HUNTINGTON BANCSHARES AND UNIZAN FINANCIAL CORP.
COMPLETE MERGER

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Huntington Bancshares Incorporated (NASDAQ: HBAN; www.huntington.com) and Canton, Ohio-based Unizan Financial Corp. (NASDAQ: UNIZ) today announced that their merger, originally announced January 27, 2004, has been completed.

Under the terms of the amended merger agreement announced November 11, 2004, Unizan shareholders of record as of the close of trading on February 28, 2006, will receive 1.1424 shares of Huntington common stock for each share of Unizan. Based on the $24.05 closing price of Huntington's common stock on February 28, 2006, this represents a price of $27.47 per Unizan share, and values the transaction at $610 million.

“We are very pleased to announce the completion of this merger,” said Thomas E. Hoaglin, chairman, president, and chief executive officer. “We look forward to a smooth transition for all Unizan customers. System conversions are scheduled for late April, which is also when signs on the Unizan banking offices will be changed to Huntington. Unizan customers can immediately access more than 900 Huntington ATMS free of charge. We also welcome the former Unizan associates to the Huntington family and are looking forward to their continued local leadership.”

Forward-looking Statement

This press release contains certain forward-looking statements, including certain plans, expectations, goals, and projections, which are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties. A number of factors, including but not limited to those set forth in Huntington's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, and other factors described from time to time in Huntington's other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, could cause actual conditions, events, or results to differ significantly from those described in the forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements included in this news release are based on information available at the time of the release. Huntington assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement.
