington's charter and bylaws could have an anti-takeover effect and make more difficult the acquisition of Huntington by means of a tender offer, a proxy contest or otherwise and the removal of incumbent directors. These provisions are intended to discourage coercive takeover practices and inadequate takeover bids and to encourage persons seeking to acquire control of Huntington to negotiate first with Huntington's board of directors.

Control Share Acquisitions Under Maryland Law

Huntington is subject to the provisions of Sections 3-701 through 3-710 of the MGCL, which provide that holders of “control shares” of a Maryland corporation acquired in a “control share acquisition” have no voting rights with respect to the control shares except to the extent approved at a special meeting of shareholders by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, excluding shares of stock in a corporation in respect of which any of the following persons is entitled to exercise or direct the exercise of the voting power of such shares in the election of directors: (i) a person who makes or proposes to make a control share acquisition, (ii) an officer of the corporation or (iii) an employee of the corporation who is also a director of the corporation. Control shares are voting shares of stock which, if aggregated with all other shares of stock owned by the acquirer or in respect of which the acquirer is able to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power (except solely by virtue of a revocable proxy), would entitle the acquirer to, directly or indirectly, exercise voting power in electing directors within one of the following ranges of voting power:

- one-tenth or more but less than one-third of all voting power;
- one-third or more but less than a majority of all voting power;
or
- a majority or more of all voting power.

Control shares do not include shares the acquiring person is then entitled to vote as a result of having previously obtained stockholder approval. A “control share acquisition” means the acquisition, directly or indirectly, of ownership of, or the power to direct the exercise of voting power with respect to, issued and outstanding control shares, subject to certain exceptions.

A person who has made or proposes to make a control share acquisition, upon satisfaction of certain conditions (including an undertaking to pay expenses and making an “acquiring person statement” as described in Section 3-703 of the MGCL), may compel the directors of such corporation to call a special meeting of shareholders to be held within fifty (50) days of demand to consider the voting rights of the control shares. If no request for a special meeting is made, the corporation may present the question at any shareholders’ meeting.

If voting rights of control shares are not approved at the meeting or if the acquiring person does not deliver an “acquiring person statement” as required by the MGCL, then, subject to certain conditions and limitations, the corporation may redeem any or all of the control shares (except those for which voting rights have previously been approved) for fair value. Fair value is determined, without regard to the absence of voting rights for the control shares, as of the date of the last control share acquisition by the acquirer or, if a meeting of shareholders is held at which the voting rights of such shares are considered and not approved, as of the date of such meeting. If voting rights for control shares are approved at a shareholders’ meeting and the acquirer becomes entitled to vote a majority of the shares entitled to vote, all other shareholders may exercise appraisal rights. The fair value of the shares as determined for purposes of appraisal rights may not be less than the highest price per share paid by the acquirer in the control share acquisition. The control share acquisition statute does not apply to (a) shares acquired in a merger, consolidation or share exchange if the corporation is a party to the transaction or (b) to acquisitions approved or exempted by the charter or bylaws of the corporation.

Business Combinations Under Maryland Law

Huntington is subject to the provisions of Section 3-602 of the MGCL, which provides that a corporation may not engage in specified types of business combinations, including mergers, consolidations, share exchanges and certain other transactions, with any “interested stockholder” for a period of five (5) years from the date that person became an interested stockholder. For a corporation having one hundred (100) or more beneficial owners of its stock, like Huntington, an “interested stockholder” is defined as a person (other than the corporation or any subsidiary) who (a) is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of ten percent (10%) or more of the corporation’s voting shares or (b) is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and, during the preceding two-year period, was the beneficial owner of ten percent (10%) or more of the corporation’s voting shares. A person is not an interested stockholder under the MGCL if, prior to the most recent time at which the person would otherwise have become an interested stockholder, the board of directors of the corporation approved the transaction which otherwise would have resulted in the person becoming an interested stockholder.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

After any such five (5)-year period, any business combination between the Maryland corporation and an interested stockholder generally must be recommended by the board of directors of the corporation and approved by the affirmative vote of at least:

- eighty percent (80%) of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation, voting together as a single voting group; and
- two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of voting shares other than voting shares held by the interested stockholder who will (or whose affiliate will) be a party to the business combination or by an affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder, voting together as a single voting group.

These supermajority approval requirements do not apply if, among other conditions, the corporation's common shareholders receive a minimum price (as provided in the MGCL) for their shares and the consideration is received in cash or in the same form as previously paid by the interested stockholder for its shares.

The MGCL may have the effect of inhibiting a non-negotiated merger or other business combination involving Huntington, even if some or a majority of Huntington's shareholders might believe it to be in their best interests or in which Huntington's shareholders might receive a premium for their stock over Huntington's then market price.

Certain Charter and Bylaw Provisions Potentially Having an Anti-Takeover Effect

Huntington's charter and bylaws contain certain provisions that could have an anti-takeover effect and thus discourage potential takeover attempts and make it more difficult for Huntington's shareholders to change management or receive a premium for their shares. These provisions include:

- authorization for Huntington's board of directors to issue shares of one or more series of preferred stock without shareholder approval;
- a requirement that directors only be removed from office for cause and only upon the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast generally in the election of directors;
- a requirement under Maryland law that shareholder action without a meeting requires unanimous written consent;
- a limitation on the ability of shareholders to call special meetings to those shareholders entitled to cast not less than a majority of the votes entitled to be cast;
- the requirement under Maryland law that shareholders representing two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of common stock approve all amendments to Huntington's charter and approve mergers and similar transactions;
- the requirement that any shareholders that wish to bring business before Huntington's annual meeting of shareholders or nominate candidates for election as directors at Huntington's annual meeting of shareholders must provide timely notice of their intent in writing and comply with the other requirements set forth in Huntington's bylaws; and
- a prohibition on cumulative voting in the election of directors.

Limitation of Liability and Indemnification of Officers and Directors

The MGCL permits a Maryland corporation to include in its charter a provision limiting the liability of its directors and officers to the corporation and its shareholders for money damages except for liability resulting from (a) actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or (b) active and deliberate dishonesty established by a final judgment and which is material to the cause of action. Huntington's charter provides that to the fullest extent permitted by Maryland statutory or decision law, as amended or interpreted, its directors and officers are not personally liable to Huntington or its shareholders for money damages.

The MGCL provides that a Maryland corporation may indemnify any director or officer made a party to any proceeding by reason of service in that capacity unless it is established that (a) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (i) was committed in bad faith or (ii) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty; (b) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services; or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. Huntington's charter provides that it will indemnify its directors to the fullest extent under the general laws of the State of Maryland now or thereafter in force, including the advance of expenses to directors subject to procedures provided by such laws, its officers to the same extent it will indemnify its directors, and its officers who are not directors to such further extent as will be authorized by the Huntington board of directors and be consistent with Maryland law. Huntington's bylaws provide that to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law in effect from time to time, Huntington will indemnify and, without requiring a preliminary determination of the ultimate entitlement to indemnification, will pay or reimburse reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding to (a) any individual who is a present or former director of Huntington and who is made or threatened to be made a party or a witness to the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity, (b) any individual who is a present or former officer of Huntington and who is made or threatened to be made a party to the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity or (c) any individual who, while a director or officer of Huntington and at the request of Huntington, serves or has served as a director, officer, partner, trustee, member or manager of another corporation, real estate investment trust, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise and who is made or threatened to be made a party to, or witness in, the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity. The rights to indemnification and advance of expenses provided by the Huntington charter and Huntington bylaws vest immediately upon election of a director or officer. Huntington may, with the approval of the Huntington board of directors, provide such indemnification and advance for expenses to (i) an individual who served a predecessor of Huntington in any of the capacities described in clauses (a), (b) or (c) above, (ii) any individual who is a present or former officer of Huntington and who is made or threatened to be made a witness to the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity and (iii) any employee or agent of Huntington or a predecessor of Huntington.

DESCRIPTION OF NEW HUNTINGTON PREFERRED STOCK

At the effective time, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of Huntington, TCF or any holder of securities thereof, each share of TCF series C preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive a share of new Huntington preferred stock. The following briefly summarizes the terms and provisions of the new Huntington preferred stock. This summary contains a description of the material terms of the new Huntington preferred stock, and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to Huntington's charter, including the Huntington charter amendment to be adopted in connection with the merger attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B, the articles supplementary creating the new Huntington preferred stock, and the applicable provisions of Maryland law and federal law governing bank holding companies.

The terms of the new Huntington preferred stock are included as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, which updates the form of articles supplementary attached as an exhibit to the merger agreement to reflect the issuance of Huntington series H preferred stock following execution of the merger agreement.

General

The Huntington charter currently authorizes the Huntington board of directors, without further shareholder action, to cause Huntington to issue up to 6,617,808 shares of Huntington preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, and to classify and reclassify any unissued shares of Huntington preferred stock by establishing the preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications, terms or conditions of redemption or other rights thereof, without further vote or action by Huntington shareholders. The Huntington charter may be amended from time to time to increase the number of authorized shares of Huntington preferred stock. Any such amendment would require the approval of the holders of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, there are 35,500 shares of Huntington series B preferred stock issued and outstanding, 100,000 shares of Huntington series C preferred stock issued and outstanding, 600,000 shares of Huntington series D preferred stock issued and outstanding, 5,000 shares of Huntington series E preferred stock issued and outstanding, 5,000 shares of Huntington series F preferred stock issued and outstanding, 5,000 shares of Huntington series G preferred stock issued and outstanding and 500,000 shares of Huntington series H preferred stock issued and outstanding (collectively, the "parity stock").

In connection with the merger, Huntington will file articles supplementary classifying and designating 7,000 shares of authorized but unissued Huntington preferred stock, as new Huntington preferred stock, with the preferences and rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends and other distributions, qualifications, and terms and conditions of redemption as described below.

New Huntington Preferred Stock

Rank

New Huntington preferred stock will rank, with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of Huntington, on a parity with the parity stock and senior to Huntington common stock and each other class or series of Huntington preferred stock Huntington may issue in the future, the terms of which do not expressly provide that it ranks on a parity with or senior to the new Huntington preferred stock as to dividend rights and rights on liquidation, winding-up and dissolution of Huntington (the "junior stock"). The Huntington board of directors or any duly authorized committee of the Huntington board of directors, without the vote of the holders of the new Huntington preferred stock, may authorize and issue additional shares of junior stock, parity stock or, subject to the voting rights of the new Huntington preferred stock, any class of securities ranking senior to the new Huntington preferred stock as to dividends and the distribution of assets upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of Huntington.

Dividends

Holders of new Huntington preferred stock will be entitled to receive, if, as and when declared by the Huntington board of directors or any duly authorized committee of the Huntington board of directors, but only out of assets legally available therefor, non-cumulative cash dividends on the liquidation preference of $25,000 per share of new Huntington preferred stock, and no more, payable quarterly in arrears on each March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1; provided, however, if any such day is not a business day, then payment of any dividend otherwise payable on that date will be made on the next succeeding day that is a business day (without any interest or other payment in respect of such delay) (each such day on which dividends are payable a "dividend payment date"), commencing with the first such dividend payment date to occur after the closing date. The period from and including the date of issuance of the new Huntington preferred stock or any dividend payment date to but excluding the next dividend payment date is a "dividend period," except that the initial dividend period will commence on and include the last dividend payment date in respect of the TCF series C preferred stock. Dividends on each share of new Huntington preferred stock will accrue on the liquidation preference amount of $25,000 per share at a rate per annum equal to 5.70%. The record date for payment of dividends on the new Huntington preferred stock will be the 15th day of the calendar month immediately preceding the month during which the dividend payment date falls or such other date, not exceeding thirty (30) days before the applicable dividend payment date, as may be fixed by the Huntington board of directors. The amount of dividends payable will be computed on the basis of a three hundred sixty (360)-day year consisting of twelve (12) thirty (30)-day months. Notwithstanding any other provision of the new Huntington preferred stock, dividends on the new Huntington preferred stock will not be declared, paid or set aside for payment to the extent such act would cause Huntington to fail to comply with laws and regulations applicable thereto, including applicable capital adequacy guidelines.

Dividends on shares of new Huntington preferred stock will be non-cumulative. To the extent that any dividends payable on the shares of new Huntington preferred stock on any dividend payment date are not declared and paid, in full or otherwise, on such dividend payment date, then such unpaid dividends will not cumulate and will cease to accrue and be payable and Huntington will have no obligation to pay, and the holders of new Huntington preferred stock will have no right to receive, dividends accrued for such dividend period after the dividend payment date for such dividend period or interest with respect to such dividends, whether or not dividends are declared for any subsequent dividend period with respect to new Huntington preferred stock, any parity stock, any junior stock or any other class or series of authorized preferred stock of Huntington.

So long as any share of new Huntington preferred stock remains outstanding, unless full dividends on all outstanding shares of new Huntington preferred stock for the then-current dividend period have been declared and paid in full or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof has been set aside, (i) no dividend will be declared or paid or set aside for payment and no distribution will be declared or made or set aside for payment on any junior stock, other than a dividend payable solely in junior stock, (ii) no shares of junior stock will be repurchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired for consideration by Huntington, directly or indirectly (other than as a result of a reclassification of junior stock for or into other junior stock, or the exchange or conversion of one share of junior stock for or into another share of junior stock, and other than through the use of the proceeds of a substantially contemporaneous sale of other shares of junior stock), nor will any monies be paid to or made available for a sinking fund for the redemption of any such securities by Huntington and (iii) no shares of parity stock will be repurchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired for consideration by Huntington other than pursuant to pro rata offers to purchase all, or a pro rata portion, of the new Huntington preferred stock and such parity stock, except by conversion into or exchange for junior stock, during such dividend period. When dividends are not paid in full upon the shares of new Huntington preferred stock and any parity stock, all dividends declared upon shares of new Huntington preferred stock and any parity stock will be declared on a proportional basis so that the amount of dividends declared per share will bear to each other the same ratio that accrued dividends for the then-current dividend period per share on new Huntington preferred stock, and accrued dividends, including any accumulation, on any parity stock, bear to each other. No interest will be payable in respect of any dividend payment on shares of new Huntington preferred stock that may be in arrears. If the Huntington board of directors or any duly authorized committee of the board of directors determines not to pay any dividend or a full dividend on a dividend payment date, Huntington will provide, or cause to be provided, written notice to the holders of the new Huntington preferred stock prior to such date. Subject to the foregoing, and not otherwise, dividends (payable in cash, stock or otherwise) as may be determined by the Huntington board of directors or any duly authorized committee of the board of directors may be declared and paid on any junior stock from time to time out of any assets legally available therefor, and the shares of new Huntington preferred stock will not be entitled to participate in any such dividend.

Redemption

Optional Redemption

Huntington, at the option of the Huntington board of directors or any duly authorized committee of the Huntington board of directors, may redeem in whole or in part the shares of new Huntington preferred stock at the time outstanding, at any time on December 1, 2022 or any dividend payment date thereafter, upon notice given as provided below under “—Procedures.” The redemption price for shares of new Huntington preferred stock will be $25,000 per share, plus any declared and unpaid dividends for prior dividend periods, without accumulation of undeclared dividends (the “redemption price”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, within ninety (90) days following the occurrence of a regulatory capital treatment event (as defined in the articles supplementary creating the new Huntington preferred stock), Huntington may, at its option, subject to the approval of the appropriate federal banking agency, provide notice of its intent to redeem as provided below, and subsequently redeem, all (but not less than all) of the shares of new Huntington preferred stock at the time outstanding, at the redemption price applicable on such date of redemption.

Partial Redemption

In case of any redemption of only part of the shares of new Huntington preferred stock at the time outstanding, the shares of new Huntington preferred stock to be redeemed will be selected either pro rata from the holders of record of new Huntington preferred stock in proportion to the number of shares of new Huntington preferred stock held by such holders or in such other manner consistent with the rules and policies of the NASDAQ as the Huntington board of directors or any duly authorized committee of the Huntington board of directors may determine to be fair and equitable. Subject to the provisions of the articles supplementary creating the new Huntington preferred stock, the Huntington board of directors or any duly authorized committee of the Huntington board of directors will have full power and authority to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which shares of new Huntington preferred stock will be redeemed from time to time.

Procedures

Notice of every redemption of shares of new Huntington preferred stock will be either (i) mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the holders of record of such shares to be redeemed at their respective last addresses appearing on the stock register of Huntington or (ii) transmitted by such other method approved by the Depository Trust Company (“DTC”), in its reasonable discretion, to the holders of record of such shares to be redeemed. Such mailing or transmittal will be at least thirty (30) days and not more than sixty (60) days before the date fixed for redemption. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the new Huntington preferred stock is held in book-entry form through DTC, Huntington may give such notice in any manner permitted by DTC. Any notice mailed or transmitted as provided in the foregoing will be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the holder receives such notice, but failure duly to give such notice by mail or other transmission, or any defect in such notice or in the mailing or transmittal thereof, to any holder of shares of new Huntington preferred stock designated for redemption will not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other shares of new Huntington preferred stock. Each notice will state (i) the redemption date; (ii) the number of shares of new Huntington preferred stock to be redeemed and, if fewer than all the shares held by such holder are to be redeemed, the number of such shares to be redeemed from such holder; (iii) the redemption price; (iv) the place or places where the certificates for such shares are to be surrendered for payment of the redemption price; and (v) that dividends on the shares to be redeemed will cease to accrue on the redemption date.

If notice of redemption has been duly given and if on or before the redemption date specified in the notice all funds necessary for the redemption have been set aside by Huntington, separate and apart from its other assets, in trust for the pro rata benefit of the holders of the shares called for redemption, so as to be and continue to be available therefor, or deposited by Huntington with a bank or trust company selected by the Huntington board or directors or any duly authorized committee of the Huntington board of directors (the “depository company”) in trust for the pro rata benefit of the holders of the shares called for redemption, then, notwithstanding that any certificate for any share so called for redemption has not been surrendered for cancellation, on and after the redemption date all shares so called for redemption will cease to be outstanding, all dividends with respect to such shares will cease to accrue after such redemption date, and all rights with respect to such shares will forthwith on such redemption date cease and terminate, except only the right of the holders thereof to receive the amount payable on such redemption from such bank or trust company at any time after the redemption date from the funds so deposited, without interest. Huntington will be entitled to receive, from time to time, from the depository company any interest accrued on such funds, and the holders of any shares called for redemption will have no claim to any such interest. Any funds so deposited and unclaimed at the end of three (3) years from the redemption date will, to the extent permitted by law, be released or repaid to Huntington, and in the event of such repayment to Huntington, the holders of record of the shares so called for redemption will be deemed to be unsecured creditors of Huntington for an amount equivalent to the amount deposited as stated above for the redemption of such shares and so repaid to Huntington, but will in no event be entitled to any interest.

Liquidation Rights

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of Huntington, holders of new Huntington preferred stock will be entitled, out of assets legally available therefor, before any distribution or payment out of the assets of Huntington may be made to or set aside for the holders of any junior stock and subject to the rights of any holders of any class or series of securities ranking senior to or on parity with new Huntington preferred stock upon liquidation and the rights of Huntington's depositors and other creditors, to receive in full a liquidating distribution in the amount of the liquidation preference of $25,000 per share, plus any authorized, declared and unpaid dividends, without accumulation of any undeclared dividends, to the date of liquidation. Holders of new Huntington preferred stock will not be entitled to any further payments in the event of any such voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of Huntington other than as expressly provided.

If the assets of Huntington are not sufficient to pay in full the liquidation preference plus any authorized, declared and unpaid dividends to all holders of new Huntington preferred stock and all holders of any parity stock, the amounts paid to the holders of new Huntington preferred stock and to the holders of all parity stock will be paid pro rata in accordance with the respective amounts that would be payable on such shares if all amounts payable thereon were paid in full.

If the liquidation preference plus any authorized, declared and unpaid dividends has been paid in full to all holders of new Huntington preferred stock, the holders of shares of new Huntington preferred stock will not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of assets by Huntington.

For purposes of liquidation rights, the sale, conveyance, exchange or transfer (for cash, shares of stock, securities or other consideration) of all or substantially all of the property and assets of Huntington will not be deemed a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of Huntington, nor will the merger, consolidation or any other business combination transaction of Huntington into or with any other corporation or person or the merger, consolidation or any other business combination transaction of any other corporation or person into or with Huntington be deemed to be a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of Huntington.

Voting Rights

The holders of new Huntington preferred stock will have no voting rights and will not be entitled to elect any directors, except as expressly provided by law and except as provided below:

Supermajority Voting Rights-Amendments

Unless the vote or consent of the holders of a greater number of shares is then required by law, the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of at least 66²/₃% of all of the shares of the new Huntington preferred stock at the time outstanding, voting separately as a class, will be required to authorize any amendment of the Huntington charter or of any certificate amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto (including any articles supplementary or any similar document relating to any series of preferred stock) which will materially and adversely affect the powers, preferences, privileges or rights of the new Huntington preferred stock, taken as a whole; provided, however, that the following will not be deemed to adversely affect the powers, preferences, privileges or rights of the new Huntington preferred stock: (i) any increase in the amount of the authorized or issued new Huntington preferred stock, (ii) any increase in the amount of authorized preferred stock of Huntington, or (iii) the creation and issuance, or an increase in the authorized or issued amount, of other series of preferred stock ranking equally with and/or junior to the new Huntington preferred stock with respect to the payment of dividends (whether such dividends are cumulative or non-cumulative) and/or the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Huntington.

Supermajority Voting Rights-Priority

Unless the vote or consent of the holders of a greater number of shares is then required by law, the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of at least 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of all of the shares of the new Huntington preferred stock and all other parity stock, at the time outstanding, voting as a single class without regard to series, will be required to issue, authorize or increase the authorized amount of, or to issue or authorize any obligation or security convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase, any additional class or series of stock ranking prior to the shares of the new Huntington preferred stock and all other parity stock as to dividends or the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Huntington.

Special Voting Right

If and whenever dividends on the new Huntington preferred stock or any other class or series of preferred stock that ranks on parity with the new Huntington preferred stock as to payment of dividends, and upon which voting rights equivalent to those granted by this paragraph and the next three paragraphs have been conferred and are exercisable, have not been paid in an aggregate amount equal, as to any class or series, to at least six (6) quarterly dividend periods (whether consecutive or not), the number of directors constituting the Huntington board of directors will be increased by two (2), and the holders of the new Huntington preferred stock (together with holders of any other class of Huntington's authorized preferred stock having equivalent voting rights, whether or not the holders of such preferred stock would be entitled to vote for the election of directors if such default in dividends did not exist), will have the right, voting separately as a single class without regard to series, to the exclusion of the holders of Huntington common stock, to elect two (2) directors of Huntington to fill such newly created directorships (and to fill any vacancies in the terms of such directorships), provided that the Huntington board of directors will at no time include more than two (2) such directors. Each such director elected by the holders of shares of new Huntington preferred stock and any other class or series of preferred stock that ranks on parity with the new Huntington preferred stock as to payment of dividends is a "preferred director."

The election of the preferred directors will take place at any annual meeting of shareholders or any special meeting of the holders of new Huntington preferred stock and any other class or series of Huntington's stock that ranks on parity with new Huntington preferred stock as to payment of dividends and for which dividends have not been paid, called as provided herein. At any time after the special voting power has vested pursuant to the preceding paragraph, a majority of the continuing directors (as defined in this section) may, and within twenty (20) days after the written request of any holder of new Huntington preferred stock (addressed to the continuing directors at Huntington's principal office) must (unless such request is received less than ninety (90) days before the date fixed for the next annual or special meeting of the shareholders, in which event such election will be held at such next annual or special meeting of shareholders), call a special meeting of the holders of new Huntington preferred stock, and any other class or series of preferred stock that ranks on parity with new Huntington preferred stock as to payment of dividends and for which dividends have not been paid, for the election of the two (2) directors to be elected by them as provided in the next paragraph. The preferred directors will each be entitled to one (1) vote per director on any matter.

Notice for a special meeting will be given in a similar manner to that provided in Huntington's bylaws for a special meeting of the shareholders. The preferred directors elected at any such special meeting will hold office until the next annual meeting of Huntington's shareholders unless they have been previously terminated or removed pursuant to the next paragraph. In case any vacancy in the office of a preferred director occurs (other than prior to the initial election of the preferred directors), the vacancy may be filled by the written consent of the preferred director remaining in office, or if none remains in office, by a vote of the holders of the outstanding shares of new Huntington preferred stock (together with holders of any other class of Huntington's authorized preferred stock having equivalent voting rights, whether or not the holders of such preferred stock would be entitled to vote for the election of directors if such default in dividends did not exist) to serve until the next annual meeting of the shareholders.

Whenever full dividends have been paid regularly on the new Huntington preferred stock and any other class or series of preferred stock that ranks on parity with new Huntington preferred stock as to payment of dividends, if any, for at least four (4) consecutive dividend periods, then the right of the holders of new Huntington preferred stock to elect such additional two (2) directors will cease (subject to the same provisions for the vesting of the special voting rights in the case of any similar non-payment of dividends in respect of future dividend periods) and the term of office of each preferred director so elected will immediately terminate and the number of directors constituting Huntington's board of directors will be automatically reduced accordingly. Any preferred director may be removed at any time without cause by the holders of record of a majority of the outstanding shares of new Huntington preferred stock (together with holders of any other class of Huntington's authorized preferred stock having equivalent voting rights, whether or not the holders of such preferred stock would be entitled to vote for the election of directors if such default in dividends did not exist) when they have the voting rights described in this paragraph and the foregoing three paragraphs.

"Continuing directors" means (a) if an "interested stockholder" (as defined in Section 3-601 of the MGCL) exists, any member of the Huntington board of directors who is not an interested stockholder or an "affiliate" or an "associate" (as such terms are defined in Rule 12b-2 under the Exchange Act, as the same is in effect from time to time) of an interested stockholder and who was a member of the Huntington board of directors immediately prior to the time that an interested stockholder became an interested stockholder, and any successor to a continuing director who is not an interested stockholder or an affiliate or associate of an interested stockholder and is recommended to succeed a continuing director by a majority of the continuing directors who are then members of the Huntington board of directors; and (b) if an interested stockholder does not exist, any member of the Huntington board of directors.

Changes after Provision for Redemption

No vote or consent of the holders of new Huntington preferred stock will be required under "—Voting Rights" above if, at or prior to the time when any such vote or consent would otherwise be required pursuant to such section, all outstanding new Huntington preferred stock have been redeemed, or notice of redemption has been given and sufficient funds have been irrevocably deposited in trust to effect such redemption.

Preemptive and Conversion Rights

The holders of new Huntington preferred stock do not have any preemptive rights. The holders of new Huntington preferred stock do not have any rights to convert such new Huntington preferred stock into shares of any other class of capital stock of Huntington.

Listing

The TCF depositary shares that represent a 1/1000th interest in a share of the TCF series C preferred stock are currently listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol "TCFCP." Depositary shares representing the new Huntington preferred stock are expected to be listed on the NASDAQ upon completion of the merger.

Transfer Agent, Paying Agent and Registrar

Computershare Trust Company, N.A. will act as initial transfer agent and registrar and Computershare Inc. will act as initial paying agent for the payment of dividends for the new Huntington preferred stock.

New Huntington Depositary Shares

TCF has issued fractional interests in shares of the TCF series C preferred stock in the form of depositary shares (the "TCF depositary shares"), which upon the effective time will represent a corresponding interest in shares of new Huntington preferred stock. The shares of new Huntington preferred stock will be deposited with Computershare Trust Company, N.A. and Computershare Inc., as depositary, under the deposit agreement governing the TCF series C preferred stock, which Huntington will assume upon the completion of the merger. Huntington will instruct the depositary to treat the new Huntington preferred stock received by it in exchange for shares of TCF series C preferred stock as newly deposited securities as provided in the applicable deposit agreement. The TCF depositary shares will then become new Huntington depositary shares in respect of new Huntington preferred stock and thereafter represent shares of new Huntington preferred stock.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Each new Huntington depositary share will represent a 1/1,000th ownership interest in a share of new Huntington preferred stock, and the new Huntington depositary shares will be evidenced by a depositary receipt. Subject to the terms of the deposit agreement, each holder of a new Huntington depositary share is entitled, through the depositary, in proportion to the applicable fraction of a share of new Huntington preferred stock represented by such depositary share, to all the rights and preferences of the new Huntington preferred stock represented thereby (including dividend, voting, redemption and liquidation rights). The following is a summary of the material provisions of the deposit agreement. This description is qualified by reference to the deposit agreement, which is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part.

Dividends and Other Distributions

The depositary will distribute any cash dividends or other cash distributions received in respect of the shares of new Huntington preferred stock to the record holders of depositary shares relating to the underlying new Huntington preferred stock in proportion to the number of new Huntington depositary shares held by the holders. The depositary will distribute any property received by it other than cash to the record holders of new Huntington depositary shares entitled to those distributions, unless it determines that the distribution cannot be made proportionally among those holders or that it is not feasible to make a distribution. In that event, the depositary may, with Huntington's approval, adopt such method as it deems equitable and practicable for the purpose of effecting such distribution, including a sale of the applicable securities or property in a commercially reasonable manner and distribute the net proceeds from the sale to the holders of the new Huntington depositary shares in proportion to the number of depositary shares they hold.

Record dates for the payment of dividends and other matters relating to the new Huntington depositary shares will be the same as the corresponding record dates for the new Huntington preferred stock.

The amounts distributed to holders of new Huntington depositary shares will be reduced by any amounts required to be withheld by the depositary or by Huntington on account of taxes or other governmental charges.

Redemption of New Huntington Depositary Shares

If Huntington redeems the new Huntington preferred stock, the new Huntington depositary shares will be redeemed from the proceeds received by the depositary resulting from the redemption of the new Huntington preferred stock held by the depositary. The redemption price per depositary share will be equal to 1/1,000th of the redemption price per share payable with respect to the new Huntington preferred stock (or $25 per depositary share), plus any declared and unpaid dividends for prior dividend periods, without accumulation of any undeclared dividends. Whenever Huntington redeems shares of new Huntington preferred stock held by the depositary, the depositary will redeem, as of the same redemption date, the number of new Huntington depositary shares representing shares of new Huntington preferred stock so redeemed.

In case of any redemption of less than all of the outstanding new Huntington depositary shares, the depositary shares to be redeemed will be selected by the depositary pro rata from the holders of record of new Huntington preferred stock in proportion to the number of shares of new Huntington preferred stock held by such holders or in such other manner consistent with the rules and policies of any securities exchange upon which Huntington's securities are then listed determined by the depositary to be equitable. In any such case, Huntington will redeem new Huntington depositary shares only in increments of 1,000 shares and any multiple thereof.

Voting the New Huntington Depositary Shares

When the depositary receives notice of any meeting at which the holders of the new Huntington preferred stock are entitled to vote, the depositary will mail (or otherwise transmit by an authorized method) the information contained in the notice to the record holders of the new Huntington depositary shares. Each record holder of the new Huntington depositary shares on the record date, which will be the same date as the record date for the new Huntington preferred stock, may instruct the depositary to vote the amount of the new Huntington preferred stock represented by the holder's new Huntington depositary shares. To the extent possible, the depositary will vote the amount of the new Huntington preferred stock represented by new Huntington depositary shares in accordance with the instructions it receives. Huntington will agree to take all reasonable actions that the depositary determines are necessary to enable the depositary to vote as instructed. If the depositary does not receive specific instructions from the holders of any new Huntington depositary shares, it will vote all new Huntington depositary shares held by it proportionately with instructions received.

Copies of Huntington's and TCF's governing documents have been filed with the SEC. To find out where copies of these documents can be obtained, see the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 178.

A director may file for a court determination of the propriety of indemnification in any of the situations set forth in the preceding sentence. The TCF articles and the TCF bylaws each indicate that TCF will indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by the MBCA, persons who serve or have served as directors, officers, employees or agents of TCF, and persons who serve or have served at the request of TCF as directors, officers, employees, partners or agents of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

Anti-Takeover Provisions:	Maryland law includes a control share acquisition statute that, in general terms, provides that where a person acquires issued and outstanding shares of a Maryland corporation's voting stock (referred to as control shares) within one of several specified ranges (one-tenth or more but less than one-third, one-third or more but less than a majority or a majority or more), approval of the control share acquisition by the corporation's shareholders must be obtained before the acquiring person may vote the control shares. Control shares do not include shares that the person is then entitled to vote as a result of having previously obtained shareholder approval. The required shareholder vote is two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast, excluding "interested shares," defined as shares held by the acquiring person, officers of the corporation and employees who are also directors of the corporation. A corporation may, however, opt out of the control share statute through a charter or bylaw provision. Huntington has not opted out of the control share acquisition statute. Accordingly, the Maryland control share acquisition statute applies to acquisitions of shares of Huntington common stock. Maryland law includes a business	Neither the TCF articles nor the TCF bylaws containing any special provisions relating to the approval of business combinations. TCF is subject to the provisions of Chapter 7A of the MBCA. In addition to any vote otherwise required by law or the corporation's articles of incorporation, Chapter 7A of the MBCA provides that business combinations between a corporation that is subject to Chapter 7A and an interested shareholder (generally a beneficial owner of 10% or more of the voting power of the corporation) require an advisory statement from the board of directors and approval by an affirmative vote of both (i) not less than 90% of the votes of each class of stock entitled to be cast and (ii) not less than two-thirds of the votes of each class of stock entitled to be cast by the shareholders other than voting shares beneficially owned by the interested shareholder who is, or whose affiliate is, a party to the business combination or an affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder. The above vote requirements do not apply if (i) the corporation's board of directors approves the transaction prior to the time the interested shareholder first becomes an interested shareholder or (ii) the transaction satisfies the specified

After the five (5)-year period has elapsed, a corporation subject to the statute may not complete a business combination with an interested stockholder unless (1) the transaction has been recommended by the board of directors and (2) the transaction has been approved by affirmative vote of at least (A) 80% of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of outstanding shares of voting stock of the corporation and (B) two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of voting stock of the corporation other than shares held by the interested stockholder with whom (or with whose affiliate) the business combination is to be effected or held by an affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder. This approval requirement need not be met if certain fair price and terms criteria have been satisfied. Huntington has not opted out of the Maryland business combination statute. The MGCL permits a Maryland corporation with a class of equity securities registered under the Exchange Act and at least three (3) independent	fairness standards, various other conditions are met and there has been at least five (5) years between the date of becoming an interested shareholder and the date the business combination is consummated.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER, dated as of December 13, 2020 (this "Agreement"), by and between Huntington Bancshares Incorporated, a Maryland corporation ("Huntington") and TCF Financial Corporation, a Michigan corporation ("TCF").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Huntington and TCF have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective companies and their shareholders to consummate the strategic business combination transaction provided for herein, pursuant to which TCF will, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, merge with and into Huntington (the "Merger"), so that Huntington is the surviving corporation (hereinafter sometimes referred to in such capacity as the "Surviving Corporation");

WHEREAS, for federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and this Agreement is intended to be and is adopted as a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with the Merger and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, representations, warranties and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the Maryland General Corporation Laws, as amended (the "MGCL") and the Michigan Business Corporation Act, as amended (the "MBCA"), at the Effective Time, TCF shall merge with and into Huntington. Huntington shall be the Surviving Corporation in the Merger, and shall continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Maryland. Upon consummation of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of TCF shall terminate.

1.2 Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the "Closing") will take place at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, remotely via the electronic exchange of closing deliveries, on a date which shall be no later than three (3) business days after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable law) of the latest to occur of the conditions set forth in Article VII hereof (other than those conditions that by their nature can only be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver thereof), unless another date, time or place is agreed to in writing by Huntington and TCF. The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to in this Agreement as the "Closing Date".

1.3 Effective Time. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, on or before the Closing Date, Huntington shall cause to be filed articles of merger (the "Articles of Merger") as provided under the MGCL with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation (the "Maryland Department") and a certificate of merger (the "Certificate of Merger") as provided under the MBCA with the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs (the "Michigan Department"). The Merger shall become effective as of the date and time specified in the Articles of Merger and the Certificate of Merger in accordance with the relevant provisions of the MGCL and the MBCA, or at such other date and time as shall be provided by applicable law (such date and time, the "Effective Time").

1.4 Effects of the Merger. At and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects set forth in the applicable provisions of the MGCL and the MBCA and this Agreement.

1.5 Conversion of TCF Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Huntington, TCF, or the holder of any of the following securities:

- (a) Subject to Section 2.2(e), each share of the common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of TCF issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time ("TCF Common Stock"), except for shares of TCF Common Stock owned by TCF or Huntington (in each case other than shares of TCF Common Stock (i) held in any TCF Benefit Plans or related trust accounts, managed accounts, mutual funds and the like, or otherwise held in a fiduciary or agency capacity and (ii) held, directly or indirectly, in respect of debts previously contracted (collectively, the “Exception Shares”) shall be converted, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Agreement, into the right to receive, without interest, 3.0028 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) and such shares, the “Merger Consideration”) of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Huntington (the “Huntington Common Stock”).

(b) All of the shares of TCF Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Article I shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist as of the Effective Time, and each certificate (each, an “Old Certificate,” it being understood that any reference herein to “Old Certificate” shall be deemed to include reference to book-entry account statements relating to the ownership of shares of TCF Common Stock) previously representing any such shares of TCF Common Stock shall thereafter represent only the right to receive (i) the Merger Consideration, (ii) cash in lieu of a fractional share which the shares of TCF Common Stock represented by such Old Certificate have been converted into the right to receive pursuant to this Section 1.5 and Section 2.2(e), and (iii) any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.2, in each case without any interest thereon. Old Certificates previously representing shares of TCF Common Stock shall be exchanged for certificates or, at Huntington’s option, evidence of shares in book entry form representing whole shares of Huntington Common Stock as set forth in Section 1.5(a) (together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto and cash in lieu of fractional shares issued in consideration therefor) upon the surrender of such Old Certificates in accordance with Section 2.2, without any interest thereon. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Huntington Common Stock or TCF Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities, in any such case as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, or there shall be any extraordinary dividend or extraordinary distribution, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Exchange Ratio to give holders of TCF Common Stock the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such event; provided, that nothing in this sentence shall be construed to permit Huntington or TCF to take any action with respect to its securities that is prohibited by the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, at the Effective Time, all shares of TCF Common Stock that are owned by TCF or Huntington (in each case other than the Exception Shares) immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and neither the Merger Consideration nor any other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

1.6 TCF Preferred Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Huntington, TCF or any holder of securities thereof, each share of 5.70% Series C Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, no par value, of TCF (“TCF Preferred Stock”) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall automatically be converted into the right to receive a share of a newly created series of preferred stock of Huntington in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit C attached hereto (all shares of such newly created series, collectively, the “New Huntington Preferred Stock”) and, upon such conversion, the TCF Preferred Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist as of the Effective Time.

1.7 Huntington Common Stock. At and after the Effective Time, each share of Huntington Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Merger.

1.8 Treatment of TCF Equity Awards

(a) At the Effective Time, each option granted by TCF to purchase shares of TCF Common Stock under a TCF Stock Plan (as defined below) that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time (a “TCF Stock Option”) shall be assumed and converted automatically into an option (an “Adjusted Stock Option”) to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time (including vesting terms), the number of shares of Huntington Common Stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of Huntington Common Stock) equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of TCF Common Stock subject to such

TCF Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (B) the Exchange Ratio, which Adjusted Stock Option shall have an exercise price per share of Huntington Common Stock equal to the quotient (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) obtained by dividing (1) the exercise price per share of TCF Common Stock subject to such TCF Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, by (2) the Exchange Ratio.

(b) At the Effective Time, each award in respect of a share of TCF Common Stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction granted under a TCF Stock Plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a “TCF Restricted Stock Award”) shall (i) if granted to a non-employee member of the Board of Directors of TCF, fully vest and be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive (without interest) the Merger Consideration in respect of each share of TCF Common Stock subject to such TCF Restricted Stock Award immediately prior to the Effective Time, which shall be delivered as soon as reasonably practicable following the Closing Date and in no event later than ten (10) business days following the Closing Date (or on such later date if required to comply with Section 409A of the Code) and (ii) if not granted to an individual described in clause (i) hereof, be assumed and converted into a restricted stock award of shares of Huntington Common Stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF Restricted Stock Award immediately prior to the Effective Time (including vesting terms), and relating to the number of shares of Huntington Common Stock equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of TCF Common Stock subject to such TCF Restricted Stock Award immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (B) the Exchange Ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole share of Huntington Common Stock.

(c) At the Effective Time, each restricted stock unit award in respect of shares of TCF Common Stock granted under a TCF Stock Plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a “TCF Restricted Stock Unit Award”) shall be assumed and converted into a restricted stock unit award (with any performance goals deemed satisfied at the greater of the target and actual level of performance through the most recently completed calendar quarter prior to the Closing as reasonably determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of TCF in the ordinary course consistent with past practice) in respect of Huntington Common Stock (an “Adjusted Restricted Stock Unit Award”) with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF Restricted Stock Unit Award immediately prior to the Effective Time (including vesting terms) and relating to the number of shares of Huntington Common Stock equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of TCF Common Stock subject to such TCF Restricted Stock Unit Award immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (B) the Exchange Ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole share of Huntington Common Stock; provided that each such Adjusted Restricted Stock Unit Award shall be subject to service-based vesting only and shall no longer be subject to any performance conditions.

(d) At the Effective Time, each award in respect of a deferred share of TCF Common Stock granted under a TCF Stock Plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a “TCF Deferred Stock Award”) shall be assumed and converted automatically into a deferred stock award of shares of Huntington Common Stock subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such TCF Deferred Stock Award immediately prior to the Effective Time, and relating to the number of shares of Huntington Common Stock equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of TCF Common Stock subject to such TCF Deferred Stock Award immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (B) the Exchange Ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole share of Huntington Common Stock.

(e) Each holder of a TCF Restricted Stock Award converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration that would have otherwise been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Huntington Common Stock (after aggregating all shares to be delivered in respect of all TCF Equity Awards held by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof and upon surrender thereof, a cash payment (rounded to the nearest cent) (without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Huntington Common Stock (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) multiplied by the Huntington Share Closing Price (as defined below).

(f) Promptly following the Effective Time, Huntington shall file a post-effective amendment to the S-4 or an effective registration statement on Form S-8 with respect to the Huntington Common Stock subject to the applicable adjusted TCF Equity Awards, as required.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(g) At or prior to the Effective Time, TCF, the Board of Directors of TCF and its compensation committee, as applicable, shall adopt any resolutions and take any actions that are necessary for the treatment of the TCF Equity Awards and to effectuate the provisions of this Section 1.8.

(h) For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(i) “TCF Equity Awards” means the TCF Stock Options, TCF Restricted Stock Awards, TCF Restricted Stock Unit Awards and TCF Deferred Stock Awards.

(ii) “TCF Stock Plans” means the Chemical Financial Corporation Stock Incentive Plan of 2019, the Chemical Financial Corporation Stock Incentive Plan of 2017, the Chemical Financial Corporation Stock Incentive Plan of 2015, the Chemical Financial Corporation Stock Incentive Plan of 2012, the Amended and Restated Chemical Financial Corporation Stock Incentive Plan of 2006, the Amended and Restated TCF 2015 Omnibus Incentive Plan, the Talmer Bancorp Equity Incentive Plan of 2015, the TCF 2005 Deferred Compensation Plan, the TCF Directors Deferred Compensation Plan and the TCF Omnibus Employees Deferred Compensation Plan.

1.9 Charter of Surviving Corporation. At the Effective Time, the charter of Huntington, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, as amended as set forth in Exhibit A (such amendment, the “Huntington Charter Amendment”), shall be the charter of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law.

1.10 Bylaws of Surviving Corporation. At the Effective Time, the bylaws of Huntington, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law.

1.11 Tax Consequences. It is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and that this Agreement is intended to be and is adopted as a “plan of reorganization” for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

1.12 Bank Merger. Immediately following the Merger, TCF National Bank, a national bank and a wholly owned Subsidiary of TCF, will merge (the “Bank Merger”) with and into The Huntington National Bank, a national bank and a wholly owned Subsidiary of Huntington. The Huntington National Bank shall be the surviving entity in the Bank Merger and, following the Bank Merger, the separate corporate existence of TCF National Bank shall cease. Promptly after the date of this Agreement, The Huntington National Bank and TCF National Bank shall enter into an agreement and plan of merger in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the “Bank Merger Agreement”). Each of Huntington and TCF shall approve the Bank Merger Agreement and the Bank Merger as the sole shareholder of The Huntington National Bank and TCF National Bank, respectively. TABLE OF CONTENTS

2.2 Exchange of Shares.

(a) As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, but in no event later than ten (10) days thereafter, Huntington shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of one or more Old Certificates representing shares of TCF Common Stock or TCF Preferred Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time that have been converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration or shares of New Huntington Preferred Stock, as applicable, pursuant to Article I, a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Old Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Old Certificates to the Exchange Agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Old Certificates in exchange for certificates representing the number of whole shares of Huntington Common Stock and any cash in lieu of fractional shares or shares of New Huntington Preferred Stock, as applicable, which the shares of TCF Common Stock or TCF Preferred Stock represented by such Old Certificate or Old Certificates shall have been converted into the right to receive pursuant to this Agreement as well as any dividends or distributions to be paid pursuant to Section 2.2(b). From and after the Effective Time, upon proper surrender of an Old Certificate or Old Certificates for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such properly completed letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Old Certificate or Old Certificates shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, as applicable, (i) (A) a New Certificate representing that number of whole shares of Huntington Common Stock to which such holder of TCF Common Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to the provisions of Article I and (B) a check representing the amount of (x) any cash in lieu of a fractional share which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the Old Certificate or Old Certificates surrendered pursuant to the provisions of this Article II and (y) any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive pursuant to this Section 2.2 or (ii) (A) a New Certificate representing the number of shares of New Huntington Preferred Stock to which such holder of TCF Preferred Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to the provisions of Article I and (B) a check representing the amount of any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive pursuant to this Section 2.2, as applicable, and the Old Certificate or Old Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the Huntington Common Stock, New Huntington Preferred Stock or any cash in lieu of fractional shares or dividends or distributions payable to holders of Old Certificates. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.2, each Old Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive, upon surrender, the number of whole shares of Huntington Common Stock or shares of New Huntington Preferred Stock which the shares of TCF Common Stock or TCF Preferred Stock, as applicable, represented by such Old Certificate have been converted into the right to receive and any cash in lieu of fractional shares or in respect of dividends or distributions as contemplated by this Section 2.2.

(b) No dividends or other distributions declared with respect to Huntington Common Stock or New Huntington Preferred Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Old Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Old Certificate in accordance with this Article II. After the surrender of an Old Certificate in accordance with this Article II, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to the whole shares of Huntington Common Stock or shares of New Huntington Preferred Stock which the shares of TCF Common Stock or TCF Preferred Stock, as applicable, represented by such Old Certificate have been converted into the right to receive (after giving effect to Section 6.11).

(c) If any New Certificate representing shares of Huntington Common Stock or New Huntington Preferred Stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the Old Certificate or Old Certificates surrendered in exchange therefor is or are registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Old Certificate or Old Certificates so surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer, and that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other similar Taxes required by reason of the issuance of a New Certificate representing shares of Huntington Common Stock or New Huntington Preferred Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Old Certificate or Old Certificates surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not payable.

(d) After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of TCF of the shares of TCF Common Stock or TCF Preferred Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Old Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for New Certificates representing shares of Huntington Common Stock or New Huntington Preferred Stock, as applicable, cash in lieu of fractional shares and dividends or distributions that the holder presenting such Old Certificates is entitled to, as provided in this Article II.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no New Certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Huntington Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Old Certificates or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement, no dividend or distribution with respect to Huntington Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Huntington. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Huntington shall pay to each former holder who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the average of the closing sale prices of Huntington Common Stock on the NASDAQ Stock Market (the "NASDAQ") as reported by The Wall Street Journal for the five (5) consecutive full trading days ending on the day preceding the Closing Date (the "Huntington Share Closing Price") by (ii) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all shares of TCF Common Stock held by such holder immediately prior to the Effective Time and rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Huntington Common Stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Article I. The parties acknowledge that payment of such cash consideration in lieu of issuing fractional shares is not separately bargained-for consideration, but merely represents a mechanical rounding off for purposes of avoiding the expense and inconvenience that would otherwise be caused by the issuance of fractional shares.

(f) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the holders of TCF Common Stock and TCF Preferred Stock for one (1) year after the Effective Time shall be paid to the Surviving Corporation. Any former holders of TCF Common Stock and TCF Preferred Stock who have not theretofore exchanged their Old Certificates pursuant to this Article II shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation for payment of the shares of Huntington Common Stock and cash in lieu of any fractional shares or shares of New Huntington Preferred Stock, as applicable, and any unpaid dividends and distributions on the Huntington Common Stock or New Huntington Preferred Stock deliverable in respect of each former share of TCF Common Stock or TCF Preferred Stock, as applicable that such holder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Huntington, TCF, the Surviving Corporation, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of TCF Common Stock or TCF Preferred Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(g) Huntington shall be entitled to deduct and withhold, or cause the Exchange Agent to deduct and withhold, from any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Huntington Common Stock, cash dividends or distributions payable pursuant to this Section 2.2 or any other amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of TCF Common Stock, TCF Preferred Stock or TCF Equity Awards such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Huntington or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be, and paid over to the appropriate governmental authority, the withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of TCF Common Stock, TCF Preferred Stock or TCF Equity Awards in respect of which the deduction and withholding was made by Huntington or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be.

(h) In the event any Old Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Old Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Huntington or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Huntington or the Exchange Agent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Old Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Old Certificate the shares of Huntington Common Stock and any cash in lieu of fractional shares, or the shares of New Huntington Preferred Stock, as applicable, deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF TCF

Except (i) as disclosed in the disclosure schedule delivered by TCF to Huntington concurrently herewith (the “TCF Disclosure Schedule”); provided, that (a) no such item is required to be set forth as an exception to a representation or warranty if its absence would not result in the related representation or warranty being deemed untrue or incorrect, (b) the mere inclusion of an item in the TCF Disclosure Schedule as an exception to a representation or warranty shall not be deemed an admission by TCF that such item represents a material exception or fact, event or circumstance or that such item is reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect and (c) any disclosures made with respect to a section of this Article III shall be deemed to qualify (1) any other section of this Article III specifically referenced or cross-referenced and (2) other sections of this Article III to the extent it is reasonably apparent on its face (notwithstanding the absence of a specific cross reference) from a reading of the disclosure that such disclosure applies to such other sections or (ii) as disclosed in any TCF Reports publicly filed prior to the date hereof (but disregarding risk factor disclosures contained under the heading “Risk Factors,” or disclosures of risks set forth in any “forward-looking statements” disclaimer or any other statements that are similarly non-specific or cautionary, predictive or forward-looking in nature), TCF hereby represents and warrants to Huntington as follows:

3.1 Corporate Organization.

(a) TCF is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Michigan and is a bank holding company duly registered under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (“BHC Act”) that has elected to be treated as a financial holding company under the BHC Act. TCF has the corporate power and authority to own, lease or operate all of its properties and assets and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted in all material respects. TCF is duly licensed or qualified to do business and in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of the business conducted by it or the character or location of the properties and assets owned, leased or operated by it makes such licensing, qualification or standing necessary, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified or to be in good standing would not, either individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on TCF. As used in this Agreement, the term “Material Adverse Effect” means, with respect to Huntington, TCF or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, any effect, change, event, circumstance, condition, occurrence or development that, either individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be likely to have a material adverse effect on (i) the business, properties, assets, liabilities, results of operations or financial condition of such party and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole (provided, however, that, with respect to this clause (i), Material Adverse Effect shall not be deemed to include the impact of (A) changes, after the date hereof, in U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) or applicable regulatory accounting requirements, (B) changes, after the date hereof, in laws, rules or regulations (including the Pandemic Measures) of general applicability to companies in the industries in which such party and its Subsidiaries operate, or interpretations thereof by courts or Governmental Entities, (C) changes, after the date hereof, in global, national or regional political conditions (including the outbreak of war or acts of terrorism) or in economic or market (including equity, credit and debt markets, as well as changes in interest rates) conditions affecting the financial services industry generally and not specifically relating to such party or its Subsidiaries (including any such changes arising out of the Pandemic or any Pandemic Measures), (D) changes, after the date hereof, resulting from hurricanes, earthquakes, tornados, floods or other natural disasters or from any outbreak of any disease or other public health event (including the Pandemic), (E) public disclosure of the execution of this Agreement, public disclosure or consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby (including any effect on a party’s relationships with its customers or employees) (it being understood that the foregoing shall not apply for purposes of the representations and warranties in Sections 3.3(b), 3.4, 4.3(b) or 4.4) or actions expressly required by this Agreement or that are taken with the prior written consent of the other party in contemplation of the transactions contemplated hereby, or (F) a decline in the trading price of a party’s common stock or the failure, in and of itself, to meet earnings projections or internal financial forecasts, but not, in either case, including any underlying causes thereof; except, with respect to subclauses (A), (B), (C) or (D), to the extent that the effects of such change are materially disproportionately adverse to the business, properties, assets, liabilities, results of operations or financial condition of such party and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other companies in the industry in which such party and its Subsidiaries operate) or (ii) the ability of such party to timely consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. As used in this Agreement, the term “Pandemic” means any outbreaks, epidemics or pandemics relating to SARS-CoV-2 or COVID-19, or any evolutions or mutations thereof, or any other viruses (including influenza), and the governmental and other responses thereto; the term “Pandemic Measures” means any quarantine, “shelter in place”, “stay at home”, workforce reduction, social distancing, shut down, closure, sequester or other directives, guidelines or recommendations promulgated by any Governmental Entity, including the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the World Health Organization, in each case, in connection with or in response to the Pandemic; and the term “Subsidiary,” when used with respect to any person, means any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, bank or other organization, whether incorporated or unincorporated, which is consolidated with such person for financial reporting purposes. True and complete copies of the articles of incorporation of TCF, as amended (the “TCF Articles”) and the bylaws of TCF, as amended (the “TCF Bylaws”), as in effect as of the date of this Agreement, have previously been made available by TCF to Huntington.

(b) Except, in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii) only, as would not reasonably be likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on TCF, each Subsidiary of TCF (a “TCF Subsidiary”) (i) is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization, (ii) is duly licensed or qualified to do business and, where such concept is recognized under applicable law, in good standing in all jurisdictions (whether federal, state, local or foreign) where its ownership, leasing or operation of property or the conduct of its business requires it to be so licensed or qualified or in good standing and (iii) has all requisite corporate power and authority to own, lease or operate its properties and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted. There are no restrictions on the ability of any Subsidiary of TCF to pay dividends or distributions, except, in the case of a Subsidiary that is a regulated entity, for restrictions on dividends or distributions generally applicable to all such regulated entities. The deposit accounts of each Subsidiary of TCF that is an insured depository institution are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the “FDIC”) through the Deposit Insurance Fund (as defined in Section 3(y) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act of 1950) to the fullest extent permitted by law, all premiums and assessments required to be paid in connection therewith have been paid when due, and no proceedings for the termination of such insurance are pending or, to the knowledge of TCF, threatened. Section 3.1(b) of the TCF Disclosure Schedule sets forth a true and complete list of all Subsidiaries of TCF as of the date hereof.

3.2 Capitalization.

(a) The authorized capital stock of TCF consists of 220,000,000 shares of TCF Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share, and 2,000,000 shares of TCF preferred stock, no par value. As of December 11, 2020, no shares of capital stock or other voting securities of TCF are issued, reserved for issuance or outstanding, other than (i) 152,513,530 shares of TCF Common Stock issued and outstanding, which number includes 505,740 shares of TCF Common Stock granted in respect of outstanding TCF Restricted Stock Awards and 46,320 shares of TCF Common Stock granted in respect of outstanding TCF Deferred Stock Awards, (ii) 460,084 shares of TCF Common Stock reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding TCF Stock Options, (iii) 2,206,626 shares of TCF Common Stock reserved for issuance upon the settlement of outstanding TCF Restricted Stock Unit Awards (assuming that performance with respect to performance-vesting TCF Restricted Stock Unit Awards is achieved at maximum performance), (iv) 7,000 shares of TCF Preferred Stock issued and outstanding and (v) 2,361,208 shares of TCF Common Stock reserved for issuance for future grants under the TCF Stock Plans. As of the date of this Agreement, except as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence and for changes since December 11, 2020 resulting from the exercise, vesting or settlement of any TCF Equity Awards described in the immediately preceding sentence, there are no shares of capital stock or other voting securities or equity interests of TCF issued, reserved for issuance or outstanding. All of the issued and outstanding shares of TCF Common Stock and TCF Preferred Stock have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid, nonassessable and free of preemptive rights, with no personal liability attaching to the ownership thereof. No bonds, debentures, notes or other indebtedness that have the right to vote on any matters on which shareholders of TCF may vote are issued or outstanding. Except as set forth in 3.2(a) of the TCF Disclosure Schedule, as of the date of this Agreement, no trust preferred or subordinated debt securities of TCF are issued or outstanding. Other than TCF Equity Awards issued prior to the date of this Agreement as described in this Section 3.2(a), as of the date of this Agreement, there are no outstanding subscriptions, options, warrants, puts, calls, rights, exchangeable or convertible securities or other commitments or agreements obligating TCF to issue, transfer, sell, purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any such securities.

(b) There are no voting trusts, shareholder agreements, proxies or other agreements in effect pursuant to which TCF or any of the TCF Subsidiaries has a contractual or other obligation with respect to the voting or transfer of TCF Common Stock or other equity interests of TCF. Other than the TCF Equity Awards, no equity-based awards (including any cash awards where the amount of payment is determined in whole or in part based on the price of any capital stock of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries) are outstanding. TCF has paid or made due provision for the payment of all dividends payable on the outstanding shares of TCF Preferred Stock through the most recent scheduled dividend payment date therefor, and has complied in all material respects with terms and conditions thereof.

(c) TCF owns, directly or indirectly, all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock or other equity ownership interests of each of the TCF Subsidiaries, free and clear of any liens, pledges, charges, encumbrances and security interests whatsoever (“Liens”), and all of such shares or equity ownership interests are duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid, nonassessable (except, with respect to TCF Subsidiaries that are insured depository institutions, as provided under 12 U.S.C. § 55 or any comparable provision of applicable state law) and free of preemptive rights, with no personal liability attaching to the ownership thereof. No TCF Subsidiary has or is bound by any outstanding subscriptions, options, warrants, calls, rights, commitments or agreements of any character calling for the purchase or issuance of any shares of capital stock or any other equity security of such Subsidiary or any securities representing the right to purchase or otherwise receive any shares of capital stock or any other equity security of such Subsidiary.

3.3 Authority: No Violation.

(a) TCF has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the Merger have been duly and validly approved by the Board of Directors of TCF. The Board of Directors of TCF has determined that the Merger, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, is advisable and in the best interests of TCF and has directed that this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby be submitted to TCF’s shareholders for approval at a duly held meeting of such shareholders and has adopted a resolution to the foregoing effect. Except for the approval of this Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of TCF Common Stock entitled to vote on this Agreement (the “Requisite TCF Vote”), and the adoption and approval of the Bank Merger Agreement by the board of directors of TCF National Bank and TCF as its sole shareholder, no other corporate proceedings on the part of TCF are necessary to approve this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. No vote of holders of TCF Preferred Stock is required to approve this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby in accordance with Section 703a(2)(e) of the MBCA, and the Board of Directors of TCF has made the determination referenced therein. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by TCF and (assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by Huntington) constitutes a valid and binding obligation of TCF, enforceable against TCF in accordance with its terms (except in all cases as such enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, moratorium, reorganization or similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting insured depository institutions or their parent companies or the rights of creditors generally and subject to general principles of equity (the “Enforceability Exceptions”).

(b) Subject to the receipt of the Requisite TCF Vote, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by TCF nor the consummation by TCF of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by TCF with any of the terms or provisions hereof, will (i) violate any provision of the TCF Articles or the TCF Bylaws or comparable governing documents of any TCF Subsidiary or (ii) assuming that the consents, approvals and filings referred to in Section 3.4 are duly obtained and/or made, (x) violate any law, statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, decree or injunction applicable to TCF or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective properties or assets or (y) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of

3.4 Consents and Approvals. Except for (a) the filing of any required applications, filings and notices, as applicable, with the NASDAQ, (b) the filing of any required applications, filings and notices, as applicable, with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Federal Reserve Board”) under the BHC Act and approval or regulatory waiver of such applications, filings and notices, (c) the filing of any required applications, filings and notices, as applicable, with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the “OCC”) in connection with the Bank Merger, including under the Bank Merger Act, and approval of such applications, filings and notices, (d) the filing of any required applications, filings or notices listed on Section 3.4 of the TCF Disclosure Schedule or Section 4.4 of the Huntington Disclosure Schedule and approval or non-objection, as applicable, of such applications, filings and notices, (e) the filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) of a joint proxy statement in definitive form relating to the meetings of TCF’s and Huntington’s shareholders to be held in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including any amendments or supplements thereto, the “Joint Proxy Statement”), and of the registration statement on Form S-4 in which the Joint Proxy Statement will be included as a prospectus, to be filed with the SEC by Huntington in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the “S-4”) and declaration of effectiveness of the S-4, (f) the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Michigan Department pursuant to the MBCA, the filing of the Articles of Merger with the Maryland Department pursuant to the MGCL and the filing of the Bank Merger Certificates with the applicable Governmental Entities as required by applicable law, (g) the filing with, and acceptance for record by, the Maryland Department of the Huntington Charter Amendment and Articles Supplementary for the New Huntington Preferred Stock, and (h) such filings and approvals as are required to be made or obtained under the securities or “Blue Sky” laws of various states in connection with the issuance of the shares of Huntington Common Stock and the New Huntington Preferred Stock (or depositary shares in respect thereof) pursuant to this Agreement and the approval of the listing of such Huntington Common Stock and New Huntington Preferred Stock (or depositary shares in respect thereof) on the NASDAQ, no consents or approvals of or filings or registrations with any court or administrative agency or commission or other governmental authority or instrumentality or SRO (each a “Governmental Entity”) are necessary in connection with (i) the execution and delivery by TCF of this Agreement or (ii) the consummation by TCF of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby (including the Bank Merger). As used in this Agreement, “SRO” means (A) any “self-regulatory organization” as defined in Section 3(a)(26) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) and (B) any other United States or foreign securities exchange, futures exchange, commodities exchange or contract market. As of the date hereof, TCF is not aware of any reason why the necessary regulatory approvals and consents will not be received in order to permit consummation of the Merger and Bank Merger on a timely basis.

3.5 Reports.

(a) TCF and each of its Subsidiaries have timely filed (or furnished, as applicable) all reports, registrations and statements, together with any amendments required to be made with respect thereto, that they were required to file (or furnish, as applicable) since January 1, 2018 with (i) any state regulatory authority, (ii) the SEC, (iii) the Federal Reserve Board, (iv) the FDIC, (v) the OCC, (vi) any foreign regulatory authority and (vii) any SRO ((i) – (vii), collectively, “Regulatory Agencies”), including any report, registration or statement required to be filed (or furnished, as applicable) pursuant to the laws, rules or regulations of the United States, any state, any foreign entity, or any Regulatory Agency, and have paid all fees and assessments due and payable in connection therewith, except where the failure to file such report, registration or statement or to pay such fees and assessments, either individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on TCF. its Subsidiaries, no Regulatory Agency has initiated or has pending any proceeding or, to the knowledge of TCF, investigation into the business or operations of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries since January 1, 2018, except where such proceedings or investigations would not reasonably be likely to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on TCF. Subject to Section 9.7, there (x) is no unresolved violation, criticism, or exception by any Regulatory Agency with respect to any report or statement relating to any examinations or inspections of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries, and (y) has been no formal or informal inquiries by, or disagreements or disputes with, any Regulatory Agency with respect to the business, operations, policies or procedures of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries since January 1, 2018, in each case of clauses (x) and (y), which would reasonably be likely to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on TCF.

(b) An accurate and complete copy of each final registration statement, prospectus, report, schedule and definitive proxy statement filed with or furnished to the SEC by TCF or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, since January 1, 2018 (the “TCF Reports”) is publicly available. No such TCF Report, at the time filed, furnished or communicated (and, in the case of registration statements and proxy statements, on the dates of effectiveness and the dates of the relevant meetings, respectively), contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances in which they were made, not misleading, except that information filed or furnished as of a later date (but before the date of this Agreement) shall be deemed to modify information as of an earlier date. As of their respective dates, all TCF Reports filed or furnished under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act complied in all material respects with the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto. As of the date of this Agreement, no executive officer of TCF has failed in any respect to make the certifications required of him or her under Section 302 or 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. As of the date of this Agreement, there are no outstanding comments from or material unresolved issues raised by the SEC with respect to any of the TCF Reports.

3.6 Financial Statements.

(a) The financial statements of TCF and its Subsidiaries included (or incorporated by reference) in the TCF Reports (including the related notes, where applicable) (i) have been prepared from, and are in accordance with, the books and records of TCF and its Subsidiaries in all material respects, (ii) fairly present in all material respects the consolidated results of operations, cash flows, changes in shareholders’ equity and consolidated financial position of TCF and its Subsidiaries for the respective fiscal periods or as of the respective dates therein set forth (subject in the case of unaudited statements to year-end audit adjustments normal in nature and amount), (iii) complied, as of their respective dates of filing with the SEC, in all material respects with applicable accounting requirements and with the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto, and (iv) have been prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied during the periods involved, except, in each case, as indicated in such statements or in the notes thereto. (b) Except as would not reasonably be likely to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on TCF, neither TCF nor any of its Subsidiaries has any liability of any nature whatsoever (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise and whether due or to become due) required by GAAP to be included on a consolidated balance sheet of TCF, except for those liabilities that are reflected or reserved against on the consolidated balance sheet of TCF included in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2020 (including any notes thereto) and for liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice since September 30, 2020, or in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) The records, systems, controls, data and information of TCF and its Subsidiaries are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and direct control of TCF or its Subsidiaries or accountants (including all means of access thereto and therefrom), except for any TCF (i) has implemented and maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Exchange Act) to ensure that material information relating to TCF, including its Subsidiaries, is made known to the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of TCF by others within those entities as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures and to make the certifications required by the Exchange Act and Sections 302 and 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the “Sarbanes-Oxley Act”), and (ii) has disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation prior to the date hereof, to TCF’s outside auditors and the audit committee of TCF’s Board of Directors (x) any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Exchange Act) which are reasonably likely to adversely affect TCF’s ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information, and (y) to the knowledge of TCF, any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in TCF’s internal controls over financial reporting. These disclosures were made in writing by management to TCF’s auditors and audit committee and true, correct and complete copies of such disclosures have been made available to Huntington. To the knowledge of TCF, there is no reason to believe that TCF’s outside auditors and its chief executive officer and chief financial officer will not be able to give the certifications and attestations required pursuant to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, without qualification, when next due.

(d) Since January 1, 2018, (i) neither TCF nor any of its Subsidiaries, nor, to the knowledge of TCF, any director, officer, auditor, accountant or representative of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries, has received or otherwise had or obtained knowledge of any material complaint, allegation, assertion or claim, whether written or, to the knowledge of TCF, oral, regarding the accounting or auditing practices, procedures, methodologies or methods (including with respect to loan loss reserves, write-downs, charge-offs and accruals) of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective internal accounting controls, including any material complaint, allegation, assertion or written claim that TCF or any of its Subsidiaries has engaged in questionable accounting or auditing practices, and (ii) no employee of or attorney representing TCF or any of its Subsidiaries, whether or not employed or retained by TCF or any of its Subsidiaries, has reported evidence of a material violation of securities laws, breach of fiduciary duty or similar violation by TCF or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective officers, directors, employees or agents to the Board of Directors of TCF or any committee thereof or similar governing body of any TCF Subsidiary or any committee thereof, or, to the knowledge of TCF, to any director or officer of TCF or any TCF Subsidiary.

3.8 Absence of Certain Changes or Events.

(b) Since December 31, 2019 through the date of this Agreement, except with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby, TCF and its Subsidiaries have carried on their respective businesses in all material respects in the ordinary course. 3.9 Legal Proceedings.

(a) Neither TCF nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any, and there are no pending or, to the knowledge of TCF, threatened, legal, administrative, arbitral or other proceedings, claims, actions or governmental or regulatory investigations of any nature against TCF or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their current or former directors or executive officers (i) that would reasonably be likely to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on TCF, or (ii) of a material nature challenging the validity or propriety of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) There is no material injunction, order, judgment, decree, or regulatory restriction imposed upon TCF, any of its Subsidiaries or the assets of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries (or that, upon consummation of the Merger, would apply to the Surviving Corporation or any of its affiliates).

3.10 Taxes and Tax Returns.

(a) Each of TCF and its Subsidiaries has duly and timely filed (taking into account all applicable extensions) all material Tax Returns in all jurisdictions in which Tax Returns are required to be filed by it, and all such Tax Returns are true, correct, and complete in all material respects. Neither TCF nor any of its Subsidiaries is the beneficiary of any extension of time within which to file any material Tax Return. All material Taxes of TCF and its Subsidiaries (whether or not shown on any Tax Returns) that are due have been fully and timely paid. Each of TCF and its Subsidiaries has withheld and paid all material Taxes required to have been withheld and paid in connection with amounts paid or owing to any employee, creditor, shareholder, independent contractor or other third party. Neither TCF nor any of its Subsidiaries has granted any extension or waiver of the limitation period applicable to any material Tax that remains in effect. The federal income Tax Returns of TCF and its Subsidiaries for all years up to and including the tax year ended December 31, 2016 have been examined by the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) or are Tax Returns with respect to which the applicable period for assessment under applicable law, after giving effect to extensions or waivers, has expired. (c) Except as would not reasonably be likely to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on TCF, each outstanding Loan of TCF or its Subsidiaries (including Loans held for resale to investors) was solicited and originated, and is and has been administered and, where applicable, serviced, and the relevant Loan files are being maintained, in all material respects, in accordance with the relevant notes or other credit or security documents, the applicable written underwriting standards of TCF and its Subsidiaries (and, in the case of Loans held for resale to investors, the applicable underwriting standards, if any, of the applicable investors) and with all applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations and rules.

(d) None of the agreements pursuant to which TCF or any of its Subsidiaries has sold Loans or pools of Loans or participations in Loans or pools of Loans contains any obligation to repurchase such Loans or interests therein solely on account of a payment default (other than early payment defaults) by the obligor on any such Loan.

Except (i) as disclosed in the disclosure schedule delivered by Huntington to TCF concurrently herewith (the “Huntington Disclosure Schedule”); provided, that (a) no such item is required to be set forth as an exception to a representation or warranty if its absence would not result in the related representation or warranty being deemed untrue or incorrect, (b) the mere inclusion of an item in the Huntington Disclosure Schedule as an exception to a representation or warranty shall not be deemed an admission by Huntington that such item represents a material exception or fact, event or circumstance or that such item is reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and (c) any disclosures made with respect to a section of this Article IV shall be deemed to qualify (1) any other section of this Article IV specifically referenced or cross-referenced and (2) other sections of this Article IV to the extent it is reasonably apparent on its face (notwithstanding the absence of a specific cross reference) from a reading of the disclosure that such disclosure applies to such other sections or (ii) as disclosed in any Huntington Reports publicly filed prior to the date hereof (but disregarding risk factor disclosures contained under the heading “Risk Factors,” or disclosures of risks set forth in any “forward-looking statements” disclaimer or any other statements that are similarly non-specific or cautionary, predictive or forward-looking in nature), Huntington hereby represents and warrants to TCF as follows:

There are no restrictions on the ability of any Subsidiary of Huntington to pay dividends or distributions, except, in the case of a Subsidiary that is a regulated entity, for restrictions on dividends or distributions generally applicable to all such regulated entities. ARTICLE VI

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

6.1 Regulatory Matters.

(a) Huntington and TCF shall promptly prepare and file with the SEC the Joint Proxy Statement and Huntington shall promptly prepare and file with the SEC the S-4, in which the Joint Proxy Statement will be included as a prospectus. Huntington and TCF, as applicable, shall use reasonable best efforts to make such filings within forty-five (45) days of the date of this Agreement. The S-4 shall also, to the extent required under the Securities Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder, register the shares of New Huntington Preferred Stock (or depositary shares in lieu thereof) that will be issued in the transaction. Each of Huntington and TCF shall use their reasonable best efforts to have the S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing and to keep the S-4 effective for so long as necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and Huntington and TCF shall thereafter mail or deliver the Joint Proxy Statement to their respective shareholders. Huntington shall also use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or "Blue Sky" permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as practicable, and TCF shall furnish all information concerning TCF and the holders of TCF Common Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(b) The parties hereto shall cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings (and in the case of the applications, notices, petitions and filings required to obtain the Requisite Regulatory Approvals, use their reasonable best efforts to make such filings within forty-five (45) days of the date of this Agreement), to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger and the Bank Merger), and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties and Governmental Entities. Huntington and TCF shall each use, and shall each cause their applicable Subsidiaries to use, reasonable best efforts to obtain each such Requisite Regulatory Approval and any approvals required for the Bank Merger as promptly as reasonably practicable. The parties shall cooperate with each other in connection therewith (including the furnishing of any information and any reasonable undertaking or commitments that may be required to obtain the Requisite Regulatory Approvals) and shall respond as promptly as practicable to the requests of Governmental Entities for documents and information. Huntington and TCF shall have the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, all the information relating to TCF or Huntington, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, which appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties hereto shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party will provide the other with copies of any applications and all correspondence relating thereto prior to filing and with sufficient opportunity to comment, other than any portions of material filed in connection therewith that contain competitively sensitive business or other proprietary information or confidential supervisory information filed under a claim of confidentiality. The parties hereto agree that they will consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated herein. Each party shall consult with the other in advance of any meeting or conference with any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Entity, give the other party and/or its counsel the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences; and provided, that each party shall promptly advise the other party with respect to substantive matters that are addressed in any meeting or conference with any Governmental Entity which the other party does not attend or participate in, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Entity and applicable law.

(c) In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of Huntington and TCF shall use its reasonable best efforts to (i) avoid the entry of, or to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that would restrain, prevent or delay the Closing, and (ii) avoid or eliminate each and every impediment so as to enable the Closing to occur as soon as possible, including proposing, negotiating, committing to and effecting, by consent decree, hold separate order, or otherwise, the sale, divestiture or disposition of businesses or assets of Huntington, TCF and their respective Subsidiaries. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to require Huntington or TCF or any of their respective Subsidiaries, and neither Huntington nor TCF nor any of their respective Subsidiaries shall be permitted (without the written consent of the other party), to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with the foregoing or obtaining any permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of Governmental Entities that would reasonably be likely to have a material adverse effect on the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the Merger (a “Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition”).

(d) Huntington and TCF shall, upon request, furnish each other with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Joint Proxy Statement, the S-4 or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Huntington, TCF or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger, the Bank Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each of Huntington and TCF agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it specifically for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the S-4 will, at the time the S-4 and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, is filed and becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, (ii) the Joint Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the time of filing and the date of mailing to the respective shareholders of TCF or Huntington and at the time of the Huntington Meeting and the TCF Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which such statement was made, not misleading, and (iii) any applications, notices and filings required in order to obtain the Requisite Regulatory Approvals will, at the time each is filed, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading. Each of Huntington and TCF further agrees that if it becomes aware that any information furnished by it would cause any of the statements in the S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take appropriate steps to correct the S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement.

(e) Huntington and TCF shall promptly advise each other upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Entity whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Requisite Regulatory Approval will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval will be materially delayed.

(f) Without limiting the generality of this Section 6.1, TCF shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, reasonably cooperate with Huntington and its Subsidiaries (including the furnishing of information and by making employees reasonably available) as is reasonably requested by Huntington in order to comply with the requirements of the Comprehensive Capital Analysis and Review and Dodd-Frank Act Stress Testing programs.

6.2 Access to Information.

(a) Subject to Section 9.7, upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws (including the Pandemic Measures), each of Huntington and TCF, for the purposes of verifying the representations and warranties of the other and preparing for the Merger and the other matters contemplated by this Agreement, shall, and shall cause each of their respective Subsidiaries to, afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel, advisors and other representatives of the other party, access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to all its properties, books, contracts, personnel, information technology systems, and records, and each shall reasonably cooperate with the other party in preparing to execute after the Effective Time the conversion or consolidation of systems and business operations generally (including by entering into customary confidentiality, non-disclosure and similar agreements with such service providers and/or the other party), and, during such period, during normal business hours and in a manner so as not to interfere with normal business operations, each of Huntington and TCF shall, and shall cause its respective Subsidiaries to, make available to the other party such information concerning its business, properties and personnel as such party may reasonably request. Each party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with the other party’s regular business operations during any such access. Neither Huntington nor TCF nor any of their respective Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights of Huntington's or TCF's, as the case may be, customers, jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the institution in possession or control of such information (after giving due consideration to the existence of any common interest, joint defense or similar agreement between the parties) or contravene any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement or to the extent that TCF or Huntington, as the case may be, reasonably determines, in light of the Pandemic or the Pandemic Measures that such access would jeopardize the health and safety of any of its employees. The parties hereto will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) Each of Huntington and TCF shall hold all information furnished by or on behalf of the other party or any of such party's Subsidiaries or representatives pursuant to Section 6.2(a) in confidence to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the provisions of the confidentiality agreement, dated November 20, 2020, between Huntington and TCF (the "Confidentiality Agreement").

(c) No investigation by either of the parties or their respective representatives shall affect or be deemed to modify or waive the representations and warranties of the other set forth herein. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give either party, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of the other party prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, each party shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

6.3 TCF Shareholder Approval.

(a) TCF shall take, in accordance with applicable law and the TCF Articles and TCF Bylaws, all actions necessary to convene a meeting of its shareholders (the "TCF Meeting") to be held as soon as reasonably practicable after the S-4 is declared effective for the purpose of obtaining the Requisite TCF Vote required in connection with this Agreement and the Merger. Except in the case of a TCF Adverse Recommendation Change, the Board of Directors of TCF shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from the shareholders of TCF the Requisite TCF Vote, including by communicating to its shareholders its recommendation (and including such recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement) that they approve this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (the "TCF Board Recommendation") and shall not make a TCF Adverse Recommendation Change except in accordance with this Section 6.3. TCF shall engage a proxy solicitor reasonably acceptable to Huntington to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to the Requisite TCF Vote. However, subject to Section 8.1 and Section 8.2, if the Board of Directors of TCF, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement and the Merger, then, prior to the receipt of the Requisite TCF Vote, in submitting this Agreement and the Merger to its shareholders, the Board of Directors of TCF may withhold or withdraw or modify or qualify in a manner adverse to Huntington the TCF Board Recommendation or may submit this Agreement and the Merger to its shareholders without recommendation (each, a "TCF Adverse Recommendation Change") (although the resolutions approving this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Board of Directors of TCF may communicate the basis for its TCF Adverse Recommendation Change to its shareholders in the Joint Proxy Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto; provided, that the Board of Directors of TCF may not take any actions under this sentence unless (i) it gives Huntington at least three (3) business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action (including, in the event such action is taken by the Board of Directors of TCF in response to a TCF Acquisition Proposal, the latest material terms and conditions and the identity of the third party in any such TCF Acquisition Proposal, or any amendment or modification thereof, or describe in reasonable detail such other event or circumstances) and (ii) at the end of such notice period, the Board of Directors of TCF takes into account any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by Huntington and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would nevertheless more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement and the Merger. Any material amendment to any TCF Acquisition Proposal will be deemed to be a new TCF Acquisition Proposal for purposes of this Section 6.3 and will require a new notice period as referred to in this Section 6.3.

(b) Except in the case of a TCF Adverse Recommendation Change, TCF shall adjourn or postpone the TCF Meeting, if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled, there are insufficient shares of TCF Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting, TCF has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to obtain the Requisite TCF Vote. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, the TCF Meeting shall be convened and this Agreement and the Merger shall be submitted to the shareholders of TCF at the TCF Meeting, for the purpose of voting on the approval of this Agreement and the Merger and the other matters contemplated hereby, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve TCF of such obligation. TCF shall only be required to adjourn or postpone the TCF Meeting two (2) times pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6.3(b).

6.4 Huntington Shareholder Approval.

(a) Huntington shall take, in accordance with applicable law and the Huntington Articles and Huntington Bylaws, all actions necessary to convene a meeting of its shareholders (the "Huntington Meeting") to be held as soon as reasonably practicable after the S-4 is declared effective for the purpose of obtaining the Requisite Huntington Vote required in connection with this Agreement and the Merger. Except in the case of a Huntington Adverse Recommendation Change, the Board of Directors of Huntington shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from the shareholders of Huntington the Requisite Huntington Vote, including by communicating to its shareholders its recommendation (and including such recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement) that they approve the Merger and the Huntington Charter Amendment (the "Huntington Board Recommendation") and shall not make a Huntington Adverse Recommendation Change except in accordance with this Section 6.4. Huntington shall engage a proxy solicitor reasonably acceptable to TCF to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to the Requisite Huntington Vote. However, subject to Section 8.1 and Section 8.2, if the Board of Directors of Huntington, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement and the Merger, then, prior to the receipt of the Requisite Huntington Vote, in submitting this Agreement and the Merger to its shareholders, the Board of Directors of Huntington may withhold or withdraw or modify or qualify in a manner adverse to TCF the Huntington Board Recommendation or may submit this Agreement and the Merger to its shareholders without recommendation (each, a "Huntington Adverse Recommendation Change") (although the resolutions approving this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Board of Directors of Huntington may communicate the basis for its Huntington Adverse Recommendation Change to its shareholders in the Joint Proxy Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto; provided, that the Board of Directors of Huntington may not take any actions under this sentence unless (i) it gives TCF at least three (3) business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action and (ii) at the end of such notice period, the Board of Directors of Huntington takes into account any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by TCF and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would nevertheless more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement and the Merger.

(b) Except in the case of a Huntington Adverse Recommendation Change, Huntington shall adjourn or postpone the Huntington Meeting, if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled, there are insufficient shares of Huntington Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting, Huntington has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to obtain the Requisite Huntington Vote. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, the Huntington Meeting shall be convened and this Agreement and the Merger shall be submitted to the shareholders of Huntington at the Huntington Meeting, for the purpose of voting on the approval of the Merger and the other matters contemplated hereby, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Huntington of such obligation. Huntington shall only be required to adjourn or postpone the Huntington Meeting two (2) times pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6.4(b). Each of TCF and Huntington shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the TCF Meeting and the Huntington Meeting to occur as soon as reasonably practicable and on the same date.

6.5 Legal Conditions to Merger. Subject in all respects to Section 6.1 of this Agreement, each of Huntington and TCF shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts, in each case as promptly as practicable, (a) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal and regulatory requirements that may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Merger and the Bank Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in Article VII hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (b) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other party to obtain) any material consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity and any other third party that is required to be obtained by TCF or Huntington or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger, the Bank Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.6 Stock Exchange Listing. Huntington shall cause the shares of Huntington Common Stock and New Huntington Preferred Stock (or depositary shares in respect thereof) to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

6.7 Employee Matters.

(a) Huntington shall provide the employees of TCF and its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time (the “Continuing Employees”), during the periods specified below for so long as they are employed following the Effective Time, with the following: (i) during the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on the first anniversary thereof, annual base salary or wages, as applicable, that are no less than the annual base salary or wages in effect for each such Continuing Employee immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) during the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on December 31, 2021, (A) target incentive opportunities (excluding equity-based awards but including any annual or short term cash incentive) that are no less favorable than those provided to each such Continuing Employee immediately prior to the Effective Time, and (B) employee benefits (other than severance) that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to such Continuing Employees immediately prior to the Effective Time; and (iii) during the period commencing on January 1, 2022 and ending on the first anniversary of the Effective Time, (A) target incentive opportunities (including equity-based awards) that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees of Huntington and its Subsidiaries, and (B) employee benefits (other than severance) that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees of Huntington and its Subsidiaries (excluding any frozen benefit plans of Huntington and its Subsidiaries or benefit plans that exclusively provide benefits to grandfathered employees of Huntington and its Subsidiaries); provided, that until such time as Huntington fully integrates the Continuing Employees into its plans, participation in the TCF Benefit Plans shall be deemed to satisfy the foregoing standards, it being understood that the Continuing Employees may commence participating in the plans of Huntington and its Subsidiaries on different dates following the Effective Time with respect to different benefit plans. For a period beginning at the Effective Time and continuing through the first anniversary thereof, each Continuing Employee who is not party to an individual agreement providing for severance or termination benefits and is terminated under severance qualifying circumstances shall be eligible to receive severance benefits as set forth on Section 6.7(a) of the TCF Disclosure Schedule, subject to such employee’s execution (and non-revocation) of a release of claims.

(b) With respect to any employee benefit plans of Huntington or its Subsidiaries in which any Continuing Employees become eligible to participate on or after the Effective Time (the “New Plans”), Huntington and its Subsidiaries shall: (i) waive all pre-existing conditions, exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to such employees and their eligible dependents under any New Plans, except to the extent such pre-existing conditions, exclusions or waiting periods would apply under the analogous TCF Benefit Plan, (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to provide each such employee and their eligible dependents with credit for any co-payments or coinsurance and deductibles paid prior to the Effective Time under a TCF Benefit Plan that provides health care benefits (including medical, dental and vision), to the same extent that such credit was given under the analogous

TCF Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time, in satisfying any applicable deductible, co-payment, coinsurance or maximum out-of-pocket requirements under any New Plans, and (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to recognize all service of such employees with TCF and its Subsidiaries for all purposes in any New Plan to the same extent that such service was taken into account under the analogous TCF Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time; provided, that the foregoing service recognition shall not apply (A) to the extent it would result in duplication of benefits for the same period of service, (B) for purposes of any defined benefit pension plan, (C) for purposes of any benefit plan that is a frozen plan or provides grandfathered benefits, or (D) for purposes of any equity incentive awards granted by Huntington.

(c) Effective as of the Effective Time, Huntington agrees to assume and honor all TCF Benefit Plans in accordance with their terms as of the date hereof, it being understood that this sentence shall not be construed to limit the ability of Huntington or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates to amend or terminate any TCF Benefit Plan to the extent that such amendment or termination is permitted by the terms of the applicable plan. Huntington and TCF shall take the actions necessary to implement the commitments set forth in Section 6.7(c) of the Huntington Disclosure Schedule.

(d) If requested by Huntington in writing at least twenty (20) business days prior to the Effective Time, TCF shall cause any 401(k) plan sponsored or maintained by TCF (the "TCF 401(k) Plan") to be terminated effective as of the day immediately prior to the Effective Time and contingent upon the occurrence of the Closing. In the event that Huntington requests that any TCF 401(k) Plan be terminated, the Continuing Employees shall be eligible to participate, effective as of the Effective Time, in a 401(k) plan sponsored or maintained by Huntington or one of its Subsidiaries (a "Huntington 401(k) Plan"). TCF and Huntington shall take any and all actions as may be required, including amendments to the TCF 401(k) Plan and/or Huntington 401(k) Plan to permit the Continuing Employees who are then actively employed to make rollover contributions to the Huntington 401(k) Plan of "eligible rollover distributions" (with the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code) in the form of cash, notes (in the case of loans) or a combination thereof. TCF shall provide Huntington with evidence that the TCF 401(k) Plan has been terminated or amended, as applicable, in accordance with this Section 6.7(d); provided, that prior to amending or terminating the TCF 401(k) Plan, TCF shall provide the form and substance of any applicable resolutions or amendments to Huntington for review and approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(e) On and after the date hereof, any broad-based employee notices or communication materials (including any website posting) to be provided or communicated by TCF with respect to employment, compensation or benefits matters addressed in this Agreement or related, directly or indirectly, to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the prior prompt review and comment of Huntington, and TCF shall consider in good faith revising such notice or communication to reflect any comments or advice that Huntington timely provides.

(f) Nothing in this Agreement shall confer upon any employee, officer, director or consultant of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates any right to continue in the employ or service of the Surviving Corporation, TCF, Huntington, or any Subsidiary or affiliate thereof, or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Surviving Corporation, TCF, Huntington or any Subsidiary or affiliate thereof to discharge or terminate the services of any employee, officer, director or consultant of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to (i) establish, amend, or modify any TCF Benefit Plan, New Plan or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement, or (ii) alter or limit the ability of the Huntington or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates to amend, modify or terminate any particular TCF Benefit Plan, New Plan or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement after the Effective Time. Without limiting the generality of Section 9.12, nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any person, including any current or former employee, officer, director or consultant of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates, any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

6.8 Indemnification: Directors' and Officers' Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each present and former director, officer or employee of

TCF and its Subsidiaries (in each case, when acting in such capacity) (collectively, the “TCF Indemnified Parties”) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines, losses, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, whether arising before or after the Effective Time, arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to, the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries as a director or officer of another person and pertaining to matters, acts or omissions existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, including matters, acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and the Surviving Corporation shall also advance expenses as incurred by the TCF Indemnified Party to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law; provided, that in the case of advancement of expenses the TCF Indemnified Party to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking (in a reasonable and customary form) to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such TCF Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification.

(b) For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall maintain in effect the current policies of directors’ and officers’ liability insurance maintained by TCF (provided, that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims against the present and former officers and directors of TCF or any of its Subsidiaries arising from facts or events which occurred at or before the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement); provided, however, that the Surviving Corporation shall not be obligated to expend, on an annual basis, an amount in excess of 300% of the current annual premium paid as of the date hereof by TCF for such insurance (the “Premium Cap”), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed the Premium Cap, then the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance that, in its good faith determination, provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to the Premium Cap. In lieu of the foregoing, TCF, in consultation with, but only upon the consent of Huntington, may (and at the request of Huntington, TCF shall use its reasonable best efforts to) obtain at or prior to the Effective Time a six-year “tail” policy under TCF’s existing directors’ and officers’ insurance policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in the preceding sentence if and to the extent that the same may be obtained for an amount that, in the aggregate, does not exceed the Premium Cap. If TCF purchases such a tail policy, the Surviving Corporation shall maintain such tail policy in full force and effect and continue to honor its obligations thereunder.

(c) The provisions of this Section 6.8 shall survive the Effective Time and are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each TCF Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives. If the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns consolidates with or merges into any other entity and is not the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger, transfers all or substantially all of its assets or deposits to any other entity or engages in any similar transaction, then in each case, the Surviving Corporation will cause proper provision to be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation will expressly assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.8.

(d) The obligations of the Surviving Corporation, Huntington and TCF under this Section 6.8 shall not be terminated or modified in a manner so as to adversely affect any TCF Indemnified Party or any other person entitled to the benefit of this Section 6.8 without the prior written consent of the affected person.

6.9 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest Huntington or the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Merger, the then current officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and their respective Subsidiaries shall take, or cause to be taken, all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by the other party, at the expense of the party who makes any such request.

6.10 Advice of Changes. Huntington and TCF shall each promptly advise the other party of any effect, change, event, circumstance, condition, occurrence or development known to it (i) that has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on it or (ii) which it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained herein or that reasonably could be expected to give rise, individually or in the aggregate, to the failure of a condition in Article VII; provided, that any failure to give notice in accordance with the foregoing with respect to any breach shall not be deemed to constitute a violation of this Section 6.10 or the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.2 or 7.3 to be satisfied, or otherwise constitute a breach of this Agreement by the party failing to give such notice, in each case unless the underlying breach would independently result in a failure of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 or 7.3 to be satisfied; and provided, further, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 6.10 shall not cure any breach of, or noncompliance with, any other provision of this Agreement or limit the remedies available to the party receiving such notice.

6.11 Dividends. After the date of this Agreement, each of Huntington and TCF shall coordinate with the other the declaration of any dividends in respect of Huntington Common Stock and TCF Common Stock and the record dates and payment dates relating thereto, it being the intention of the parties hereto that holders of TCF Common Stock shall not receive two dividends, or fail to receive one dividend, in any quarter with respect to their shares of TCF Common Stock and any shares of Huntington Common Stock any such holder receives in exchange therefor in the Merger.

6.12 Corporate Governance; Foundation.

(a) Huntington shall take all appropriate action so that, as of the Effective Time, the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors of Huntington shall be increased by five (5) for a total of eighteen (18) directors, and five (5) current directors of TCF shall be appointed to the Board of Directors of Huntington (the "TCF Directors"). Each of the TCF Directors shall be designated by TCF, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of Huntington (not to be unreasonably withheld). One TCF Director shall not stand for re-election to the Huntington Board of Directors at Huntington's 2022 annual meeting of shareholders. In addition, as of the effective time of the Bank Merger, Gary Torgow shall be appointed as Chairman of the Board of Directors of The Huntington National Bank. Following the Effective Time, the meetings of the Board of Directors of Huntington and, following the effective time of the Bank Merger, the Board of Directors of The Huntington National Bank shall rotate between (i) Columbus and (ii) Detroit / Minneapolis.

(b) The Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall have dual headquarters for banking operations in Columbus, Ohio, and Detroit, Michigan, with the headquarters of the consumer banking operations of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries being located in Columbus, Ohio and the headquarters of the commercial banking operations of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries being located in Detroit, Michigan. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the headquarters of the Surviving Corporation and the main office of The Huntington National Bank shall be located in Columbus, Ohio. Huntington and TCF (A) agree that it is the intention of the Surviving Corporation to increase total employment in the planned TCF headquarters building located at the corner of Woodward and Elizabeth Streets in Detroit, Michigan to at least eight hundred (800) employees and (B) recognize the continued importance of Minneapolis, Midland and Chicago to the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries.

(c) At or prior to the Closing, Huntington shall contribute $50 million to establish a new Huntington Donor Advised Fund at the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan (the "Foundation"), dedicated to supporting primarily any markets in which Huntington operates. TCF's current Executive Chairman and TCF's current Chief Executive Officer shall recommend and allocate such funds in a manner generally consistent with Huntington's recommended charitable giving guidelines as set forth on Section 6.12(c) of the Huntington Disclosure Schedule, and shall periodically report to Huntington regarding the activities, contributions and grants made by the Foundation. TCF's current Executive Chairman and TCF's current Chief Executive Officer may fully distribute the Foundation's funds over a seven (7) year period from the Closing Date (and shall not fully distribute such funds prior to the end of such period). For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing rights of TCF's current Executive Chairman and TCF's current Chief Executive Officer with respect to the Foundation shall be personal to such individuals and shall not vest or create any rights in any of their successors, heirs or representatives.

6.13 Acquisition Proposals.

(a) TCF shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their officers, directors, agents, advisors and representatives (collectively, "Representatives") not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or proposals with respect to, (ii) engage or participate in any negotiations with any person concerning or (iii) provide any confidential or nonpublic information or data to, or have or participate in any discussions with, any person relating to, any TCF Acquisition Proposal, except to notify a person that has made or, to the knowledge of TCF, is making any inquiries with respect to, or is considering making, a TCF Acquisition Proposal of the existence of the provisions of this Section 6.13(a); provided, that, prior to the receipt of the Requisite TCF Vote, in the event TCF receives an unsolicited bona fide written TCF Acquisition Proposal, it may, and may permit its Subsidiaries and its and its Subsidiaries' Representatives to, furnish or cause to be furnished nonpublic information or data and participate in such negotiations or discussions to the extent that its Board of Directors concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel, and with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors) that failure to take such actions would be more likely than not to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, further, that, prior to or concurrently with providing any nonpublic information permitted to be provided pursuant to the foregoing proviso, TCF shall have provided such information to Huntington, and shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to it than the Confidentiality Agreement, which confidentiality agreement shall not provide such person with any exclusive right to negotiate with TCF. TCF will, and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause its Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of this Agreement with any person other than Huntington with respect to any TCF Acquisition Proposal. TCF will promptly (and in any event within one (1) business day) advise Huntington following receipt of any TCF Acquisition Proposal or any inquiry which could reasonably be expected to lead to a TCF Acquisition Proposal, and the substance thereof (including the material terms and conditions of and the identity of the person making such inquiry or TCF Acquisition Proposal) and will keep Huntington reasonably apprised of any related developments, discussions and negotiations on a current basis, including any amendments to or revisions of the material terms of such inquiry or TCF Acquisition Proposal. TCF shall use its reasonable best efforts, subject to applicable law and the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors of TCF, to enforce any existing confidentiality or standstill agreements to which it or any of its Subsidiaries is a party in accordance with the terms thereof. During the term of this Agreement, TCF shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives not to on its behalf, enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other similar agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement referred to and entered into in accordance with this Section 6.13(a)) relating to any TCF Acquisition Proposal. As used in this Agreement, "TCF Acquisition Proposal" shall mean, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, any offer, inquiry or proposal relating to, or any third party indication of interest in, (i) any acquisition or purchase, direct or indirect, of 25% or more of the consolidated assets of TCF and its Subsidiaries or 25% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of TCF or its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 25% or more of the consolidated assets of TCF, (ii) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in such third party beneficially owning 25% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of TCF or its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 25% or more of the consolidated assets of TCF, or (iii) a merger, consolidation, share exchange or other business combination, reorganization or similar transaction involving TCF or its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 25% or more of the consolidated assets of TCF.

(b) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent either party or its Board of Directors from complying with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 under the Exchange Act with respect to a TCF Acquisition Proposal or Huntington Acquisition Proposal or from making any legally required disclosure to such party's shareholders; provided, that such Rules and disclosures will in no way eliminate or modify the effect that any action pursuant to such Rules or any such disclosures would otherwise have under this Agreement.

6.14 Public Announcements. TCF and Huntington shall each use their reasonable best efforts (a) to develop a joint communications plan, (b) to ensure that all press releases and other public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby shall be consistent with such joint communications plan, and (c) except in respect of (i) any announcement required by applicable law or regulation, or a request by a Governmental Entity, (ii) communications that are substantially similar to communications previously approved pursuant to this Section 6.14, (iii) communications permitted by Section 6.3 or Section 6.4 or (iv) an obligation pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of any securities exchange, TCF and Huntington agree to consult with each other and to obtain the advance approval of the other party (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) before issuing any press release or, to the extent practical, otherwise making any public statement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.15 Change of Method. Huntington may at any time change the method of effecting the Merger if and to the extent requested by Huntington, and TCF agrees to enter into such amendments to this Agreement as Huntington may reasonably request in order to give effect to such restructuring; provided, however, that no such change or amendment shall (i) alter or change the amount or kind of the Merger Consideration provided for in this Agreement, (ii) adversely affect the Tax treatment of the Merger with respect to TCF's shareholders or (iii) be reasonably likely to cause the Closing to be materially delayed or the receipt of the Requisite Regulatory Approvals to be prevented or materially delayed.

6.16 Restructuring Efforts. If either TCF or Huntington shall have failed to obtain the Requisite TCF Vote or the Requisite Huntington Vote at the duly convened TCF Meeting or Huntington Meeting, as applicable, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, each of the parties shall in good faith use its reasonable best efforts to negotiate a restructuring of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (provided, however, that no party shall have any obligation to agree to (i) alter or change any material term of this Agreement, including the amount or kind of the Merger Consideration, in a manner adverse to such party or its shareholders or (ii) adversely affect the Tax treatment of the Merger with respect to such party or its shareholders) and/or resubmit this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (or as restructured pursuant to this Section 6.16) to its shareholders for approval.

6.17 Takeover Restrictions. Neither TCF nor Huntington shall take any action that would cause any Takeover Restriction to become applicable to this Agreement, the Merger, or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby, and each of Huntington and TCF shall take all necessary steps to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby from any applicable Takeover Restriction now or hereafter in effect. If any Takeover Restriction may become, or may purport to be, applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby, each of Huntington and TCF will grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of any Takeover Restriction on any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, if necessary, challenging the validity or applicability of any such Takeover Restriction.

6.18 Exemption from Liability Under Section 16(b). TCF and Huntington agree that, in order to most effectively compensate and retain those officers and directors of TCF subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act (the "TCF Insiders"), both prior to and after the Effective Time, it is desirable that TCF Insiders not be subject to a risk of liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law in connection with the conversion of shares of TCF Common Stock, TCF Preferred Stock and TCF Equity Awards in the Merger, and for that compensatory and retentive purpose agree to the provisions of this Section 6.18. The Boards of Directors of Huntington and of TCF, or a committee of non-employee directors thereof (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act), shall prior to the Effective Time, take all such steps as may be necessary or appropriate to cause (x) in the case of TCF, any dispositions of TCF Common Stock, TCF Preferred Stock or TCF Equity Awards by TCF Insiders and (y) in the case of Huntington, any acquisitions of Huntington Common Stock, New Huntington Preferred Stock or equity awards of Huntington into which the TCF Equity awards are converted by any TCF Insiders who, immediately following the Merger, will be officers or directors of Huntington subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, in each case pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, to be exempt from liability pursuant to Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

6.19 Litigation and Claims. Each of Huntington and TCF shall, to the extent permitted under applicable law and regulation, promptly notify the other party in writing of any action, arbitration, audit, hearing, investigation, litigation, suit, subpoena or summons issued, commenced, brought, conducted or heard by or before, or otherwise involving, any Governmental Entity or arbitrator pending or, to the knowledge of Huntington or TCF, as applicable, threatened against Huntington, TCF or any of their respective Subsidiaries that (a) questions or would reasonably be expected to question the validity of this Agreement, the Bank Merger Agreement or the other agreements contemplated hereby or thereby or any actions taken or to be taken by Huntington, TCF, or their respective Subsidiaries with respect hereto or thereto, or (b) seeks to enjoin or otherwise restrain the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. TCF shall give Huntington the opportunity to participate at its own expense in the defense or settlement of any shareholder litigation against TCF and/or its directors or affiliates relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and no such settlement shall be agreed without Huntington's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

6.20 Assumption of TCF Debt. Effective at the Effective Time (or at the effective time of the Bank Merger for any debt of TCF National Bank), Huntington or The Huntington National Bank, as applicable, shall, to the extent permitted thereunder and required thereby, assume the due and punctual performance and observance of the covenants to be performed by TCF or TCF National Bank pursuant to the definitive documents governing the short-term and long-term borrowings set forth on Section 6.20 of the TCF Disclosure Schedule, and the due and punctual payment of the principal of such borrowings (and premium, if any) and interest thereon. In connection therewith, (i) Huntington and TCF shall, and shall cause The Huntington National Bank and TCF National Bank respectively to, cooperate and use reasonable best efforts to execute and deliver any supplemental indentures, if applicable, and (ii) TCF shall, and shall cause TCF National Bank to, use reasonable best efforts to execute and deliver any officer's certificates or other documents, and to provide any opinions of counsel to the trustee thereof, in each case, required to make such assumption effective as of the Effective Time or the effective time of the Bank Merger, as applicable.

ARTICLE VII

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

7.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger. The respective obligations of the parties to effect the Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the Effective Time of the following conditions:

(a) Shareholder Approval. (i) This Agreement shall have been approved by the shareholders of TCF by the Requisite TCF Vote and (ii) the Merger and the Huntington Charter Amendment shall have been approved by the shareholders of Huntington by the Requisite Huntington Vote.

(b) Stock Exchange Listing. The shares of Huntington Common Stock and New Huntington Preferred Stock (or depository shares in respect thereof) that shall be issuable pursuant to this Agreement shall have been authorized for listing on the NASDAQ, in each case subject to official notice of issuance.

(c) S-4. The S-4 shall have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the S-4 shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC and not withdrawn.

(d) No Injunctions or Restraints; Illegality. No order, injunction or decree issued by any court or Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the Merger, the Bank Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be in effect. No law, statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any Governmental Entity which prohibits or makes illegal consummation of the Merger, the Bank Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(e) Regulatory Approvals. (i) All regulatory authorizations, consents, orders or approvals (x) from the Federal Reserve Board and the OCC and (y) set forth in Sections 3.4 and 4.4 which are necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger and the Bank Merger, or those the failure of which to be obtained would reasonably be likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Huntington or the Surviving Corporation, shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired (such approvals and the expiration of such waiting periods being referred to herein as the "Requisite Regulatory Approvals") and (ii) no such Requisite Regulatory Approval shall have resulted in the imposition of any Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition.

7.2 Conditions to Obligations of Huntington. The obligation of Huntington to effect the Merger is also subject to the satisfaction, or waiver by Huntington, at or prior to the Effective Time, of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of TCF set forth in (i) Sections 3.2(a) and 3.8(a) (in each case after giving effect to the lead-in to Article III) shall be true and correct (other than, in the case of Section 3.2(a), such failures to be true and correct as are de minimis) in each case as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date), and (ii) Sections 3.1(a), 3.1(b) (with respect to TCF National Bank only), 3.2(c) (with respect to TCF National Bank only) and 3.3(a) (in each case, after giving effect to the lead-in to Article III) shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date). All other representations and warranties of TCF set forth in this Agreement (read without giving effect to any qualification as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect set forth in such representations or warranties but, in each case, after giving effect to the lead-in to Article III) shall be true and correct in all respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date); provided, however, that for purposes of this sentence, such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, either individually or in the aggregate, and without giving effect to any qualification as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect set forth in such representations or warranties, has had or would reasonably be likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on TCF or the Surviving Corporation. Huntington shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of TCF by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of TCF to the foregoing effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of TCF. TCF shall have performed in all material respects the obligations, covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date, and Huntington shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of TCF by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of TCF to such effect.

(c) Federal Tax Opinion. Huntington shall have received the opinion of Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Huntington, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the Merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering such opinion, counsel may require and rely upon representations contained in certificates of officers of Huntington and TCF reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel.

7.3 Conditions to Obligations of TCF. The obligation of TCF to effect the Merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver by TCF at or prior to the Effective Time of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Huntington set forth in (i) Sections 4.2(a) and 4.8(a) (in each case, after giving effect to the lead-in to Article IV) shall be true and correct (other than, in the case of Section 4.2(a), such failures to be true and correct as are de minimis) in each case as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date), and (ii) Sections 4.1(a), 4.1(b) (with respect to The Huntington National Bank only), 4.2(c) (with respect to The Huntington National Bank only) and 4.3(a) (in each case, after giving effect to the lead-in to Article IV) shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date). All other representations and warranties of Huntington set forth in this Agreement (read without giving effect to any qualification as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect set forth in such representations or warranties but, in each case, after giving effect to the lead-in to Article IV) shall be true and correct in all respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date); provided, however, that for purposes of this sentence, such representations and warranties shall be deemed to be true and correct unless the failure or failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, either individually or in the aggregate, and without giving effect to any qualification as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect set forth in such representations or warranties, has had or would reasonably be likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on Huntington. TCF shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Huntington by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of Huntington to the foregoing effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Huntington. Huntington shall have performed in all material respects the obligations, covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date, and TCF shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Huntington by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of Huntington to such effect.

(c) Federal Tax Opinion. TCF shall have received the opinion of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to TCF, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the Merger will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering such opinion, counsel may require and rely upon representations contained in certificates of officers of Huntington and TCF reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after receipt of the Requisite TCF Vote or the Requisite Huntington Vote:

(a) by mutual consent of Huntington and TCF in a written instrument;

(b) by either Huntington or TCF if any Governmental Entity that must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of the Merger or the Bank Merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final nonappealable order, injunction or decree permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger, unless the failure to obtain a Requisite Regulatory Approval shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the obligations, covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein;

(c) by either Huntington or TCF if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before the first anniversary of the date of this Agreement (the "Termination Date"), unless the failure of the Closing to occur by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the obligations, covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein;

(d) by either Huntington or TCF (provided, that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, obligation, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a breach of any of the obligations, covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties (or any such representation or warranty shall cease to be true) set forth in this Agreement on the part of TCF, in the case of a termination by Huntington, or Huntington, in the case of a termination by TCF, which breach or failure to be true, either individually or in the aggregate with all other breaches by such party (or failures of such representations or warranties to be true), would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.2, in the case of a termination by Huntington, or Section 7.3, in the case of a termination by TCF, and which is not cured by the earlier of the Termination Date and 45 days following written notice to TCF, in the case of a termination by Huntington, or Huntington, in the case of a termination by TCF, or by its nature or timing cannot be cured during such period;

(e) by Huntington, prior to such time as the Requisite TCF Vote is obtained, if TCF or the Board of Directors of TCF (i) withholds, withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to Huntington the TCF Board Recommendation, (ii) fails to make the TCF Board Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement, (iii) adopts, approves, recommends or endorses a TCF Acquisition Proposal or publicly announces an intention to adopt, approve, recommend or endorse a TCF Acquisition Proposal, (iv) fails to publicly and without qualification (A) recommend against any TCF Acquisition Proposal or (B) reaffirm the TCF Board

Recommendation, in each case within ten (10) business days (or such fewer number of days as remains prior to the TCF Meeting) after a TCF Acquisition Proposal is made public or any request by Huntington to do so, or (v) materially breaches its obligations under Section 6.3 or Section 6.13; or

(f) by TCF, prior to such time as the Requisite Huntington Vote is obtained, if Huntington or the Board of Directors of Huntington (i) withholds, withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to TCF the Huntington Board Recommendation, (ii) fails to make the Huntington Board Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement, (iii) adopts, approves, recommends or endorses a Huntington Acquisition Proposal or publicly announces an intention to adopt, approve, recommend or endorse a Huntington Acquisition Proposal, (iv) fails to publicly and without qualification (A) recommend against any Huntington Acquisition Proposal or (B) reaffirm the Huntington Board Recommendation, in each case within ten (10) business days (or such fewer number of days as remains prior to the Huntington Meeting) after a Huntington Acquisition Proposal is made public or any request by TCF to do so or (v) materially breaches its obligations under Section 6.4.

The party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to clause (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) of this Section 8.1 shall give written notice of such termination to the other party in accordance with Section 9.5, specifying the provision or provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is effected.

8.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Huntington or TCF as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, and none of Huntington, TCF, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them shall have any liability of any nature whatsoever hereunder, or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, except that (i) Section 6.2(b) and this Section 8.2 and Article IX (other than Section 9.13) shall survive any termination of this Agreement, and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, neither Huntington nor TCF shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its fraud or Willful Breach of any provision of this Agreement occurring prior to termination (which, in the case of TCF, shall include the loss to the holders of its capital stock and of TCF Equity Awards of the economic benefits of the Merger (including the loss of premium offered to the shareholders of TCF), it being understood that TCF shall be entitled to pursue damages for such losses and to enforce the right to recover such losses on behalf of its shareholders and the holders of TCF Equity Awards in its sole and absolute discretion, and any amounts received by TCF in connection therewith may be retained by TCF). “Willful Breach” shall mean a material breach of, or material failure to perform any of the covenants or other agreements contained in this Agreement, that is a consequence of an act or failure to act by the breaching or non-performing party with actual knowledge that such party’s act or failure to act would, or would reasonably be expected to, result in or constitute such breach of or such failure of performance under this Agreement.

(b) (i) In the event that after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination of this Agreement, a bona fide TCF Acquisition Proposal shall have been communicated to or otherwise made known to the Board of Directors or senior management of TCF or shall have been made directly to its shareholders generally or any person shall have publicly announced (and not withdrawn at least two (2) business days prior to the TCF Meeting) a TCF Acquisition Proposal with respect to TCF and (A) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by either Huntington or TCF pursuant to Section 8.1(c) without the Requisite TCF Vote having been obtained or (B) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by Huntington pursuant to Section 8.1(d), and (C) prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, TCF enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to a TCF Acquisition Proposal (whether or not the same TCF Acquisition Proposal as that referred to above), then TCF shall, on the earlier of the date it enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction, pay Huntington, by wire transfer of same day funds, a fee equal to $238,800,000 (the “Termination Fee”); provided, that for purposes of this Section 8.2(b)(i), all references in the definition of TCF Acquisition Proposal to “25%” shall instead refer to “50%”.

(ii) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Huntington pursuant to Section 8.1(e), then TCF shall pay Huntington, by wire transfer of same day funds, the Termination Fee as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of termination (and in any event, within three (3) business days thereafter).

(c) (i) In the event that after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination of this Agreement, a bona fide Huntington Acquisition Proposal shall have been communicated to or otherwise made known to the Board of Directors or senior management of Huntington or shall have been made directly to its shareholders generally or any person shall have publicly announced (and not withdrawn at least two (2) business days prior to the Huntington Meeting) a Huntington Acquisition Proposal with respect to Huntington and (A) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by either TCF or Huntington pursuant to Section 8.1(c) without the Requisite Huntington Vote having been obtained or (B) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by TCF pursuant to Section 8.1(d), and (C) prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, Huntington enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to a Huntington Acquisition Proposal (whether or not the same Huntington Acquisition Proposal as that referred to above), then Huntington shall, on the earlier of the date it enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction, pay TCF, by wire transfer of same day funds, a fee equal to the Termination Fee; provided, that for purposes of this Section 8.2(c)(i), all references in the definition of Huntington Acquisition Proposal to “25%” shall instead refer to “50%”.

(ii) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by TCF pursuant to Section 8.1(f), then Huntington shall pay TCF, by wire transfer of same day funds, the Termination Fee as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of termination (and in any event, within three (3) business days thereafter).

(iii) As used in this Agreement, “Huntington Acquisition Proposal” shall mean, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, any offer, inquiry or proposal relating to, or any third party indication of interest in, (i) any acquisition or purchase, direct or indirect, of 25% or more of the consolidated assets of Huntington and its Subsidiaries or 25% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of Huntington or its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 25% or more of the consolidated assets of Huntington, (ii) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in such third party beneficially owning 25% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of Huntington or its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 25% or more of the consolidated assets of Huntington, or (iii) a merger, consolidation, share exchange or other business combination, reorganization or similar transaction involving Huntington or its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 25% or more of the consolidated assets of Huntington.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, but without limiting Section 8.2(e) or the right of any party to recover liabilities or damages arising out of the other party’s fraud or Willful Breach of any provision of this Agreement, the maximum aggregate amount of fees, liabilities or damages payable by TCF or Huntington under this Section 8.2 shall be equal to the Termination Fee. In no event shall TCF or Huntington be required to pay the Termination Fee on more than one occasion.

(e) Each of Huntington and TCF acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.2 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, the other party would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if either party fails promptly to pay the amount due pursuant to this Section 8.2, and, in order to obtain such payment, the other party commences a suit which results in a judgment against the non-paying party for the Termination Fee or any portion thereof, such non-paying party shall pay the costs and expenses of the other party (including reasonable attorneys’ fees and expenses) in connection with such suit. In addition, if TCF or Huntington, as the case may be, fails to pay the amounts payable pursuant to this Section 8.2, then such party shall pay interest on such overdue amounts (for the period commencing as of the date that such overdue amount was originally required to be paid and ending on the date that such overdue amount is actually paid in full) at a rate per annum equal to the “prime rate” (as announced by JPMorgan Chase & Co. or any successor thereto) in effect on the date on which such payment was required to be made for the period commencing as of the date that such overdue amount was originally required to be paid. The amounts payable by TCF and Huntington pursuant to Section 8.2(b) and Section 8.2(c), respectively, and this Section 8.2(e), constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty, and, except in the case of fraud or Willful Breach, shall be the sole monetary remedy of the other party in the event of a termination of this Agreement specified in such applicable section.

9.6 Interpretation. The parties have participated jointly in negotiating and drafting this Agreement. In the event that an ambiguity or a question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any provision of this Agreement. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Articles, Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of or Exhibit or Schedule to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. All references to “dollars” or “$” in this Agreement are to United States dollars. This Agreement shall not be interpreted or construed to require any person to take any action, or fail to take any action, if to do so would violate any applicable law (including the Pandemic Measures).

9.7 Confidential Supervisory Information. No disclosure, representation or warranty shall be made (or any other action taken) pursuant to this Agreement that would involve the disclosure of confidential supervisory information (including confidential supervisory information as defined in 12 C.F.R. § 261.2(b) and as identified in 12 C.F.R. § 4.32(b)) of a Governmental Entity by any party hereto to the extent prohibited by applicable law, and, to the extent legally permissible, appropriate substitute disclosures or actions shall be made or taken under circumstances in which the limitations of this sentence apply.

9.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (including by electronic means), all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that all parties need not sign the same counterpart.

9.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the documents and the instruments referred to herein) together with the Confidentiality Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

9.10 Governing Law; Jurisdiction.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to any applicable conflicts of law principles (except that matters relating to the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors of TCF shall be subject to the laws of the State of Michigan and matters relating to the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors of Huntington shall be subject to the laws of the State of Maryland).

(b) Each party agrees that it will bring any action or proceeding in respect of any claim arising out of or related to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within the State of Delaware or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction located in the State of Delaware (the "Chosen Courts"), and, solely in connection with claims arising under this Agreement or the transactions that are the subject of this Agreement, (i) irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Chosen Courts, (ii) waives any objection to laying venue in any such action or proceeding in the Chosen Courts, (iii) waives any objection that the Chosen Courts are an inconvenient forum or do not have jurisdiction over any party and (iv) agrees that service of process upon such party in any such action or proceeding will be effective if notice is given in accordance with Section 9.5.

9.11 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT: (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (II) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (III) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (IV) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.11.

9.12 Assignment; Third-Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other party. Any purported assignment in contravention hereof shall be null and void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and assigns. Except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 6.8, which is intended to benefit each TCF Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives, this Agreement (including the documents and instruments referred to herein) is not intended to and does not confer upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, including the right to rely upon the representations and warranties set forth herein. The representations and warranties in this Agreement are the product of negotiations among the parties hereto and are for the sole benefit of the parties. Any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties are subject to waiver by the parties hereto in accordance herewith without notice or liability to any other person. In some instances, the representations and warranties in this Agreement may represent an allocation among the parties hereto of risks associated with particular matters regardless of the knowledge of any of the parties hereto. Consequently, persons other than the parties may not rely upon the representations and warranties in this Agreement as characterizations of actual facts or circumstances as of the date of this Agreement or as of any other date. Except as provided in Section 6.8, notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, no consent, approval or agreement of any third-party beneficiary will be required to amend, modify or waive any provision of this Agreement.

Accordingly, the parties shall be entitled to specific performance of the terms of this Agreement, including an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions hereof (including the parties' obligation to consummate the Merger), in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. Each of the parties hereby further waives (a) any defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate and (b) any requirement under any law to post security or a bond as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.

9.14 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law or rule in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision or portion of any provision in such jurisdiction, and this Agreement shall be reformed, construed and enforced in such jurisdiction such that the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision or portion thereof shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

9.15 Delivery by Electronic Transmission. This Agreement and any signed agreement or instrument entered into in connection with this Agreement, and any amendments or waivers hereto or thereto, to the extent signed and delivered by e-mail delivery of a ".pdf" format data file, shall be treated in all manner and respects as an original agreement or instrument and shall be considered to have the same binding legal effect as if it were the original signed version thereof delivered in person. No party hereto or to any such agreement or instrument shall raise the use of e-mail delivery of a ".pdf" format data file to deliver a signature to this Agreement or any amendment hereto or the fact that any signature or agreement or instrument was transmitted or communicated through e-mail delivery of a ".pdf" format data file as a defense to the formation of a contract and each party hereto forever waives any such defense.

5.70% SERIES [H] NON-CUMULATIVE PERPETUAL PREFERRED STOCK

Section 1. Designation. The designation of the series of preferred stock shall be 5.70% Series [H] Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock (hereinafter referred to as the "Series [H] Preferred Stock"). Each share of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be identical in all respects to every other share of Series [H] Preferred Stock. Series [H] Preferred Stock will rank, with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, (1) on a parity with the Corporation's Floating Rate Series B Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share and liquidation value per share of $1,000, the Corporation's 5.875% Series C Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share and liquidation value per share of $1,000, the Corporation's 6.250% Series D Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share and liquidation value per share of $1,000, the Corporation's 5.700% Series E Fixed-to-Floating Rate Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share and liquidation value per share of $100,000, 5.625% Series F Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share and liquidation value per share of $100,000, 4.450% Series G Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share and liquidation value per share of $100,000 and each class or series of Serial Preferred Stock that the Corporation may issue in the future, the terms of which expressly provide that such class or series will rank on a parity with the Series [H] Preferred Stock as to dividend rights and rights on liquidation, winding-up and dissolution of the Corporation (collectively, the "Parity Stock") and (2) senior to the Common Stock and each other class or series of Serial Preferred Stock the Corporation may issue in the future, the terms of which do not expressly provide that it ranks on a parity with or senior to the Series [H] Preferred Stock as to dividend rights and rights on liquidation, winding-up and dissolution of the Corporation (the "Junior Stock").

Section 2. Number of Shares. The number of authorized shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be 7,000. Such number may from time to time be increased (but not in excess of the total number of authorized shares of preferred stock) or decreased (but not below the number of shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock then outstanding) by further resolution duly adopted by the Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors and in accordance with applicable law. All additional shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be deemed to form a single series with the Series [H] Preferred Stock, provided that any such additional shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock are not treated as "disqualified preferred stock" within the meaning of assets legally available therefor, non-cumulative cash dividends on the liquidation preference of $25,000 per share of Series [H] Preferred Stock, and no more, payable quarterly in arrears on each [•], [•], [•] and [•]; provided, however, if any such day is not a Business Day, then payment of any dividend otherwise payable on that date will be made on the next succeeding day that is a Business Day (without any interest or other payment in respect of such delay) (each such day on which dividends are payable a “Dividend Payment Date”), commencing with the first such Dividend Payment Date to occur after the Closing Date. The period from and including the date of issuance of the Series [H] Preferred Stock or any Dividend Payment Date to but excluding the next Dividend Payment Date is a “Dividend Period,” except that the initial Dividend Period shall commence on and include [•]¹. Dividends on each share of Series [H] Preferred Stock will accrue on the liquidation preference amount of $25,000 per share at a rate per annum equal to 5.70%. The record date for payment of dividends on the Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be the close of business on [•] or such other date, not exceeding 30 days before the applicable Dividend Payment Date, as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. The amount of dividends payable shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, dividends on the Series [H] Preferred Stock shall not be declared, paid or set aside for payment to the extent such act would cause the Corporation to fail to comply with laws and regulations applicable thereto, including applicable capital adequacy guidelines.

(b) Non-Cumulative Dividends. Dividends on shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be non-cumulative. To the extent that any dividends payable on the shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock on any Dividend Payment Date are not declared and paid, in full or otherwise, on such Dividend Payment Date, then such unpaid dividends shall not cumulate and shall cease to accrue and be payable and the Corporation shall have no obligation to pay, and the holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall have no right to receive, dividends accrued for such Dividend Period after the Dividend Payment Date for such Dividend Period or interest with respect to such dividends, whether or not dividends are declared for any subsequent Dividend Period with respect to Series [H] Preferred Stock, any Parity Stock, any Junior Stock or any other class or series of authorized preferred stock of the Corporation.

(c) Priority of Dividends. So long as any share of Series [H] Preferred Stock remains outstanding, unless full dividends on all outstanding shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock for the then-current Dividend Period have been declared and paid in full or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof has been set aside, (i) no dividend shall be declared or paid or set aside for payment and no distribution shall be declared or made or set aside for payment on any Junior Stock, other than a dividend payable solely in Junior Stock, (ii) no shares of Junior Stock shall be repurchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired for consideration by the Corporation, directly or indirectly (other than as a result of a reclassification of Junior Stock for or into other Junior Stock, or the exchange or conversion of one share of Junior Stock for or into another share of Junior Stock, and other than through the use of the proceeds of a substantially contemporaneous sale of other shares of Junior Stock), nor shall any monies be paid to or made available for a sinking fund for the redemption of any such securities by the Corporation and (iii) no shares of Parity Stock shall be repurchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired for consideration by the Corporation otherwise than pursuant to pro rata offers to purchase all, or a pro rata portion, of the Series [H] Preferred Stock and such Parity Stock except by conversion into or exchange for Junior Stock, during such dividend period. When dividends are not paid in full upon the shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock and any Parity Stock, all dividends declared upon shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock and any Parity Stock shall be declared on a proportional basis so that the amount of dividends declared per share will bear to each other the same ratio that accrued dividends for the then-current Dividend Period per share on Series [H] Preferred Stock, and accrued dividends, including any accumulation, on any Parity Stock, bear to each other. No interest will be payable in respect of any dividend payment on shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock that may be in arrears. If the Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors determines not to pay any dividend or a full dividend on a Dividend Payment Date, the Corporation will provide, or cause to be provided, written notice to the holders of the Series [H] Preferred Stock prior to such date. Subject to the foregoing, and not otherwise, dividends (payable in cash, stock or otherwise) as may be determined by the Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors may be declared and paid on any Junior Stock from time to time out of any assets legally available therefor, and the shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to participate in any such dividend.

Section 5. Liquidation Rights.

(a) Liquidation. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be entitled, out of assets legally available therefor, before any distribution or payment out of the assets of the Corporation may be made to or set aside for the holders of any Junior Stock and subject to the rights of any holders of any class or series of securities ranking senior to or on parity with Series [H] Preferred Stock upon liquidation and the rights of the Corporation's depositors and other creditors, to receive in full a liquidating distribution in the amount of the liquidation preference of $25,000 per share, plus any authorized, declared and unpaid dividends, without accumulation of any undeclared dividends, to the date of liquidation. Holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to any further payments in the event of any such voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation other than what is expressly provided for in this Section 5.

(b) Partial Payment. If the assets of the Corporation are not sufficient to pay in full the liquidation preference plus any authorized, declared and unpaid dividends to all holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock and all holders of any Parity Stock, the amounts paid to the holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock and to the holders of all Parity Stock shall be paid pro rata in accordance with the respective amounts that would be payable on such shares if all amounts payable thereon were paid in full.

(c) Residual Distributions. If the liquidation preference plus any authorized, declared and unpaid dividends has been paid in full to all holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock, the holders of shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock will not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of assets by the Corporation.

(d) Merger, Consolidation and Sale of Assets Not Liquidation. For purposes of this Section 5, the sale, conveyance, exchange or transfer (for cash, shares of stock, securities or other consideration) of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Corporation shall not be deemed a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, nor shall the merger, consolidation or any other business combination transaction of the Corporation into or with any other corporation or person or the merger, consolidation or any other business combination transaction of any other corporation or person into or with the Corporation be deemed to be a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation.

Section 6. Redemption.

(a) Optional Redemption. The Corporation, at the option of its Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors, may redeem in whole or in part the shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock at the time outstanding, at any time on [•]² or any Dividend Payment Date thereafter, upon notice given as provided in Section 6(b) below. The redemption price for shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be $25,000 per share, plus any declared and unpaid dividends for prior Dividend Periods, without accumulation of undeclared dividends (the "Redemption Price"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, within 90 days following the occurrence of a Regulatory Capital Treatment Event, the Corporation may, at its option, subject to the approval of the Appropriate Federal Banking Agency, provide notice of its intent to redeem as provided in Section 6(b) below, and subsequently redeem, all (but not less than all) of the shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock at the time outstanding, at the Redemption Price applicable on such date of redemption.

(b) Notice of Redemption. Notice of every redemption of shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be either (i) mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the holders of record of such shares to be redeemed at their respective last addresses appearing on the stock register of the Corporation or (ii) transmitted by such other method approved by the Depositary Trust Company, in its reasonable discretion, to the holders of record of such shares to be redeemed. Such mailing or transmittal shall be at least 30 days and not more than 60 days before the date fixed for redemption. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Series [H] Preferred Stock is held in book-entry form through DTC, the Corporation may give such notice in any manner permitted by DTC. Any notice mailed or transmitted as provided in this Section 6(b) shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the holder receives such notice, but failure duly to give such notice by mail or other transmission, or any defect in such notice or in the mailing or transmittal thereof, to any holder of shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock designated for redemption shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock. Each notice shall state (i) the redemption date; (ii) the number of shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock to be redeemed and, if fewer than all the shares held by such holder are to be redeemed, the number of such shares to be redeemed from such holder; (iii) the Redemption Price; (iv) the place or places where the certificates for such shares are to be surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price; and (v) that dividends on the shares to be redeemed will cease to accrue on the redemption date.

(c) Partial Redemption. In case of any redemption of only part of the shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock at the time outstanding, the shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock to be redeemed shall be selected either pro rata from the holders of record of Series [H] Preferred Stock in proportion to the number of shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock held by such holders or in such other manner consistent with the rules and policies of the NASDAQ as the Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors may determine to be fair and equitable. Subject to the provisions of this Section 6, the Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors shall have full power and authority to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be redeemed from time to time.

(d) Effectiveness of Redemption. If notice of redemption has been duly given and if on or before the redemption date specified in the notice all funds necessary for the redemption have been set aside by the Corporation, separate and apart from its other assets, in trust for the pro rata benefit of the holders of the shares called for redemption, so as to be and continue to be available therefor, or deposited by the Corporation with a bank or trust company selected by the Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors (the “Depository Company”) in trust for the pro rata benefit of the holders of the shares called for redemption, then, notwithstanding that any certificate for any share so called for redemption has not been surrendered for cancellation, on and after the redemption date all shares so called for redemption shall cease to be outstanding, all dividends with respect to such shares shall cease to accrue after such redemption date, and all rights with respect to such shares shall forthwith on such redemption date cease and terminate, except only the right of the holders thereof to receive the amount payable on such redemption from such bank or trust company at any time after the redemption date from the funds so deposited, without interest. The Corporation shall be entitled to receive, from time to time, from the Depository Company any interest accrued on such funds, and the holders of any shares called for redemption shall have no claim to any such interest. Any funds so deposited and unclaimed at the end of three years from the redemption date shall, to the extent permitted by law, be released or repaid to the Corporation, and in the event of such repayment to the Corporation, the holders of record of the shares so called for redemption shall be deemed to be unsecured creditors of the Corporation for an amount equivalent to the amount deposited as stated above for the redemption of such shares and so repaid to the Corporation, but shall in no event be entitled to any interest.

Section 7. Voting Rights. The holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock will have no voting rights and will not be entitled to elect any directors, except as expressly provided by law and except that:

(a) Supermajority Voting Rights-Amendments. Unless the vote or consent of the holders of a greater number of shares shall then be required by law, the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of at least 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of all of the shares of the Series [H] Preferred Stock at the time outstanding, voting separately as a class, shall be required to authorize any amendment of the Charter or of any certificate amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto (including any articles supplementary or any similar document relating to any series of preferred stock) which will materially and adversely affect the powers, preferences, privileges or rights of the Series [H] Preferred Stock, taken as a whole; provided, however, that the following will not be deemed to adversely affect the powers, preferences, privileges or rights of the Series [H] Preferred Stock: (i) any increase in the amount of the authorized or issued Series [H] Preferred Stock, (ii) any increase in the amount of authorized preferred stock of the Corporation, or (iii) the creation and issuance, or an increase in the authorized or issued amount, of other series of preferred stock ranking equally with and/or junior to the Series [H] Preferred Stock with respect to the payment of dividends (whether such dividends are cumulative or non-cumulative) and/or the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation.

(b) Supermajority Voting Rights-Priority. Unless the vote or consent of the holders of a greater number of shares shall then be required by law, the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of at least 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of all of the shares of the Series [H] Preferred Stock and all other Parity Stock, at the time outstanding, voting as a single class without regard to series, shall be required to issue, authorize or increase the authorized amount of, or to issue or authorize any obligation or security convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase, any additional class or series of stock ranking prior to the shares of the Series [H] Preferred Stock and all other Parity Stock as to dividends or the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation.

(i) Voting Right. If and whenever dividends on the Series [H] Preferred Stock or any other class or series of preferred stock that ranks on parity with the Series [H] Preferred Stock as to payment of dividends, and upon which voting rights equivalent to those granted by this Section 7(c) have been conferred and are exercisable, have not been paid in an aggregate amount equal, as to any class or series, to at least six quarterly Dividend Periods (whether consecutive or not), the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall be increased by two, and the holders of the Series [H] Preferred Stock (together with holders of any other class of the Corporation's authorized preferred stock having equivalent voting rights, whether or not the holders of such preferred stock would be entitled to vote for the election of directors if such default in dividends did not exist), shall have the right, voting separately as a single class without regard to series, to the exclusion of the holders of Common Stock, to elect two directors of the Corporation to fill such newly created directorships (and to fill any vacancies in the terms of such directorships), provided that the Board of Directors shall at no time include more than two such directors. Each such director elected by the holders of shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock and any other class or series of preferred stock that ranks on parity with the Series [H] Preferred Stock as to payment of dividends is a "Preferred Director."

(ii) Election. The election of the Preferred Directors will take place at any annual meeting of stockholders or any special meeting of the holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock and any other class or series of the Corporation's stock that ranks on parity with Series [H] Preferred Stock as to payment of dividends and for which dividends have not been paid, called as provided herein. At any time after the special voting power has vested pursuant to Section 7(c)(i) above, a majority of the Continuing Directors may, and within 20 days after the written request of any holder of Series [H] Preferred Stock (addressed to the Continuing Directors at the Corporation's principal office) must (unless such request is received less than 90 days before the date fixed for the next annual or special meeting of the stockholders, in which event such election shall be held at such next annual or special meeting of stockholders), call a special meeting of the holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock, and any other class or series of preferred stock that ranks on parity with Series [H] Preferred Stock as to payment of dividends and for which dividends have not been paid, for the election of the two directors to be elected by them as provided in Section 7(c)(iii) below. The Preferred Directors shall each be entitled to one vote per director on any matter.

(iii) Notice for Special Meeting. Notice for a special meeting will be given in a similar manner to that provided in the Corporation's bylaws for a special meeting of the stockholders. The Preferred Directors elected at any such special meeting will hold office until the next annual meeting of the Corporation's stockholders unless they have been previously terminated or removed pursuant to Section 7(c)(iv). In case any vacancy in the office of a Preferred Director occurs (other than prior to the initial election of the Preferred Directors), the vacancy may be filled by the written consent of the Preferred Director remaining in office, or if none remains in office, by a vote of the holders of the outstanding shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock (together with holders of any other class of the Corporation's authorized preferred stock having equivalent voting rights, whether or not the holders of such preferred stock would be entitled to vote for the election of directors if such default in dividends did not exist) to serve until the next annual meeting of the stockholders.

(iv) Termination; Removal. Whenever full dividends have been paid regularly on the Series [H] Preferred Stock and any other class or series of preferred stock that ranks on parity with Series [H] Preferred Stock as to payment of dividends, if any, for at least four consecutive Dividend Periods, then the right of the holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock to elect such additional two directors will cease (subject to the same provisions for the vesting of the special voting rights in the case of any similar non-payment of dividends in respect of future Dividend Periods) and the term of office of each Preferred Director so elected will immediately terminate and the number of directors constituting the Corporation's board of directors will be automatically reduced accordingly. Any Preferred Director may be removed at any time without cause by the holders of record of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock (together with holders of any other class of the Corporation's authorized preferred stock having equivalent voting rights, whether or not the holders of such preferred stock would be entitled to vote for the election of directors if such default in dividends did not exist) when they have the voting rights described in this Section 7(c).

(d) Changes after Provision for Redemption. No vote or consent of the holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall be required pursuant to Section 7(a), (b) or (c) above if, at or prior to the time when any such vote or consent would otherwise be required pursuant to such section, all outstanding Series [H] Preferred Stock shall have been redeemed, or notice of redemption has been given and sufficient funds shall have been irrevocably deposited in trust to effect such redemption.

Section 8. Conversion. The holders of Series [H] Preferred Stock shall not have any rights to convert such Series [H] Preferred Stock into shares of any other class of capital stock of the Corporation.

Section 9. Rank. Notwithstanding anything set forth in the Charter or these Articles Supplementary to the contrary, the Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors, without the vote of the holders of the Series [H] Preferred Stock, may authorize and issue additional shares of Junior Stock, Parity Stock or, subject to the voting rights granted in Section 7, any class of securities ranking senior to the Series [H] Preferred Stock as to dividends and the distribution of assets upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation.

Section 10. Repurchase. Subject to the limitations imposed herein, the Corporation may purchase and sell Series [H] Preferred Stock from time to time to such extent, in such manner, and upon such terms as the Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors may determine; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not use any of its funds for any such purchase when there are reasonable grounds to believe that the Corporation is, or by such purchase would be, rendered insolvent.

Section 11. Unissued or Reacquired Shares. Shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock not issued or which have been issued, redeemed or otherwise purchased or acquired by the Corporation shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares of preferred stock without designation as to series.

Section 12. No Sinking Fund. Shares of Series [H] Preferred Stock are not subject to the operation of a sinking fund.

SECOND: The Series [H] Preferred Stock has been classified and designated by the Board of Directors and the Committee, under the authority contained in the Charter.

THIRD: These Articles Supplementary have been approved by the Board of Directors and the Committee in the manner and by the vote required by law.

Board of Directors
Huntington Bancshares Incorporated

Columbus, Ohio 43287

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness from a financial point of view to Huntington Bancshares Incorporated (the “Company”) of the exchange ratio (the “Exchange Ratio”) of 3.0028 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the “Company Common Stock”), of the Company to be issued in exchange for each share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the “TCF Common Stock”), of TCF Financial Corporation (“TCF”) pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 13, 2020 (the “Agreement”), by and between the Company and TCF.

Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC and its affiliates are engaged in advisory, underwriting and financing, principal investing, sales and trading, research, investment management and other financial and non-financial activities and services for various persons and entities. Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC and its affiliates and employees, and funds or other entities they manage or in which they invest or have other economic interests or with which they co-invest, may at any time purchase, sell, hold or vote long or short positions and investments in securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments of the Company, TCF, any of their respective affiliates and third parties, or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the transaction contemplated by the Agreement (the “Transaction”). We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with, and have participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the Transaction. We expect to receive fees for our services in connection with the Transaction, the principal portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Transaction, and the Company has agreed to reimburse certain of our expenses arising, and indemnify us against certain liabilities that may arise, out of our engagement. We have provided certain financial advisory and/or underwriting services to the Company and/or its affiliates from time to time for which our Investment Banking Division has received, and may receive, compensation, including having acted as bookrunning manager with respect to the public offering of the Company’s 2.625% Senior Notes due 2024 (aggregate principal amount $800,000,000) in July 2019; as joint bookrunning manager with respect to the public offering of the Company’s 5.625% Series F Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock in May 2020; and as joint bookrunning manager with respect to the public offering of the Company’s 4.450% Series G Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock in August 2020. We may also in the future provide financial advisory and/or underwriting services to the Company, TCF and their respective affiliates for which our Investment Banking Division may receive compensation.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things, the Agreement; annual reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of the Company and TCF for the five years ended December 31, 2019; certain interim reports to shareholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of the Company and TCF; certain other communications from the Company and TCF to their respective shareholders; certain publicly available research analyst reports for the Company and TCF; certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for TCF prepared by its management; and certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for TCF on a stand-alone basis and giving effect to the Transaction, and certain financial analyses and forecasts for the Company on a stand-alone basis and pro forma for the Transaction, in each case, as prepared by the management of the Company and approved for our use by the Company (the “Forecasts”), including certain operating synergies projected by the management of the Company to result from the Transaction, as approved for our use by the Company (the “Synergies”). We have also held discussions with members of the senior managements of the Company and TCF regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of TCF and with the members of senior management of the Company regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of the Company and the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the Transaction; reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the shares of Company Common Stock and the shares of TCF Common Stock; compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company and TCF with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry; and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as we deemed appropriate.

For purposes of rendering this opinion, we have, with your consent, relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by, us, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification thereof. In that regard, we have assumed with your consent that the Forecasts, including the Synergies, have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company. We have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or other off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of the Company or TCF or any of their respective subsidiaries and we have not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances and marks for losses with respect thereto and, accordingly, we have assumed that such allowances and marks for losses for the Company or TCF are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. We have assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any adverse effect on the Company or TCF or on the expected benefits of the Transaction in any way meaningful to our analysis. We also have assumed that the Transaction will be consummated on the terms set forth in the Agreement, without the waiver or modification of any term or condition the effect of which would be in any way meaningful to our analysis.

Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Transaction, or the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to the Company; nor does it address any legal, regulatory, tax or accounting matters. This opinion addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view to the Company, as of the date hereof, of the Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Agreement. We do not express any view on, and our opinion does not address, any other term or aspect of the Agreement or Transaction or any term or aspect of any other agreement or instrument contemplated by the Agreement or entered into or amended in connection with the Transaction, including, the fairness of the Transaction to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any class of securities, creditors, or other constituencies of the Company; nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of the Company or TCF, or any class of such persons in connection with the Transaction, whether relative to the Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Agreement or otherwise. We are not expressing any opinion as to the prices at which shares of Company Common Stock will trade at any time, as to the potential effects of volatility in the credit, financial and stock markets on the Company or TCF or the Transaction, or as to the impact of the Transaction on the solvency or viability of the Company or TCF or the ability of the Company or TCF to pay their respective obligations when they come due. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof and we assume no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming this opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date hereof. Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information and assistance of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Transaction and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Company Common Stock should vote with respect to such Transaction or any other matter. This opinion has been approved by a fairness committee of Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the Company.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC

The Board of Directors
TCF Financial Corporation
333 W. Fort Street, Suite 1800
Detroit, MI 48226

Members of the Board:

You have requested the opinion of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (“KBW” or “we”) as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the common shareholders of TCF Financial Corporation (“TCF”) of the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) in the proposed merger (the “Merger”) of TCF with and into Huntington Bancshares Incorporated (“Huntington”) pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Agreement”) to be entered into by and between TCF and Huntington. Pursuant to the Agreement and subject to the terms, conditions and limitations set forth therein, at the Effective Time (as defined in the Agreement), by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Huntington, TCF or the holders of any of the shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of TCF (“TCF Common Stock”), each share of TCF Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for shares of TCF Common Stock owned by TCF or Huntington (other than the Exception Shares (as defined in the Agreement)), shall be converted into the right to receive 3.0028 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Huntington (the “Huntington Common Stock”). The ratio of 3.0028 shares of Huntington Common Stock for one share of TCF Common Stock is referred to herein as the “Exchange Ratio.” The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement.

The Agreement further provides that, immediately following the Merger, TCF National Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of TCF, will merge with and into The Huntington National Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Huntington, with The Huntington National Bank as the surviving entity, pursuant to a separate bank merger agreement (such transaction, the “Bank Merger”).

KBW has acted as financial advisor to TCF and not as an advisor to or agent of any other person. As part of our investment banking business, we are continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. We and our affiliates, in the ordinary course of our and their broker-dealer businesses (and further to existing sales and trading relationships between a KBW broker-dealer affiliate and each of TCF and Huntington), may from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, TCF and Huntington. In addition, as a market maker in securities, we and our affiliates may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of TCF or Huntington for our and their own respective accounts and for the accounts of our and their respective customers and clients. We have acted exclusively for the board of directors of TCF (the “Board”) in rendering this opinion and will receive a fee from TCF for our services. A portion of our fee is payable upon the rendering of this opinion, and a significant portion is contingent upon the successful completion of the Merger. In addition, TCF has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

In addition to this present engagement, in the past two years, KBW has provided investment banking or financial advisory services to TCF and received compensation for such services. KBW acted as financial advisor to TCF (then known as Chemical Financial Corporation, Inc.) in connection with the August 2019 merger of Chemical Financial Corporation, Inc. and TCF Financial Corporation. In addition, KBW acted as co-manager for TCF National Bank’s May 2020 offering of fixed-to-floating rate subordinated notes. In the past two years, KBW has not provided investment banking or financial advisory services to Huntington. We may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to TCF or Huntington and receive compensation for such services.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of TCF and Huntington and bearing upon the Merger, including among other things, the following: (i) a draft of the Agreement dated December 11, 2020 (the most recent draft made available to us); (ii) the audited financial statements and the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 of TCF; (iii) the unaudited quarterly financial statements and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2020, June 30, 2020 and September 30, 2020 of TCF; (iv) the audited financial statements and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 of Huntington; (v) the unaudited quarterly financial statements and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2020, June 30, 2020 and September 30, 2020 of Huntington; (vi) certain regulatory filings of TCF and Huntington and their respective subsidiaries, including the quarterly reports on Form FR Y-9C and call reports filed with respect to each quarter during the three-year period ended December 31, 2019 as well as the quarters ended March 31, 2020, June 30, 2020 and September 30, 2020; (vii) certain other interim reports and other communications of TCF and Huntington to their respective shareholders; and (viii) other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of TCF and Huntington that was furnished to us by TCF and Huntington or that we were otherwise directed to use for purposes of our analyses. Our consideration of financial information and other factors that we deemed appropriate under the circumstances or relevant to our analyses included, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of TCF and Huntington; (ii) the assets and liabilities of TCF and Huntington; (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry; (iv) a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for TCF and Huntington with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; (v) publicly available consensus “street estimates” of TCF, as well as assumed long-term TCF growth rates provided to us by TCF management, all of which information was discussed with us by TCF management and used and relied upon by us at the direction of such management and with the consent of the Board; (vi) publicly available consensus “street estimates” of Huntington, as well as assumed long-term Huntington growth rates provided to us by Huntington management, all of which information was discussed with us by Huntington management and used and relied upon by us based on such discussions, at the direction of TCF management and with the consent of the Board; and (vii) estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Merger on Huntington (including, without limitation, the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the Merger) that were prepared by, and provided to and discussed with us by, Huntington management and that were used and relied upon by us based on such discussions, at the direction of TCF management and with the consent of the Board. We have also performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate and have taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. We have also participated in discussions held by the managements of TCF and Huntington regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry. We have not been requested to assist, and have not assisted, TCF with soliciting indications of interest from third parties regarding a potential transaction with TCF.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was provided to us or that was publicly available and we have not independently verified the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assumed any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. We have relied upon the management of TCF as to the reasonableness and achievability of the publicly available consensus “street estimates” of TCF and the assumed TCF long-term growth rates referred to above (and the assumptions and bases therefor), and we have assumed that all such information has been reasonably prepared and represents, or in the case of the TCF “street estimates” referred to above that such estimates are consistent with, the best currently available estimates and judgments of TCF management and that the forecasts, projections and estimates reflected in such information will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated. We have further relied, with the consent of TCF, upon Huntington management as to the reasonableness and achievability of the publicly available consensus “street estimates” of Huntington, the assumed Huntington long-term growth rates, and the estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Merger on Huntington (including, without limitation, the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the Merger), all as referred to above (and the assumptions and bases for all such information), and we have assumed that all such information has been reasonably prepared and represents, or in the case of the Huntington “street estimates” referred to above that such estimates are consistent with, the best currently available estimates and judgments of Huntington management and that the forecasts, projections and estimates reflected in such information will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated.

It is understood that the portion of the foregoing financial information of TCF and Huntington that was provided to us was not prepared with the expectation of public disclosure and that all of the foregoing financial information, including the publicly available consensus “street estimates” of TCF and Huntington, is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain (including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and, in particular, assumptions regarding the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic) and, accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such information. We have assumed, based on discussions with the respective managements of TCF and Huntington and with the consent of the Board, that all such information provides a reasonable basis upon which we could form our opinion and we express no view as to any such information or the assumptions or bases therefor. Among other things, such information has assumed that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic could have an adverse impact, which has been assumed to be limited, on TCF and Huntington. We have relied on all such information without independent verification or analysis and do not in any respect assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We also have assumed that there have been no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either TCF or Huntington since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity that were made available to us. We are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed, without independent verification and with your consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for TCF and Huntington are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals or physical inspection of the property, assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of TCF or Huntington, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, nor have we examined any individual loan or credit files, nor did we evaluate the solvency, financial capability or fair value of TCF or Huntington under any state or federal laws, including those relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other matters. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and should not be taken as our view of the actual value of any companies or assets.

We have assumed, in all respects material to our analyses, the following: (i) that the Merger and any related transactions (including, without limitation, the Bank Merger) will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement (the final terms of which we have assumed will not differ in any respect material to our analyses from the draft reviewed by us and referred to above), with no adjustments to the Exchange Ratio and with no other consideration or payments in respect of TCF Common Stock; (ii) that the representations and warranties of each party in the Agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the Agreement are true and correct; (iii) that each party to the Agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents; (iv) that there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions, any necessary regulatory or governmental approval for the Merger or any related transactions and that all conditions to the completion of the Merger and any related transactions will be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the Agreement or any of the related documents; and (v) that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the Merger and any related transactions, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of TCF, Huntington or the pro forma entity, or the contemplated benefits of the Merger, including without limitation the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the Merger. We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. We have further been advised by representatives of TCF that TCF has relied upon advice from its advisors (other than KBW) or other appropriate sources as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to TCF, Huntington, the Merger and any related transaction and the Agreement. KBW has not provided advice with respect to any such matters.

This opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date hereof, of the Exchange Ratio in the Merger to the holders of TCF Common Stock. We express no view or opinion as to any other terms or aspects of the Merger or any term or aspect of any related transaction (including the Bank Merger), including, without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger or any such related transaction, the treatment of outstanding preferred stock and other securities of TCF in the Merger, any consequences of the Merger or any such related transaction to TCF, its shareholders, creditors or otherwise, or any terms, aspects, merits or implications of any employment, consulting, voting, support, shareholder, charitable giving or other agreements, arrangements or understandings contemplated or entered into in connection with the Merger, any such related transaction, or otherwise. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof. As you are aware, there is currently widespread disruption, extraordinary uncertainty and unusual volatility arising from the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, including the effect of evolving governmental interventions and non-interventions. It is understood that subsequent developments may affect the conclusion reached in this opinion and that KBW does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion does not address, and we express no view or opinion with respect to, (i) the underlying business decision of TCF to engage in the Merger or enter into the Agreement; (ii) the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that are, have been or may be available to or contemplated by TCF or the Board; (iii) the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of TCF's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the holders of TCF Common Stock; (iv) the effect of the Merger or any related transaction on, or the fairness of the consideration to be received by, holders of any class of securities of TCF (other than the holders of TCF Common Stock, solely with respect to the Exchange Ratio as described herein and not relative to the consideration to be received by holders of any other class of securities) or holders of any class of securities of Huntington or any other party to any transaction contemplated by the Agreement; (v) the actual value of Huntington Common Stock to be issued in the Merger; (vi) the prices, trading range or volume at which TCF Common Stock or Huntington Common Stock will trade following the public announcement of the Merger or the prices, trading range or volume at which Huntington Common Stock will trade following the consummation of the Merger; (vii) any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to any of the parties to the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by the Agreement; or (viii) any legal, regulatory, accounting, tax or similar matters relating to TCF, Huntington, their respective shareholders, or relating to or arising out of or as a consequence of the Merger or any related transaction (including the Bank Merger), including whether or not the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes.

This opinion is for the information of, and is directed to, the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Merger. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Board as to how it should vote on the Merger, or to any holder of TCF Common Stock or any shareholder of any other entity as to how to vote in connection with the Merger or any other matter, nor does it constitute a recommendation regarding whether or not any such shareholder should enter into a voting, shareholders', or affiliates' agreement with respect to the Merger or exercise any dissenters' or appraisal rights that may be available to such shareholder.

This opinion has been reviewed and approved by our Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with our policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.
